Detroit Mercy (14-11, 10-4 Horizon) at Valparaiso (7-19, 2-13 Horizon) Game No. 27 - Saturday, Feb. 18, 2017 - 1:30 p.m. CT Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will try to get back on track on Saturday afternoon as it welcomes Detroit Mercy to the Athletics-Recreation Center. Both squads are attempting to bounce back after the Titans suffered a surprising 63-62 loss to UIC on Thursday night in Chicago.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders made 13 first-quarter turnovers on Thursday night in an eventual 98-60 loss to Oakland. The tone was established early when the Grizzlies led 29-13 after one quarter and had scored 20 of their 29 points off turnovers. Freshman Grace Hales was the only Crusader in double figures with 11 points, while fellow rookie Maya Meredith chipped in seven points and four assists, both career watermarks.

Following the Crusaders: Saturday's game and every game for the remainder of the season can be seen on ESPN3, WatchESPN and the ESPN app. In addition, a live radio broadcast will be available on 95.1 FM Valparaiso, WVUR. Links to live video, audio and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow is in her fifth season at the helm of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in 2016-17. She collected her 250th career victory on Nov. 14, 2014 with a 91-57 win over Butler. In her first season, Dorow led the Crusaders to 11 victories, including five in Horizon League play. Last year, Valpo again reached a double-figure win total by notching 10 triumphs, including an upset of Detroit Mercy in the Horizon League Tournament. Dorow arrived in Valparaiso after 14 seasons at Ferris State. She compiled a 232-163 record while with the Bulldogs. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in all of Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season as well as the No. 2 ranking in 2002-03.

Series Notes: The two teams faced off on Dec. 29 for this season's Horizon League opener, a game that saw Detroit Mercy outscore Valpo 30-6 in the third quarter and win the game 85-60. The Crusaders limited Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Rosanna Reynolds to seven points and no made field goals, her first game without a made field goal since her freshman season. However, Brianne Cohen paced the Titans with 22 points, while Anja Marinkovic poured in 16 off the bench. The Crusaders were plagued by 19 turnovers. That win allowed the Titans to boost their edge in the all-time series to 16-10. Valpo knocked off Detroit Mercy 94-91 in last year's Horizon League quarterfinals.

Motor City Madness Bracket Watch: With only three regular season games remaining, the picture for next month's Horizon League Tournament in Detroit is becoming clearer. The Crusaders are now locked into a first-round game on Friday, March 3 as they will finish somewhere between seventh and 10th. The No. 7 seed will play the No. 10 seed, while the No. 8 and 9 seeds square off. The Crusaders are tied with UIC for ninth with one meeting between the two teams remaining. The Crusaders are two games in back of eighth-place Northern Kentucky and three behind seventh-place Youngstown State.

Worth Noting

- Dani Franklin has 467 points this season, ranking sixth in program history. She needs four points to pass Debbie Bolen's 1990-91 season for fifth and 15 to pass Tabitha Gerardot's 2012-13 season for fourth.
- Franklin ranks 10th in program history in career scoring with 1,144 points.
- Amber Lindfors has 18 blocked shots over the last four games, recording four or more in each of those contests, her first such stretch in her collegiate career.
- Lindfors didn't have 12 or more rebounds in any of her first 20 games against Division I teams this season, and has now done so in three consecutive contests.
- The Crusaders have grabbed 40 or more rebounds in seven straight games. Last season, Valpo didn't have 40 or more rebounds in any of its final eight regular season games.
- The 25 turnovers on Thursday was Valpo's highest total since Jan. 5 against Green Bay. The Crusaders had limited the turnovers to below 20 in five straight games before Thursday.
- Valpo had just three steals on Thursday, its lowest total in Horizon League play and second-lowest total overall this season. The Crusaders notched just one steal against Bradley on Dec. 19.
- Valpo assistant coach John Motherwell coached at Detroit Mercy during the 2013-14 season.

Historical Tidbits

- In its 45th season, Valpo is 519-625 all-time.
- Valpo has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2002-03, 2003-04) and earned one WNIT berth (2001-02).
- The Crusaders have had more all-freshman team honorees in the last two years (3) than they did in the previous 12 seasons combined (2).
- Valpo reached double-figure wins for the first time since 2012-2013 a year ago with 10 victories. They also captured five league wins for the first time since '12-13.
- Valpo has seven players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. The last time Valpo had that many players measure in at 6-foot or taller was the 2010-11 season.

- The five freshmen are also Valpo's most since 2010-11.
- Since joining the Horizon League in 2007-08, Valpo is 49-108.
- Valpo has had one first team all-league selection (Launa Hochstetler, 2008-09) and two second team all-league players (Agnieszka Kulaga, 2007-08; Tabitha Gerardot, 2012-13).
- Valpo also boasts five representatives on the all-newcomer team (Lauren Kenney, 2008-09; Gerardot, 2010-11; Dani Franklin, 2014-15; Jasmyn Walker, 2014-15; Meredith Hamlet 2015-16), an all-defensive team member (Laura Richards, 2011-12), one Freshman of the Year (Franklin, 2014-15) and one Sixth Player of the Year (Franklin, 2014-15).

Inside the Titans

- Picked to finish second in the Horizon League behind only Green Bay this year after being projected seventh before the 2015-16 campaign.
- Led in scoring by Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Rosanna Reynolds, who averages 16.6 points per game, sixth in the league.
- Top rebounder is Haleigh Ristovski, who pulls down 7.5 boards per game.
- Ristovski is one rebound shy of fifth in Detroit Mercy history with 797 for her career. She needs three rebounds to become the first player in school history with 800 points, 800 rebounds and 300 assists.
- Reynolds will shatter Detroit Mercy's all-time record for games started if she starts on Saturday, which is expected to be her 123rd career start. Reynolds has started every game in her career.
- Returned all eight letter winners from last season and added five newcomers.
- Suffered an unlikely 63-62 loss at UIC on Thursday night. That was UIC's second Horizon League win and first since defeating the Crusaders. The game was a thriller as Detroit Mercy trailed by as many as 11 in the fourth quarter and came back to take the lead with 20 seconds remaining. UIC's Terri Bender was fouled with 3.2 seconds left and made a pair of free throws to put the Flames up 63-62. Brianne Cohen had a chance for the win in the final seconds, but her layup attempt was too strong and her follow-up try was off the mark as well as time expired.
- Snapped a four-game winning streak with Thursday's defeat.
- Looking to avoid losing back-to-back games for the fifth time this season.

Detroit Mercy Head Coach Bernard Scott

- In his second season in charge of the program after leading the team to a 15-15 mark and fourth-place finish a year ago.
- Led the Titans to an 11-7 league record despite playing most of the season with just eight players.
- Led his team to its first 10-win league season since 2011-12. The

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

5th Season

272-271 overall, 40-108 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. She enters her fifth season with a 33-90 record at the helm of the Crusader basketball program. For her career, Dorow is 265-253.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich. where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
