Illinois State (6-6, 0-1 MVC) at Valparaiso (7-6, 0-2 MVC)

Game No. 14 – Friday, Jan. 5 – 7 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will host a conference game at the Athletics-Recreation Center for the first time since joining the Missouri Valley Conference on Friday night as Illinois State comes to town. The Crusaders will attempt to garner their first conference triumph and remain unbeaten at home this season.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders trailed by as few as six in the fourth quarter, but eventually fell 77-56 at UNI in a game that was closer than the final score would indicate. A late barrage of 3s helped the Panthers break the game open. The key factor in the game was rebounding, as UNI pulled down 49 boards, 22 of them coming on the offensive glass. Dani Franklin led the Crusaders with 18 points and eight rebounds, while Maya Meredith also made her way into double figures with 10 points.

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game and every game for the remainder of the season will air on The Valley on ESPN3. Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentator) will describe the action as the Crusaders take on the Redbirds. Ben Ariano will have the radio call on 95.1 FM Valparaiso. Links to live video, audio and stats are posted on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: This will mark just the fifth meeting between Valpo and Illinois State, with the Crusaders having dropped three of the first four. The two teams locked horns a year ago in Bloomington, a game Illinois State won 77-56. Addison Stoller had nine points and seven rebounds to lead the Crusaders, who committed 30 turnovers in that game. The second quarter swung the game, as the Redbirds outscored the Crusaders 28-13. Dani Franklin was limited to seven points, her second-lowest total of the season. The biggest headache for Valpo in that contest was Taylor Stewart, a then-senior who Valpo won't have to concern itself with this time around. She scored 24 points and drained seven 3-pointers. Illinois State last visited the ARC in 2000, while the Crusaders only victory over the Redbirds came in 1999.

Franklin Continues to Climb: Dani Franklin turned in a team-high 18 points on Sunday at UNI, in the process continuing her ascent of Valpo's all-time scoring list. Franklin, who played in her home state of Iowa for the first time in her collegiate career last weekend, surpassed Jeanette Gray (1999-2003) for third in program history. The Valpo senior, who became the first Valpo player in 15 years to crack the program's Top 3, has 1,461 career points. The only two players with more in the history of Valpo women's basketball are Debbie Bolen (2,008) and Sarrah Stricklett (1,498).

Defending the ARC: The Crusaders carry a seven-game home winning streak into Friday's game and enter this weekend as the only team in The Valley unbeaten at home this year (5-0). Valpo finished the nonconference portion of the season with an undefeated home record for the first time since 2007-08. This is Valpo's longest home winning streak since rapping off 11 straight victories at home spanning the 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons.

We Meet Again: Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow will face her former team on Friday night against Illinois State. She played for the Redbirds from 1990-1993, leading the team in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference in assists that season. This marks the second consecutive season Dorow opposes her old team, as Valpo played at Illinois State in nonconference action a year ago.

Stoller Collides with Hometown Squad: Valpo redshirt freshman Addison Stoller is a native of Cissna Park, Ill., which is located near Illinois State. The last time she faced the team nearest to her hometown, Stoller had the best performance of her career, turning in nine points and seven rebounds on Nov. 19, 2016 at Illinois State.

Happy New Year: The Crusaders are looking to ring in 2018 with a victory as they play their first contest of fresh calendar on Friday. A win would allow Valpo to start a calendar year in positive fashion for the first time since 2012, which started with a 54-49 triumph over Northern Illinois.

Opening an Era: Friday will mark Valpo's first home conference game as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference after the University gained full-fledged conference affiliation on July 1. Valpo was victorious the last time it debuted in a new conference in front of its home fans, beating Butler 77-69 on Jan. 5, 2007 at the ARC in the program's first Horizon League game.

The Stripe's Significance: Free throw shooting has been indicative of the team's results so far this season, as the Crusaders have won all seven games they've had a better free throw percentage than their opponent and lost all six games they've had a worse free throw percentage than their opponent. Valpo matched a season-high with 26 made free throws in the nonconference finale against Fort Wayne and had shot 85 percent or better at the free-throw line in three consecutive games before shooting a season-low 61.5 percent at the line at Drake. The struggles at the free-throw line that took place against the Bulldogs have been a rarity for Valpo, which hasn't had a free-throw shooting showing worse than that one since Jan. 22 of last season against Wright State, going 61.1 percent.

More Shooting Numbers: Valpo narrowly extended its streak of shooting better than 30 percent from the floor to 18 games at Drake as the Crusaders shot a season-low 30.2 percent. That streak reached 19 as Valpo shot 35.6 percent at UNI. Valpo hasn't shot below 30 percent since Feb. 11 of last season, a 41-32 win over Northern Kentucky.

Keeping Control: Valpo did a strong job of keeping turnovers to a minimum during the nonconference season. The Crusaders committed just eight turnovers in the nonconference finale against Fort Wayne, matching the previous week's win over IU Northwest for the fewest turnovers made by Valpo this season. This marked the fewest turnovers the team has made in a game against a Division I opponent since Dec. 12, 2015, when the Crusaders limited the turnover total to six against Miami (Ohio). Valpo committed 15 turnovers or fewer in eight of its 11 nonconference games and more than 17 turnovers on just one occasion in conference play. Last season, Valpo committed 19 or more turnovers in eight of its 11 nonconference games. The 14.0 turnovers per game is the fewest Valpo has finished the nonconference season with since 2004-05. Here's a deeper look at Valpo's improvement in limiting turnovers during this year's nonconference season as compared to years past.

The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

- Franklin has 568 career rebounds, 15th in program history. She needs four more to jump to 13th all-time.

Inside the Redbirds

- Started conference play with a 62-42 loss to Bradley on Sunday. The Redbirds were hurt by a pair of single-digit quarters, scoring nine points in the first and just three in the third. Simone Goods led Illinois State with a double-double of 22 points and 14 rebounds.

- Goods, who has played in just six games and made three starts, leads the Redbirds in scoring at 17.2 points per game, joined in double figures by Hannah Green, who is averaging 13.6. Goods is also the top rebounder at 9.7 per game in her limited sample size.
- Leads the league in scoring defense at 54.5, but ninth in scoring offense at 53.1.
- Have struggled from beyond the arc, shooting a league-worst 25 percent.
- Under the direction of head coach Kristen Gillespie, who is in her first season at the helm. She was previously the head coach at Division II Lewis, leading the Flyers to a 51-12 record over the last two seasons.
- Picked to finish seventh in the MVC after going 4-14 in league play a year ago.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

282-280 overall, 48-117 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
