Loyola (10-3, 5-1 MVC)

at Valparaiso (3-8, 0-2 MVC)

Game No. 12 – Wednesday, Jan. 20 – 6 p.m. CT

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: After having six of its first eight scheduled Missouri Valley Conference games postponed, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team will begin a busy stretch of Valley action on Wednesday night. The team is scheduled to play 14 games in a 33-day span starting with Wednesday's home date with nearby foe Loyola. This is a rematch of last year's MVC Tournament quarterfinal, when Valpo came from 18 down to upset the Ramblers 74-73 in overtime on a last-second layup by Eron Gordon.

Last Time Out: After this past weekend's scheduled series with Southern Illinois was postponed due to positive COVID-19 test results within Southern Illinois' team personnel, Valpo added a nonconference game at DePaul on Saturday, a 77-58 setback at Wintrust Arena. The game came together on Wednesday after DePaul's matchup with Georgetown was postponed and was announced on Thursday morning, just two days before the contest. It was the first time Valpo and DePaul had matched up since 1980.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (76-68) is in his eighth season overall at Valpo and fifth as head coach in 2020-21. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Noteworthy Trends

- Reaching 80 points has been the key number for Valpo this season, as the team is 3-0 when scoring 80 or more, but 0-8 when scoring fewer than 80. The 80-point precipice has led to victories throughout the Matt Lottich Era, as the team is 34-2 when scoring 80 during his tenure. Valpo was 25-15 under Lottich when scoring 70-79 points entering this season, but is 0-3 in such games this year.
- Eron Gordon has led the team (outright or tied) in rebounding in three straight games and four total this season after not doing so at all a year ago. He has upped his rebounding average from 2.3 per game in 2019-20 to 4.2 per game this season and is second on the team behind only Donovan Clay.
- Gordon has back-to-back double-figure scoring outputs for the second time in his Valpo career and first since Dec. 18 (at High Point, 20) and Dec. 21 (at Arkansas, 10) last season.
- Daniel Sackey is in the top 10 in the Missouri Valley Conference in free-throw percentage, a far cry from two years ago as a freshman, when he was seventh on his own team in that category. He has climbed from 63.8 percent as a freshman to 70.8 percent as a sophomore to 83.3 percent (20-of-24) as a junior this season.
- Ben Krikke is 9-for-9 from the free-throw line over Valpo's last five games. His last miss came on Dec. 12 at Central Michigan.
- If Krikke reaches doubles figures on Wednesday, it will be his ninth time in double figures in the first 12 games of his sophomore season, matching his total number of double-figure outputs in 33 games as a freshman last season. He had scored in double figures in five straight before having that stretch snapped on Saturday at DePaul, when he was limited to six points.
- Jacob Ognacevic is an efficient 9-for-13 shooting over his last five games despite two games in that stretch where he totaled just one field-goal attempt (Dec. 19 at Toledo, Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State). He went 4-of-7 for 13 points in just 12 minutes on Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State.
- Valpo has won the turnover battle in six of its last eight games.
- A win on Wednesday would help Valpo avoid its first five-game losing streak since Jan. 13-27, 2018. Valpo is also hoping to avoid an 0-3 start to conference play, something it has done just once over the last 20 years.
- One area where the team hopes to show improvement this weekend is on the glass. Valpo has been outrebounded in six straight games, nine out of 11 this season and 16 of the last 20 games dating back to last season.
- Valpo has given up more offensive rebounds than it would like this season, with a league-low defensive rebounding percentage of 70.2.
- Entering Wednesday, Donovan Clay has started 44 consecutive games. He made his first start during the third game of his freshman season (2019-20) and has started every game since.

Notes Wrapping Up Jan. 16 at DePaul

- Goodnews Kpegeol, who returned after missing the previous two games due to COVID-19 protocols, had a season-high seven rebounds to share the team lead with Eron Gordon. After entering the game with 11 total rebounds this season, the junior college transfer nearly doubled that total against the Blue Demons. Kpegeol also went 6-for-6 at the free-throw line to finish with eight points in addition to swiping three steals.
- Eron Gordon led the team with 12 points, pacing the squad in scoring for the second straight game after not doing so in any of his first 44 career contests at Valpo. The senior also led the team in rebounding for the fourth time this season (and third straight game) after not doing so at all during the 2019-20 season. This marked his second straight game with seven rebounds, one shy of his career high that occurred in the season opener at Vanderbilt.
- Daniel Sackey contributed a season-high nine points and six boards, equaling a career high on the glass. This marked Sackey's fourth career six-rebound game and first this season. He was a bright spot, adding three assists and no turnovers at the point-guard spot to his stat line.
- After going with the same starting lineup for six consecutive games, head coach Matt Lottich switched it up at DePaul as senior Mileek McMillan made his first start since Dec. 6. He was limited late in the nonconference slate while battling tendinitis. Freshman Connor Barrett returned to a bench role, joining fellow rookies Sheldon Edwards and Jacob Ognacevic as the first three players off the bench.
- Valpo outscored DePaul at the free-throw line 19-14, the first time this season the team outscored its opponent at the free-throw line and lost. Previously, Valpo was 0-7 when being outscored on foul shots and 3-0 when outscoring the opponent at the stripe.
- The foul line was a bright spot for Valpo, as the team went 19-of-23 (82.6 percent), its second-best free-throw percentage of the year behind 83.3 (20-of-24) at Central Michigan. Valpo started the game against DePaul 17-for-17 at the charity stripe before its first misfire with 5:52 left in the second half.
- Valpo shot a season-low 34 percent from the field and went 3-of-15 (20 percent) from 3-point distance. The Brown & Gold also turned it over 16 times, snapping a stretch of three straight games with fewer than 10 turnovers, its first such stretch since 2016-17, the team's final season in the Horizon League and Matt Lottich's first as Valpo head coach.
- This game was Valpo's latest regular-season nonconference game since hosting Eastern Kentucky as part of ESPN's BracketBusters event on Feb. 23, 2013.
- Valpo and DePaul matched up for the first time since Feb. 13, 1980. It was Valpo's first game against a Big East team since Nov. 27, 2006 at Marquette. The defeat snapped a four-game winning streak against current members of the Big East with all four victories coming against Butler when both teams were in the Horizon League.

MVC Play Finally Underway

- Valpo played its first MVC games of the season on Jan. 9-10, starting conference play at home for the third straight season, this time vs. Missouri State.
- The Jan. 9 start to conference play marked Valpo's latest since head coach Scott Drew's team commenced the Mid-Continent Conference slate on Jan. 11, 2003 vs. Western Illinois.
- Wednesday vs. Loyola will mark Valpo's third straight home game to start conference play, the first time since the aforementioned 2002-03 campaign – current Baylor head coach Scott Drew's lone season as Valpo head coach – that Valpo has started conference play with three straight home dates. Valpo hosted Western Illinois, Southern Utah and Chicago State to begin Mid-Con action that season.

Facing Chicago Foes

- This will be the third Valpo opponent that calls Chicago home this season, as the team has played nonconference games at DePaul and UIC. This will mark just the second season in the long history of Valpo basketball that the program has played DePaul, UIC and Loyola all in the same year, joining the 1979-1980 campaign.
- When Valpo makes the return trip to Loyola on Feb. 17, it will be the team's third game in the Windy City this season. This will mark the first time in program history Valpo has played at UIC, Loyola and DePaul all in the same season.

Series Notes: Loyola

- Valpo snapped a seven-game head-to-head losing streak to Loyola in memorable fashion with a 74-73 overtime victory over the Ramblers in the quarterfinal round of the State Farm MVC Tournament last March. Eron Gordon hit a game-winning layup in the final seconds of overtime to complete the upset victory. Seventh-seeded Valpo trailed by as many as 18 points before roaring back to knock off the second-seeded Ramblers.
- The three matchups between these two teams last season were all decided by three points or fewer, with Loyola winning both regular-season clashes by a total of five points before Valpo's one-point win in the MVC Tournament.
- By comparison, before this stretch of three straight meetings decided by three points or fewer, 16 straight Valpo-Loyola meetings had been decided by more than three points, dating back to Jan. 26, 2007. In fact, there were more games decided by three points or fewer between Valpo and Loyola last season (3) than there were in the previous 54 all-time meetings (2).

- The Arch Madness victory a year ago was Valpo's first against Loyola since joining the Missouri Valley Conference.

- These teams are the two newest Missouri Valley Conference members. The nearby rivals both came over from the Horizon League, where they were conference adversaries from the time Valpo joined prior to the 2007-2008 season to Loyola's departure after the 2012-2013 campaign.

- Valpo is 16-41 all-time against Loyola including a 7-20 mark in matchups at the ARC. Loyola has returned to Rogers Park victorious following each of its last four trips to Northwest Indiana. Valpo's last home win over Loyola came on Feb. 21, 2012, 66-62 in overtime.

- Valpo is seeking its first regular-season win over the Ramblers in MVC play.

Inside the Ramblers

- Picked to finish second in the MVC Preseason Poll.

- Led by MVC Preseason First Team selection Cameron Krutwig, a three-time all-MVC pick and a first-team choice each of the last two years. He became the first player in Valley history to finish a season in the top five in the league in points, rebounds, assists and field-goal percentage last year.

- Tate Hall and Marquise Kennedy were tabbed to the MVC Preseason Third Team.

- Loyola has averaged 24.3 wins per season over the last three years, all 20-win campaigns.

- Head coach Porter Moser is in his 10th season.

- All five starters are back from last year's team.

- Own a three-game winning streak, most recently sweeping a weekend series from MVC preseason favorite UNI including a lopsided 88-46 victory on Sunday.

- Krutwig paces the team in scoring at 15.0 points per game and rebounding at 5.9 per game.

Home Sweet Home

- Valpo went undefeated at home during the nonconference slate and has won eight straight nonconference home games dating back to Dec. 17, 2018 vs. Ball State.

- Valpo got off to 3-0 home start for the fifth straight season, as the team owns a 15-0 record in the first three home games of the season since 2015-16.

- In contrast, Valpo has lost its first six road games of a season for the first time since 2002-03. It's worth noting that the 2002-03 squad did go on to win the Mid-Con regular season title and qualify for the NIT.

- Valpo started the season 2-0 at home for the 14th consecutive year. Since a 65-62 home loss to No. 8 Marquette on Nov. 27, 2006, Valpo is 27-0 in the first two home games of the season.

- Valpo has now won the home opener for 16 consecutive seasons with 14 of those victories coming by double figures. The last time Valpo started the home slate with a loss was an 85-71 defeat to Charlotte on Nov. 27, 2004.

- Valpo continued its history of home dominance a year ago and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.
- The Brown & Gold went 11-2 at the ARC last season, finishing with two home losses or fewer for the fourth time in the last eight years.

Notes Wrapping Up Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State (Missouri State 78, Valpo 68)

- Valpo hosted home games on back-to-back days for the first time since starting the 2016-17 season with home dates vs. Southern Utah (Nov. 11) and Trinity Christian (Nov. 12), the first two games under Matt Lottich.
- Valpo boasted four players in double figures, led by Jacob Ognacevic and Eron Gordon with 13 points apiece. Gordon paced the team in scoring for the first time in his Valpo career, while Ognacevic did so for the second time during his freshman season.
- Gordon's scoring output represented a season high, his top performance since Feb. 22 of last season, when he scored 13 vs. Bradley. Gordon was three rebounds away from a double-double as he pulled down seven, one shy of his career high from this year's season opener at Vanderbilt.
- Ognacevic's 13 points came on 4-of-7 shooting in just 12 minutes of action.
- Sheldon Edwards reached nine points for the second straight day, this time finishing with 10 points. He has scored in double figures on four occasions this season.
- Ben Krikke scored 12 points to finish in double figures for the eighth time in the season's first 10 games.
- Daniel Sackey sent out a team-high six assists while also going 5-of-6 at the free-throw line and swiping a pair of steals.
- Missouri State's Gaige Prim posted a double-double of 16 points and 10 rebounds to go along with Isiah Mosley's 29-point performance. Mosley's 26 second-half points marked the most by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Reggie Hamilton of Oakland had 28 in the second half on Dec. 17, 2011.
- Valpo was held to a then season-low 35.4 percent shooting, but did haul in 11 offensive rebounds, snapping a streak of three straight games with five or fewer.
- Valpo dropped back-to-back home contests for the first time since December 2018 vs. High Point and Ball State.

Notes Wrapping Up Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State (Missouri State 81, Valpo 68)

- Valpo shot a season-high 40.7 percent from 3-point range (11-of-27). It was the team's highest 3-point clip since going 11-of-22 on

Feb. 25 of last season, also at home against Missouri State. However, Valpo's overall shooting percentage of 41.1 on Jan. 9 was its lowest in the last seven games to that point.

- Valpo had a season-low seven turnovers. The team had just one game all of last season where it committed seven or fewer turnovers, also vs. Missouri State (7 in MVC semifinal matchup). It was the team's fifth time under Matt Lottich (fifth season) with seven turnovers or fewer, and three have come vs. Missouri State.
- Donovan Clay enjoyed his fourth career 20-point game and his second this season. The sophomore's 21 points marked a season high, surpassing his output of 20 from Dec. 12 at Central Michigan.
- Clay finished one-point shy of a career high, which occurred in last season's home matchup with Missouri State (Feb. 25), when he scored 22 points. Half of Clay's scoring outputs of 20+ have coming against Missouri State.
- This was the second straight year Clay made four 3s in the MVC opener, as both of his career games with four 3-pointers came to open up MVC play (Dec. 30, 2019 vs. Loyola).
- Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State marked Clay's 25th career double-figure scoring showing and his sixth in the first nine games this season.
- Ben Krikke had shattered his previous season high by halftime on his way to his career-high 21. His previous season watermark was 16 at Toledo (Dec. 19) and his previous career best was 18 vs. Trinity Christian (Nov. 27, 2019).
- Krikke's 17 points in the first half were the most in a single half by a Valpo player this season, surpassing Jacob Ognacevic's 16-point second half vs. Judson. Krikke joins Javon Freeman-Liberty (twice), Tevonn Walker (twice) and Alec Peters (twice during his senior season, Lottich's first season) as the only four players with 17 or more first-half points in a game during the Matt Lottich Era.
- Connor Barrett finished with 11 points for his fourth double-figure scoring output of the season. Before being held to three points on Sunday, Jan. 10 vs. Missouri State, Barrett had scored nine points or more in five of his previous six games.
- Barrett accounted for five of the team's nine steals, matching his steal total from the season's first eight games in one game on Saturday, Jan. 9 to double his season total to 10 (now 11). He became the first Valpo player with five steals in a game since Freeman-Liberty on Feb. 15 of last season at Illinois State and the first player not named Javon with a five-steal game since Tevonn Walker on Jan. 13, 2018 at UNI.
- Barrett joined the short list of players with five or more steals in a game during the Matt Lottich Era: Javon Freeman-Liberty (3), Lexus Williams (3) and Tevonn Walker (2).
- Edwards chipped in nine points as freshmen and sophomores (specifically, the quartet of Krikke, Edwards, Clay and Barrett) accounted for 62 of the team's 68 points (91.1 percent).
- Valpo's last two games with a pair of 20-point scorers have both come against Missouri State (Donovan Clay & Ryan Fazekas, Feb.

25, 2020; Clay & Krikke, Saturday, Jan. 9, 2021).

- Missouri State's 70.8 percent shooting clip in the first half was the highest by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Dec. 28, 2017 (at Indiana State, 72.2 percent, 2nd half). Missouri State's performance was the highest shooting percentage in the first half of a game by a Valpo opponent since Jan. 13, 1992 (vs. Western Illinois, 72.3 percent).

- The defeat snapped a six-game home winning streak that dated back to Feb. 5 of last season (L 63-51 vs. UNI). All six wins during that streak came by 12 points or more.

Krikke's Big Half

When Ben Krikke scored 17 points in the opening half on Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State, he became just the fourth different Valpo player with 17 or more points before halftime during the Matt Lottich head coaching tenure (fifth season). Below is a list of instances of Valpo players with 17+ points in the first half of a game since Lottich took over in 2016-17.

a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Preseason Picks

- Sophomore Donovan Clay was named to the Preseason MVC Second Team.
- Valpo was picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.
- Valpo exceeded preseason expectations a year ago after being picked to finish ninth. The Brown & Gold tied for sixth in the regular-season standings and went on to finish as the conference tournament runner-up.

Who's Back, Who's New?

- This year's team features 11 returning letter winners (nine scholarship, two walk-on) to go along with six newcomers (four scholarship, two walk-on).
- Three letter winners departed from the 2019-20 squad.
- Valpo returns 59.2 percent of its scoring and 64.3 percent of its rebounding from last season. Both numbers are up from a year ago, when Valpo returned just 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding from 2018-19.
- Last season, the entire roster was from either Indiana, Illinois or outside the United States. This year, Valpo has added three additional states to the mix in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Florida.
- Still, six players hail from Illinois and four from Indiana. The six Illinois natives are the most since 2015-16.
- Coincidentally, Valpo's last player from the state of Florida before freshman Sheldon Edwards shares the same last name. Lakeland native Richie Edwards played for the Brown & Gold during the 2011-2012 campaign.
- Newcomer Goodnews Kpegeol is the first Valpo player from the state of Minnesota since Cory Johnson's final season on campus in 2010-2011.
- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic is Valpo's first player from Wisconsin since Andrew Ferry in 2008-2009.

Arrow Pointed Up

- Valpo made its first conference championship appearance since 2015, doing so after being picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll.
- Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year Missouri Valley Conference member. When the Brown & Gold transitioned from the Mid-Continent Conference to the Horizon League prior to the 2007-2008 season, the program didn't reach the conference championship game until Year 5 and followed by winning its first Horizon League Tournament title in Year 6.
- The men's basketball program became the first Valpo team in any sport to reach the Missouri Valley Conference championship game during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. - Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation for the first time since joining The Valley, agreeing to a CollegeInsider.com Tournament berth before the event was canceled due to the coronavirus.

- The program had its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15.
- Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, Valpo continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

2019-20 Team Statistical Feats

- Led the Missouri Valley Conference in assists per game at 15.2, the first time Valpo led a conference in that area since pacing the Horizon League in 2011-2012. The 15.2 assists per game was Valpo's highest total since 2010-11 (15.8 apg) and the team's second-highest output over the last 13 seasons. The squad ranked 29th nationally in assists per game and 12th in total assists.
- Averaged 7.7 steals per game to rank second in the MVC and totaled 270 steals, a number that checked in at 18th nationally. The team had its highest steals average since 2010-11 and the second-highest over the last 16 seasons.
- The team averaged 72.3 points per game, second in the MVC. That was the team's second-highest scoring average over the last eight seasons. In addition, the team jumped 5.5 points per game from 2018-19 to 2019-20.
- Valpo made 287 3-pointers, the team's second-most since 2008-09 and the third-most over the last 30 years.
- The team had 922 made field goals, its third most over the last 30 years.
- Valpo committed just 12.7 turnovers per game, the team's lowest total over the last 30 seasons.

2020 Arch Madness Accomplishments

- The Valpo/Loyola quarterfinal was the 18th overtime game in MVC Tournament history and the 20th game decided by a single point. It was the first one-point game in the MVC Tournament since Indiana State's 51-50 victory over Evansville in 2013.
- Valpo's 89 points in the MVC semifinal against Missouri State were the seventh-most in a game in the 30-year history of Arch Madness. It was the highest scoring output in any MVC Tournament contest since Creighton put 99 on Evansville on March 3, 2012.
- Valpo scored 287 points in the MVC Tournament, the third most in the history of the event and the most since Indiana State scored 310 in 1978.

- The team's 138 rebounds were the fourth most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Tulsa had 143 in 1978.
- The 107 made field goals were the third most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Indiana State in 1978.

- The 90 3-point field goal attempts shattered the previous tournament record of 76 (Drake 2008, Illinois State 2009).
- Valpo made 10 3-pointers in the conference championship game, tying for the fourth most in the history of the MVC Final just a few days removed from hitting no 3s in a win over Evansville. Valpo became the first team to make zero 3s in an MVC Tournament Game since Southern Illinois went 0-for-6 on March 5, 1994 vs. Missouri State.
- Valpo's 29 3-point attempts in the MVC final tied for the second most in the history of the title game, joining Illinois State in 2009 (35 vs. UNI 2009) and Illinois State in 2012 (29 vs. Creighton).
- Only one team since 1994 had made 15 or more field goals in the first half of an MVC title game (Drake 16 vs. Illinois State in 2008), and Valpo and Bradley had 15 apiece in the first half of last year's championship game.
- Valpo made seven 3s in the first half of the title game against Bradley, tying the MVC Tournament title game record of seven set by Southern Illinois on March 7, 1989 vs. Creighton. Valpo set the conference title game record for 3-point attempts in the first half with 16, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 set by Illinois State on March 8, 2009 vs. UNI.
- Ryan Fazekas' 21 3-point attempts in the MVC Tournament tied for the ninth-most in the history of the event.

Staff Sidebars

Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns. Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas – a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA. He has gone on to a successful career overseas with CSKA Moscow (2018-2019), Anadolu Efes (2019-2020) and Kirolbet Baskonia (2020-present).

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

5th Season * Stanford, 2004

76-68 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his eighth season overall at Valparaiso University and fifth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2020-2021.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19.

During the 2019-2020 season, Lottich led the program to its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15. Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, the program continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude, as his team has erased double-figure deficits to win 15 times over his first four seasons while coughing up a double-figure advantage just once in that span. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
