Valparaiso (9-3, 0-0 MVC)

Game #13 - Wednesday, December 20 - 9 p.m. CT at UC Riverside (3-7, 0-0 Big West) SRC Arena (3,168) - Riverside, Calif.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University basketball team looks to close out the non-conference slate on a winning note on Wednesday night, as the Crusaders continue their two-game California swing with a match-up against UC Riverside. A win would give Valpo three wins in six true road games in the non-conference schedule.

Last Time Out: A strong all-around team effort was the recipe for Valpo to get back to its winning ways on Monday evening, as the Crusaders led nearly the entire way in a 76-68 victory at Santa Clara. Valpo led by as many as 17 points in the second half, and held off the Broncos as they closed as close as three points with eight minutes to go. Three Crusaders scored in double figures in the winning effort.

Radio - WVUR (95.1 FM, Valparaiso) - Todd Ickow (PxP) and Aaron Leavitt (Analyst)

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (33-12) continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018. In his first season at the helm, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Series Notes: Wednesday will be the first meeting on the hardwood between the Crusaders and the Highlanders. Valpo is a combined 5-1 against current members of the Big West Conference, with its most recent meeting against a Big West opponent coming on Dec. 22, 2000 at the ARC - a 65-52 victory over Cal State Fullerton.

- Valpo has not finished worse in the final standings than its preseason projection in the last seven years.
- Senior Tevonn Walker represented the Crusaders among the preseason All-Conference honorees, earning Second Team accolades.

...looking back at last year

- The Crusaders are coming off of their third consecutive Horizon League regular season title and their fifth in the last six years, posting a 14-4 mark within league play and a 24-9 record overall.
- The regular season was highlighted by a win over #21 Rhode Island at the ARC - the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 1998 - and wins in Las Vegas over Alabama and BYU to earn the MGM Grand Main Event title.
- Valpo earned an at-large bid into the Postseason NIT for the second time in program history, falling at Illinois in a first-round matchup. The NIT berth extended the Crusaders' string of postseason appearances to seven straight seasons.
- Alec Peters was named an NABC Third Team All-American and an AP Honorable Mention All-American and claimed the Horizon League Player of the Year award.
- Peters closed out his career as the Crusaders' all-time leading scorer and rebounder.
- Shane Hammink was a Second Team All-League selection, while Tevonn Walker was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

...notes from Santa Clara

- Santa Clara would get no closer than eight points over the final four minutes.
- The win snapped the Crusaders' three-game losing streak - the program's first in regular season play since November of 2013.
- The Crusaders finished the game shooting 56.3% from the floor and were 9-of-18 from 3-point range - the second time this year Valpo has hit at 50% from downtown while making at least nine triples.
- Valpo also matched a season high with 21 assists after averaging just 8.2 assists per game over the last five contests.
- Valpo, which entered the game holding a +7.7 advantage on the glass for the year, reached that mark on Monday with a 33-25 edge on the boards.

...notes from Northwestern

- Thursday's defeat marks the first time Valpo has lost three straight regular season games since November of 2013.
- Valpo hit 7-of-17 3-pointers (41.2%) on the offensive end, but was just 8-for-22 inside the arc and 13-of-23 from the foul line.
- The Crusaders also committed 21 turnovers which Northwestern turned into 30 points.
- Northwestern finished the night hitting 12-for-22 from behind the 3-point line against a Valpo team which entered the game among the top-10 teams nationally in defensive 3-point percentage.

...looking ahead

- Following Christmas, Valpo will open its first season of MVC play next Wednesday, Dec. 28 at Indiana State.

- The Crusaders then finally return home for the first time since Nov. 28 when they host Missouri State on New Year's Eve.

...on the road

- Valpo has finished above .500 in true road games in four of the last five seasons, including a 7-6 mark in such games last year.
- Prior to this stretch, the Crusaders had not finished above .500 on the road in the previous 10 years.
- Valpo currently sits at 2-3 in true road games following Monday's win.
- With a victory Wednesday, Valpo would earn consecutive non-conference true road wins on the same trip for the first time since Dec. 20-22, 1997 at UMKC and at Belmont.

@UCRMBB

- The Highlanders enter Wednesday's game at 3-7 overall on the year and fell at Montana last time out, 77-61.
- UC Riverside is 2-2 at home last year and won in its last game on its home court, taking down Air Force, 67-48.
- Four of UC Riverside's five starters have started all 10 games and all four average at least 8.6 points per game, led by 11.6 points per game from sophomore guard Dikymbe Martin.

Offense Back on Track

- Valpo's offense was operating at its early-season efficiency in Monday's win at Santa Clara.
- The Crusaders posted a 115.5 offensive efficiency in the victory against the Broncos, its highest mark since the Samford win.
- Valpo's effective field goal percentage of 65.6% was its highest percentage as a team since posting a 70.2% eFG% in a win over Murray State on Nov. 29, 2014.
- Valpo matched its season high with 21 assists on 27 baskets, as four different players handed out four assists apiece.

Non-Conference Success

- Wednesday closes the non-conference campaign for Valpo, which has enjoyed continued success prior to the start of league play.
- The Crusaders have entered conference play with at least 10 victories under their belt in four of the last five years, and with a win on Wednesday, would reach the mark for the fifth time in six seasons.
- Valpo owns a 60-22 (.732) record in pre-league action over the last six seasons.

Going Going, Back Back, to Cali Cali

- This pair of games for the Crusaders are the program's first appearances in California since the 2011-12 season.
- That year, as a road team in the Bracketbusters series, Valpo drew Loyola Marymount - the Crusaders fell 61-53 in that game on Feb. 17, playing without the services of All-League post player Kevin Van Wijk.
- This will mark the third straight year Valpo has played at least two games in the Pacific time zone. The Crusaders played at Oregon and at Oregon State in November of 2015, and last year, played at Oregon before meeting Alabama and BYU in Las Vegas.

Third-Best Start

- The loss to Purdue capped the Crusaders' open to the 2017-18 season as the third best in program history.
- Valpo ended up 8-0 to start this season - the only two starts in program history better than 8-0 both came from teams which boast renowned monikers.
- The World's Tallest Team (1944-45) won 11 straight contests to open that season en route to a 21-3 record.
- The best start all-time by a Crusader squad came from the Victory Five (1923-24), which won its first 22 games of the year and finished the season 24-4.

Perfect Month

- With its win over Utah State, Valpo secured a perfect record in the month of November, finishing the month 8-0.
- It marked just the second perfect month for the Crusaders over the last 70 years (minimum three games played).
- The only other month where Valpo posted an undefeated mark came in February of 1998, as the Crusaders went 7-0 - a streak which eventually extended to a total of 13 straight wins as Valpo advanced to the Sweet 16.

The Long, Winding Road

- Valpo's game at Purdue on December 7 kicked off a stretch of six consecutive road games.
- The Crusaders also have already faced Ball State and Northwestern, and will play at Santa Clara, UC Riverside and Indiana State before returning home to the ARC.
- It marks Valpo's first stretch of six consecutive true road games since the 1963-64 season, where the Crusaders took on Notre Dame, Indiana State, Washington (Mo.), Buffalo, Syracuse and Butler in succession from Dec. 12-Jan. 4.

Winning Big

- Valpo's nine-point win over UNCW on Nov. 25 was the team's first victory of the season which did not come by double figures.
- The Crusaders put together a six-game winning streak of 10+ points for the third time in the last four years.
- The 2014-15 squad posted a similar stretch in non-conference action, while the 2015-16 team won six straight league games by at least 10 points.
- The first five of the Crusaders' wins this season all came by at least 20 points, the first time in program history that Valpo has won five straight by 20+ points.
- The Crusaders' first four wins of the year all came by at least 25 points, the first four-game winning streak in program history where all four wins came by 25+ points.
- The 25-point win at SIUE marked Valpo's largest known margin of victory in a road opener (dating back to the mid-1940s when sites are denoted within the all-time results).

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

2nd Season * Stanford, 2004

33-12 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich continued the Valparaiso University men's basketball program's run of success in his first season as head coach of the Crusaders, and is poised to keep the program at a high level as he enters his second season in charge in 2017-2018.

In his first season at the helm of the Crusader men's basketball program, Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in the last six years as he led the Crusaders to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad, as well as neutral-site wins over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the top-20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach in the history of the Valpo men's basketball program in April of 2016. Lottich, who had served the previous three seasons as an assistant coach on the Crusaders' staff, became just the program's fifth head coach in the last 36 years.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the Crusaders to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The Crusaders recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. Lottich spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000 through 2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the top-15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was also a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
