Valparaiso (13-14, 4-10 MVC) Game #28 - Wednesday, February 14 - 7 p.m. at Loyola (21-5, 11-3 MVC) Gentile Arena (4,963) - Chicago, III.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team looks for back-to-back victories on Wednesday evening, as the Crusaders make the short trip to the North Side of Chicago to face Loyola. The Ramblers enter Wednesday's contest having won 10 of their last 11 games.

Last Time Out: A 16-2 run late in the second half broke open a tight game as Valpo claimed a nationally-televised win at the ARC on Sunday afternoon over Illinois State, 74-58. Sophomore Bakari Evelyn led all players with 22 points, the second-best effort of his career, while Markus Golder added 16 points off the bench in the winning effort.

Links for the live coverage will be available at ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (37-23) continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018. In his first season at the helm, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Series Notes: Loyola holds a 35-15 advantage in the all-time series against the Crusaders - a series which dates way back to 1922. Prior to this season, the two squads had not met since February of 2013, as the Ramblers departed the Horizon League for the Missouri Valley Conference following that season. Loyola claimed the first meeting between the two programs as MVC opponents back on Jan. 21, 70-54, despite a then-career high 14 points from Derrik Smits. The Crusaders have won the last four matchups between the two teams at Gentile Arena, however.

@ValpoBasketball...

...and @ValleyHoops

- Valpo was selected to finish in sixth place in the MVC preseason poll, finishing just 12 points behind Southern Illinois for fifth place.

- Valpo has not finished worse in the final standings than its preseason projection in the last seven years.

- Senior Tevonn Walker represented the Crusaders among the preseason All-Conference honorees, earning Second Team accolades.

...looking back at last year

- The Crusaders are coming off of their third consecutive Horizon League regular season title and their fifth in the last six years, posting a 14-4 mark within league play and a 24-9 record overall.

The regular season was highlighted by a win over #21 Rhode Island at the ARC - the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1998 - and wins in Las Vegas over Alabama and BYU to earn the MGM Grand Main Event title.
Valpo earned an at-large bid into the Postseason NIT for the second time in program history, falling at Illinois in a first-round matchup. The NIT berth extended the Crusaders' string of postseason appearances to seven straight seasons.
Alec Peters was named an NABC Third Team All-American and an AP

Honorable Mention All-American and claimed the Horizon League Player of the Year award.

- Peters closed out his career as the Crusaders' all-time leading scorer and rebounder.

- Shane Hammink was a Second Team All-League selection, while Tevonn Walker was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

...notes from Illinois State

- Valpo led by two points at halftime and never trailed in the second half. - The Crusaders' lead was just 51-49 with 7:25 to play before they embarked on a 16-2 run, scoring on six of their next seven possessions - including three 3-pointers from Bakari Evelyn.

Evelyn scored a game-high 22 points, the second-highest output of his career and the third time in the last five games he has reached at least 20 points.
Markus Golder went 7-of-10 from the floor for 16 points off the bench, just two points off of his career best.

- Tevonn Walker and Max Joseph both scored in double figures and added five assists and three steals apiece as well.

John Kiser played 30 minutes off the bench and paced Valpo with nine rebounds to tie a career high as the Crusaders out-rebounded Illinois State 36-32.
The Crusaders limited the Redbirds to 37.9% shooting, including just a 26.7% clip (8-of-30) from the 3-point line.

... notes from Evansville

- An 8-1 spurt from the Crusaders late in the first half helped Valpo claim a 32-31 lead at the half.

- Valpo led by as many as six in the second half and was still up 43-40 with 12:29 to play before going scoreless for a stretch of nearly seven minutes.

- The Crusaders had three attempts to tie or take the lead in the final two minutes, but were unable to capitalize on any of the three.

- Sophomores Bakari Evelyn and Markus Golder tied for team-high honors with 15 points.

- Sophomore Jaume Sorolla set new career highs with four blocked shots and three steals.

- The Crusaders were unable to overcome a foul line disparity for a second straight game, as Valpo was just 5-of-5 from the stripe while Evansville was 16-of-23 from the free throw line.

...looking ahead

- Valpo closes out the 2017-18 home slate with two more home games in the next week.

- The Crusaders return to the ARC for a matchup with Bradley on Saturday night before hosting UNI on Senior Night next Tuesday evening.

... on the road

- The Crusaders sit at 2-11 in true road games this year following their loss at Evansville last Wednesday.

- Valpo had finished above .500 in true road games in four of the last five seasons, including a 7-6 mark in such games last year.

- Prior to this stretch, the Crusaders had not finished above .500 on the road in the previous 10 years.

@RamblersMBB

- Loyola sits atop the MVC standings at 11-3 in conference play - owning a two-game lead over Southern Illinois - and is 21-5 overall.

- The Ramblers have won 11 of their last 12 games dating back to Jan.
- 7, with the only blemish in that stretch a two-point road loss at Bradley.

- Five Loyola players average double figures in scoring, paced by 14.3 ppg from Clayton Custer, who also hands out four assists per contest.

Strength of The Valley

- This season's iteration of the Missouri Valley Conference has proven to be the Crusaders' most challenging conference slate in recent history.

- The MVC is currently ranked eighth in conference RPI and ninth in KenPom this season.

- Each of the other nine MVC programs is ranked 168th or better in RPI and 161st or better in KenPom.

- Last year, six of Valpo's nine league opponents ranked lower than the lowest MVC opponent this season in both RPI and KenPom.

Thievery

- One area where this year's Crusader squad has excelled is in the steals category, as Valpo is averaging an MVC-best 7.9 steals/game - a mark which ranks 22nd nationally.

- The Crusaders are on pace for their highest steals/game average for a single season since the 2002-03 squad recorded 8.8 steals/game.

- Leading the way in the steals department is Tevonn Walker, who ranks second in the Valley with 1.9 steals/game and is on pace to crack Valpo's single-season chart in the category.

- Walker has 44 total steals this year, while Max Joseph has 43 and Bakari Evelyn 39 - the Crusaders have not had three players tally 40+ steals in a season since the aforementioned 2002-03 campaign (Ali Berdiel-57; Stalin Ortiz-56; Greg Tonagel-41).

On the Brink

- While the Crusaders are still looking for their first road win in MVC play, they have been highly competitive in most of their road contests.

- Valpo held a one-point halftime lead at Evansville in its last road game and led by as many as six points in the second half.

Matt Lottich Head Coach 2nd Season * Stanford, 2004 37-23 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [III.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
