Game #20 - Wednesday, January 17 - 7 p.m.
at Missouri State (14-5, 4-2 MVC)
JQH Arena (11,000) - Springfield, Mo.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team makes the longest trek in Missouri Valley Conference play, heading to Springfield, Mo. to face Missouri State on Wednesday evening. The Crusaders are searching for their first road win in Valley action and will look to do so on Wednesday in a building where they've won twice in the last five years in non-conference play.

Last Time Out: Trailing by as many as 23 points in the second half and by 19 points with less than four minutes remaining at UNI, Valpo unleashed a furious rally, cutting the lead to single digits in just over a minute and getting as close as five points late. But the Crusaders couldn't complete the comeback, falling by an 81-76 final in Cedar Falls, Iowa Saturday night. Bakari Evelyn paced the Crusaders with 19 points, including four 3-pointers, while Markus Golder scored a season-high 18 points as well.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (35-17) continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018. In his first season at the helm, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Series Notes: Missouri State holds a 14-8 advantage in the all-time series with Valpo, but the Crusaders had won four straight in non-conference matchups this decade before the Bears captured the first meeting as MVC opponents on Dec. 31, 67-50. Max Joseph led Valpo, which shot just 34.8% as a team in the loss, with 13 points, while Jarrid Rhodes hit five 3-pointers for a game-high 15 points to lead Missouri State.

...looking ahead

- Last time out, the sophomore topped himself yet again, with nine assists at UNI - a season-high for any Valpo player.
- Perhaps most impressively, over the last three games, Bradford has turned the ball over just four times versus his 22 assists.

To 3 Or Not to 3

- Both of the Crusaders' MVC wins have been characterized by sharp shooting from the 3-point line, including last week's win over Drake.

- The Crusaders started just 3-of-16 from the 3-point line last time out in the loss at UNI before hitting 4-of-7 during their run down the stretch.

Fantastic Max

- Senior Max Joseph is playing at the highest level of his career to start off his final season of conference play.

- Joseph set new career highs with 17 points and three made 3-pointers versus SIU.

- Against Drake, Joseph recorded a career-best eight assists and scored 16 points (6-7 FG; 3-3 3PT).

- Over the Crusaders' first six MVC games, Joseph has scored in double figures five times and is averaging 12.2 points and 5.5 rebounds per game.

- He has shot at a 58.1% clip from the field and is 8-of-13 from 3-point range over the last six games after going just 2-of-16 from deep in non-conference play.

Cracking The Top-20

- With his final point at Bradley, senior Tevonn Walker moved into the top-20 in Crusader history in career scoring.

- Against SIU, Walker surpassed Lance Barker (1991-95) for 19th position.

- Walker currently sits with 1,230 career points, just 17 points away from Darryl Ashby (1974-78) in 18th position with 1,247 career points.

- Looking ahead, with at least 13 games remaining, Walker is 278 points away from a potential spot in the top-10.

Finding the Right Combination

- After using the same starting lineup for a seven-game stretch earlier this year, which included each of the team's first six wins over Division I opponents, Valpo's starting five has been in flux over the last few weeks.

- The Crusaders used their sixth different lineup in an eight-game span against SIU, bringing Jaume Sorolla off the bench for the first time this year and moving Derrik Smits into the starting five for the first time since Trinity Christian.

- That lineup - which also includes Bakari Evelyn, Tevonn Walker, Max Joseph and Mileek McMillan - has now started each of Valpo's last three games.

- 10 of Valpo's 12 players have now started at least once this season, with Micah Bradford and Marten Linssen the only Crusaders yet to start a game.

- Evelyn is the only Valpo player who has started every game this year.

We Are Young

- The Crusaders feature nine underclassmen on their roster.

- The active squad boasts two seniors, one junior, six sophomores and three freshmen.

- In its game at UC Riverside, the Crusaders suited up just one upperclassman - senior Max Joseph - among their 10 active players.

- Valpo ranks 262nd nationally in Ken Pomeroy's experience metric, which weights the experience of each player based on minutes played - the Crusaders' ranking is the lowest in The Valley.

Valpo in the Valley

- A new era begins this year for Valpo men's basketball and the athletics department and University as a whole, as the 2017-18 year is Valpo's first as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

- The Valley is renowned for its men's basketball success on the national stage. Since the year 2000, The Valley has earned 33 bids to the NCAA Tournament - 18 automatic bids and 15 at-large berths - and has posted 27 tournament victories.

- Since 2010, 12 MVC programs in the NCAA Tournament have combined for 16 victories.
- The Crusaders are looking to carry over the success they've had in the past two-plus decades into The Valley.
- Over its last 13 years as a member of the Mid-Continent Conference (1994-2007), Valpo claimed nine regular season and eight tournament championships.
- Then, in a decade as a Horizon League member (2007-2017), the Crusaders won five regular season and two tournament titles.

Multitude of Wins

- Since the start of the 2014-15 season, Valpo has been one of the nation's standard bearers in terms of victories on the court.
- The Crusaders have amassed 93 wins since the beginning of the 2014-15 campaign, two wins behind Notre Dame for top honors in the state of Indiana among D-I programs.
- As of the end of play Monday, Valpo was tied for 18th nationally over the same time span in terms of victories.

Non-Conference Success

- The Crusaders ended non-conference play with nine wins, missing out on double-figure victories in non-conference action for just the second time in the last six years.
- Valpo owns a 60-23 (.723) record in pre-league action over the last six years.

Third-Best Start

- The loss to Purdue capped the Crusaders' open to the 2017-18 season as the third best in program history.
- Valpo ended up 8-0 to start this season - the only two starts in program history better than 8-0 both came from teams which boast renowned monikers.
- The World's Tallest Team (1944-45) won 11 straight contests to open that season en route to a 21-3 record.
- The best start all-time by a Crusader squad came from the Victory Five (1923-24), which won its first 22 games of the year and finished the season 24-4.

Perfect Month

- With its win over Utah State, Valpo secured a perfect record in the month of November, finishing the month 8-0.
- It marked just the second perfect month for the Crusaders over the last 70 years (minimum three games played).
- The only other month where Valpo posted an undefeated mark came in February of 1998, as the Crusaders went 7-0 - a streak which eventually extended to a total of 13 straight wins as Valpo advanced to the Sweet 16.

Winning Big

- The first five of the Crusaders' wins this season all came by at least 20 points, the first time in program history that Valpo has won five straight by 20+ points.
- The Crusaders' first four wins of the year all came by at least 25 points, the first four-game winning streak in program history where all four wins came by 25+ points.
- The 25-point win at SIUE marked Valpo's largest known margin of victory in a road opener (dating back to the mid-1940s when sites are denoted within the all-time results).

Developing Pros

- Valpo has had an entire team's worth of talent from the past five years go on to professional basketball careers.
- Most notably, Alec Peters was selected by the Phoenix Suns with the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft and is currently on a two-way contract with Phoenix and the Northern Arizona Suns of the G-League.

- Peters is currently averaging 18.6 points and 8.2 rebounds per game for the NAZ Suns.
- E. Victor Nickerson (2016) has also seen time in the G-League with the Fort Wayne Mad Ants.
- Ryan Broekhoff (2013) highlights the Crusaders' international pros who have graduated in the last five years, as he currently stars for Lokomotiv in Russia's VTB United League and the EuroCup.
- Shane Hammink (2017) is playing for Bilbao Basket of Liga ACB in Spain - the top division - while Jubril Adekoya (2017), Vashil Fernandez (2016) and Kevin Van Wijk (2013) are all playing for CB Peñas Huesca of LEB Oro - Spain's second division.
- Lavonte Dority (2014) is playing for Den Helder Suns in the top division in the Netherlands, while Jordan Coleman (2014) has played for Omnia Basket in Italy's second division.

The International Flavor

- This year's squad continues the international pipeline that Valpo has cultivated over the past two decades.
- The Crusaders boast four international players on this year's roster from three different countries.
- Represented are Canada (Joseph and Walker), Spain (Sorolla) and Germany (Linssen).
- Over the past 21 years, the Crusaders have welcomed 33 international players from 19 different countries.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

2nd Season * Stanford, 2004
35-17 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
