Game #10 - Saturday, December 9 - 1 p.m. CT
at Ball State (5-4, 0-0 MAC)
Worthen Arena (11,500) - Muncie, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team looks to bounce back from its first loss of the season as the Crusaders take the court Saturday afternoon in Muncie against Ball State. The game is the second of six straight true road contests for Valpo.

Last Time Out: A 21-4 run by #21/21 Purdue to close the first half proved to be too much for the Valparaiso University men's basketball team to overcome at Mackey Arena on Thursday evening, as the Crusaders lost for the first time this season, falling to the Boilermakers, 80-50. Joe Burton led all players with a season-high 19 points.

Radio - WVUR (95.1 FM, Valparaiso) - Todd Ickow (PxP) and Aaron Leavitt (Analyst)

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (32-10) continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018. In his first season at the helm, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Series Notes: Ball State holds a narrow 32-31 lead in the all-time series against the Crusaders, but in the last eight meetings over the past 11 seasons, Valpo has earned five victories against the Cardinals' three. Last season, the Crusaders approached a program record as they registered 17 steals in a 79-73 victory at the ARC over Ball State. Alec Peters paced four Valpo players in double figures with 23 points and also led the Crusaders with eight rebounds.

@ValpoBasketball...

...and @ValleyHoops

- Valpo was selected to finish in sixth place in the MVC preseason poll, finishing just 12 points behind Southern Illinois for fifth place.
- The Crusaders have defeated MVC preseason favorite Missouri State in each of the last two seasons.
- Valpo has not finished worse in the final standings than its preseason projection in the last seven years.
- Senior Tevonn Walker represented the Crusaders among the preseason All-Conference honorees, earning Second Team accolades.

...looking back at last year

- The Crusaders are coming off of their third consecutive Horizon League regular season title and their fifth in the last six years, posting a 14-4 mark within league play and a 24-9 record overall.
- The regular season was highlighted by a win over #21 Rhode Island at the ARC - the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1998 - and wins in Las Vegas over Alabama and BYU to earn the MGM Grand Main Event title.
- Valpo earned an at-large bid into the Postseason NIT for the second time in program history, falling at Illinois in a first-round matchup. The NIT berth extended the Crusaders' string of postseason appearances to seven straight seasons.
- Alec Peters was named an NABC Third Team All-American and an AP Honorable Mention All-American and claimed the Horizon League Player of the Year award.
- Peters closed out his career as the Crusaders' all-time leading scorer and rebounder.
- Shane Hammink was a Second Team All-League selection, while Tevonn Walker was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

...notes from Purdue

- Valpo was within 15-12 with eight minutes to go in the first half before Purdue went on a half-ending 21-4 run.
- The Crusaders were limited to just 33.3% shooting from the floor and were just 3-of-16 from the 3-point line while committing 18 turnovers.
- Valpo just missed holding the advantage on the glass over the Boiler-makers, as Purdue ended the night with a slight 40-38 edge in rebounds. Jaume Sorolla paced all players with 10 rebounds - a season best and just two off his career high.
- The loss was the first of the season for the Crusaders, who were one of the final nine unbeaten teams in Division I basketball this year.

...notes from Utah State

- Valpo helped the Missouri Valley Conference get off to a 2-1 start on the first day of the Mountain West/Missouri Valley Challenge, a series which would end in a 5-5 tie.
- Tevonn Walker led the Crusaders' effort against the Aggies with 25 points and nine rebounds, narrowly missing a double-double.
- While the Crusaders struggled from the perimeter in the win, hitting just 2-of-13 from downtown, they made up for it with a large advantage in the paint, ending the night with a 42-18 edge in close over the Aggies.
- Valpo has been one of the nation's best teams this year in terms of opponent's 3-point percentage, and that continued again in the victory, as Utah State was just 9-for-33 from behind the arc.

...looking ahead

- The Crusaders' stretch of six consecutive road games continues next Thursday at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Ill. as Valpo faces Northwestern.
- Valpo will then close out the pre-Christmas slate with a trip to the West Coast, as the Crusaders play at Santa Clara and UC-Riverside.

...on the road

- Valpo has finished above .500 in true road games in four of the last five seasons, including a 7-6 mark in such games last year.
- Prior to this stretch, the Crusaders had not finished above .500 on the road in the previous 10 years.
- Valpo currently sits at 1-1 in true road games following Thursday's loss, with four more road contests remaining prior to the start of conference play.

@BallStateMBB

- The Cardinals enter Saturday's game at 5-4 on the year, but have won each of their last four games.
- Ball State's last win was its biggest of the season, as it knocked off a top-10 Notre Dame squad in South Bend, 80-77, on a 3-pointer in the final seconds from Taylor Persons.
- Persons leads the Cardinals with 16.2 points per game and is joined in double figures by Kyle Mallers (11.6 ppg) and Tahjai Teague (11.1 ppg).

Bouncing Back

- After suffering its first loss of the year Thursday, Valpo looks to bounce back with a winning effort on Saturday.
- The Crusaders did not suffer back-to-back losses in regular season play last year in Matt Lottich's first year as head coach.
- In fact, you have to go back to the final two games of the 2013-14 regular season (2/25 at Wright State, 3/1 vs. Cleveland State) to find the last time that Valpo lost consecutive games in regular season action.

Third-Best Start

- Thursday's defeat capped the Crusaders' open to the 2017-18 season as the third best in program history.
- Valpo ended up 8-0 to start this season - the only two starts in program history better than 8-0 both came from teams which boast renowned monikers.
- The World's Tallest Team (1944-45) won 11 straight contests to open that season en route to a 21-3 record.
- The best start all-time by a Crusader squad came from the Victory Five (1923-24), which won its first 22 games of the year and finished the season 24-4.

Perfect Month

- With its win over Utah State, Valpo secured a perfect record in the month of November, finishing the month 8-0.
- It marked just the second perfect month for the Crusaders over the last 70 years (minimum three games played).
- The only other month where Valpo posted an undefeated mark came in February of 1998, as the Crusaders went 7-0 - a streak which eventually extended to a total of 13 straight wins as Valpo advanced to the Sweet 16.

A Glance at the Rankings

- The Crusaders received five points, thanks to votes from three different voters, in the Dec. 4 iteration of the AP top-25 poll.
- Valpo has now received votes at least once in five of the last six seasons in the AP poll.

- The most recent Mid-Major top-25 poll (courtesy of CollegeInsider.com) features the Crusaders at #5.

Getting It Done With Defense

- Valpo's strength early on this year has been its performance on the defensive end of the court.

- Thursday's defeat came in large part because Purdue combined the best shooting performance by a Crusader opponent this year (50.8% eFG%) with the lowest turnover rate (12.2%).

- Valpo is ranked 38th nationally in Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive rating metric.

- The one area the Crusaders did succeed in defensively against the Boiler-makers was at the 3-point line, where Purdue was just 7-of-21.

- No Valpo opponent has connected at better than 34.6% from 3-point range this season, while the Crusaders currently rank ninth nationally in defensive 3-point percentage.

The Long, Winding Road

- Thursday's game at Purdue kicked off a stretch of six straight true road games for Valpo.

- The Crusaders will also face Ball State, Northwestern, Santa Clara, UC Riverside and Indiana State before returning home to the ARC.

- It marks Valpo's first stretch of six consecutive true road games since the 1963-64 season, where the Crusaders took on Notre Dame, Indiana State, Washington (Mo.), Buffalo, Syracuse and Butler in succession from Dec. 12-Jan. 4.

Winning Big

- Valpo's nine-point win over UNCW on Nov. 25 was the team's first victory of the season which did not come by double figures.

- The Crusaders put together a six-game winning streak of 10+ points for the third time in the last four years.

- The 2014-15 squad posted a similar stretch in non-conference action, while the 2015-16 team won six straight league games by at least 10 points.

- The first five of the Crusaders' wins this season all came by at least 20 points, the first time in program history that Valpo has won five straight by 20+ points.

- The closest such stretch to matching it in program history came during the 1965-66 season, when Valpo won six straight - the closest decision being a 19-point win over Hope.

- The Crusaders' first four wins of the year all came by at least 25 points, the first four-game winning streak in program history where all four wins came by 25+ points.

- The 25-point win at SIUE marked Valpo's largest known margin of victory in a road opener (dating back to the mid-1940s when sites are denoted within the all-time results).

- Since the start of the 2014-15 season, Valpo has been one of the nation's standard bearers in terms of victories on the court.
- The Crusaders have amassed 90 wins since the beginning of the 2014-15 campaign, one clear of Notre Dame for top honors in the state of Indiana among D-I programs.

- See page 4 of the game notes for charts detailing the nation's leaders in wins since the start of the 2014-15 season and the breakdown of Indiana schools over the same span.

Valpo in the Valley

- A new era begins this year for Valpo men's basketball and the athletics department and University as a whole, as the 2017-18 year is Valpo's first as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.
- The Valley is renowned for its men's basketball success on the national stage. Since the year 2000, The Valley has earned 33 bids to the NCAA Tournament – 18 automatic bids and 15 at-large berths – and has posted 27 tournament victories.
- Since 2010, 12 MVC programs in the NCAA Tournament have combined for 16 victories.
- The Crusaders are looking to carry over the success they've had in the past two-plus decades into The Valley.
- Over its last 13 years as a member of the Mid-Continent Conference (1994-2007), Valpo claimed nine regular season and eight tournament championships.
- Then, in a decade as a Horizon League member, the Crusaders won five regular season and two tournament titles.

What's Back

- Six letterwinners return from last year's 24-win squad, including one full-time starter in Tevonn Walker and a trio of part-time starters in Derrick Smits, Micah Bradford and Jaume Sorolla.
- In all, the Crusaders return 50.2% of minutes played, 46.3% of rebounding and 40.7% of scoring from last year's team.

What's New

- Six players have taken the floor for the first time for the Crusaders this year.
- A pair of high-major transfers are eligible after sitting out last season due to NCAA transfer regulations. Joe Burton (Oklahoma State) has two seasons of eligibility remaining, while Bakari Evelyn (Nebraska) is entering his sophomore season of eligibility.

- A third transfer joins the Crusaders with three years remaining as well, as Markus Golder comes to Valpo from North Idaho College.

- The three transfers are joined by three true freshmen - Indiana H.S. products Mileek McMillan and Parker Hazen, and German import Marten Linssen.

The International Flavor

- This year's squad continues the international pipeline that Valpo has cultivated over the past two decades.
- The Crusaders boast four international players on this year's roster from three different countries.
- Represented are Canada (Joseph and Walker), Spain (Sorolla) and Germany (Linssen).
- Over the past 21 years, the Crusaders have welcomed 33 international players from 19 different countries.

Crusaders Sign Javon Freeman-Liberty

- One of the top prospects in the Class of 2018 in the state of Illinois, Javon Freeman-Liberty signed a National Letter of Intent during the early signing period and will join Valpo as a freshman for the 2018-19 season.
- Freeman-Liberty helped lead Whitney Young H.S. to the Illinois Class 4A state title last year as a junior, averaging 13.6 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game.
- The 6'4" Chicago native is a consensus top-10 prospect in his class in Illinois and is ranked fifth overall in the state and 37th nationally among shooting guards by ESPN. He played his AAU basketball last summer for Meanstreets.

Non-Conference Success

- Valpo is looking to continue its recent string of successful non-conference campaigns.
- The Crusaders have entered conference play with at least 10 victories under their belt in four of the last five years.
- Valpo owns a 59-20 (.747) record in pre-league action over the last five seasons.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

2nd Season * Stanford, 2004

32-10 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
