Valparaiso (18-21, 8-13 MVC) at Belmont (21-28, 6-15 MVC)

E.S. Rose Park (750) | Nashville, Tenn.

Friday, May 12, 1 p.m. CT – RHP Griffin McCluskey

Saturday, May 13, 2 p.m. CT – RHP Nathan Chasey

Sunday, May 14, 1 p.m. CT – TBD

Next Up in Valpo Baseball: The Valparaiso University baseball program is enjoying its best season since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, but there is still work to be done to secure a place in the 2023 MVC Tournament. For the first time since Valpo joined the league, not every team will advance to the conference tournament, as the top eight clubs from the 10-team league will make the field for the event, which begins on May 23 in Terre Haute. Valpo is currently in seventh place and plays two of the teams behind the Beacons in the standings over the next two weekends, starting with a huge three-game series in Nashville against Belmont, the final three road games of the regular season.

Last Time Out: After dropping two of three to Southern Illinois but earning a key win in Game 1 against the MVC preseason favorites, Valpo used a six-run third inning to defeat Western Michigan 9-6 in Tuesday's nonconference finale at Emory G. Bauer Field. Kyle Schmack collected three of the team's 10 hits, while pitcher Kaleb Krier earned the win with four innings of one-run, three-hit ball.

Following the Beacons: The Friday and Sunday games will air on ESPN+, while the Saturday game will be carried on ESPN3. Links to live video and stats are available on ValpoAthletics.com. For all the latest in Valpo Baseball, follow @ValpoBaseball on Twitter and Instagram.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack (186-288) is in his 10th season in charge of the program. He ranks third in program history in seasons coached and games coached as he entered 2023 having skipped 435 Valpo games. He entered the season with 168 victories, one of four coaches in program history with over 150. The former big-league pitcher led Valpo to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign in 2014, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.

Series Notes: Valpo and Belmont will get together on the baseball diamond for the first time since Feb. 17, 2013 this weekend. Head coach Tracy Woodson's team dropped that game 7-3 in Nashville. That was the second meeting in three days between the two squads as the Bruins also prevailed 4-3 in the 2013 season opener. Belmont picked up home wins over Valpo in 2012 and 2001 as well. The Beacons will look for their first ever win over Belmont as they currently hold an 0-4 all-time mark against one of the three new teams in the Missouri Valley Conference this season.

In the Other Dugout – Belmont

- Picked to finish sixth of 10 in the MVC preseason poll.
- Won nearly 40 games last season, going 39-20 with an 18-6 Ohio Valley Conference record.
- Reached the title game of the OVC Tournament last year before falling to SEMO.
- Started this season at 5-1 in Valley play with a series win over Illinois State and a sweep of Evansville, but are just 1-14 in their last 15 league games.
- Were swept by UIC last weekend in Chicago before dropping a midweek home game to Lipscomb 8-7.

Program Progress

- Valpo currently has 18 wins, recently surpassing the team's win total of 16 that was reached each of the last two seasons.
- With the 9-8 victory over Southern Illinois on May 5, Valpo secured its highest overall win total since the 2018 campaign.
- The team's highest overall win total comes despite the fact that six games have been called off due to poor weather.
- With the team's next win, Valpo will tie its 2017 overall win total of 19.
- Two more wins would give the Beacons their first 20-win season since joining the Missouri Valley Conference prior to the 2017 campaign.
- If the season ended now, Valpo's current overall winning percentage would mark the program's best since 2016.
- Valpo needs one more conference win to match and two to surpass its highest conference win total since joining the league.
- Valpo is on pace to secure its highest conference-only winning percentage since joining the league.
- If Valpo qualifies for the MVC Tournament, that would also represent the first time the program has finished ahead of more than one team in the conference standings since joining the league. The team finished seventh of eight in 2018 and 2019 and eighth of eight in 2021 and 2022. There was no MVC play in 2020 due to COVID-19.

Talkin' Schmack

- Head coach Brian Schmack is one win away from tying and two from surpassing his predecessor Tracy Woodson for third on Valpo's all-time wins list.
- Entering the Belmont series, Schmack owns 186 career wins, while Woodson is third in program history at 187.
- With two more victories, Schmack would sit behind only Paul Twenge (1986-2006, 378) and the legendary Emory G. Bauer (1954-1981, 359) on Valpo's all-time wins list.

Terre Haute Quest

- At 8-13, Valpo sits in seventh place in a 10-team league in which the top eight teams qualify for the MVC Tournament, which begins on Tuesday, May 23 in Terre Haute.
- Valpo plays the two teams that are nipping at its heels in the MVC standings over the next two weekends, visiting ninth-place Belmont (6-15) before hosting seventh-place Illinois State (7-14).
- If Valpo wins both remaining series, the Beacons are guaranteed to qualify for the MVC Tournament.
- Valpo still has work to do as its current Valley win total of eight is guaranteed to not be enough to make the conference tournament for the Beacons based on the remaining schedule.
- D1Baseball.com's MVC scoreboard will get plenty of page views at ballparks around the league – and perhaps even in a few dugouts – this weekend as team's battle for Valley tournament seeding. Valpo will especially keep a close eye on the UIC at Illinois State series, while also having some investment in Bradley's three-game set at Evansville.

Notes Wrapping Up May 9: Valpo 9, Western Michigan 6

- Kyle Schmack had a three-hit game, his second of the season, matching his season high in the hit column that was set on April 8 at Evansville.
- Schmack's three RBIs marked his highest single-game total since four on Feb. 26 at UT Martin. He had a walk and two runs scored to go along with his big day that featured a pair of doubles.
- Jake Skrine had a triple, his first in a Valpo uniform.
- Valpo extended its head-to-head winning streak against Western Michigan to five.
- The Beacons improved to 10-0 when scoring nine runs or more this season.

Beacon Blasts

- Valpo has launched 40 home runs this season, one shy of moving into a tie with the 2018 campaign for the fifth most in program history.
- The Beacons are two big flies away from owning the program's highest single-season home run total since 2002.
- Valpo is in position to have its highest single-season home run total during the BBCOR bat era that began in 2011.

Other Record Book Watches

- The Beacons are also reaching base at a high clip, as the team's .386 on-base percentage is positioned to be its highest in over 20 years. If the season ended today, that mark would rank tied for fifth in the program's single-season record book.
- Valpo owns a .975 fielding percentage for the season, in line to shatter the program record of .973 set in 2018.

Maka-ing Good Things Happen

- Ryan Maka has hit safely in his last 12 games, and has recorded multiple hits in eight of those contests.
- Of the eight multi-hit games during that stretch, five of them have been three-hit outputs.
- Entering the second game of the doubleheader on April 15 at Bradley, Maka was hitting .268 for the season. Since then, he is hitting .521 to go along with a .564 OBP and .875 slugging percentage, leading the team in all three slash-line categories in that stretch.
- Of his 25 hits during those 11 games, nine have gone for extra bases, including four home runs. He has totaled 42 bases and driven in 19 runs while scoring 14.
- Maka has made his way onto the league-leaders page in batting average, as his team-best average of .352 ranks third in The Valley.

Grand Salami Time

- Valpo has three grand slams this season, with Ryan Maka owning two of them.
- Maka's first slam came on April 2 vs. Murray State and his second was May 5 vs. Southern Illinois. Brady Renfro also has a grand slam, which occurred on March 10 at No. 22 Southern Miss.
- Prior to Renfro's bases-loaded big fly, no Valpo player had turned the trick since 2019 (Sam Shaikin).
- There have been 11 grand slams since Brian Schmack took over as Valpo head coach in 2014, and Maka in the first player with two in that time.
- Maka is the first Valpo player since at least 2006 with two career grand slams.
- This marks the first time since at least 2006 that Valpo has slugged three grand slams as a team in the same season.

Back on the Bump

- In the top of the ninth of the May 7 game vs. Southern Illinois, Trent Turzenski logged his first inning of the season.
- The right-hander saw his first action since April 1, 2022 at UIC, when he went down with an elbow injury. He went over 13 months in between game action after undergoing Tommy John UCL reconstruction surgery.
- Turzenski, who was the Friday starting pitcher last season at the time of his injury, faced the minimum with help from a double play and worked a scoreless frame in his return to the bump against SIU.

Notes Wrapping Up Southern Illinois (May 5-7)

- Valpo's 9-8 win over the Salukis on May 5 helped the team improve to 9-0 when scoring nine runs or more this season.
- Valpo played its ninth one-run game of the season and improved to 6-3 in such contests.
- The win in the series opener helped Valpo improve to 7-1 all-time against SIU at Emory G. Bauer Field, but the Salukis rallied to win each of the next two games.
- The win in the series opener was Valpo's first against the MVC preseason favorite since 2018. Valpo had dropped 13 straight against teams picked to win the league since beating DBU during the 2018 campaign.
- Alex Thurston and Alex Ryan both had a season-high four hits in Sunday's series finale. For Ryan, the four hits represented a career high.

Olive Branches

- After starting the season with a .217 average over the first eight games he played, Matt Olive has hit .375 over his last 12 games.
- Six of his 15 hits during that stretch have gone for extra bases including three home runs.
- Olive owns 13 RBIs and 27 total bases during those games, and he's slugging .675 to go along with a .527 on-base percentage.
- Olive had hit safely in 10 straight prior to going 0-for-3 with two walks on May 7 vs. Southern Illinois. He had multiple hits in four of those 10 games.

Schmack Swiping Sacks

- Kyle Schmack has lifted his season stolen base total to 10, which ranks tied for eighth in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Schmack becomes the first Valpo player to reach double figures in the stolen-base column since Chase Dawson back in 2018.
- With one more steal, Schmack would own Valpo's highest single-season stolen base total since 2017, when James Stea swiped 21 bags.

Banged Up Beacons

- Valpo played without four starting position players during its last seven games as third baseman Kaleb Hannahs, catcher Kade Reinertson, outfielder Spencer Warfield and first baseman Brady Renfro have all been sidelined.
- Furthermore, Valpo has been without two potential weekend starting pitchers as Connor Lockwood went down with a season-ending injury and Trent Turzenski recently logged his first inning of the season after being sidelined.
- OF/1B Kyle Schmack, DH/OF Matt Olive and DH/C Jake Skrine have all either missed games or left a game early during this recent injury-riddled stretch.

Storybook Moment (Minus the Fairytale Ending)

- The series opener at Missouri State on Friday, April 28 was all but over with two outs and nobody on base in the ninth inning and the lower third of the Valpo batting order due up with the Beacons trailing 3-0.
- Back-to-back walks to the No. 7 and No. 8 hitters set the stage for redshirt freshman Patrick Ilitch, who was inserted into the starting lineup less than an hour before game time due to an injury-related scratch and had just two career at-bats prior to the game.
- Ilitch – whose family owns Little Caesars Pizza, the Detroit Tigers and the Detroit Red Wings – delivered by smacking his first career home run to left, leveling the score at three.
- Missouri State eventually won on a walk-off home run in the 10th.

Notes Wrapping Up Missouri State

- Valpo out-hit Missouri State 8-7 in the series opener, but incurred the team's sixth loss of the season when out-hitting the opponent. Seven of the eight hits were singles, with the lone exception the game-tying home run by Patrick Ilitch in the ninth inning.
- Valpo played its eighth one-run game of the year in the series opener, dropping to 5-3 in such contests.
- The series opener was the team's fourth extra-inning contest of the year and its first extra-inning defeat.
- Matt Olive hit his fifth home run of the season and the seventh of his career in the windy series finale.
- Kyle Schmack worked four walks in the series finale, becoming the first Valpo player to reach four times via the base on balls in the same game since Spencer Mahoney on April 2, 2014 vs. Northern Illinois.

Renfro's Impressive Streak Snapped

- Brady Renfro reached base in the first 30 games of the 2023 season before his streak was snapped on April 22 vs. UIC.
- He became the first Valpo player to reach in 20 straight since Kaleb Hannahs did so in the final 20 games of the 2021 season.
- On April 9 at Evansville, Renfro surpassed Sam Shaikin's 23 games from 2017.
- Renfro owned Valpo's longest on-base streak since Nolan Lodden reached safely in 34 straight in 2016.

Weekly Awards Sweep

- Valpo earned its first sweep of the Missouri Valley Conference weekly awards since joining the league when Jake Skrine was named MVC Player of the Week and Bobby Nowak was tabbed MVC Pitcher of the Week on Monday, April 17.
- The last time Valpo swept the weekly awards in any conference was May 16, 2016, when Jake Hanson was named Horizon League Batter of the Week and Ellis Foreman achieved Horizon League Pitcher of the Week status.
- Skrine became the fourth member of the program to win MVC Player of the Week honors since joining the league and the first this season. He joined Sam Shaikin, Kaleb Hannahs and Nolan Tucker.

- Nowak became the third Beacon to earn MVC Pitcher of the Week this season, joining Jacob Rosenkranz and Connor Lockwood. Prior to this year, Valpo had won MVC Pitcher of the Week accolades on four occasions since joining the league – Jake Miller, Colin Fields (twice) and Easton Rhodehouse.

Beacon Brooms + Blanking the Braves

- The three-game road sweep at Bradley April 14-15 marked the program's first road sweep of a league series since joining the Missouri Valley Conference. Valpo's last sweep of a road conference series of three games or more was March 18-20, 2016 at Northern Kentucky.
- It was the first time Valpo swept a conference series in any location since taking all three from Southern Illinois on May 10-12, 2019 at Emory G. Bauer Field.
- The exclamation mark on the series was a 10-0 win in the finale, Valpo's first shutout of the season and first since March 25, 2022 vs. St. Bonaventure, a game decided by the identical score of 10-0.
- The 10-0 triumph marked Valpo's most lopsided league victory since joining the Missouri Valley Conference. The seven-inning win marked the first time Valpo implemented the 10-run rule since joining the league prior to the 2018 season.
- That was also Valpo's first shutout in a league game since joining The Valley. The team's last shutout win in conference play was April 23, 2017 vs. Wright State.

Strong Start

- Valpo stood at 7-6 through 13 games. That marked the program's best record at this juncture of the season since Paul Twenge's group won eight of its first 13 in 1997.
- Through nine games, the Valpo baseball program was off to its best start since Bruce Springsteen, Madonna and way before Nirvana as the team's 6-3 record was its best at this point in the season since 1985. Head coach Rick Ferchen's team began 1985 with a 7-2 mark through nine games.
- The highlight of the sizzling start was a five-game winning streak that was snapped in Sunday's series finale at Little Rock. That marked the team's longest winning streak since recording six straight from May 15-25, 2016. That stretch featured wins over Oakland, Youngstown State and Northern Kentucky.

Top-25 Triumph

- Valpo was recognized by D1Baseball as one of three "Upsets of the Night" on March 10 after beating No. 22 Southern Miss 6-1 in the series opener.
- The victory snapped the team's skid of 15 straight losses against nationally-ranked opponents and marked the team's first victory over a top-25 foe since beating No. 25 Illinois on April 17, 2018.
- At No. 22, Southern Miss was the highest ranked team that Valpo has defeated since a win over No. 9 Arizona State on April 21, 2013.
- Southern Miss entered the game ranked No. 22 by Baseball America, the NCBWA and D1Baseball, while ranking No. 24 in the coaches' poll and No. 30 according to Collegiate Baseball.

- The Golden Eagles were the preseason favorites to win the Sun Belt Conference and won an NCAA Regional last season before falling to Ole Miss in the Super Regional. They own a streak of six straight 40-win seasons, the longest such streak in Division-I Baseball.

- Southern Miss swept former Missouri Valley Conference member (and powerhouse) Dallas Baptist the weekend prior to dropping the game to the Beacons.

Outdueling An All-American

- In the 6-1 victory at No. 22 Southern Miss on March 10, Valpo handed 2022 consensus All-American starting pitcher Tanner Hall the loss. He went six innings and allowed two runs on six hits while walking two and striking out five.

- Hall was outdueling Valpo starting pitcher Jacob Rosenkranz, who yielded one run on just two hits in six innings to pick up the win. He walked only one and notched three strikeouts, needing only 60 pitches to get through six frames.

- The win marked the second of Rosenkranz's career, with both coming this season. His prior victory occurred on Feb. 26 at UT Martin.

- Rosenkranz was making the second start of his collegiate career and his first of the season. This one had a far different result than his first collegiate start, which came way back on March 14, 2021 at Middle Tennessee. In that outing, he did not record an out and was charged with three runs on one hit while walking two.

- After Rosenkranz was lifted, Ryan Mintz did the rest, working in and out of trouble over three scoreless innings to nail down his first career save.

- Thanks to his standout showing on the mound in the win over the Eagles, Rosenkranz was named MVC Pitcher of the Week on March 13. He became the second Valpo pitcher to earn an MVC weekly award this season, joining Connor Lockwood. They join Jake Miller, Colin Fields (twice) and Easton Rhodehouse as the only Valpo hurlers to achieve MVC Pitcher of the Week status since the program joined the league.

valPROS

- Valpo's program produced a pair of pitchers who went on to continue their careers in professional organizations following the 2022 spring.

- Left-hander Jake Miller was selected with the 237th overall pick in the eighth round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Detroit Tigers. He became Valpo's first draft choice since Scott Kapers was selected in the 17th round of the 2018 draft by the Texas Rangers.

- Miller was Valpo's highest draft choice since 2010, when Kyle Gaedele went to the San Diego Padres in the sixth round. The New York native was the highest Missouri Valley Conference pitcher taken in the 2022 draft.

- Miller made his professional debut by pitching in five games in 2022 for the Lakeland Flying Tigers of the Class-A Florida State League.

- Right-hander Colin Fields was signed by the Tigers as an undrafted free agent following the 2022 draft.

- Miller and Fields are part of a long list of Tiger ties within Valpo's program. Valpo legend Lloyd McClendon was on the Tigers big league coaching staff from 2006-2013 and 2017-2020 including a stint as interim manager, former Valpo players Bo McClendon and Dalton Lundeen were also drafted by the Tigers, Valpo head coach Brian Schmack played in the big leagues with the Tigers in 2003 and current Valpo player Patrick Ilitch is the grandson of longtime Tigers owner Michael Ilitch (1992-2017) and the nephew of current owner Christopher Ilitch (2017-present).

Who's Back, Who's Gone, Who's New?

- The Valpo offense is loaded with returning talent in 2023 as 82.7 percent of the team's hits from last season came from players who are back for the 2023 campaign. The top six Beacons in terms of batting average return and 11 of the 15 position players who saw action a year ago are back with the program.

- Relievers Nathan Chasey and Bobby Nowak are back after posting the club's top two ERAs a year ago, but the top two arms in the week-end rotation – Jake Miller and Colin Fields – were snatched up by the Detroit Tigers.

- Valpo's newcomers include five freshmen (Kyle Tyler, Will Radich, Adam Guazzo, Cole Syversen and Thomas Cooper), two junior college transfers (Josh Spencer and Kaleb Krier) and one four-year transfer (Jake Skrine, Indiana).

Pitching Profiles

Who's Next?

- It's never too early to glance ahead to 2024, as the program has announced four signees for next season, all pitchers.

- Lucas Foley (Deer Park, Ill. / Lake Zurich), Bennett Musser (Round Lake, Ill. / Mundelein), Jake Jakubowski (Lake in the Hills, Ill. / Huntley [Heartland]) and Jack Thompson (Rosemount, Minn. / Rosemount) have signed to join the program for the 2023-2024 academic and athletic year.

- Thoughts from Head Coach Brian Schmack on the Incoming Class: "The goal going into recruiting for the 2023 class was identifying strike throwers who can fit into our pitching philosophy. We think we found four guys who will be able to come in and compete in the zone immediately. We also look at each of the guys and think there is some runway for them physically to be able to gain strength and velocity as they mature and get into our lifting program."

have joined the fold.

• After spending three seasons as a volunteer assistant, Kory Winter was hired as Schmack's top assistant and hitting coach beginning with the 2019 campaign. Winter played collegiately at Wittenberg and has completed coaching stints at Muskingum University and Shippensburg University. He is also Valpo's outfield instructor.

• Jeff Mayes is in his first season on the Valpo coaching staff, serving as the team's infield coach. He spent the previous three seasons on staff at his alma mater Aurora University, a Division-III institution in Illinois, where the program amassed an 83-21 record during his tenure. Prior to that, he enjoyed a standout playing career for the Spartans.

• Trey Matthews joined the staff prior to the 2023 campaign. He serves as the team's catching coach. Matthews grew up in Florida and played at Plant City High School before continuing his playing career at Southern Western University. He transferred to Warner University, where he graduated in 2020 before beginning his coaching career with stints at a Florida high school and at Warner prior to his current role.
