WEEK 5 PREVIEW

CAMPBELL, fresh off a winless three-game homestand, returns to the road with a road contest at BUTLER which returns home after suffering its first shutout since the 2007 season. Last season's meeting between the two teams went to the wire, the Bulldogs winning by a one-touchdown margin. Campbell's Rashaun Brown rushed for 133 yards in last week's loss, but Daniel Polk has a PFL-best seven rushing touchdowns. Butler quarterback Andrew Huck is averaging 183.0 passing yards per game and has six touchdowns, but the Bulldogs have scored just six red zone touchdowns (13 attempts) this season 🏈 DAYTON looks to remain unbeaten at Welcome Stadium this season when it hosts winless VALPARAISO. The Flyers are 3-0 at home this season following its Week 4 victory against Central State. The Crusaders narrowly lost its PFL opener against Drake last week and will look to snap its 10-game PFL losing streak. The Flyers used a 292-yard rushing attack to win against Central State, eight different runners recording a carry. Valparaiso was undone by a pair of missed PATs in a two-point loss to Drake, but the Crusaders offense is still struggling, averaging just 188 yards per game 🏈 MARIST will make its season's first roadtrip, heading to the Midwest for a matchup with DRAKE, which returns home after a three-game roadtrip. The Red Foxes were 1-2 during their season-opening homestand at Tenney Stadium, but lost to Morehead State, last week, in their PFL opener. The Bulldogs went 2-1 on their recent roadtrip, narrowly winning at Valparaiso in their PFL opener last week. Quietly, Marist wideout James LaMacchia leads the PFL receiving corps in both receptions (9.3 pg) and receiving yards (92.3 pg). Drake quarterback Cody Seegar made his first collegiate start at Valparaiso, and completed 15 passes for 106 yards 🏈 The lone matchup of PFL unbeaten teams sees SAN DIEGO travel across the country to meet JACKSONVILLE. Both teams won their PFL openers in convincing fashion, the Dolphins winning by 27 at Davidson while the Toreros posted their first shutout since the 2006 campaign in a victory against Butler. San Diego defensive end Mario Kurn leads the FCS in both tackles for loss (3.0 pg) and quarterback sacks (2.38 pg) and is making an early case for defensive player of the year honors. Jacksonville quarterback Josh McGregor leads all FCS passers with 13 touchdown throws after tossing six at Davidson last week 🏈 MOREHEAD STATE will step out of conference action and will visit Georgia State in the Georgia Dome. The Eagles have gotten three consecutive four-touchdown efforts from quarterback Zach Lewis and are 2-1 in those three games. They visit a Georgia State team that escaped a visit to Campbell with a three-point win.

2010 PIONEER FOOTBALL LEAGUE WEEKLY REPORT

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Josh McGregor, Jacksonville

Junior, Quarterback, Belle Glade, Fla.

McGregor threw for all six touchdowns in Jacksonville's 42-15 PFL victory at Davidson, Saturday. He was 26-of-41 passing (no interceptions) for a career-high 405 yards. McGregor's 84-yard touchdown toss to Elliott Finkley in the second quarter is the fourth-longest pass play in the FCS this season. He also is the first FCS quarterback to throw more than four touchdowns in a single-game this season. In addition, McGregor's 405 passing-yard effort is the fourth-best single-game performance in the FCS.
