Valparaiso (11-11, 2-7 MVC)

Game #23 - Saturday, January 27 - 9 p.m.
at Illinois State (10-11, 4-5 MVC)
Redbird Arena (10,200) - Normal, Ill.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team kicks off the second half of its initial foray into Missouri Valley Conference basketball on Saturday night, as the Crusaders head to Normal, Ill. to take on Illinois State in a nationally-televised matchup.

Last Time Out: Valpo connected on 11 3-pointers Wednesday night at the ARC as the Crusaders welcomed Evansville, but it wouldn't prove to be enough, as the Purple Aces came away with a 75-65 victory over the Crusaders. Mileek McMillan hit four of the Crusaders' 11 triples to finish with a career-best 12 points, while Bakari Evelyn led the way for Valpo with 17 points.

Following the Crusaders: TV - ESPN2 - Mitch Holthus (PxP) and Malcolm Huckaby (Analyst)
Radio - WVUR (95.1 FM, Valparaiso) - Todd Ickow (PxP) and Aaron Leavitt (Analyst)
Links for the live coverage will be available at ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (35-20) continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018. In his first season at the helm, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Series Notes: Despite being a pair of mid-major programs located just 2 1/2 hours apart, Valpo and Illinois State have met just 11 times over the years, while Saturday's game will be the first matchup between the two programs since 1981. The Redbirds hold a 7-4 advantage in the all-time series, including a victory in the most recent meeting - 55-38 in Normal on Feb. 16, 1981. Valpo's four wins in the series all came between 1943 and 1945.

@ValpoBasketball...

...and @ValleyHoops

- Valpo was selected to finish in sixth place in the MVC preseason poll, finishing just 12 points behind Southern Illinois for fifth place.
- Valpo has not finished worse in the final standings than its preseason projection in the last seven years.
- Senior Tevonn Walker represented the Crusaders among the preseason All-Conference honorees, earning Second Team accolades.

...looking back at last year

- The Crusaders are coming off of their third consecutive Horizon League regular season title and their fifth in the last six years, posting a 14-4 mark within league play and a 24-9 record overall.
- The regular season was highlighted by a win over #21 Rhode Island at the ARC - the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1998 - and wins in Las Vegas over Alabama and BYU to earn the MGM Grand Main Event title.
- Valpo earned an at-large bid into the Postseason NIT for the second time in program history, falling at Illinois in a first-round matchup. The NIT berth extended the Crusaders' string of postseason appearances to seven straight seasons.
- Alec Peters was named a NABC Third Team All-American and an AP Honorable Mention All-American and claimed the Horizon League Player of the Year award.
- Peters closed out his career as the Crusaders' all-time leading scorer and rebounder.
- Shane Hammink was a Second Team All-League selection, while Tevonn Walker was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

...notes from Evansville

- Valpo led by as many as eight points in the first half before Evansville turned the game with a 13-0 run.
- The Purple Aces led by eight at the half, and while the Crusaders closed within two in the second half and twice had a shot to take the lead, Valpo never could re-gain the advantage.
- Valpo finished with at least 10 3-pointers for the fourth time this year, going 11-of-27 from distance, but was just 10-for-30 from inside the arc and 12-of-21 from the foul line.
- McMillan led the way from the 3-point line, hitting 4-of-5 from deep as he finished with a career-best 12 points. The freshman is the fourth different Crusader to connect on at least four 3-pointers in a single game on the season.
- The Purple Aces were just 2-of-5 from the 3-point line, but hit at a 93.5% clip from the foul line, going 29-of-31 from the charity stripe. It marked the best free throw shooting performance by a Valpo opponent since November of 2013.

...notes from Loyola

- Valpo trailed by 10 with 2:42 to play in the first half, but scored the last six points of the half and opened the second half with a pair of buckets to tie the game.
- A Bakari Evelyn runner put the Crusaders ahead 32-31 with 16 minutes remaining, but Loyola went on a 16-1 run over the next four minutes to take control and Valpo got no closer than seven points the rest of the way.
- After shooting under 40% in the first half, both teams shot at better than a 50% clip in the second half. While the Crusaders were 12-of-22 from the field in the final 20 minutes, the Ramblers connected on 16-of-27 in the second period - including four 3-pointers.

- Evelyn scored 17 of his game-high 19 points in the second half and picked up three steals for the second straight game.
- Valpo tallied just six assists and committed 13 turnovers, while Loyola recorded 16 assists against just eight turnovers.

...looking ahead

- Valpo returns home to the ARC on Wednesday evening to host Indiana State, concluding a week in which the Crusaders host both of their in-state conference foes.
- The Crusaders then head to Southern Illinois next Saturday, Feb. 3.

...on the road

- Valpo has finished above .500 in true road games in four of the last five seasons, including a 7-6 mark in such games last year.
- Prior to this stretch, the Crusaders had not finished above .500 on the road in the previous 10 years.
- Valpo currently sits at 2-8 in true road games this year following its loss at Missouri State.

@Redbird_MBB

- Illinois State will enter Saturday's game with a 10-11 overall record and a 4-5 mark in MVC play.
- The Redbirds have lost four of their last five in Valley action, including an 83-72 loss last time out at UNI.
- Milik Yarbrough, Keyshawn Evans and Phil Fayne are all averaging at least 16 points per game for Illinois State.

Strength of The Valley

- This season's iteration of the Missouri Valley Conference has proven to be the Crusaders' most challenging conference slate in recent history.
- The MVC is currently ranked eighth in conference RPI and ninth in KenPom this season.
- Each of the other nine MVC programs is ranked 153rd or better in RPI and 167th or better in KenPom.
- Last year, six of Valpo's nine league opponents ranked lower than the lowest MVC opponent this season in both RPI and KenPom.

Putting Up a Fight

- While the Crusaders are just 2-7 at the halfway mark in Valley play, they have been right in most of the games.
- The Crusaders have led at the half in four of nine MVC games and were tied in another.
- All told, Valpo has held second-half leads in six of its first nine Valley games, and most recently were within two points with a pair of shots to take the lead under the 11-minute mark against Evansville.

Thievery

- One area where this year's Crusader squad has excelled is in the steals category, as Valpo is averaging an MVC-best 7.8 steals/game - a mark which ranks 46th nationally.
- The Crusaders are on pace for their highest steals/game average for a single season since the 2002-03 squad recorded 8.8 steals/game.
- Leading the way in the steals department is Tevonn Walker, who ranks second in the Valley with 2.1 steals/game and is on pace to crack Valpo's single-season chart in the category.
- With 139 career steals, Walker is also just three away from moving into the Crusaders' all-time top-10.

Valpo in the Valley

- A new era begins this year for Valpo men's basketball and the athletics department and University as a whole, as the 2017-18 year is Valpo's first as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.
- The Valley is renowned for its men's basketball success on the national stage. Since the year 2000, The Valley has earned 33 bids to the NCAA Tournament - 18 automatic bids and 15 at-large berths - and has posted 27 tournament victories.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

2nd Season * Stanford, 2004

35-20 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
