Valparaiso (9-20, 4-14) vs. Youngstown State (9-20, 5-13) Game No. 30 - Friday, March 3, 2017 - 1:30 p.m. CT Joe Louis Arena (26,066) – Detroit, Mich.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: After a solid finish to the regular season, the Valparaiso University women's basketball team will try to keep its positive momentum going as it begins the Horizon League Tournament on Friday afternoon in Detroit. The Crusaders face off with Youngstown State, a team against whom Valpo split the two regular season matchups. This game will be the second of 18 Horizon League men's and women's basketball games that will take place at Joe Louis Arena over a five-day stretch.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders concluded the regular season by leading from nearly start to finish in a 72-63 victory over UIC on Senior Day at the Athletics-Recreation Center. The win allowed the Crusaders to lock down the No. 9 seed in the Horizon League Tournament, while UIC finished 10th in the league standings. Six Crusaders came off the bench and made two or more field goals in a balanced effort. Dani Franklin paced the team with 24 points. The Crusaders dominated the first half, starting with a 17-0 run to take a 22-5 lead.

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game will be broadcast on ESPN3 with Andy Masur (play-by-play) and Kelley Deyo (color commentary). The hometown call can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso, with David Horak (play-by-play) and Renee Turpa (color commentary). Links to live audio, video and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow is in her fifth season at the helm of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in 2016-17. She collected her 250th career victory on Nov. 14, 2014 with a 91-57 win over Butler. In her first season, Dorow led the Crusaders to 11 victories, including five in Horizon League play. Last year, Valpo again reached a double-figure win total by notching 10 triumphs, including an upset of Detroit Mercy in the Horizon League Tournament. Dorow arrived in Valparaiso after 14 seasons at Ferris State. She compiled a 232-163 record while with the Bulldogs. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in all of Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season as well as the No. 2 ranking in 2002-03.

Series Notes: The Penguins hold a 25-16 lead in the all-time series between the two teams. Youngstown State has won eight of the last 10 meetings. The Crusaders are 2-2 against the Penguins over the last two years. They split this year's head-to-head meetings, with Valpo falling 76-70 on Jan. 14 in Youngstown before prevailing 77-60 in the Feb. 2 showdown at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Youngstown State did play without Horizon League Freshman of the Year Mary Dunn in the game Valpo won as she was sidelined by an injury. However, the Crusaders were banged up as well, as they played without Meredith Hamlet and Haylee Thompson. Amber Lindfors had a double-double of 22 points and 11 rebounds in Valpo's first league win of the season. The first meeting saw Alison Smolinski go off in the second half for 17 of her team-high 19 points. Hamlet matched a career high with 29 points in the Valpo defeat. This is the first time these teams have squared off in the Horizon League Tournament despite the fact that both have been members of the conference since 2007-08. This matchup leaves Cleveland State and Oakland as the only active members of the Horizon League that the Crusaders have not faced in the tournament. Valpo and Youngstown State did meet in the Mid-Continent Conference Tournament twice, both Penguin wins in 1998 and 2000.

Tournament Update: The winner of the game between the Crusaders and Penguins will advance to play Green Bay on Saturday at 10:30 a.m. CT. The winner of that game will take Sunday off before battling the Oakland vs. Milwaukee winner on Monday at noon CT. The championship game will be held on Tuesday at 11 a.m. CT on ESPNU.

Worth Noting

- Valpo defeated four teams in the second meeting of the year after dropping the first matchup. This is the first time since joining the Horizon League that the Crusaders have avenged earlier defeats to four teams in one season.
- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9, before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two. Green Bay had the worst comparison, as they had a three win drop-off from the first round to second round of league play.
- The Crusaders have just two seniors on their roster and are expected to retain 92.1 percent of their scoring for the 2017-2018 season, second in the Horizon League behind only Wright State (96.8 percent).
- The Crusaders have had good success in the Horizon League Tournament, as they've captured wins in four of the last five seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team earlier this week, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- Amber Lindfors became the first Crusader since 2011-12 to make the all-defensive team. The Crusaders had an all-league honoree and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- Franklin enters the tournament third on Valpo's all-time single-season scoring list at 526 points. Debbie Bolen holds the top two spots with 550 in 1992-93 and 638 in 1991-92.
- Franklin enters the tournament with 1,203 career points, ninth in program history. Marlous Nieuwveen (1998-2002) and Tabitha Gerardot (2010-13) are tied for seventh at 1,217, with Stephanie Greer in sixth at 1,224.
- If her average holds, Franklin's 18.1 points per game would be the fifth-highest single-season scoring average in program history and the highest in the last 23 years.
- Franklin has made 186 field goals this season, fourth in program history.
- Franklin is currently shooting 87.3 percent at the free throw line. If she stays above 85.1, her mark will rank second in program history. Agnieszka Kulaga set Valpo's free-throw percentage record in 2008-09 at 88.6.
- Hannah Schaub has 123 assists this season, 10th in program history. She's two away from Katie Boone's 2003-04 season for ninth and six away from Jessica Carr's 2014-15 season for eighth.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).
- Lindfors has 65 blocked shots and needs two more to move into a tie for third in program history for blocked shots in a single season. Tamra Braun had 67 blocks in 2004-05, while Lindfors already holds second in program history after notching 71 blocks last year.

Historical Tidbits

- In its 45th season, Valpo is 521-626 all-time.
- Valpo has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2002-03, 2003-04) and earned one WNIT berth (2001-02).
- The Crusaders have had more all-freshman team honorees in the last two years (3) than they did in the previous 12 seasons combined (2).
- Valpo reached double-figure wins for the first time since 2012-2013 a year ago with 10 victories. They also captured five league wins for the first time since 2012-13.
- Valpo has seven players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. The last time Valpo had that many players measure in at 6-foot or taller was the 2010-11 season.
- The five freshmen are also Valpo's most since 2010-11.
- Valpo has had one first-team all-league selection (Launa Hochstetler, 2008-09) and three second team all-league players (Agnieszka Kulaga, 2007-08; Tabitha Gerardot, 2012-13; Dani Franklin 2016-17).
- Valpo also boasts five representatives on the all-newcomer team (Lauren Kenney, 2008-09; Gerardot, 2010-11; Dani Franklin, 2014-15; Jasmyn Walker, 2014-15; Meredith Hamlet 2015-16), two all-defensive team member (Laura Richards, 2011-12; Amber Lindfors, 2016-17), one Freshman of the Year (Franklin, 2014-15) and one

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

5th Season

273-273 overall, 42-109 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. She enters her fifth season with a 33-90 record at the helm of the Crusader basketball program. For her career, Dorow is 265-253.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich. where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
