at DePaul (1-4, 0-4 Big East)

Game No. 11 – Saturday, Jan. 16 – 3 p.m. CT
Wintrust Arena (10,387) – Chicago, Ill.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team has made the latest adjustment during a season that requires flexibility from all involved. After the team's scheduled Missouri Valley Conference weekend series at Southern Illinois was postponed due to positive COVID-19 test results within Southern Illinois' Tier 1 personnel, the Valpo staff added a nonconference matchup with Big East foe DePaul at Wintrust Arena in Chicago. This marks the first meeting between the two geographically nearby schools since the 1979-1980 season. The game will be televised nationally on FS1.

Last Time Out: After 20 days without a game and limited practice time, Valpo dropped both games of last weekend's home series with Missouri State to start Missouri Valley Conference play. The hosts trailed by just four at halftime on Saturday despite the Bears shooting a robust 70.8 percent in the opening half, but the Brown & Gold fell 81-68 despite 21 points apiece by sophomores Ben Krikke and Donovan Clay. Four Valpo players scored in double figures on Sunday led by Eron Gordon and Jacob Ognacevic with 13 each, but Valpo fell by the similar score of 78-68.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (76-67) is in his eighth season overall at Valpo and fifth as head coach in 2020-21. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Noteworthy Trends

- If Ben Krikke reaches doubles figures on Saturday vs. DePaul, it will be his ninth time in double figures in the first 11 games of his sophomore season, matching his total number of double-figure outputs in 33 games as a freshman last season. He has scored in double figures in five straight entering this weekend.
- After going 0-for-7 from 3-point distance over the season's first four games, Krikke did not attempt a 3 in the next four games before going 2-for-2 on Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State.
- Jacob Ognacevic is an efficient 8-for-12 shooting over his last four games despite two games in that stretch where he totaled just one field-goal attempt (Dec. 19 at Toledo, Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State). He went 4-of-7 for 13 points in just 12 minutes on Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State.
- After making 10 or more turnovers in each of the season's first seven games, Valpo has committed nine giveaways or fewer in each of its last three contests. This is the first time Valpo has strung together three straight games with fewer than 10 turnovers since a stretch of five such games in February 2017, the program's final season in the Horizon League and Matt Lottich's first year as head coach.
- Valpo has won the turnover battle in six of its last seven games.
- Valpo is 0-7 when scoring fewer points at the free-throw line than its opponents, but the team is 3-0 when outscoring opponents at the stripe.
- A win on Saturday would help Valpo avoid its first four-game losing streak since Jan. 23-Feb. 2, 2019. Valpo is also hoping to notch its first road victory of the season and snap a seven-game road losing streak that dates back to a 65-62 win on Feb. 15 of last season at Illinois State. Valpo last started 0-5 on the road in 2004-05 and last started 0-6 on the road in 2002-03, Scott Drew's one season as Valpo head coach. That Valpo team went on to win the Mid-Continent Conference regular season title and qualify for the NIT.
- One area where the team hopes to show improvement this weekend is on the glass. Valpo has been outrebounded in five straight games, eight out of 10 this season and 15 of the last 19 games dating back to last season.
- Valpo has given up more offensive rebounds than it would like this season, with a league-low defensive rebounding percentage of 70.7.
- Entering this weekend, Donovan Clay has started 41 consecutive games. He made his first start during the third game of his freshman season (2019-20) and has started every game since.

MVC Play Finally Underway

- Valpo played its first MVC games of the season this past weekend, starting conference play at home for the third straight season, this time vs. Missouri State.
- The Jan. 9 start to conference play marked Valpo's latest since head coach Scott Drew's team commenced the Mid-Continent Conference slate on Jan. 11, 2003 vs. Western Illinois.

- With the postponement of this weekend's scheduled series against Southern Illinois, six of Valpo's first eight slated Missouri Valley Conference contests have been postponed.

- Saturday's game at DePaul (Jan. 16) marks Valpo's latest regular-season nonconference game since hosting Eastern Kentucky as part of the ESPN Ramada Worldwide BracketBusters event on Feb. 23, 2013, an 82-60 victory.

Notes Wrapping Up Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State (Missouri State 78, Valpo 68)

- Valpo hosted home games on back-to-back days for the first time since starting the 2016-17 season with home dates vs. Southern Utah (Nov. 11) and Trinity Christian (Nov. 12), the first two games under Matt Lottich.
- Valpo boasted four players in double figures, led by Jacob Ognacevic and Eron Gordon with 13 points apiece. Gordon paced the team in scoring for the first time in his Valpo career, while Ognacevic did so for the second time during his freshman season.
- Gordon's scoring output represented a season high, his top performance since Feb. 22 of last season, when he scored 13 vs. Bradley. Gordon was three rebounds away from a double-double as he pulled down seven, one shy of his career high from this year's season opener at Vanderbilt.
- Ognacevic's 13 points came on 4-of-7 shooting in just 12 minutes of action.
- Sheldon Edwards reached nine points for the second straight day, this time finishing with 10 points. He has scored in double figures on four occasions this season.
- Ben Krikke scored 12 points to finish in double figures for the eighth time in the season's first 10 games.
- Daniel Sackey sent out a team-high six assists while also going 5-of-6 at the free-throw line and swiping a pair of steals.
- Missouri State's Gaige Prim posted a double-double of 16 points and 10 rebounds to go along with Mosley's 29-point performance. Mosley's 26 second-half points marked the most by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Reggie Hamilton of Oakland had 28 in the second half on Dec. 17, 2011.
- Valpo was held to a season-low 35.4 percent shooting, but did haul in 11 offensive rebounds, snapping a streak of three straight games with five or fewer.
- Valpo dropped back-to-back home contests for the first time since December 2018 vs. High Point and Ball State.

Notes Wrapping Up Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State (Missouri State 81, Valpo 68)

- Valpo shot a season-high 40.7 percent from 3-point range (11-of-27). It was the team's highest 3-point clip since going 11-of-22 on Feb. 25 of last season, also at home against Missouri State. However, Valpo's overall shooting percentage of 41.1 on Jan. 9 was its lowest in the last seven games to that point.

- Valpo had a season-low seven turnovers. The team had just one game all of last season where it committed seven or fewer turnovers, also vs. Missouri State (7 in MVC semifinal matchup). It was the team's fifth time under Matt Lottich (fifth season) with seven turnovers or fewer, and three have come vs. Missouri State.

- Donovan Clay enjoyed his fourth career 20-point game and his second this season. The sophomore's 21 points marked a season high, surpassing his output of 20 from Dec. 12 at Central Michigan.

- Clay finished one-point shy of a career high, which occurred in last season's home matchup with Missouri State (Feb. 25), when he scored 22 points. Half of Clay's scoring outputs of 20+ have coming against Missouri State.

- This was the second straight year Clay made four 3s in the MVC opener, as both of his career games with four 3-pointers came to open up MVC play (Dec. 30, 2019 vs. Loyola).

- Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State marked Clay's 25th career double-figure scoring showing and his sixth in the first nine games this season.

- Ben Krikke had shattered his previous season high by halftime on his way to his career-high 21. His previous season watermark was 16 at Toledo (Dec. 19) and his previous career best was 18 vs. Trinity Christian (Nov. 27, 2019).

- Krikke's 17 points in the first half were the most in a single half by a Valpo player this season, surpassing Jacob Ognacevic's 16-point second half vs. Judson. Krikke joins Javon Freeman-Liberty (twice), Tevonn Walker (twice) and Alec Peters (twice) during his senior season, Lottich's first season) as the only four players with 17 or more first-half points in a game during the Matt Lottich Era.

- Connor Barrett finished with 11 points for his fourth double-figure scoring output of the season. Before being held to three points on Sunday, Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State, Barrett had scored nine points or more in five of his previous six games.

- Barrett accounted for five of the team's nine steals, matching his steal total from the season's first eight games in one game on Saturday, Jan. 9 to double his season total to 10 (now 11). He became the first Valpo player with five steals in a game since Freeman-Liberty on Feb. 15 of last season at Illinois State and the first player not named Javon with a five-steal game since Tevonn Walker on Jan. 13, 2018 at UNI.

- Barrett joined the short list of players with five or more steals in a game during the Matt Lottich Era: Javon Freeman-Liberty (3), Lexus Williams (3) and Tevonn Walker (2).

- Edwards chipped in nine points as freshmen and sophomores (specifically, the quarter of Krikke, Edwards, Clay and Barrett) accounted for 62 of the team's 68 points (91.1 percent).

- Valpo's last two games with a pair of 20-point scorers have both come against Missouri State (Donovan Clay & Ryan Fazekas, Feb. 25, 2020; Clay & Krikke, Saturday, Jan. 9, 2021).

- Missouri State's 70.8 percent shooting clip in the first half was the highest by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Dec. 28, 2017 (at Indiana State, 72.2 percent, 2nd half). Missouri State's performance was the highest shooting percentage in the first half of a game by a Valpo opponent since Jan. 13, 1992 (vs. Western Illinois, 72.3 percent).

- The defeat snapped a six-game home winning streak that dated back to Feb. 5 of last season (L 63-51 vs. UNI). All six wins during that streak came by 12 points or more.

Series Notes: DePaul

- Valpo trails the all-time series with DePaul 16-8.

- This marks the first matchup between the two nearby foes since Feb. 13, 1980 at Valpo, a 95-71 loss for the hosts in Ken Rochlitz's final season as Valpo head coach.

- The Blue Demons own a seven-game head-to-head winning streak. Valpo enters Saturday seeking its first win over DePaul since Jan. 15, 1944. This game is occurring a day after the 77-year anniversary of Valpo's last triumph against the Blue Demons.

- During Valpo's seven-game head-to-head losing streak, all of the setbacks have come by more than 15 points and the average margin of defeat in those games is 24 points per game.

- Valpo has dropped nine straight games at DePaul and hasn't won when visiting the Blue Demons since Dec. 17, 1921, a 27-14 shootout.

Inside the Blue Demons

- Have played only five games all season due to various COVID-19 related postponements and cancellations.

- Have dropped their last four games, most recently falling to No. 25 Connecticut 60-53 on Monday, Jan. 11.

- Under the direction of head coach Dave Leitao, who began his second stint in charge of the program in March 2015 after previously guiding the Blue Demons from 2002-2005.

- Led in scoring by Javon Freeman-Liberty at 14.2 points per game. Charlie Moore (13.0), Romeo Weems (10.3) and Oscar Lopez Jr. (10.0) are also averaging in double figures.

Valpo vs. The Big East

- This will mark Valpo's first game against a current member of The Big East Conference since March 3, 2012, a 65-46 victory over Butler. At the time, both schools were members of the Horizon League.

- Entering Saturday, Valpo owns a four-game winning streak against current members of the Big East. All four victories came over Butler, the last four matchups before the Bulldogs left the Horizon League.

- This is Valpo's first game against a member of the Big East at the time of the matchup since Nov. 27, 2006, a 65-62 defeat at No. 8/9 Marquette.

Gordon vs. DePaul

- The only member of Valpo's roster who has competed against DePaul is former Big East player Eron Gordon, who transferred to Valpo from Seton Hall.

- Gordon had six points and five rebounds in a home game against the Blue Demons on Jan. 7, 2017.

- The current Valpo senior had five points on Jan. 28, 2018 when the Pirates visited Chicago to take on DePaul.

Krikke's Big Half

When Ben Krikke scored 17 points in the opening half on Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State, he became just the fourth different Valpo player with 17 or more points before halftime during the Matt Lottich head coaching tenure (fifth season). Below is a list of instances of Valpo players with 17+ points in the first half of a game since Lottich took over in 2016-17.

Player	Points	Opponent	Date
Krikke	17	vs. Missouri St	1/9/21

A Look Back at 2019-20: Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, head coach Matt Lottich's team did more than hold its own, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Preseason Picks

- Sophomore Donovan Clay was named to the Preseason MVC Second Team.

- Valpo was picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.

- Valpo exceeded preseason expectations a year ago after being picked to finish ninth. The Brown & Gold tied for sixth in the regular-season standings and went on to finish as the conference tournament runner-up.

Who's Back, Who's New?

- This year's team features 11 returning letter winners (nine scholarship, two walk-on) to go along with six newcomers (four scholarship, two walk-on).

- Three letter winners departed from the 2019-20 squad.

- Valpo returns 59.2 percent of its scoring and 64.3 percent of its rebounding from last season. Both numbers are up from a year ago, when Valpo returned just 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding from 2018-19.

- Last season, the entire roster was from either Indiana, Illinois or outside the United States. This year, Valpo has added three additional states to the mix in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Florida.

- Still, six players hail from Illinois and four from Indiana. The six Illinois natives are the most since 2015-16.

- Coincidentally, Valpo's last player from the state of Florida before freshman Sheldon Edwards shares the same last name. Lakeland native Richie Edwards played for the Brown & Gold during the 2011-2012 campaign.

- Newcomer Goodnews Kpegeol is the first Valpo player from the state of Minnesota since Cory Johnson's final season on campus in 2010-2011.

- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic is Valpo's first player from Wisconsin since Andrew Ferry in 2008-2009.

Arrow Pointed Up

- Valpo made its first conference championship appearance since 2015, doing so after being picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll.

- Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year Missouri Valley Conference member. When the Brown & Gold transitioned from the Mid-Continent Conference to the Horizon League prior to the 2007-2008 season, the program didn't reach the conference championship game until Year 5 and followed by winning its first Horizon League Tournament title in Year 6.

- The men's basketball program became the first Valpo team in any sport to reach the Missouri Valley Conference championship game during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league.

- Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation for the first time since joining The Valley, agreeing to a CollegeInsider.com Tournament berth before the event was canceled due to the coronavirus.

- The program had its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15.

- Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, Valpo continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28

- Valpo's 29 3-point attempts in the MVC final tied for the second most in the history of the title game, joining Illinois State in 2009 (35 vs. UNI 2009) and Illinois State in 2012 (29 vs. Creighton).

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

5th Season * Stanford, 2004

76-67 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his eighth season overall at Valparaiso University and fifth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2020-2021.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19.

During the 2019-2020 season, Lottich led the program to its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15. Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, the program continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude, as his team has erased double-figure deficits to win 15 times over his first four seasons while coughing up a double-figure advantage just once in that span. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
