@ValpoBasketball...

...and @ValleyHoops

- Valpo was selected to finish in sixth place in the MVC preseason poll, finishing just 12 points behind Southern Illinois for fifth place.
- The Crusaders have defeated MVC preseason favorite Missouri State in each of the last two seasons.
- Valpo has not finished worse in the final standings than its preseason projection in the last seven years.
- Senior Tevonn Walker represented the Crusaders among the preseason All-Conference honorees, earning Second Team accolades.

...looking back at last year

- The Crusaders are coming off of their third consecutive Horizon League regular season title and their fifth in the last six years, posting a 14-4 mark within league play and a 24-9 record overall.
- The regular season was highlighted by a win over #21 Rhode Island at the ARC - the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1998 - and wins in Las Vegas over Alabama and BYU to earn the MGM Grand Main Event title.
- Valpo earned an at-large bid into the Postseason NIT for the second time in program history, falling at Illinois in a first-round matchup. The NIT berth extended the Crusaders' string of postseason appearances to seven straight seasons.
- Alec Peters was named an NABC Third Team All-American and an AP Honorable Mention All-American and claimed the Horizon League Player of the Year award.
- Peters closed out his career as the Crusaders' all-time leading scorer and rebounder.
- Shane Hammink was a Second Team All-League selection, while Tevonn Walker was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

...notes from Trinity Christian

- Tevonn Walker surpassed the 1,000-point milestone for his career with his first basket of the game, becoming the first Crusader to reach the mark since Alec Peters did so in the 2015 NCAA Tournament vs. Maryland.
- Walker led the Crusaders with 18 points and came up with a game-high four steals as well.
- Walker led the way as Valpo tallied 16 steals as a team - their highest total since registering 17 steals last November in a win over Ball State. Marten Linssen added three steals, while Markus Golder, Micah Bradford and John Kiser each tallied two as well.
- Thanks in large part to the 16 steals, Valpo enjoyed a tremendous 33-2 advantage in points off turnovers in the win over the Trolls, as the Crusaders forced a total of 25 Trinity Christian turnovers.
- The Crusaders out-rebounded the Trolls by nearly two to one, finishing with a 45-23 edge in the category. 16 of Valpo's boards were of the offensive variety, leading to 18 second-chance points.
- Valpo ended the win with large advantages as well in points in the paint (36-6) and fast-break points (16-0).

...notes from North Park

- Valpo started the game on a 15-0 run, as North Park didn't score until 10:03 into the game. The Vikings went 0-for-13 from the field and committed eight turnovers over that stretch.
- Three of Valpo's five returnees who played matched or broke their career high for points - Micah Bradford (20), Derrik Smits (14) and John Kiser (8, tied).
- The Crusaders enjoyed significant advantages in points in the paint (42-8), points off turnovers (19-4) and fast-break points (22-0).

...looking ahead

- Valpo returns home to the ARC early next week for a pair of games to open competition as part of the Savannah Invitational.
- The Crusaders will host Southeastern Louisiana on Sunday afternoon before welcoming Samford to the ARC on Tuesday night.

...on the road

- Valpo has finished above .500 in true road games in four of the last five seasons, including a 7-6 mark in such games last year.
- Prior to this stretch, the Crusaders had not finished above .500 on the road in the previous 10 years.
- The game against SIUE is the lone true road game for Valpo in its first eight games, but starting Dec. 7, the Crusaders will play six straight true road games.

@SIUEMBB

- SIUE enters Wednesday's game at 0-1 on the year, as it fell to Purdue in the season opener, 105-74.
- Last season, the Cougars finished 6-24 overall and posted a 1-15 record in Ohio Valley Conference play.
- UIC transfer Julian Torres paced SIUE against the Boilermakers with 20 points, including a perfect 4-for-4 mark from 3-point range.

Success in the Openers

- The Crusaders continued their recent success in season and home openers with Friday's big win over North Park.
- Valpo has now won six consecutive season openers - all of which have come at home.
- The Crusaders also extended their winning streak in home openers to 13 straight years, 12 of which have come by double figures.

Looking For 3-0

- With a win on Wednesday, Valpo would start at least 3-0 in each of the last three seasons.
- Last year's squad started out 3-0, while the 2015-16 team won each of its first five games.
- Valpo has started 2-0 in five of the last six years.
- This year's team is the first in program history to win each of its first two games of the year by at least 30 points.

Youth Shall Be Served

- With nine of the Crusaders' 12 players this season being underclassmen, the freshmen and sophomores will undoubtedly combine for large percentages of the team's output.
- Last time out in the win over Trinity Christian, the underclassmen combined for 61 of 83 points (73.5%), 34 of 42 rebounds (81%) and 154 of 200 minutes played (77%).
- In the season-opening win, the underclassmen recorded 71 of Valpo's 88 points (80.7%), 41 of 46 rebounds (89.1%) and 154 of 200 minutes played (77%).

Doubling Up

- Redshirt sophomore Markus Golder made an immediate impact in his Crusader debut, recording 12 points and 10 rebounds off the bench in Valpo's win over North Park.

- Golder's double-double was the first by a player in his Crusader debut since Mohamed Kone opened the 2005 season with 15 points and 11 rebounds at IPFW.

Valpo in the Valley

- A new era begins this year for Valpo men's basketball and the athletics department and University as a whole, as the 2017-18 year is Valpo's first as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

- The Valley is renowned for its men's basketball success on the national stage. Since the year 2000, The Valley has earned 33 bids to the NCAA Tournament – 18 automatic bids and 15 at-large berths – and has posted 27 tournament victories.

- Since 2010, 12 MVC programs in the NCAA Tournament have combined for 16 victories.

- The Crusaders are looking to carry over the success they've had in the past two-plus decades into The Valley.

- Over its last 13 years as a member of the Mid-Continent Conference (1994-2007), Valpo claimed nine regular season and eight tournament championships.

- Then, in a decade as a Horizon League member, the Crusaders won five regular season and two tournament titles.

What's Back

- Six letterwinners return from last year's 24-win squad, including one full-time starter in Tevonn Walker and a trio of part-time starters in Derrick Smits, Micah Bradford and Jaume Sorolla.

- In all, the Crusaders return 50.2% of minutes played, 46.3% of rebounding and 40.7% of scoring from last year's team.

What's New

- Six players will take the floor for the first time for the Crusaders this year.
- A pair of high-major transfers are eligible after sitting out last season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Joe Burton (Oklahoma State) has two seasons of eligibility remaining, while Bakari Evelyn (Nebraska) is entering his sophomore season of eligibility.

- A third transfer joins the Crusaders with three years remaining as well, as Markus Golder comes to Valpo from North Idaho College.

- The three transfers are joined by three true freshmen - Indiana H.S. products Mileek McMillan and Parker Hazen, and German import Marten Linssen.

The International Flavor

- This year's squad continues the international pipeline that Valpo has cultivated over the past two decades.

- The Crusaders boast four international players on this year's roster from three different countries.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

2nd Season * Stanford, 2004

26-9 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
