Valparaiso (6-17, 1-11 Horizon) at Wright State (18-5, 10-1 Horizon) Game No. 24 - Thursday, Feb. 9, 2017 - 3 p.m. CT Nutter Center (10,449) – Dayton, Ohio

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team is set to embark upon its first overnight road trip since Jan. 17 when it travels to Dayton, Ohio for a Thursday matinee with Wright State. For the first time this season, the Raiders enter play as the top team in the Horizon League after benefiting from two Green Bay losses last week.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders had the lead with 1:10 to go, but couldn't hold on in a 66-62 loss to Cleveland State on Saturday afternoon at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Jade Ely connected on a crucial 3-pointer to put Cleveland State up 56-55 after she secured an offensive rebound to extend a pivotal possession with just over a minute left. The Vikings held the lead for the remainder of the game, with their final 10 points all coming on free throws. Dani Franklin led the way with a double-double of 26 points and 10 rebounds. The game featured eight ties and 11 lead changes.

Following the Crusaders: Thursday's game and every game for the remainder of the season will be available on ESPN3, WatchESPN and the ESPN app. In addition, audio can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso, WVUR with Brandon Vickrey (play-by-play) and Ben Ariano (color commentary) providing the hometown call. Links to live video, audio and stats can be found on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow is in her fifth season at the helm of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in 2016-17. She collected her 250th career victory on Nov. 14, 2014 with a 91-57 win over Butler. In her first season, Dorow led the Crusaders to 11 victories, including five in Horizon League play. Last year, Valpo again reached a double-figure win total by notching 10 triumphs, including an upset of Detroit Mercy in the Horizon League Tournament. Dorow arrived in Valparaiso after 14 seasons at Ferris State. She compiled a 232-163 record while with the Bulldogs. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in all of Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season as well as the No. 2 ranking in 2002-03.

Series Notes: Wright State owns a 17-12 lead in the all-time series between the two teams, which dates back to 1990. The Raiders have strung together nine consecutive victories since the most recent Crusader win on March 1, 2012, a 70-60 triumph at the ARC. In the first meeting of the season on Jan. 22 in Valpo, the Crusaders jumped out to a 16-6 lead after one quarter, but the Raiders prevailed 65-52 despite shooting just 29.9 percent. Chelsea Welch led all scorers with 19, while the Crusaders were paced by Haylee Thompson's 15. The Crusaders have not won at the Nutter Center since joining the Horizon League (0-8). Their last win in Dayton came on Jan. 27, 1994.

Worth Noting

- With her performance on Saturday, Dani Franklin cracked into Valpo's Top 10 in single-season scoring and career scoring. Franklin now has 429 points this season, bumping Betsy Rietema (2006-2007) out of the single-season Top 10. She needs nine points to move into ninth, 15 to move into eighth and 28 to move into seventh.
- Franklin knocked Tamra Braun (2003-2007) out of Valpo's Top 10 in career scoring.
- As a team, Valpo made 16 free throws on Saturday against Cleveland State, their highest total since Dec. 29 against Detroit Mercy.
- The Crusaders have strung together four straight games with over 40 rebounds for the first time this season. The last time they had four straight games with over 40 boards was the final four games of the 2014-15 season.
- The Crusaders will play the first-place team in the league for the third time this season. Valpo played Green Bay twice when the Phoenix were atop the league standings, now they play Wright State with the Raiders holding the top spot.
- Former Valpo head coach Keith Freeman is in his fifth year on Wright State's staff. He was promoted to associate head coach before this season. Freeman was the head coach of the Crusaders for 18 years.
- The Crusaders have cracked into the top three in the league in field goal percentage defense at 39.7.
- With her next block, Amber Lindfors will become the first player in Valpo history to notch two 50-block seasons. She finished last year with 71 blocks, the second-highest single-season total in Valpo history.

Historical Tidbits

- In its 45th season, Valpo is 518-623 all-time.
- Valpo has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2002-03, 2003-04) and earned one WNIT berth (2001-02).
- The Crusaders have had more all-freshman team honorees in the last two years (3) than they did in the previous 12 seasons combined (2).
- Valpo reached double-figure wins for the first time since 2012-2013 a year ago with 10 victories. They also captured five league wins for the first time since '12-13.
- Valpo has seven players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. The last time Valpo had that many players measure in at 6-foot or taller was the 2010-11 season.
- The five freshmen are also Valpo's most since 2010-11.
- Since joining the Horizon League in 2007-08, Valpo is 49-108.

- Valpo has had one first team all-league selection (Launa Hochstetler, 2008-09) and two second team all-league players (Agnieszka Kulaga, 2007-08; Tabitha Gerardot, 2012-13).

- Valpo also boasts five representatives on the all-newcomer team (Lauren Kenney, 2008-09; Gerardot, 2010-11; Dani Franklin, 2014-15; Jasmyn Walker, 2014-15; Meredith Hamlet 2015-16), an all-defensive team member (Laura Richards, 2011-12), one Freshman of the Year (Franklin, 2014-15) and one Sixth Player of the Year (Franklin, 2014-15).

Inside the Raiders

- Have won nine straight games and – for the first time all season – enter Thursday in sole possession of first place in the Horizon League.
- Coming off a 67-47 victory over Northern Kentucky on Saturday.
- On their longest winning streak in 30 years as a Division-I program. The overall school record for longest winning streak is 13, set during the 1986-87 season.
- Picked to finish fifth in the Horizon League preseason poll.
- Went 24-11 and 12-6 in league play a year ago. Fell to Milwaukee in the Horizon League semifinals before losing 81-53 to Michigan in the first round of the WNIT.
- Antania Hayes, who tore her ACL in the first game of the Horizon League Tournament last season, has appeared in nine games this season, including the last three contests. She is back in action after sitting out the last time the Crusaders and Raiders faced off.
- Hurt by the loss of Richelle van der Keijl, who transferred to play her senior season under former Wright State head coach Mike Bradbury at New Mexico.
- Boosted by the addition of Chelsea Welch, who transferred from Pittsburgh and has two seasons of eligibility after sitting out 2015-16. She leads the team in scoring at 17.9 points per game, fourth in the league.
- Wright State has two of the top four rebounders in the conference. Lexi Smith gobbles up 9.0 rebounds per game (third), while Symone Simmons hauls in 8.5 per contest (fourth).
- The Raiders do a good job taking care of the ball, as they rank first in the league in turnover margin at +4.9. They also rank second in the Horizon League in scoring defense (61.8) and rebounding offense (40.0 rpg).

Wright State Head Coach Katrina Merriweather

- In her first season in charge of the Raiders.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

5th Season

271-269 overall, 39-106 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. She enters her fifth season with a 33-90 record at the helm of the Crusader basketball program. For her career, Dorow is 265-253.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich. where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
