Valparaiso (7-14, 5-5 MVC) Game #22 - February 6, 2022 - 2 p.m. at UNI (14-6, 6-2 MVC) McLeod Center (6,650) - Cedar Falls, Iowa

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: Fresh off a road victory at Drake on Friday evening, the Valpo women's basketball team goes for a weekend sweep in Iowa on Sunday afternoon as the Beacons head to Cedar Falls for a 2 p.m. matinee against UNI.

Previously: Valpo finished off a season sweep of Drake and earned the first win in program history on the road over the Bulldogs, going into the Knapp Center and handing Drake a 72-65 defeat on Friday evening. Grace White led the way for the Beacons, who overcame a double-figure deficit to earn a win for the third time during conference play, with 20 points, 11 rebounds and six steals.

Head Coach Mary Evans: Mary Evans is in her fourth year at the helm of the program in 2021-22 and owns a record of 44-63. Evans has made an immediate impact on the program in her first three years, raising the team's level of play to be competitive in a strong Missouri Valley Conference. Evans' preferred style of play has been a big part of the program's turnaround, as Valpo has led the MVC in 3-pointers made per game and in steals per game in each of the last two seasons.

Series Notes: UNI holds an 8-5 advantage in the all-time series over Valpo, most of which has been contested since Valpo joined the MVC. But the Beacons have won three of the last four matchups between the two programs, albeit all of those have been played at the ARC. January saw Valpo claim a thrilling come-from-behind victory over the Panthers, overcoming a 13-point deficit in the fourth quarter and taking its first lead of the game with 1:15 to play in a 60-58 win. Olivia Brown led all players with 18 points in the victory, while Shay Frederick notched 13 points and a team-best five assists.

@ValpoWBB...

...and @ValleyHoops

- Valpo has been picked to finish in sixth place in the MVC preseason poll, totaling 208 points - just one point shy of fifth place.
- Valpo is in its fifth season as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.
- The Valley was ranked seventh nationally in conference NET in 2020-21 and was eighth nationally in conference RPI in 2019-20.

...looking back at last year

- Valpo posted a 12-13 overall record during the 2020-21 season and went 7-9 in Missouri Valley Conference play.
- Valpo finished the regular season in seventh place in the MVC standings.
- Included among Valpo's 12 victories were wins at Illinois and at Purdue, the program's first Power Five wins since 2012-13.
- Valpo closed the season with a NET of 122 - the program's best final NET/RPI ranking since the 2003-04 campaign.
- Shay Frederick was a First Team All-MVC honoree as she led the Valley in assists and ranked sixth in scoring.
- Carie Weinman earned Honorable Mention All-MVC notice and repeated on the All-Defensive Team as she led the Valley in steals for a second straight season.

...at Drake

- Drake led for most of the first half and pushed its lead to as many as 10 before holding a 39-32 lead at intermission.
- The Beacons went on a 12-3 run over the first four minutes of the second half to take a 44-42 lead, their first lead since the opening minutes of the game.
- The teams vied for control the remainder of the third quarter, as neither squad gained more than a 3-point lead. The Bulldogs led 51-50 with 10 minutes to play.
- Valpo and Drake traded baskets in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter, but after Drake connected on a second-chance basket with 8:27 to play in the game, the Beacons held the Bulldogs off the board for over three minutes. In that stretch, Valpo scored nine straight points — five from Carie Weinman and four from Shay Frederick — to push its advantage to eight points approaching the halfway mark of the quarter.
- Valpo led by as many as nine with 4:05 to play before the Bulldogs made a run to close to within 66-65 with 1:33 to play.
- The teams traded stops before Olivia Brown hit Weinman on a back cut for a layup with 24.9 seconds to play to make it a 3-point game.

Media Relations Information

Requests to cover home women's basketball games should be made at least 48 hours in advance of the game through Aaron Leavitt, Assistant Director of Athletics for Media Relations, via e-mail at Aaron.Leavitt@valpo.edu. Credentials and media seating are available at the ARC for working media only. Updated statistics and notes from both schools will be provided electronically.

During the week, all player and coach interview requests should be directed to Aaron Leavitt. Media planning to attend practice should call ahead to Leavitt to confirm practice time. Game-day interviews prior to the game are not permitted. Coach Evans and requested players will be available following the game.

- Weinman then got it done on the defensive end, coming up with a steal to ensure the Bulldogs would not get a shot to potentially tie the game.
- The win completed Valpo's season sweep of the Bulldogs after having entered the season 0-13 all-time versus Drake.
- Valpo enjoyed its best game of the season from the foul line, hitting a season-best 21 free throws on 84% shooting (21-of-25).
- The Beacons were a +6 in the turnover department, committing just 13 miscues to Drake's 19. More importantly, Valpo came up with 14 steals to tie a season high while the Bulldogs tallied just one steal, leading to a 30-14 advantage in points off turnovers for the Beacons.
- Valpo and Drake were tied on the glass, 35-35, and Valpo grabbed a season-high 13 offensive rebounds. The Beacons limited the Bulldogs to just eight second-chance points.

...at Loyola

- Shay Frederick scored 11 of her game-high 17 points in the first quarter as the score was tied 16-16 at the end of one.
- Loyola out-scored Valpo by seven points apiece in both the second and the third quarters to take control.
- Valpo's 48 points marked its lowest output in MVC play this season. The Beacons shot just 30.6% from the field (15-for-49), also their worst mark in Valley action this year.
- Valpo was just 4-for-23 from the 3-point line on Friday. The Beacons' 17.4% clip from deep matched a season worst in that department.
- Valpo limited Loyola to 38.9% shooting, the second straight opponent it has held under 40% from the field. The Ramblers hit just 5-for-21 from deep as well.
- Grace White tallied 12 points to join Frederick in double figures on the evening and picked up a team-best three steals.

...looking ahead

- Valpo returns home to the ARC next weekend, hosting Bradley on Thursday evening and Illinois State on Saturday afternoon.

...on the road

- Friday marks the 14th of 16 road games for Valpo this season. The Beacons are 3-10 on the road so far this season and 2-4 on the road in MVC play.
- A win on Sunday would give Valpo its third sweep of a road weekend since joining the Valley - Valpo swept a two-game series at Southern Illinois last February, and beat Indiana State and Evansville on the same road trip in January 2020.
- Valpo had finished at or above .500 in each of the last two seasons in true road games, going 6-6 on the road last year and 9-5 in 2019-20.

@UNIwbb

- UNI enters Sunday's game at 14-6 overall and 7-2 in MVC play following a 69-56 home win over Loyola on Friday.
- The Panthers have won four consecutive games since falling at Drake on January 21.
- Sunday's game is the third in a stretch of four home games in seven days for UNI.
- Karli Rucker leads the Panthers, averaging a team-high 13.0 points and 3.4 assists per game, while Kam Finley adds 11.5 points/game.

Accomplishing Firsts

- Valpo has recorded a number of firsts in program history over the first 10 games of conference play.
- The Beacons have registered their first road win over two MVC teams this season, winning for the first time both at Drake and at Bradley.
- Both Drake and Bradley were previously 6-0 at home versus Valpo before this season.
- The win at the Knapp Center completed Valpo's first season sweep of Drake, the program's first two wins ever against the Bulldogs.
- Prior to the Beacons' win at the ARC over Drake earlier this season, the Bulldogs held a 13-0 advantage in the all-time series.
- That leaves Missouri State as the lone program the Beacons have yet to beat since joining the MVC.
- The win over Drake in January also gave Valpo its first sweep of the UNI/Drake weekend in MVC play.
- It is Valpo's fourth sweep of a weekend set since joining the Valley. Valpo previously swept both the home and road Indiana State/Evansville weekends in 2019-20, and took down Southern Illinois twice on back-to-back days last season.

What a Rally

- Three of Valpo's five MVC victories have seen the Beacons overcome double-digit deficits at some point during the game to earn the win.
- Valpo has now rallied from down 10 or more to win 13 times in head coach Mary Evans' four-year tenure at the helm of the program.
- Most recently, last time out at Drake, the Beacons trailed by 10 in the first half before coming back for the victory.
- Valpo's home win over UNI featured a comeback from down 13 in the fourth quarter, tying the program's largest comeback in the final period since the move to quarters — Valpo previously rallied from a 13-point deficit in the fourth quarter in a 66-64 win over Loyola on Jan. 24, 2020.
- Against Evansville, the Beacons trailed by as many as 14 points before picking up the win - it was Valpo's largest comeback overall since the aforementioned Loyola game, which featured a 14-point deficit at one point.

Big Quarters

- Four Beacons have enjoyed big scoring quarters over the last three games.
- In Valpo's win over Evansville, Olivia Brown tripled the Purple Aces' second-quarter scoring output, scoring 12 points to help Valpo turn a nine-point deficit at the end of the first quarter into a nine-point halftime lead.
- Then, in the third quarter, Grace White scored all 13 of her points consecutively in a three-minute stretch as part of a 15-0 Valpo run.
- The 13-point stanza was White's highest-scoring quarter in the Valpo uniform and is the seventh time she has scored 10+ in a quarter at Valpo.
- The 13-point personal run is the largest by a Valpo player in at least five years - Carie Weinman (Western Michigan, Dec. 2020) and Meredith Hamlet (Loyola, February 2018) both had personal 11-0 runs.
- It is the first time since Jan. 31 of last season that Valpo has had multiple players with 10+ point quarters in the same game.
- At Loyola, Shay Frederick dropped 11 points in the first quarter - the 16th time in her Valpo career she has scored 10+ points in a single period.
- Last time out at Drake, Weinman poured in 12 fourth-quarter points, just two points shy of the Bulldogs' team output of 14 points.
- It was the seventh time in Weinman's Valpo career she has scored 10 or more in a quarter.

Milestones Approaching

- With one player - Shay Frederick - having already reached the 1,000-point mark for her collegiate career this season, two other Beacons are approaching the milestone as well.
- Carie Weinman enters Sunday's game with 995 career points after a 15-point effort in the win over Drake.
- 191 of Weinman's points came in one season at Denver, with the other 804 coming in her three seasons at Valpo.
- Weinman is averaging 11.7 points/game in her time at Valpo, tied for seventh-best in program history.
- Meanwhile, Grace White comes into the UNI game with 935 career points after tallying 20 in the win at Drake.
- White scored 277 points in her two years at Denver and is at 658 points in her time at Valpo.

Top 100 Wins

- Valpo has made a habit of knocking off top-100 opponents in MVC play over the last few seasons and has done so three times this year.
- The home win over UNI came over a team which entered the night ranked #46 in NET, and the home victory came over a Drake squad which was #65.
- Most recently, the road win at Drake last time out came over a Bulldogs squad which entered the day at #84.
- Valpo now has eight top-100 NET/RPI wins in Valley action over the last three seasons.
- Prior to its Feb. 16, 2020 win at Illinois State - its first top-100 win in conference play since joining the Valley - Valpo had gone nearly seven years without a top-100 victory.

White Does It All

- Senior Grace White has continued to stuff the stat sheet in her final season in the Brown and Gold, and took it to another level last time out at Drake.
- White finished the game with a team-high 20 points, a career-best 11 rebounds and six steals, also matching a career high.
- White needed just the first 20 minutes to record her third double-double at Valpo, entering halftime with 14 points and 10 rebounds - the first Valpo player since November 2016 to post a double-double in the first half.
- White leads the team in rebounding and steals and ranks second in scoring, assists and blocked shots.
- White leads the Valley in steals (2.7/game) and ranks eighth in rebounding (6.1/game).
- She currently ranks among the top-50 nationally in steals/game as well.

Frederick Moves On Up

- One season after leading the Valley in assists, Shay Frederick again tops the chart this season as she's averaging 4.4 assists/game.
- Frederick is trying to become the first MVC player to lead the conference in assists in consecutive seasons since Caitlin Ingle of Drake did so three straight seasons (2014-15 through 2016-17).
- Frederick has 442 career assists, third-most in program history and just six shy of Katie Boone for second.
- One of 17 players in program history to reach the 1,000-point milestone for her career, Frederick ranks 12th all-time at Valpo with 1,153 career points.

- Frederick is one of just two players in program history with at least 1,000 career points and 400 career assists, and just one of three active MVC players above those marks (Brice Calip, MSU and Karli Rucker, UNI).
- Frederick also is just two triples away from cracking Valpo's top-five in 3-pointers made.

Liv Breaks Out

- Junior Olivia Brown has stood out for the Beacons within MVC play.
- In Valley games, Brown is averaging 11.9 ppg - second on the team - on 48.3% shooting from the field and 43.8% from 3-point range.
- This comes after Brown averaged just 2.5 ppg through non-conference action and hit a total of nine field goals in the first 11 games.
- Overall this year, Brown ranks third in the MVC, connecting at a 40.0% clip from deep.
- Included among her efforts in conference play so far are five double-digit scoring performances, and she has led all players three times - 21 points at Missouri State, 18 points in the win over UNI and 21 points in the win over Evansville.
- Brown was named MVC Newcomer of the Week on Jan. 10 for her performances in the victories over UNI and Drake - Valpo's first MVC Newcomer of the Week since March 9, 2020.

Notable Wins

- The last two seasons have featured a combined 29 wins for Valpo, including many notable victories.
- The 2020-21 squad counted some big wins among its 12 victories, including a pair of literal BIG wins, as the Brown and Gold beat multiple Big Ten teams in the same season for the first time in program history.
- Entering the season without a win over a Power Five program since 2012-13, Valpo won at Illinois for its first-ever win over the Illini, and followed four days later with a road win at Purdue - the second win in program history over the Boilermakers.
- Valpo became the first women's basketball program with multiple non-conference road wins at Big Ten programs since 2017-18.
- The team picked up some big wins once the schedule flipped to Missouri Valley Conference play as well last season, as three of Valpo's seven conference victories came over teams in the top-100 of the NET.
- The 2019-20 Valpo squad had one of the top turnarounds in program history from the previous year and one of the best turnarounds in the nation. It more than doubled the win total from the prior season, as the 2018-19 team went 8-24 overall, while the 2019-20 squad went 17-12.
- It was the second-largest improvement in the win column from one year to the next in program history, trailing only the 2001-02 team, which improved an astounding 19 wins from the previous season (7-22 -> 26-7).
- Valpo's 10.5 game improvement ranked sixth nationally.
- Valpo's 17 wins in 2019-20 made it the program's winningest campaign since 2006-07.
- The wins in 2019-20 came in non-conference play, where Valpo posted an 8-3 record - the best pre-conference mark in program history.
- The wins came away from home, as Valpo went 9-5 in true road games - the most road wins since the 2001-02 team won nine true road games.
- The wins came when the schedule shifted to MVC action, as Valpo finished 2019-20 9-9 in MVC play - its first .500 or better record in league play since 2008-09.

Raining Threes

- In her time at the helm of the Valpo program, head coach Mary Evans' teams have become known for their propensity to shoot 3-pointers.
- Evans' first three seasons at the helm saw Valpo's top-3 single-season total 3-pointers made, including a program-record 276 in her first season in 2018-19 - a mark which ranks seventh in MVC history.
- Valpo has ranked among the top-25 in the nation in 3-pointers/game all three years, with the 2020-21 squad setting a program single-season record by averaging 9.0 triples/game.
- Prior to Evans' arrival, Valpo had made 14 or more 3-pointers in a game just nine times in program history.
- In her fourth season at the helm, Valpo owns 11 more games with 14+ triples, including twice matching the program single-game record of 17.
- The style of play isn't a surprise if you follow the coaching tree. Evans coached under Bob Boldon at Ohio for five years before getting the head job at Valpo, and Boldon was a former assistant coach at FGCU under their legendary head coach, Karl Smesko, whose teams have ranked among the top-5 in the nation in 3-pointers made in each of the last 10 years.

Thievery Abounds

- As much as the offensive end has been highlighted by the 3-point numbers under Evans, the defensive side has seen prolific steal numbers over her first three seasons.
- Valpo has averaged at least 8.9 steals/game in each of Evans' first three seasons.
- Each of the last two years has seen Valpo rank among the top-40 teams nationally in steals/game.
- Carie Weinman has led the MVC in steals in each of the last two seasons. She ranked 16th nationally last year, averaging 2.9 steals/game.
- Valpo tallied double figures in steals 12 times in 25 games in 2020-21, after doing so 16 times the previous season.
- With 300 steals, the 2019-20 squad finished the campaign eighth in program history in the category. The 2001-02 team (330 steals) is the only Valpo team in the last quarter-century to have registered more steals.

Same Alma Maters

- While there are 17 players on the 2021-22 Valpo women's basketball roster, there are only 14 high schools represented, as three high schools count a pair of Beacons as alums.
- Sixth-year Caitlin Morrison and redshirt senior Carie Weinman both graduated from Glenbrook South (Ill.) H.S.
- Senior Maya Dunson and freshman Lovie Malone both are alums of Wayne (Ohio) H.S.
- Sophomore Ava Interrante and freshman Katie Beyer were teammates at McHenry (Ill.) H.S.

#1 Grace White

- White recorded a double-double in the first half - the third of her Valpo career - and finished with a team-high 20 points, a career-best 11 rebounds and matched her career high with six steals last time out in the win at Drake.
- White scored 13 of her 18 points in the third quarter of Valpo's win over Evansville while also pacing the team on the glass with eight rebounds and tying career bests with four blocked shots and four 3-pointers.
- White set a career high with six steals to go with 12 points in the win at Bradley.
- White paced Valpo with 16 points and tied for team-high honors with seven rebounds at Illinois State.
- White led all players with 19 points, including four 3-pointers, in the win over Detroit Mercy.
- White led all players with 22 points (7-11 FG; 4-8 3PT) and paced Valpo with six rebounds at Michigan State.
- White started all 22 games she appeared in during the 2020-21 season, averaging 11.1 points, 5.9 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 2.1 steals per game.
- White led Valpo in rebounding and ranked second on the team in assists, steals, blocked shots (1.0/game) and free throw percentage (.772)
- White ranked fourth in the MVC in steals, seventh in free throw percentage, eighth in blocks and 10th in rebounding.
- White scored in double figures 11 times, including a season-high 23 points in Valpo's win over Xavier - her high in a Valpo uniform.

#2 Olivia Brown

- Brown led all players with 21 points, 12 of which came in the second quarter, in the win over Evansville.
- Brown posted 13 points and a career-best five assists versus Indiana State.
- Brown was named MVC Newcomer of the Week Jan. 10 for her performances in the wins over UNI and Drake.
- Brown tallied 11 points in the win over Drake.
- Brown led all players in the win over UNI, scoring 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 3-of-4 from 3-point range.
- Brown broke out at Missouri State, going 8-of-10 from the field and 5-of-6 from 3-point range for a game-high 21 points.
- Brown joins the Valpo program after spending her first two seasons at St. Bonaventure.
- Brown appeared in 51 games in her two years with the Bonnies, averaging 7.2 points/game over her two seasons.
- Brown scored in double figures 12 times over her two years at SBU.
- Brown hit 39 3-pointers on 38.2% shooting from deep last season, leading the Bonnies in both 3-pointers and 3-point percentage and ranking eighth in the Atlantic 10 in the latter category.

Mary Evans

Head Coach

4th Season * Georgia Southern, 2000

44-63 overall and at Valpo

Hired as the eighth head coach in the history of the Valpo women's basketball program in April 2018, Mary Evans enters her fourth year at the helm of the program in 2021-22.

Evans has made an immediate impact on the program in her first three years, raising the team's level of play to be competitive in a strong Missouri Valley Conference. Through three seasons, Evans has a record of 37-49 at the helm of the Brown and Gold.

The 2020-21 squad counted some big wins among its 12 victories, including a pair of literal BIG wins, as the Brown and Gold beat multiple Big Ten teams in the same season for the first time in program history. Entering the season without a win over a Power Five program since 2012-13, Valpo won at Illinois for its first-ever win over the Illini, and followed four days later with a road win at Purdue - the second win in program history over the Boilermakers. Valpo became the first program with multiple nonconference road wins at Big Ten programs since 2017-18. The team picked up some big wins once the schedule flipped to Missouri Valley Conference play as well, as three of Valpo's seven conference victories came over teams in the top-100 of the NET. Valpo has five top-100 wins in MVC play over the last two seasons after going nearly seven years since its last top-100 win.

Individually, Shay Frederick earned First Team All-MVC honors after leading the conference in assists and finishing sixth in the MVC in scoring, becoming just the second First Team honoree for Valpo since joining the conference. Carie Weinman picked up Honorable Mention All-MVC recognition and repeated on the All-Defensive Team.

Evans led the Valpo program to a remarkable season across the board in 2019-20, one that concluded among the nation's top turnarounds from the season before. Valpo posted a 17-12 record in Evans' second season at the helm, the 17 wins the most by a Valpo team since the 2006-07 campaign and the 10th-most in a single season in program history. Valpo improved its record by 10.5 games over the previous season in 2019-20, tied for the sixth-best improvement in Division I. Even more impressively, Valpo jumped by 171 spots in the RPI in Evans' second season as head coach, the nation's largest RPI jump.

With the 17 victories came many notable accomplishments throughout the season. Nine of the 17 wins came on the road, giving Valpo its highest number of true road wins since the 2001-02 season. Valpo concluded the non-conference portion of the schedule with an 8-3 record, the best pre-conference mark by winning percentage in program history. That non-conference slate ended with seven straight wins, which was Valpo's longest winning streak since the 2001-02 team won 10 straight and was just the seventh winning streak of at least seven consecutive games in program history.

Conference play brought more of the same for Evans and the 2019-20 Valpo squad. Valpo posted a 9-9 record in MVC play, finishing the regular season with both its highest win total and its best conference finish (6th) since joining the MVC. Most impressively, this record came in a conference which finished the year ranked eighth among Division I leagues, matching its best-ever finish and trailing just the Power Five, the Big East and the Ivy League. The nine conference wins included victories at Illinois State and at home over UNI - the program's first wins over top-100 RPI teams since March 2013. In fact, the road win at Illinois State was the program's first true road victory over a top-100 program since March 2002.

Valpo was exceptional from the free throw line, setting a single-season record with a team free throw percentage of .792, a clip which was good for fourth in the nation. Individually, Grace Hales set Valpo's single-season mark with an .890 free throw percentage and ranked ninth nationally. Valpo also boasted the MVC's steals leader in Carie Weinman, a member of the conference's All-Defensive Team.

In Evans' first season in 2018-19, the program boasted a pair of 400-point scorers in Addison Stoller and Meredith Hamlet - the first time since 2007-08 two Valpo players reached the 400-point mark. Frederick was named an MVC All-Freshman Team honoree that year as well.

Upon her arrival, Evans immediately instituted a style of play on both sides of the ball which encourages aggressiveness. On the offensive end, her teams are known for their propensity to shoot 3-pointers. Evans' first three seasons at the helm have seen Valpo's top-3 single-season total 3-pointers made, including a program-record 276 in her first season in 2018-19 - a mark which ranks seventh in MVC history. Valpo has ranked among the top-25 in the nation in 3-pointers/game all three years, with the 2020-21 squad setting a program single-season record by averaging 9.0 triples/game. Prior to Evans' arrival, Valpo had made 14 or more 3-pointers in a game just nine times in program history. In the three seasons with her at the helm, Valpo owns nine more games with 14+ triples, including twice matching the program single-game record of 17.

Meanwhile defensively, Evans' teams have racked up steals at a high rate, averaging at least 8.9 steals/game in each of her three seasons. Each of the last two years has seen Valpo rank among the top-40 teams nationally in steals/game, with the 2019-20 squad totaling 300 steals - the program's highest single-season total since 2002. Valpo has also boasted the conference leader in steals each of the last two years as well.

Evans brought 15 years of Division I experience with her to Northwest Indiana, spending the last five seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio before her arrival at Valpo. During her time on Ohio's staff under head coach Bob Boldon, Evans helped the Bobcats to three seasons of 22 wins or more, three postseason appearances and three Top 75 RPI finishes. The 2014-15 team established a school record with 27 wins, a 21-win improvement from two years earlier and an 18-win improvement from the previous season. The Bobcats won the 2014-15 MAC regular season and tournament titles and reached the NCAA Tournament.

Evans spent the 2012-13 season at Youngstown State University, where she helped the Penguins to a 23-10 record and a first-round win at Indiana State in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). She has also coached at Georgia Southern University (2007-2012), the University of South Carolina, Aiken (2005-2007) and Seton Hall University (2001-2005).

Evans was a two-sport athlete at Georgia Southern, where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in 2000. She won four letters in basketball (1995-1999) and three in soccer during her time as a collegiate athlete. A native of Summerville, S.C., Evans was inducted into the Summerville High School Hall of Fame in 2008. She and her husband Daryl have two children, Keegan Thomas and Zoe Mae.
