Next Up in Valpo Baseball: After a scheduled off weekend last weekend, the Valparaiso University baseball team will return to the diamond on Friday at Middle Tennessee State. This continues an early-season stretch where three of Valpo's first four opponents are members of Conference USA. The two teams will play four games this weekend including a Saturday doubleheader, a format identical to the one Valpo will use for Missouri Valley Conference series this season.

Last Time Out: Valpo had a scheduled weekend off last weekend after most recently competing Feb. 26-27 at Jacksonville State. The host Gamecocks won all three games, but Valpo had them on the ropes in the opener after tying the game with two runs in the top of the ninth thanks to a clutch two-out hit by Parker Johnson. Jacksonville State walked off with a run in the bottom of the ninth and went on to win both ends of Saturday's twinbill. The one-run loss on Friday was Valpo's first game decided by the slimmest of margins this season.

On the Air: All four games this weekend will air on C-USA TV (subscription required) courtesy of MTSU Athletics. Links to live video, audio and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Series Notes: This weekend marks the first meetings between the two teams. However, Valpo is no stranger to playing against Conference USA clubs as three of the team's first four opponents (UAB, Middle Tennessee State and Western Kentucky) are members of C-USA.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack, the 17th head baseball coach in Valparaiso University history, is in his eighth season in charge of the program. Entering the 2021 season, he has served as the head coach for 336 games at Valpo, the fourth-most in program history with Tracy Woodson third at 397. This year, he moves into a tie for third in program history for number of seasons coached with eight, matching Donald Warnke (1946-1953). Schmack has now been at Valpo longer than his predecessor Woodson, whose seven-year run lasted from 2007-2013. Schmack's win total of 137 ranks fifth in program history, with Rick Ferchen fourth at 147. The former big-league pitcher led Valparaiso to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign in 2014, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. He followed that up with a 22-win season in 2015, then guided the team to its first winning record since 2013 in 2016. In 2017, Schmack continued his success despite managing a youthful roster that featured 11 freshmen and 15 total newcomers. He led his team to 24 wins, including a strong finish to the regular season that saw them win eight of their last 11. The 2018 season saw Valpo transition to the Missouri Valley Conference. The Brown & Gold made an immediate splash in the highly-respected baseball league, putting together a strong showing in the 2018 MVC Tournament, including a 13-10 victory over host Dallas Baptist, a team that went on to receive an at-large NCAA Regional berth. During the 2019 season, Schmack's squad equaled its win total from the year prior despite playing in a conference that was ranked sixth nationally in RPI and sent three teams to NCAA Regionals. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.
