Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team will look to make it back-to-back wins on Wednesday evening as SIUE makes its way to the Athletics-Recreation Center. Valpo has won four straight home games dating back to last season, all by double figures. In addition, the Brown & Gold will look to top the Cougars for a fourth consecutive season.

Last Time Out: Freshmen Jacob Ognacevic (20) and Connor Barrett (17) made quite the impression in their home debuts, combining for 37 points and 12 boards to lift Valpo over Judson 85-45 on Sunday. A third rookie scored in double figures as Sheldon Edwards chipped in 10, and the freshman class accounted for 49 of the team's 85 points (57.6 percent). Barrett drained five 3s in the victory.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (74-63) is in his eighth season overall at Valpo and fifth as head coach in 2020-21. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Barrett Bullseyes

- Connor Barrett knocked down five 3s on Dec. 6 vs. Judson, becoming the first Valpo freshman to do so since Alec Peters on Feb. 22, 2014. Barrett drained five triples in only his fourth collegiate game, while even Peters needed until his fifth game in 2013-14 before his first outing with five or more treys.

- Barrett became the first Valpo player to connect on five 3s in a home opener since Darien Walker did so on Nov. 14, 2014 vs. East Tennessee State. Before Walker, no Valpo player had knocked in five triples in a home opener since Mike Jones hit six against Western Michigan to start the 1989-90 home slate.

- Barrett became the first Valpo player to hit five 3s in one of the first four games of his freshman season since Samuel Haanpaa went 5-of-9 from distance on Nov. 18, 2006 at Niagara. Haanpaa went on to finish his career with a 3-point shooting percentage of 44.5, shattering Bryce Drew's career record. Haanpaa's mark stood atop the Valpo record book until Ryan Fazekas wrapped up his career at 46.1 after last season.

Jacob Jumpers

- Jacob Ognacevic went off for 20 points in the home opener on Dec. 6 vs. Judson. This marks the seventh consecutive year that at least one Valpo player has scored 20+ points in the home opener.
- At 7-of-10 from distance, Ognacevic has the highest 3-point percentage by a Valpo player through the first four games of a season (min. 2 attempts) since Bobby Capobiano went 6-of-8 (.750) over the first four games of 2013-14.
- Ognacevic has the highest 3-point percentage by a Valpo player with 10 attempts or more through the first four games of a season since the advent of the 3-point shot.

The Kids Can Play

- For the second straight season, Valpo had a game with three freshmen in double figures. Last year, Ben Krikke (18), Donovan Clay (16) and Sigurd Lorange (11) all did so against Trinity Christian. Before that, the team hadn't featured three rookies in double figures in a single game since Nov. 30, 2013, when Alec Peters (13), Clay Yeo (11) and Lexus Williams (11) all surpassed the 10-point threshold vs. Cincinnati Christian.
- Freshmen accounted for 49 points, or 57.6 percent of the team's scoring, in the Dec. 6 win over Judson.
- Barrett and Ognacevic both scored 17 points or more in the Dec. 6 win over Judson, becoming the first Valpo freshman duo to score 17+ in the same game in over 20 years.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Judson (Dec. 6)

- Valpo cracked the win column in convincing fashion on Dec. 6 vs. Judson, finishing with a 40-point margin of victory for the first time since Nov. 6, 2018 vs. Concordia (+56).
- Valpo held the Eagles to 34.6 percent shooting and just 21.1 percent (4-of-19) from 3-point distance. It was the first time Valpo held an opponent under 50 points since the 55-38 win over Southern Illinois on Feb. 12 of last season.
- Steven Helm dished out a team-high five assists and scored three points, the first of his collegiate career. That culminated a long journey that included a two-year mission in Japan and a year sitting out due to transfer rules after he began his collegiate career at Carroll

College in 2016-17.

- Freshman walk-on Tyler Fricke made his collegiate debut and converted a pair of free-throws for his first collegiate points.

Home Sweet Home

- Valpo will attempt to start the season 2-0 at home for the 14th consecutive season with a win over the Cougars. Since a 65-62 home loss to No. 8 Marquette on Nov. 27, 2006, Valpo is 27-0 in the first two home games of the season.
- Valpo has now won the home opener for 16 consecutive seasons with 14 of those victories coming by double figures. The last time Valpo started the home slate with a loss was an 85-71 defeat to Charlotte on Nov. 27, 2004.
- Valpo not only owns a four-game home winning streak dating back to last season, but all four triumphs have come by 12 points or more.
- Valpo has won six straight nonconference home games dating back to Dec. 17, 2018 vs. Ball State.
- Valpo continued its history of home dominance a year ago and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- The Brown & Gold went 11-2 at the ARC last season, finishing with two home losses or fewer for the fourth time in the last eight years.
- This year's Dec. 6 home opener marked Valpo's latest since Dec. 16, 1977, when head coach Ken Rochlitz's team notched a 94-87 double-overtime win over Carthage.

For Starters

- Thanks to the victory over Judson on Dec. 6, Valpo entered the win column after its first 0-3 start since dropping the first five games of the 2004-05 season.
- This marked the first time Valpo started a season with three straight road games since 1996-97. Coincidentally, that season also began at Vanderbilt. The 1996-97 campaign culminated with an NCAA Tournament berth. Before that, Valpo hadn't started with three straight true road contests since 1933-34.
- Valpo had won eight consecutive season openers prior to this year's season-opening setback at Vanderbilt. However, Valpo had opened at home in each of those eight seasons.

Flashing Depth

- Valpo has had four different leading scorers in as many games with Mileek McMillan (18 at Vanderbilt), Donovan Clay (12 at UIC), Nick Robinson (15 at Purdue) and Jacob Ognacevic (20 vs. Judson) each pacing the squad.
- This is the third straight season Valpo has had three different leading scorers over the first three games. Valpo started 2018-19 with five leading scorers over the first five contests.
- A total of 14 players have already seen action over the first four contests, and 10 of them have participated in all four games.

Series Notes: SIUE

- These two squads will face off for the fourth straight season after having never locked horns prior to the 2017-18 campaign.
- Valpo will look to remain unbeaten against SIUE after winning each of the first three matchups, most recently 89-76 on Nov. 12, 2019 in Edwardsville. Valpo trailed that game by 10 with 13 minutes remaining in the opening half, but flipped the script for a double-figure victory.
- The only prior meeting that occurred in the Hoosier State required overtime to determine a victor with Valpo winning 75-70 on Nov. 21, 2018.

Inside the Cougars

- Went 8-23 overall and 5-13 in the Ohio Valley Conference last season.
- Under the direction of head coach Brian Barone, who is in his second season after capturing the program's first-ever win at Belmont among five OVC victories a year ago.
- Led in scoring by Mike Adewunmi at 13.4 points per game. Sidney Wilson is also in double figures at 11.8 points per contest.
- Coming off a narrow 65-63 loss to Omaha after lopsided victories over Northern Illinois (73-53) and University of Health Sciences and Pharmacy in St. Louis (80-45).
- Outscored LSU 47-45 in the second half of a 94-81 setback on Nov. 26. The Cougars led the Tigers 62-60 with 11:50 to play.

Close Call

- Valpo owned an 11-point halftime lead and nearly pulled out what would have been a signature victory on Dec. 4 at Purdue.
- It would have marked Valpo's first non-forfeit win over the Boilermakers since Dec. 22, 1965.
- It would have snapped a 14-game losing streak against Big Ten competition and marked the team's first triumph over a Big Ten team since Dec. 28, 2004 against Penn State.
- It would have snapped Purdue's 15-game winning streak over winless teams and marked only the team's 10th home loss since the start of the 2015-16 season (currently 76-9).
- It would have been Purdue's first home loss against a current member of the Missouri Valley Conference since Nov. 27, 1978 against Larry Bird-led Indiana State.

Notes Wrapping Up Purdue (Dec. 4)

- Eron Gordon made his first start of the season, his fifth overall at Valpo and his first since Jan. 29, 2020 at Bradley.
- Outside of Sasha Stefanovic's 4-for-9 showing, Valpo held Purdue to 2-of-14 (14.3 percent) from beyond the 3-point arc. Purdue entered the night eighth nationally in 3-point percentage.
- Steven Helm made his long-awaited Valpo debut and provided a positive lift off the bench. The walk-on finished the night at +12 in the plus/minus column.
- Senior Nick Robinson finished with a team-high 15 points, his highest output since turning in 15 on Dec. 30, 2019 vs. Loyola. It was four shy of his career high set on Nov. 12, 2019 at SIUE. The fifth-year senior led the team in scoring for the first time in a Valpo uniform. He also squeezed six rebounds to share the team lead with Donovan Clay.
- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic made four 3s in just 14 minutes to account for his 12 points. He became the third Missouri Valley Conference player with four or more makes in five attempts or fewer this season, joining D.J. Wilkins of Drake (4-4 vs. Omaha) and James Betz of UNI (4-5 vs. Utah State).
- Ognacevic is 5-for-6 from 3 this season, an 83.3 percent clip that leads the MVC.
- Goodnews Kpegeol contributed nine points and three rebounds in his 27 minutes. He had under eight minutes of action total over the first two games of the season before seeing significantly more run against the Boilermakers.
- Clay finished in double figures for the third time in as many games this season, closing the evening with 10 points and six boards. The sophomore has been in double figures eight of his last nine games dating back to last season.
- Valpo was whistled for 32 fouls, its highest total since committing 33 in a 99-92 overtime loss vs. Green Bay in the 2016 Horizon League Tournament in Detroit. It was the team's highest foul total in a regulation game since Dec. 23, 2011 at IUPUI (33).
- For the second time in three games this season, Valpo lost despite shooting at a higher clip than the opponent. Prior to this year, Valpo was 57-10 under Lottich when owning a better field goal percentage than the opposition.

A Look Back at 2019-20: Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, head coach Matt Lottich's team did more than hold its own, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Preseason Picks

- Sophomore Donovan Clay was named to the Preseason MVC Second Team.
- Valpo was picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.
- Valpo exceeded preseason expectations a year ago after being picked to finish ninth. The Brown & Gold tied for sixth in the regular-season standings and went on to finish as the conference tournament runner-up.

Who's Back, Who's New?

- This year's team features 11 returning letter winners (nine scholarship, two walk-on) to go along with six newcomers (four scholarship, two walk-on).
- Three letter winners departed from the 2019-20 squad.
- Valpo returns 59.2 percent of its scoring and 64.3 percent of its rebounding from last season. Both numbers are up from a year ago, when Valpo returned just 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding from 2018-19.
- Last season, the entire roster was from either Indiana, Illinois or outside the United States. This year, Valpo has added three additional states to the mix in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Florida.
- Still, six players hail from Illinois and four from Indiana. The six Illinois natives are the most since 2015-16.
- Coincidentally, Valpo's last player from the state of Florida before freshman Sheldon Edwards shares the same last name. Lakeland native Richie Edwards played for the Brown & Gold during the 2011-2012 campaign.
- Newcomer Goodnews Kpegeol is the first Valpo player from the state of Minnesota since Cory Johnson's final season on campus in 2010-2011.
- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic is Valpo's first player from Wisconsin since Andrew Ferry in 2008-2009.

Arrow Pointed Up

- Valpo made its first conference championship appearance since 2015, doing so after being picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll.
- Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year Missouri Valley Conference member. When the Brown & Gold transitioned from the Mid-Continent Conference to the Horizon League prior to the 2007-2008 season, the program didn't reach the conference championship game until Year 5 and followed by winning its first Horizon League Tournament title in Year 6.
- The men's basketball program became the first Valpo team in any sport to reach the Missouri Valley Conference championship game during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league.
- Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation for the first time since joining The Valley, agreeing to a CollegeInsider.

com Tournament berth before the event was canceled due to the coronavirus.

- The program had its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15.
- Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, Valpo continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

2019-20 Team Statistical Feats

- Led the Missouri Valley Conference in assists per game at 15.2, the first time Valpo led a conference in that area since pacing the Horizon League in 2011-2012. The 15.2 assists per game was Valpo's highest total since 2010-11 (15.8 apg) and the team's second-highest output over the last 13 seasons. The squad ranked 29th nationally in assists per game and 12th in total assists.
- Averaged 7.7 steals per game to rank second in the MVC and totaled 270 steals, a number that checked in at 18th nationally. The team had its highest steals average since 2010-11 and the second-highest over the last 16 seasons.
- The team averaged 72.3 points per game, second in the MVC. That was the team's second-highest scoring average over the last eight seasons. In addition, the team jumped 5.5 points per game from 2018-19 to 2019-20.
- Valpo made 287 3-pointers, the team's second-most since 2008-09 and the third-most over the last 30 years.
- The team had 922 made field goals, its third most over the last 30 years.
- Valpo committed just 12.7 turnovers per game, the team's lowest total over the last 30 seasons.

2020 Arch Madness Accomplishments

- The Valpo/Loyola quarterfinal was the 18th overtime game in MVC Tournament history and the 20th game decided by a single point. It was the first one-point game in the MVC Tournament since Indiana State's 51-50 victory over Evansville in 2013.
- Valpo's 89 points in the MVC semifinal against Missouri State were the seventh-most in a game in the 30-year history of Arch Madness. It was the highest scoring output in any MVC Tournament contest since Creighton put 99 on Evansville on March 3, 2012.
- Valpo scored 287 points in the MVC Tournament, the third most in the history of the event and the most since Indiana State scored 310 in 1978.
- The team's 138 rebounds were the fourth most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Tulsa had 143 in 1978.
- The 107 made field goals were the third most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Indiana State in 1978.

- The 29 made 3-point field goals tied for the second most in MVC Tournament history (despite going 0-for in the opening round against Evansville), joining 2009 Illinois State (32) and 1999 Evansville (29).

- The 90 3-point field goal attempts shattered the previous tournament record of 76 (Drake 2008, Illinois State 2009).
- Valpo made 10 3-pointers in the conference championship game, tying for the fourth most in the history of the MVC Final just a few days removed from hitting no 3s in a win over Evansville. Valpo became the first team to make zero 3s in an MVC Tournament Game since Southern Illinois went 0-for-6 on March 5, 1994 vs. Missouri State.
- Valpo's 29 3-point attempts in the MVC final tied for the second most in the history of the title game, joining Illinois State in 2009 (35 vs. UNI 2009) and Illinois State in 2012 (29 vs. Creighton).
- Only one team since 1994 had made 15 or more field goals in the first half of an MVC title game (Drake 16 vs. Illinois State in 2008), and Valpo and Bradley had 15 apiece in the first half of last year's championship game.
- Valpo made seven 3s in the first half of the title game against Bradley, tying the MVC Tournament title game record of seven set by Southern Illinois on March 7, 1989 vs. Creighton. Valpo set the conference title game record for 3-point attempts in the first half with 16, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 set by Illinois State on March 8, 2009 vs. UNI.
- Ryan Fazekas' 21 3-point attempts in the MVC Tournament tied for the ninth-most in the history of the event.

Comeback Kids

- Valpo came from 18 down to beat Loyola in the 2020 MVC quarterfinal, becoming just the fourth team in the history of the MVC Tournament to climb from 18 or more down to win. It was tied for the second biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history behind Missouri State erasing a 23-point deficit to beat Southern Illinois in 2005. The other two teams to erase 18-point deficits were Bradley in 2019 and UNI in 2015.
- Six times during the season, including four against Valley teams, Valpo came from double figures down to win. There was also one double-figure comeback during the team's preseason tour in Canada.
- Valpo came back to tie or take the lead after trailing by double figures 11 times during the season.
- In the first four years of Matt Lottich's coaching tenure, Valpo has trailed by double figures and won on 15 occasions and led by double figures and lost just once.
- Six times under Lottich, including twice this season, Valpo trailed by double figures and went on to win by double figures.
- Valpo became the second team in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to erase deficits of 17 points or more twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

5th Season * Stanford, 2004

74-63 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his eighth season overall at Valparaiso University and fifth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2020-2021.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19.

During the 2019-2020 season, Lottich led the program to its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15. Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, the program continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude, as his team has erased double-figure deficits to win 15 times over his first four seasons while coughing up a double-figure advantage just once in that span. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
