Illinois State (10-9, 3-5 MVC) at Valparaiso (6-14, 2-6 MVC)

Game No. 21 – Sunday, Feb. 3, 2019 – 1 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The first half of the Missouri Valley Conference's double round robin will come to a close on Sunday as the Valparaiso University women's basketball team faces the only conference opponent it has yet to meet this season: Illinois State. Valpo and the Redbirds will provide some pre-football entertainment as the game tips off at 1 p.m.

Last Time Out: The story of Friday's win over Bradley didn't end with Shay Frederick, but sure started there. The freshman point guard made her first career start and established career bests in points and assists, propelling Valpo to a 76-73 win over visiting Bradley. Three Valpo players scored 20 points or more on a night where the team shared the ball to the tune of 19 assists on 25 made baskets. Valpo led for most of the evening after jumping out to an 18-2 lead midway through the first quarter.

Following Valpo: Sunday's game will be carried on ESPN3, which is available free of charge with a cable subscription. Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) will serve as the on-air talent. The game will also air on WVUR, 95.1 FM Valparaiso with Garrett Willis (play-by-play) and Ben Ariano (color commentary) on the call. Links to live video, audio and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com. For in-game updates, follow @ValpoWBB on Twitter.

Head Coach Mary Evans: Mary Evans is in her first year as the head coach of the Valparaiso University women's basketball program in 2018-2019. Evans, who spent the last five seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio University, became the eighth head coach in program history on April 13, 2018. She brought 15 years of Division I experience with her to Valpo. During her time on Ohio's staff under head coach Bob Boldon, Evans helped the Bobcats to three seasons of 22 wins or more, three postseason appearances and three Top 75 RPI finishes. The 2014-15 team established a school record with 27 wins, a 21-win improvement from two years earlier and an 18-win improvement from the previous season. The Bobcats won the 2014-15 MAC regular season and tournament titles and reached the NCAA Tournament. Evans has also coached at Youngstown State, Georgia Southern, South Carolina Aiken and Seton Hall.

Series Notes: Valpo stands at 2-4 in the all-time series after splitting the two matchups with the Redbirds last season. Valpo's first-ever MVC win came over Illinois State on Jan. 5, 2018 at the ARC by a score of 66-60 in a game that saw Valpo go 9-of-22 (40.9 percent) from beyond the arc while limiting Illinois State to just 2-of-22 (9.1 percent) from 3-point distance. Illinois State won the game in Normal by a score of 63-55 behind a 25-of-38 (89.3 percent) performance at the free-throw line.

A Trio of 20s: Valpo accomplished the rare feat of having three players score 20 points or more in a single game in Friday's win over Bradley. Meredith Hamlet (23), Shay Frederick (21) and Addison Stoller (20) reached that plateau in a 76-73 triumph. That was the first time in at least 20 years Valpo had three 20-point scorers in a game. Indiana State turned the trick against Grand Canyon earlier this season, though the Sycamores had the benefit of overtime. Valpo, Indiana State and Drake are the only current MVC programs that have had a game with three players scoring 20 points or more in the last two decades.

Have Yourself a Day, Shay: With two Valpo point guards now sidelined for the remainder of the season with injuries, Valpo has turned to Shay Frederick as the team's starter. The true freshman responded in a big way in her first career start on Feb. 1 vs. Bradley, playing 38 minutes on her way to career bests in points (21) and assists (eight). Her previous watermarks in both categories came on Nov. 17 vs. St. Francis (Brooklyn), when she had 19 points and five assists. Frederick's 21 points against the Braves were the most by a Valpo freshman since current senior Meredith Hamlet had three games with 21 points or more during her rookie campaign in 2015-16.

Other Friday Facts: Not to be lost among all the storylines on Friday were strong showings in non-scoring categories by two of Valpo's key scorers. Grace Hales set a season best with nine rebounds, tying a career high that was established on Feb. 11 of last season at Loyola. Meredith Hamlet turned in a season-best six assists, matching her career mark that was first achieved on Dec. 18, 2017 at Eastern Illinois.

With a Win: Valpo has an opportunity to garner back-to-back victories for the second time this season and the first since Nov. 29 and Dec. 2. In addition, a triumph on Sunday would mark Valpo's first set of consecutive conference wins since joining The Valley. The team last won back-to-back regular season conference games on Jan. 21 and Jan. 23, 2016 against Cleveland State and Youngstown State.

Continuing the Climb: The latest achievement in the storied career of Valpo senior guard Meredith Hamlet occurred on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois as Hamlet moved into the Top 10 in program history in career scoring. She enters Sunday's game with 1,225 career points. On Friday, she usurped Marlous Nieuwveen (1998-2002), Tabitha Gerardot (2010-2013) and Stephanie Greer (1987-1991) on the career scoring list to move into sole possession of seventh. Amber Schober (1998-2002) is currently sixth at 1,273, while Betsy Rietema (2003-2007) owns the mark needed to crack the Top 5 at 1,276.

Home Court Advantage: Sunday's game continues Valpo's longest homestand of the season and the first time the team has played four in a row at home since Nov. 21 through Dec. 3, 2016. Valpo hasn't had four consecutive conference home games since the 2015-16 season.

Home Sweet Home for Hamlet: Everyone associated with Valpo's program is happy to be in the midst of a home-heavy stretch, but perhaps no one more so than Meredith Hamlet. The senior guard is average 16.9 points per game at home versus 10.9 points per game on the road this season. She is shooting 25 percent from beyond the arc in road games but owns a 41.4 percent 3-point shooting clip in Porter County.

Tossing Up Triples: It's become no secret that Valpo's offense entails a large number of 3-point attempts this season. The number of 3-point tries peaked on Jan. 27 at Missouri State, as Valpo fired off a season-high 40 3-pointers, setting the JQH Arena record for attempted 3s in a game. In addition, that total ranks second in program history behind only 41 attempts on Feb. 27, 1992 vs. Wright State and set the record for 3-point attempts in a road game. This year's team already owns three of the top four single-game 3-point attempt totals in program history. Before this season, Valpo had attempted more than 36 3s in a game just once all-time. The team has done so three times this year (vs. Bowling Green, at Drake, at Missouri State).

So You Want to be a Coach: For the second consecutive season, Valpo will have a participant in the "So You Want to be a Coach" program, hosted by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in partnership with WeCOACH. Senior Meredith Hamlet will represent Valpo this year after 2018 alum Dani Franklin did so a year ago. This marks the 17th annual "So You Want to be a Coach" program as each member will participate in a three-day workshop with speakers provided by WeCOACH on April 3-5 in conjunction with the WBCA Convention in Tampa Bay, Fla.

Damage from Distance: Valpo has equaled or bettered its opponent in made 3-pointers in 16 of the last 18 games. Valpo has made eight 3s or more 11 times this season and made 10+ triples on six occasions. Five of those contests with 10 or more made 3-pointers have come in the last six games.

Amazing Grace: Valpo junior Grace Hales reached double figures in both games on this past road trip, scoring 10 on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois before turning in 13 on Jan. 27 at Missouri State. She had scored in double figures in three straight and seven of the last nine prior to the Feb. 1 game vs. Bradley. That nine-game stretch came after she reached double figures just twice over the first 10 games of the season. Over those nine games, Hales was the team's leading scorer at 13.0 points per contest.

Reaching New Heights: Redshirt sophomore Addison Stoller upped her career highs in both scoring (22) and rebounding (11) on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois, compiling her second career double-double in the process. Stoller's first career double-double came on Dec. 16 of this season against North Dakota State. She became the first Valpo player with multiple double-doubles this year and now owns two of the team's three double-doubles this season. Stoller bettered her previous scoring career high of 20 (Dec. 19 at Purdue Fort Wayne) and her previous rebounding personal best of 10, most recently reached on Dec. 16 of this year.

20&10: Stoller also became the first Valpo player this season to score 20 or more points and pull down 10 or more rebounds in the same game. The last Valpo player with a 20&10 game was Dani Franklin, who turned the trick on Dec. 10, 2017 against Chicago State with 23 points and 11 rebounds. This was Valpo's first 20&10 game in Missouri Valley Conference play, as the last Valpo player to do it in a conference game was Amber Lindfors (22 points, 11 rebounds) on Feb. 2, 2017 vs. Youngstown State in Horizon League action.

Stoller Stays Steady: For the second consecutive game, Addison Stoller used a strong third quarter to propel her performance on Jan. 27 at Missouri State. After a 16-point third stanza on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois, she busted out for 11 points in the third against the Lady Bears after scoring just one point in the first half. She reached double figures for the 11th time this season despite playing only 18 minutes.

Ella's Emergence: Ella Ellenson is averaging 6.2 points per game, up from 3.3 points per game a year ago. She's seen her playing time increase from 8.7 minutes per game last season to 20.9 minutes per game this season. In addition, she has attempted 46 3-pointers (15-of-46) after attempting just two all of last season.

Lineup Tracker: Shay Frederick made her first career start on Feb. 1 vs. Bradley. Addison Stoller and Meredith Hamlet have been fixtures in the starting five for all 20 games this year. Hamlet has started 109 of her 111 career games. Ellenson has started 17 times this season, while Hales has made 15 straight starts.

A Major Margin: Valpo's victory over Evansville on Jan. 20 featured a 44-point gap between the two teams (93-49). At the time, it was the largest margin of victory by a Missouri Valley Conference team against a Division-I opponent this season. The only more lopsided win for a Valley squad this year at that point was Drake's 48-point triumph over Clarke (NAIA) on Dec. 4. In addition, it was Valpo's largest margin of victory in nine years – an 80-28 win over Youngstown State on Feb. 13, 2010.

Sharp Shooting: Valpo shot 58.3 percent in the win over the Purple Aces, the team's best clip since Dec. 15, 2017 vs. IU Northwest (.590) and best against a D-I opponent since March 8, 2014 vs. Wright State (.596). The Jan. 20 showing cracked the Top 10 in program history for single-game field goal percentage, ranking 10th all-time.

Cracking the Scoring Column: The second half of the Jan. 20 win over Evansville saw a pair of players crack the scoring column for the first time in their collegiate careers. Nicole Johanson, who had previously scored in an exhibition game against IU Northwest, had a bucket, a block and a rebound in six minutes, all career firsts in regular season play. Valpo volleyball star turned women's basketball walk-on Katherine Carlson scored her first collegiate points in the most Katherine Carlson way possible – on a hustle play. She crashed the boards off her own 3-point miss and converted the put-back despite being fouled late in the third quarter for two of her eventual five points. She also had four rebounds in just 12 minutes of action.

3-Point Watch: Meredith Hamlet has made 190 career 3-pointers, recently passing Dani Franklin (2014-2018) for fourth in program history. The mark needed to crack the top three is 215 (Carrie Myers, 2003-2007).

Ascending the Assist Chart: Redshirt junior point guard Hannah Schaub finished her season with 289 career assists and currently sits in ninth in program history. She usurped Lauren Bechtold (287, 2002-2006) for ninth on Jan. 27 at Missouri State. Meredith Hamlet also ranks in the Top 20 in career assists with 235. Jeanette Gray is 17th with 238.

Inside the Redbirds

- Led in scoring by Tete Maggett at 16.5 points per game and rebounding by Simone Goods at 7.8 per game. Goods is also turning in 16.4 points per contest.
- Maggett has earned the MVC Newcomer of the Week three times and Player of the Week once this season. The junior guard has scored in double figures in all but one MVC game.

- Maggett and Goods rank fourth and fifth respectively in the MVC in scoring.
- Coming off a 62-59 loss at Loyola on Friday that saw Maggett register another double-double with 24 points and 12 boards.
- Under the direction of second-year head coach Kristen Gillespie, who led her team to its highest win total in five years with 14 in her first season.
- Lead the league in scoring defense by permitting just 60.4 points per game.
- Picked to finish fifth in the MVC Preseason Poll.

Inside the Assistants

- All members of Valpo's coaching staff are in their first season in 2018-19.
- Mary Gleason has returned to the collegiate ranks after a stint as the head girls basketball coach at St. Piux X High School in Houston, Texas. She was the head coach at Houston Baptist from 2010-2013, guiding the team during the transition from NAIA to NCAA Division I. She has been an assistant at Dartmouth College (2007-2010), Princeton University (2003-2007) and New York University (2000-2003).
- Gabby Johnson joined Valpo's staff after a tenure as the head coach at Dominican University in River Forest, Ill. that began in 2012. She was an assistant at Northern Kentucky from 2010-2012. During her playing career, Johnson helped Thomas More to an impressive 99-16 record.
- Tyeasha Moss previously served as a graduate assistant at Ohio University, where Mary Evans was an assistant coach. During her playing days, Moss was a standout at Xavier, where she led the Musketeers to three A-10 regular season championships, two undefeated conference regular seasons and an Elite Eight appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2009.
- Director of Basketball Operations Sean Eaton graduated from Valpo with a master's in sports administration in May 2018 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
- Graduate assistant Kaylin Speedy served as a manager for the Purdue women's basketball program from 2014-2018 and was the head manager by the end of her time in West Lafayette.
- Athletic trainer Carrie McKiddy is in her fourth season working with the Valpo women's basketball program and previously served as an athletic trainer at the University of Illinois from 2005-2011.

Who's Next: Coopersville (Mich.) High School senior Cara VanKempen has signed her National Letter of Intent to play for Valpo next season. The two-time all-conference performer has also garnered all-area first team and all-state honorable mention recognition. As a junior last season, VanKempen averaged 14 points, six rebounds and three assists per game. The daughter of a coach who has played for her father from a young age, VanKempen became the first high school recruit to sign with Valpo under first-year head coach Mary Evans' watch.

Champions in Classroom: The Valpo women's basketball team has developed a tradition of having players thrive academically. The 2017-2018 season saw Valpo have 11 players finish the spring semester with a GPA of 3.0 or better. Two players were named MVC Scholar-Athletes of the Week during the season and two were recognized as part of either the MVC Scholar-Athlete team or MVC Scholar-Athlete honorable mention. The 2018-2019 team has players with the following majors: biology, biomedical engineering, communications, public relations, marketing, healthcare leadership, health sciences, exercise science, psychology, finance, elementary education, business management and secondary/physical education.

Champions in Community: The program also has a commitment to serving the community. During their time on campus, players have visited elementary school students and wrote letters back and forth to encourage and promote healthy lifestyles as pen pals. In addition, Valpo women's basketball players assembled over 1,000 informational packages for runners and spectators at the Chicago Marathon as part of the team's annual Pack-a-thon. Athletes on the team engaged the greater Valparaiso community by volunteering and organizing supervision of the Valparaiso Popcorn Fest's Little Kernel Puff Run. Valpo players ran with children to the finish line of the event and helped set up the race. Valparaiso was the hometown of Orville Redenbacher's popcorn company. Numerous Valpo players have also volunteered their time at the Valpo Boys & Girls Club.

What's Back: Valpo returns nine of its top 10 scorers from a year ago, but the one departure was significant as leading scorer Dani Franklin graduated after finishing in the Top 10 in Valpo history in 13 statistical categories. Franklin, an all-conference first team selection as a senior, finished second in program history in career scoring with 1,721 points and fifth in rebounding with 713. In all, Valpo returns 12 letter winners and four starters from last season.

#RingTheBell

- Shortly after Valpo's new coaching staff was assembled, the group sat down to discuss a program hashtag. Despite being new to Valpo, the staff members were well educated on the University's history and tradition. That's how #RingTheBell was born.

- Head Coach Mary Evans: "Ring the bell here at Valpo is something you do when you graduate, so the concept speaks to our goal of being successful both on the court and in the classroom. We want to be one of the best programs in our conference and continue to have great success academically and in our personal lives. My message to our players is that whatever they do in life, it's important to put in the time and effort to be very good at it. That's what #RingTheBell has become to us."

- Senior Allison Schofield: "I love the idea by our coaching staff and think it's a tremendous concept. Ringing the bell is synonymous with Valparaiso University as a whole and has been for quite some time. This allows us to become closely associated with something that is University wide rather than separating ourselves as women's basketball. To me, #RingTheBell means victory and finishing the close games that we've struggled to finish in the past."

- Senior Meredith Hamlet: "To me, #RingTheBell is about winning games. That's our goal. We have confidence that we can win the games on our schedule and we have a fair shot to beat every team we play. The team that works the hardest is going to win."

- Redshirt Sophomore Addison Stoller: "#RingTheBell gives us a consistent message and establishes a trend that we want to continue. As a program, we want to be consistent in everything we do, from our messaging to our play on the court. We've seen our coaches get excited about ringing the bell and that's allowed us to dedicate ourselves to it as well."

A Look Back at 2017-18

- Valpo won a league tournament game for the sixth time in the last seven years by topping Loyola in the first round of Hoops in the Heartland before falling to eventual conference champion Drake in the second round.

- The program finished with 13 wins, the team's highest win total since 2008-09, when it won 16 games. The team also equaled its highest conference win total since 2009-10 and had the most road wins in a single season since the 2011-2012 campaign.

- Valpo finished with the second-best free-throw percentage in program history at 76.0 and had its highest scoring average (65.1) since 2007-2008 (66.3).

- Senior Dani Franklin closed out her noteworthy career and was named to the 2017-18 All-MVC First Team and Scholar-Athlete First Team following the season. She finished second in program history in career points.

- Set the school record for made 3-pointers by a freshman in a single season in 2015-16 with 69, a mark that ranked fifth overall in program history.

- Named to the 2015-16 Horizon League All-Freshman Team and received 2017-18 MVC Scholar-Athlete Honorable Mention.

- Has enjoyed numerous notable single-game performances, including reaching 29 points on three occasions – Dec. 15, 2017 vs. IU Northwest, Jan. 14, 2017 at Youngstown State and Dec. 30, 2015 at Northern Kentucky. Perhaps her most memorable game, however, was Feb. 11 of last season at Loyola, when she exploded for 19 points in the fourth quarter to help Valpo to a comeback victory after being held scoreless for the first three quarters.

Beyond basketball...

- Was featured as part of the MVC Scholar-Athlete Spotlight on Nov. 21.

- Comes from a Valpo family as the third of three sisters to play women's basketball at Valpo. Oldest sister Elizabeth graduate transferred to Valpo for the 2013-2014 season after starting her career at Oakland. Middle sister Annemarie also went from Oakland to Valpo for the 2013-14 season but sat out that year due to transfer rules. Annemarie played the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons, the second of which was Meredith's freshman year.

- The Valpo legacy within the family goes beyond the sister trio as both of her sisters have married former Valpo athletes. Elizabeth is married to former Valpo men's basketball player Bobby Capobianco, who closed out his collegiate career with the 2013-14 season. This past summer, Annemarie married Jake Hanson, who played baseball at Valpo as recently as 2017.

Athletes in Action is a faith-based group and the goal of the trip was to teach people about the glory of God. The players did missionary work, played against the Ethiopian national team, visited schools, attended church and shared their testimony during the 10-day stay in Africa.

- Majoring in public relations with minors in sports management and professional writing.

Allison Schofield

On the court...

Mary Evans

Head Coach

1st Season

6-14 overall & at Valpo

Georgia Southern, 2000

Mary Evans is in her first year as the head coach of the Valparaiso University women's basketball program in 2018-2019.

Evans, who spent the last five seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio University, became the eighth head coach in program history on April 13, 2018. She brought 15 years of Division I experience with her to Valpo.

During her time on Ohio's staff under head coach Bob Boldon, Evans helped the Bobcats to three seasons of 22 wins or more, three postseason appearances and three Top 75 RPI finishes. The 2014-15 team established a school record with 27 wins, a 21-win improvement from two years earlier and an 18-win improvement from the previous season. The Bobcats won the 2014-15 MAC regular season and tournament titles and reached the NCAA Tournament.

Evans spent the 2012-13 season at Youngstown State University, where she helped the Penguins to a 23-10 record and a first-round win at Indiana State in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). She has also coached at Georgia Southern University (2007-2012), the University of South Carolina, Aiken (2005-2007) and Seton Hall University (2001-2005).

The five-year stint at Georgia Southern provided Evans with the opportunity to work at her alma mater. She helped guide the 2009-2010 team to a 19-12 record, the program's highest win total since 2002-2003.

During her time at Division II South Carolina, Aiken, Evans was an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator, helping the program to its first 20-win season since 2001-2002 in 2006-2007.

At Seton Hall, Evans was on staff as the Pirates reached the WNIT in 2003-2004 and 2004-2005. She was the recruiting coordinator during the 2004-2005 season.

At Aiken, Evans worked under Mike Brandt, who provided her with the opportunity to run the defense. When she returned to Georgia Southern under Rusty Cram, she was the offensive coach and had the chance to run practices. For six seasons prior to her appointment as Valpo head coach, she served on Boldon's staff, first at Youngstown State and then at Ohio.

Evans was a two-sport athlete at Georgia Southern, where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in 2000. She won four letters in basketball (1995-1999) and three in soccer during her time as a collegiate athlete. A native of Summerville, S.C., Evans was inducted into the Summerville High School Hall of Fame in 2008. She and her husband Daryl have two children, Keegan Thomas and Zoe Mae.
