Valparaiso (10-17, 7-11 MVC) vs. Missouri State (16-6, 12-6 MVC)

Game No. 28 – Friday, March 5, 8:08 p.m.
Enterprise Center (16,502) – St. Louis, Mo.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: For the first time since joining the prestigious Missouri Valley Conference, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team has earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament by virtue of a top-six finish in the regular-season standings. The program continued to elevate its Valley tournament seeding with each passing season, bypassing Thursday's opening round and vaulting straight into a quarterfinal showdown against the third-seeded Bears of Missouri State. Valpo will look to replicate its Arch Madness success from a season ago, when head coach Matt Lottich's team won three games in three days to become the first opening-round team in the 30-year history of the event to reach the title game.

Last Time Out: Valpo finished the regular season on a high note, clinching a first-round bye in Arch Madness with a 70-58 triumph over Indiana State on Saturday, Feb. 27. The 12-point victory flipped the script from a double-digit defeat the night prior, when the visiting Sycamores came away with a 58-43 win. The victory for Valpo in Game 2 of the back-to-back featured a commendable performance from the Valpo bench, which outscored the Terre Haute team's reserves 49-3 with Jacob Ognacevic leading the way with 19 points and Goodnews Kpegeol registering a double-double of 12 and 11.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (83-77) is in his eighth season overall at Valpo and fifth as head coach in 2020-21. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Trending Upward

- Valpo has improved its Arch Madness seeding in each of its four Missouri Valley Conference seasons.
- The team entered Arch Madness as a No. 10 seed in 2017-18, a No. 9 seed in 2018-19, a No. 7 in 2019-20 and now a No. 6 in 2020-21.
- Valpo's conference-tournament performance has elevated in each season as well. The team made a first-round exit in Year 1 before notching its first Arch Madness victory in Year 2. Last year featured the program's first MVC title game appearance, setting the stage for Year 4 this weekend.

Series Notes

- Missouri State holds a 21-10 lead in the all-time series after taking both regular-season meetings this year.
- Valpo topped the Bears 89-82 in last year's MVC semifinal to reach the conference championship game.
- This marks the third time in Valpo's first four seasons in the league that these two teams have matched up in Arch Madness. The squads have split the first two St. Louis faceoffs with Missouri State winning 83-79 in the opening round in 2018 before the aforementioned Valpo victory a season ago.
- Valpo is 3-7 in 10 meetings with the Bears since joining the Valley. The Brown & Gold swept a nonconference home-and-home between the two teams in December 2015 and December 2016.
- Valpo dropped the two meetings this season by double figures at home, but the team was opening up conference play after a lengthy layoff and limited practice time due to a COVID-19 related pause. Some Valpo players were still quarantined and others were playing after as few as two to three practices.

Regular Season Meetings with Missouri State...

Jan. 9: Missouri State 81, Valpo 68 (Valparaiso, Ind.)

- Valpo shot 40.7 percent from 3-point range (11-of-27), but just 41.1 percent overall.
- Valpo committed just seven turnovers. The team also committed only seven turnovers in last year's MVC Tournament matchup with Missouri State.
- Donovan Clay enjoyed his fourth career 20-point game and his second this season. The sophomore's 21-point effort against the Bears is still his season high entering Arch Madness.
- Clay finished one point shy of a career high, which occurred in last season's home matchup with Missouri State (Feb. 25), when he scored 22 points. Clay hit a season-high four 3s in this year's game against the Bears.

- Ben Krikke had shattered his previous season high by halftime on his way to 21 points, at the time a career high. That stood as his second-highest single game scoring output during the 2020-21 regular season (25 on Jan. 24 at Illinois State).
- Krikke's 17 points in the first half were the most in a single half by a Valpo player this season. The Canadian forward joined Javon Freeman-Liberty (twice), Tevonn Walker (twice) and Alec Peters (twice during his senior season, Lottich's first season) as the only four players with 17 or more first-half points in a game during the Matt Lottich Era.
- Freshman Connor Barrett accounted for five of the team's nine steals. He became the first Valpo player with five steals in a game since Freeman-Liberty on Feb. 15 of last season at Illinois State and the first player not named Javon with a five-steal game since Tevonn Walker on Jan. 13, 2018 at UNI.
- Barrett joined the short list of players with five or more steals in a game during the Matt Lottich Era: Javon Freeman-Liberty (3), Lexus Williams (3) and Tevonn Walker (2).
- Sheldon Edwards chipped in nine points as freshmen and sophomores (specifically, the quarter of Krikke, Edwards, Clay and Barrett) accounted for 62 of the team's 68 points (91.1 percent).
- Valpo's last two games with a pair of 20-point scorers have both come against Missouri State (Clay & Ryan Fazekas, Feb. 25, 2020; Clay & Krikke, Saturday, Jan. 9, 2021).
- Missouri State's 70.8 percent shooting clip in the first half was the highest by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Dec. 28, 2017 (at Indiana State, 72.2 percent, 2nd half). Missouri State's performance was the highest shooting percentage in the first half of a game by a Valpo opponent since Jan. 13, 1992 (vs. Western Illinois, 72.3 percent).

Jan. 10: Missouri State 78, Valpo 68 (Valparaiso, Ind.)

- Valpo boasted four players in double figures, led by Jacob Ognacevic and Eron Gordon with 13 points apiece. Gordon paced the team in scoring for the first time in his Valpo career.
- Ognacevic's 13 points came on 4-of-7 shooting in just 12 minutes of action.
- Sheldon Edwards reached nine points for the second straight day, this time finishing with 10 points.
- Ben Krikke scored 12 points to finish in double figures for the eighth time in the season's first 10 games.
- Daniel Sackey sent out a team-high six assists while also going 5-of-6 at the free-throw line and swiping a pair of steals.
- Missouri State's Gaige Prim posted a double-double of 16 points and 10 rebounds to go along with Mosley's 29-point performance. Mosley's 26 second-half points marked the most by a Valpo opponent in a single half since Reggie Hamilton of Oakland had 28 in the second half on Dec. 17, 2011.

MVC Title Game, 1 p.m.

- Valpo was held to a season-low 35.4 percent shooting, but did haul in 11 offensive rebounds, snapping a streak of three straight games with five or fewer.

- Valpo dropped back-to-back home contests for the first time since December 2018 vs. High Point and Ball State.

Scouting the Bears

- Had a seven-game winning streak snapped with a 72-63 loss at Evansville in the regular-season finale.

- Led in scoring by Isiaiah Mosley at 20.0 points per game, while Gaige Prim is contributing 16.8 points per contest and squeezing 9.0 rebounds per game.

- Like Valpo, exceeded preseason expectations by finishing third after being projected to finish sixth.

Third Time's a Charm?

- Valpo hopes the old adage "it's hard to beat a team three times" comes true on Friday as Missouri State seeks the three-game season sweep over the Brown & Gold.

- Friday's matchup with Missouri State marks the seventh time in the last 17 years that Valpo has faced a team in conference tournament play that it lost to twice during the regular season.

- Valpo is 2-4 in the previous six instances, with the victories coming vs. Loyola in 2020 and vs. Indiana State in 2019. Valpo incurred three-game sweeps at the hands of Loyola in 2019 and Missouri State in 2018. During its first two Horizon League seasons, Valpo dropped all three matchups with Cleveland State (2007-08) and Wright State (2008-09).

Valpo in St. Louis

- Although Valpo is the new kid on the block when it comes to Arch Madness, the program's history in the building now known as the Enterprise Center goes beyond the team's three MVC Tournament appearances.

- Valpo's Sweet Sixteen game against Rhode Island in 1998 was played in the building, which was then known as the Kiel Center.

- Valpo also appeared in the 2002 NCAA Tournament in St. Louis, but the first-round date with Kentucky was played at the Edward Jones Dome.

- Head coach Matt Lottich played at Stanford from 2000-2004 and was part of the Cardinal team that participated in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament at the Edwards Jones Dome in 2002. His squad joined Valpo as two of the eight teams competing in St. Louis in the opening round of the tournament that year.

The Valley Transition

- With Year 4 in the Missouri Valley Conference now in the books, Valpo has surpassed Loyola's conference win total over its first four seasons in the league. Valpo garnered its 29th MVC victory in the regular-season finale vs. Indiana State.

- The Ramblers went 27-45 over their first four seasons before going 57-16 in the four years since.

- Valpo has improved its conference finish in each season during the four-year transitional period after elevating to the prestigious and competitive conference.

Bench Benchmarks

- In the regular-season finale vs. Indiana State on Feb. 27, Valpo outscored the Sycamores 49-3 with the trio of Goodnews Kpegeol, Jacob Ognacevic and Zion Morgan accounting for 46 of those 49. That reserve group outscored the remainder of Valpo's roster 46-24 and accounted for two-thirds of the team's scoring.

- The 49 bench points were Valpo's most in a game against a Division-I team since Jan. 18, 2016, a 96-65 victory at Youngstown State that featured 53 bench points.

- Valpo has outscored the opponent in bench points in each of the last seven games.

- Valpo's three bench players (28) outscored its five starters (24) in the near upset of No. 22/23 Loyola on Feb. 17.

Sheboygan Sharpshooter

- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic has been a key cog in Valpo's recent surge in scoring off the bench. The Sheboygan, Wis. native – who shattered Sheboygan Lutheran High School's scoring record that was previously held by Sam Dekker – went 7-of-9 from the field and 5-of-6 from 3 in Valpo's regular-season finale vs. Indiana State on Feb. 27.

- In the process, Ognacevic racked up 19 points in just 25 minutes, rewriting his season best against a Division-I opponent and finishing a single point shy of his overall personal best that came in a December game vs. Judson.

- Ognacevic became the first Valpo player to hit five 3s in a game against a Division-I opponent this season and joined fellow freshman Connor Barrett as the only members of the squad with five triples in a contest this year.

- In addition, Ognacevic became just the fifth MVC player to shoot 83.3 percent or better with at least four attempts from 3 in a single game this season.

- "JO" boasted a team-best plus-minus line of +26 in the victory over the Sycamores.

- Ognacevic's season 3-point percentage is up to 51.7, while his field-goal percentage stands at 55.0. The rookie has attempted just 2.1 3s per game, so he does not meet the NCAA minimum of 2.5 attempts per game to qualify for the NCAA leaderboard. The top 3-point field goal percentage in the nation among those who qualify is 48.5.

- Valpo has had just one qualifying player finish above 50 percent from 3 in program history (Lane Barker, 52.1 percent, 1991-92), but 75 attempts are needed to qualify for the record book and Ognacevic has 58 attempts entering Arch Madness.
- The freshman does have enough field-goal attempts to qualify for the program record book in that category and is currently just outside the top 10 at 55 percent. He would need to finish at 57.2 percent or better to crack the record book.
- Ognacevic made at least one three in nine of the final 10 regular-season games after not attempting a 3 in any of his previous five games before that stretch.
- The rookie has scored seven points or more in four straight including two games of 15 or more during that stretch.

More Good News for Valpo

- Goodnews Kpegeol enjoyed a career day in Valpo's regular-season finale on Feb. 27 vs. Indiana State, posting a double-double of 12 points and 11 rebounds. His day on the glass shattered his previous best of seven, while his point total represented his third game in double figures this year.
- Kpegeol achieved his first double-double in a Valpo uniform and became the fourth Valpo player to turn the trick this season, joining Donovan Clay (2), Eron Gordon and Ben Krikke.
- Kpegeol went from playing just 1 minute, 21 seconds the previous day vs. Indiana State (CD) to 29 minutes of productive run in the Feb. 27 series finale.
- Kpegeol has scored seven points or more five times in his last seven games.
- The Kansas State transfer pulled down 11 rebounds in the Feb. 27 game vs. Indiana State after having nine total boards in his previous seven games combined.

Coming on Strong

- Zion Morgan matched a career high with 15 points while handing out a season-high five assists against no turnovers in the Feb. 27 victory over Indiana State.
- Morgan also pulled down five rebounds, his fifth straight game with five or more boards. That came after he had more than two rebounds just once in his first nine games of the year.
- After shooting 45.8 percent (11-24) at the free-throw line last season, Morgan has knocked down freebies at an 81.8 percent clip (9-11) this year.
- Morgan is averaging 5.2 points per game this year after scoring 1.9 points per contest a year ago.

The Quarantine King

- Valpo sophomore Ben Krikke leads the team in scoring at 12.3 points per game (13.1 in MVC play) after scoring 6.7 points per game last year, fifth on the team.
- Krikke's increased success comes despite spending nearly 100 days in quarantine between the end of last year's MVC Tournament and the start of this year's tournament.
- Fortunately for Valpo, none of those 100 days fell during the team's 27 games, as Krikke is the lone player to have started all 27 regular-season contests for Matt Lottich's team this season.
- However, the time in quarantine did impact Krikke's ability to prepare for the season and stay in shape, making his jump this year even more impressive.
- Five of the quarantines came due to contact tracing, while two others occurred due to international travel back and forth between his native Edmonton.
- On the bright side, Krikke picked up a new hobby of learning about and following the stock market during his numerous quarantines.
- The sophomore forward is on pace to become a 1,000-point scorer at Valpo as he owns 551 career points. Fellow sophomore Donovan Clay is Valpo's active leader as he recently crossed the 600-point threshold and enters Arch Madness at 601.

Battling on the Boards

- Valpo won the rebounding battle 40-22 over Indiana State in the Feb. 27 regular-season finale, a rebounding margin of +18 that marked the team's best in any game since Dec. 20, 2018 vs. Purdue Northwest.
- That represented Valpo's largest rebounding margin against a Division-I opponent since holding a 32-rebound edge vs. Samford on Nov. 21, 2017.
- Valpo has now outrebounded its opponent in three of the last five games with one of the games where Valpo was outrebounded during that stretch featuring just a one-board disparity.
- Prior to this five-game stretch, rebounding had been a major bugaboo for the Brown & Gold, who had been outrebounded in eight straight and 18 of the first 22 games this season.

A Rebounding Lift

- One major lift in terms of rebounding has come in the form of Eron Gordon, who ranks second on the team with 5.0 rpg and is tied for the team lead at 5.6 rpg in conference play.
- The fifth-year senior ranks among the top rebounding guards in the MVC and is seventh among all MVC players in defensive rebounds per game at 4.7.
- Gordon has led the team in rebounding 11 times this year after not doing so at all last season.
- The younger brother of Houston Rockets veteran Eric Gordon, Eron finished ninth on the team in rebounding last season at 2.3 rebounds per contest overall and 2.6 in league play.

- Gordon did not have more than five boards in any of his 35 games last season, while this year he has 11 games of more than five rebounds and 10 with seven or more.

A Milestone Victory

- The win over Indiana State in the Feb. 27 season finale also marked an all-time milestone for Valpo's program.
- The program hit the 1,400-victory mark in its proud history.
- Entering Arch Madness, Valpo boasts an all-time record of 1400-1255.

Sustained Home Success

- Thanks to a win over Indiana State in the home finale, Valpo finished 6-6 at home this season.
- The Athletics-Recreation Center has provided a distinct homecourt advantage over the years as Valpo has not finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92.
- The program finished with a record of .500 or better at home for the 29th consecutive season.
- Valpo has enjoyed double-figure home win totals in nine of the last 10 seasons prior to this unusual, pandemic-altered year. Due to health and safety regulations, fans were unable to pack the ARC as they have in years past.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Feb. 27 (Valpo 70, Indiana State 58)

- The Brown & Gold secured the double-figure victory despite equaling a season high with 19 turnovers, a number previously reached in an early-season game vs. Purdue Northwest. Valpo picked up its first win when losing the turnover battle this season, improving to 1-9 in those games.
- The hosts went 8-of-14 from 3-point range for a season-best percentage of 57.1.

- This game was the latest example of what a difference a day makes, as Valpo led by as many as 28 and won by 12 a day after a 15-point setback to the Sycamores. Valpo shot 54 percent, its second-highest clip of the season, a day after shooting a season-low 29.1 percent.
- Valpo handed the Sycamores just their second loss in their last 12 regular-season games.
- Valpo used a 17-0 run in the first half and led by as many as 28, but Indiana State closed to within eight with 6:16 to go thanks in part to a 13-0 run.
- Ben Krikke finished in double figures for the 20th time this season.

Notes Wrapping Up Feb. 26 (Indiana State 58, Valpo 43)

- The Sycamores led by as many as 23 and enjoyed a 19-0 first-half scoring run.
- Valpo defended the 3-point arc well, limiting Indiana State to 3-of-20 from long distance.
- Valpo had just nine turnovers, its sixth game this season with fewer than 10. However, the Sycamores coughed it up just five times, the second-fewest forced by Valpo all season.
- Valpo shot just 29.1 percent, the team's lowest field-goal percentage since Feb. 5, 2020 at UNI (28.1 percent).

Going Big

- Valpo has used a larger lineup over the last five games, featuring Sheldon Edwards (6-foot-4), Eron Gordon (6-3), Donovan Clay (6-7), Ben Krikke (6-9) and Mileek McMillan (6-8) with Jacob Ogancevic (6-8) seeing significant run off the bench.
- The new-look lineup was created in part out of necessity due to starters Daniel Sackey and Connor Barrett both being sidelined with injuries. Sackey has since returned after missing three contests, coming off the bench in both games vs. Indiana State.
- Donovan Clay had started 53 straight games before coming off the bench for the two games at UNI on Feb. 13-14, but has since returned to the starting five.
- Sackey had started every game this season before missing the Feb. 17 game at Loyola due to an injury.
- Ben Krikke is the only Valpo player who has started every game this year.

Staying Busy

- Valpo closed out the regular season with a stretch of 16 Missouri Valley Conference games in a 39-day span as Valpo was among the conference's busiest teams after early-season postponements.
- By comparison, Valpo played three games over the previous 31 days before beginning the stretch of seemingly nonstop competition.
- Six of Valpo's first eight Missouri Valley Conference games were postponed due to COVID-19, causing the backlog of makeup games during this busy stretch.
- Valpo didn't practice from Dec. 20-Jan. 4 leading into the start of the conference season. The team also had a two-week pause shortly before the start of the nonconference slate in November.

- Three nonconference games were cancelled and two were added during a challenging season for schedule-makers.
- In all, Valpo has had nine games either cancelled or postponed. In addition, two Missouri Valley Conference series (at Evansville, at UNI) were pushed back one day from the original dates to make room for makeup games.

Rising to the Occasion

- Three of Valpo's best performances all season have come against Top 25 competition, with the Brown & Gold earning the fourth nationally-ranked win in program history on Feb. 7 by blitzing No. 25 Drake 74-57, a win that was sandwiched around one-possession setbacks to Top 25 teams.
- Valpo narrowly missed its first Top 25 road win in program history on Wednesday, Feb. 17 at Loyola, falling 54-52. The two-point margin of defeat was the closest Valpo has ever come to winning a true road game against an AP Top 25 foe in 42 opportunities. The previous closest call was Dec. 30, 2001, a 74-70 loss at No. 14 Arizona.
- Counting a Dec. 4 game against a Purdue team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking later in the season, Valpo has played five games against teams that have been ranked at some point this year during the 2020-21 campaign. Valpo has led at halftime in four of the five contests (with the lone exception being the first game vs. Loyola).
- Valpo was 2-65 against AP Top 25 teams prior to Matt Lottich's promotion to head coach and owns a 2-5 record since, a mark that easily could be 4-3 with two losses to ranked teams by three points or fewer this season.
- To make the performance even more impressive, Valpo pushed Loyola to the brink despite playing without two usual starters as Connor Barrett and Daniel Sackey were both sidelined by injuries.

Notes Wrapping Up Feb. 17 (#22/23 Loyola 54, Valpo 52)

- Loyola narrowly extended its home winning streak to 20 games and hasn't lost a Missouri Valley Conference home game in exactly two years (since Feb. 17, 2019) after escaping with a win over Valpo.
- The 54 points was Loyola's second-lowest total this season and lowest in a home game.
- Valpo held a team that was averaging 75 points per game and hitting at a 58.6 percent clip over its previous three home games to a 38.5 percent shooting mark in its own gym on Feb. 17 at Loyola.
- Valpo won the rebounding battle 30-29, owning an edge on the glass for the first time in the last nine contests. Donovan Clay topped the team with seven boards.

- This matchup was 34 points closer than the first meeting between the two teams, when Loyola prevailed 75-39 on Jan. 20 in Valpo.
- Three of the last four Valpo-Loyola matchups have been decided by three points or fewer.

A Win That Ranks Up There

- Valpo earned its fourth victory in program history over an Associated Press Top 25 team on Sunday, Feb. 7, upsetting previously undefeated No. 25 Drake 74-57. Two of the four victories against nationally-ranked opponents have come under head coach Matt Lottich's watch as his team knocked off No. 21/25 Rhode Island 65-62 in 2016-17, Lottich's first season at the helm.
- Prior to Lottich assuming head coaching duties, Valpo was just 2-65 all-time against ranked teams (1998 NCAA Tournament "The Shot" vs. Ole Miss; 1988 "Lutheran Miracle" vs. Notre Dame).
- Of the 22 head coaches in Valpo Basketball history, only Matt Lottich and National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Famer Homer Drew have coached the team to wins over nationally-ranked opponents. Lottich and Drew have two Top 25 wins apiece, with Lottich's coming in his first five seasons while Drew finished with two during his 22-year run.
- Valpo has won two of its last three home games against Top 25 teams with the loss coming by just three points to Drake in the Saturday, Feb. 6 matchup.

Never A Doubt

- Not only did Valpo upstage a quality and experienced No. 25 Drake team on Sunday, Feb. 7, but it did so in lopsided fashion. The 17-point margin of victory matched Valpo's largest in a regular-season Missouri Valley Conference game since joining the league.
- Valpo owns two other 17-point wins in MVC play, February 2020 vs. Southern Illinois and January 2018 vs. Drake. In addition, the team had a 22-point win over Indiana State in conference tournament action.
- The 17-point cushion was the program's largest over a nationally-ranked foe by a wide margin as the previous three wins were all decided by three points or fewer.
- Lock-down defense paved the way to the rout as Valpo held a team that entered the day averaging 82.8 points per game to a season-low 57, 11 points below the Bulldogs' previous season floor.

#SCTop10 Again

- Sheldon Edwards' dunk from the Sunday, Feb. 7 victory over No. 25 Drake checked in at No. 7 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays late that night.
- This marks the third time in the last two years Valpo basketball has produced an #SCTop10 play. Since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, Valpo Athletics have been featured on the popular daily countdown on eight occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (four times), women's basketball, softball, soccer and volleyball.
- The poster slam also landed on ESPN.com's college basketball homepage on Sunday.

Unbeaten No More

- Valpo faced a team with a perfect record of 18-0 or better for the first time in at least 20 years when Drake arrived at the ARC for the Sunday, Feb. 7 game. Valpo's most recent game against a team with an undefeated record this late in the season prior to this past weekend is believed to be a 1979-80 matchup with DePaul when the Blue Demons entered at 20-0.
- Previously, the team with the best record that Valpo had faced over the last two decades was 12-0 North Carolina on Dec. 20, 2008 at the United Center.
- Entering Feb. 7, Valpo was 2-10 against undefeated teams that had played five or more games since the start of the 1999-2000 season. In addition, Valpo garnered its first win over a team with an unblemished mark of 7-0 or better in that span as Valpo was 0-8 against those opponents before the win over the Bulldogs.
- Drake was one of three remaining undefeated teams in the nation at the time of Valpo's victory. Coincidentally, both remaining teams with undefeated records feature Valpo connections, as Baylor is under the direction of former Valpo head coach Scott Drew and former Valpo assistant coach Roger Powell serves on Gonzaga's staff.

Youth vs. Experience

- The Valpo/Drake matchup pitted one of the nation's oldest teams against a Valpo team that depends heavily on freshmen and sophomores.
- Drake boasts an average age of 21.5 years old and has a starting five with an average age of 23.3. That starting lineup is older than the starting five of three teams in the NBA, including the Chicago Bulls who have an average starters' age of 21.6.
- Conversely, Valpo started two freshmen and two sophomores in both games this weekend. On Saturday, freshmen and sophomores combined for 56 of Valpo's 77 points (72.7 percent), while on Sunday underclassmen accounted for 46 out of 74 points (62.2 percent).
- Drake received only 15 of its 80 points (18.8 percent) from freshmen and sophomores on Saturday before underclassmen made up just nine of their 48 points (18.8 percent) on Sunday.

- Valpo outscored Drake 102-24 in points by freshmen and sophomores over the two games.

A Look Back at 2019-20: Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, head coach Matt Lottich's team did more than hold its own, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Preseason Picks

- Sophomore Donovan Clay was named to the Preseason MVC Second Team.

- Valpo was picked to finish eighth in the preseason poll based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.

- Valpo exceeded preseason expectations a year ago after being picked to finish ninth. The Brown & Gold tied for sixth in the regular-season standings and went on to finish as the conference tournament runner-up.

Who's Back, Who's New?

- This year's team features 11 returning letter winners (nine scholarship, two walk-on) to go along with six newcomers (four scholarship, two walk-on).

- Three letter winners departed from the 2019-20 squad.

- Valpo returns 59.2 percent of its scoring and 64.3 percent of its rebounding from last season. Both numbers are up from a year ago, when Valpo returned just 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding from 2018-19.

- Last season, the entire roster was from either Indiana, Illinois or outside the United States. This year, Valpo has added three additional states to the mix in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Florida.

- Still, six players hail from Illinois and four from Indiana. The six Illinois natives are the most since 2015-16.

- Coincidentally, Valpo's last player from the state of Florida before freshman Sheldon Edwards shares the same last name. Lakeland native Richie Edwards played for the Brown & Gold during the 2011-2012 campaign.

- Newcomer Goodnews Kpegeol is the first Valpo player from the state of Minnesota since Cory Johnson's final season on campus in 2010-2011.

- Freshman Jacob Ognacevic is Valpo's first player from Wisconsin since Andrew Ferry in 2008-2009.

Arrow Pointed Up

- Valpo made its first conference championship appearance since 2015, doing so after being picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll.

- Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year Missouri Valley Conference member. When the Brown & Gold transitioned from the Mid-Continent Conference to the Horizon League prior to the 2007-2008 season, the program didn't reach the conference championship game until Year 5 and followed by winning its first Horizon League Tournament title in Year 6.

- The men's basketball program became the first Valpo team in any sport to reach the Missouri Valley Conference championship game during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league.

- Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation for the first time since joining The Valley, agreeing to a CollegeInsider.com Tournament berth before the event was canceled due to the coronavirus.

- The program had its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15.

- Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, Valpo continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

2019-20 Team Statistical Feats

- Led the Missouri Valley Conference in assists per game at 15.2, the first time Valpo led a conference in that area since pacing the Horizon League in 2011-2012. The 15.2 assists per game was Valpo's highest total since 2010-11 (15.8 apg) and the team's second-highest output over the last 13 seasons. The squad ranked 29th nationally in assists per game and 12th in total assists.

- Averaged 7.7 steals per game to rank second in the MVC and totaled 270 steals, a number that checked in at 18th nationally. The team had its highest steals average since 2010-11 and the second-highest over the last 16 seasons.

- The team averaged 72.3 points per game, second in the MVC. That was the team's second-highest scoring average over the last eight seasons. In addition, the team jumped 5.5 points per game from 2018-19 to 2019-20.

- Valpo made 287 3-pointers, the team's second-most since 2008-09 and the third-most over the last 30 years.

- The team had 922 made field goals, its third most over the last 30 years.

- Valpo committed just 12.7 turnovers per game, the team's lowest total over the last 30 seasons.

2020 Arch Madness Accomplishments

- The Valpo/Loyola quarterfinal was the 18th overtime game in MVC Tournament history and the 20th game decided by a single point. It was the first one-point game in the MVC Tournament since Indiana State's 51-50 victory over Evansville in 2013.

- Valpo's 89 points in the MVC semifinal against Missouri State were the seventh-most in a game in the 30-year history of Arch Madness. It was the highest scoring output in any MVC Tournament contest since Creighton put 99 on Evansville on March 3, 2012.

- Valpo scored 287 points in the MVC Tournament, the third most in the history of the event and the most since Indiana State scored 310 in 1978.

- The team's 138 rebounds were the fourth most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Tulsa had 143 in 1978.

- The 107 made field goals were the third most in MVC Tournament history and the most since Indiana State in 1978.

- The 29 made 3-point field goals tied for the second most in MVC Tournament history (despite going 0-for in the opening round against Evansville), joining 2009 Illinois State (32) and 1999 Evansville (29).

- The 90 3-point field goal attempts shattered the previous tournament record of 76 (Drake 2008, Illinois State 2009).

- Valpo made 10 3-pointers in the conference championship game, tying for the fourth most in the history of the MVC Final just a few days removed from hitting no 3s in a win over Evansville. Valpo became the first team to make zero 3s in an MVC Tournament Game since Southern Illinois went 0-for-6 on March 5, 1994 vs. Missouri State.

- Valpo's 29 3-point attempts in the MVC final tied for the second most in the history of the title game, joining Illinois State in 2009 (35 vs. UNI 2009) and Illinois State in 2012 (29 vs. Creighton).

- Only one team since 1994 had made 15 or more field goals in the first half of an MVC title game (Drake 16 vs. Illinois State in 2008), and Valpo and Bradley had 15 apiece in the first half of last year's championship game.

- Valpo made seven 3s in the first half of the title game against Bradley, tying the MVC Tournament title game record of seven set by Southern Illinois on March 7, 1989 vs. Creighton. Valpo set the conference title game record for 3-point attempts in the first half with 16, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 set by Illinois State on March 8, 2009 vs. UNI.

- Ryan Fazekas' 21 3-point attempts in the MVC Tournament tied for the ninth-most in the history of the event.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 19th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to eight postseason berths in the last 10 years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He oversees the team's post players in addition to leading Valpo's scheduling and scouting efforts.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

5th Season * Stanford, 2004

83-77 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his eighth season overall at Valparaiso University and fifth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2020-2021.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19.

During the 2019-2020 season, Lottich led the program to its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15. Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, the program continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude, as his team has erased double-figure deficits to win 15 times over his first four seasons while coughing up a double-figure advantage just once in that span. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.

2020-21: One of three Valpo freshmen to make his collegiate debut on Nov. 27 at Vanderbilt... Accrued his first collegiate points (3), rebounds (3) and assists (2) on Dec. 1 at UIC. His 3-pointer marked Valpo's lone made triple of the contest... Knocked down five 3s in the home opener vs. Judson on Dec. 6, becoming the first freshman with five treys in a game since 2013-2014 and the first Valpo player to do so in the first four games of his freshman season since 2006-07... Scored 14 points on Dec. 12 at Central Michigan, his second double-figure scoring output in a three-game span. That effort was highlighted at the foul line, where he went 6-for-6... Had five steals on Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State, joining the short list of Valpo players with five or more steals in a game during the Matt Lottich Era (fifth season): Javon Freeman-Liberty (3), Lexus Williams (3) and Tevonn Walker (2)... Finished with 12 points thanks to four made 3s on Jan. 23 at Illinois State, his fifth double-figure output as a freshman and his fourth game with three or more 3-pointers... Winning roots go back to his middle school days, when his team won three straight championships in sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Says winning at a young age helped him mature for the next level... Garnered all-Catholic Blue honors, was a team captain and was a 3A/4A all-state special mention by the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association as a senior in 2018-19... High school coach was Tom Livatino, who coached Matt Lottich as a football assistant at New Trier High School during the Valpo head coach's younger years... Livatino praises Barrett's shooting ability, work ethic, defensive ability and basketball IQ... Favorite high school memory was the sectional final versus Evanston. His team lost and he has watched the game back multiple times on film. "It's hard to watch, but you love the moment..." Watched most of Valpo's regular season and MVC Tournament games while he was at Brewster during the 2019-20 season.
