Bradley (8-5, 2-0 MVC) at Valparaiso (8-6, 1-2 MVC)

Game No. 15 – Sunday, Jan. 7 – 3 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will host the middle game of a three-game homestand on Sunday afternoon as the Bradley Braves come to town. This will mark the second straight season the Braves have visited the Athletics-Recreation Center, but it's the first time they come to Valpo for a Missouri Valley Conference contest. The Crusaders enter Sunday with a perfect 6-0 home record and an eight-game home winning streak that dates back to last season.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders grinded out a 56-50 victory over Illinois State on Friday night, picking up the program's first Missouri Valley Conference win in their home Valley debut. The Crusaders went 9-of-22 from beyond the arc (40.9 percent) while limiting Illinois State to just 2-of-22 (9.1 percent) from 3-point distance. The Crusaders held the Redbirds to 24.6 percent shooting, the lowest shooting clip by a Valpo opponent this season. Dani Franklin led Valpo in both scoring (17) and rebounding (8).

Following the Crusaders: Sunday's game and every game for the remainder of the season will air on The Valley on ESPN3. Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Jamie Stangel (color commentator) will describe the action. Ben Ariano will have the radio call on 95.1 FM Valparaiso. Links to live video, audio and stats are posted on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC)

North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: The Crusaders have dropped six of the seven all-time meetings with the Braves. The most recent showdown occurred last season, when the Crusaders dropped their final nonleague game of the year 67-56 on Dec. 19. Meredith Hamlet led Valpo with 13 points, while Dani Franklin and Grace Hales chipped in 10 apiece. It was Hales's first double-figure scoring output of her Crusader career. Before last year, the most recent meeting was an 82-73 Valpo win on Nov. 28, 2006.

Eying Second All-Time: Dani Franklin could reach her most significant career milestone yet on Sunday afternoon against the Braves. Franklin needs 21 points to pass Sarrah Stricklett (20 to tie) for second in program history in career scoring. She enters the game with 1,478 career points. In addition, Franklin is 22 points away from becoming the second player in the history of Crusader women's basketball to reach 1,500 career points. Franklin will likely finish second in program history in career scoring. Even if Valpo plays in four conference tournament games and one game in an additional postseason tournament, Franklin would need to average 26.5 points per game for the rest of the year to catch the legendary Debbie Bolen, who set the school's seemingly untouchable scoring record with 2,008 career points.

Defending the ARC: The Crusaders carry an eight-game home winning streak into Sunday's matinee and are the only team in The Valley unbeaten at home this year (6-0). Valpo finished the nonconference portion of the season with an undefeated home record for the first time since 2007-08. This is Valpo's longest home winning streak since rapping off 11 straight victories at home spanning the 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons. The Crusaders are off to their best home start since beginning the 2005-06 season with a 7-0 record at the ARC, a mark they could match with a win on Sunday.

15-Game Checkpoint: Regardless of Sunday's outcome, Valpo will own a winning record through 15 games for the first time since 2008-09. With a victory over the Braves on Sunday, the Crusaders would sit at 9-6, their best 15-game start since going 10-5 to begin the 2005-06 campaign. The Crusaders have already won their first conference home game of the season for the first time since 2012-13 and have an opportunity to win each of their first two home conference contests for the first time since 2005-06.

Happy New Year: The Crusaders rang in 2018 with a victory as they played their first tilt of the fresh calendar on Friday. The win over Illinois State allowed Valpo to start a calendar year in positive fashion for the first time since 2012, which started with a 54-49 triumph over Northern Illinois.

Strange Shooting Stat: In Valpo's last 24 games, the Crusaders have shot under 30 percent only twice. Oddly enough, the Valpo has found a way to win both of those games. The Crusaders beat Northern Kentucky 41-32 while shooting 25 percent on Feb. 11 of last season, then beat Illinois State 56-50 on Friday night despite shooting just 28.8 percent.

Defense Shines: The Crusaders limited Illinois State to just 2-of-22 from 3-point range on Friday. That was the fewest 3s made by a Valpo opponent since Dec. 2, when Liberty went 1-of-19. In addition, Illinois State shot just 24.6 percent from the floor, the lowest Valpo has held an opponent since Feb. 11 of last season against Northern Kentucky (21.3 percent).

Boss's Birthday: Valparaiso Director of Athletics Mark LaBarbera is celebrating a birthday on Sunday. This marks the third straight year the Crusaders have played on Jan. 7. The Crusaders are seeking their first win on LaBarbera's birthday in his tenure as the University's Director of Athletics, as they're 0-4 on his big day thus far.

The Stripe's Significance: Free throw shooting has been indicative of the team's results so far this season, as the Crusaders have won all eight games they've had a better free throw percentage than their opponent and lost all six games they've had a worse free throw percentage than their opponent. Valpo matched a season-high with 26 made free throws in the nonconference finale against Fort Wayne and had shot 85 percent or better at the free-throw line in three consecutive games before shooting a season-low 61.5 percent at the line at Drake. The struggles at the free-throw line that took place against the Bulldogs have been a rarity for Valpo, which hasn't had a free-throw shooting showing worse than that one since Jan. 22 of last season against Wright State, going 61.1 percent.

Valpo in The Valley: Valparaiso University is competing in its first season as a member institution in the Missouri Valley Conference after a 10-year run in the Horizon League. The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

Dani Franklin Record Book Watch

- Franklin enters this game with 1,478 career points, which ranks third in Valpo history. After surpassing Jeanette Gray for third in program history, Franklin now has her sights set on second. She needs 21 points to pass Sarrah Stricklett and 22 points to become the second player in program history to score 1,500 points.

- Franklin holds a career scoring average of 14.2 points per game, which ranks second in program history. The program record is 18.4 points per game, set by Debbie Bolen (1989-93).
- Franklin ranks third in Valpo history with 548 career made field goals. She is 56 makes away from passing Jeanette Gray for second in program history.
- Franklin has amassed 158 3-pointers in her illustrious career, a total that ranks sixth in program history. She needs 14 more to leap into fourth.
- Franklin owns a career 3-point field goal percentage of .380, which currently sits third all-time.
- Franklin has 576 career rebounds, which ranks 13th in program history. She passed Deb Lahti (1982-1984) and Carrie Forsman (1992-1996) on Valpo's all-time rebounding chart on Friday against Illinois State. Ashley Varner is 11th at 595 and Betsy Rietema is 12th at 594.
- Franklin's career free-throw percentage of .872 is on pace for the program record, which currently is .838 set by Launa Hochstetler (2005-2009).

Inside the Braves

- Picked to finish sixth in the MVC Preseason Poll.
- Went 12-19 overall and 7-11 in conference play last season.
- Under the direction of Andrea Gorski, who is in her second season as the head coach at her alma mater.
- Edged Loyola 59-57 on Friday in Chicago. Senior Danielle Brewer turned in a season-high 17 points, while the Braves committed a season-low eight turnovers.

- Led in scoring by Shunseere Kent at 9.1 ppg. Top rebounder is Gabi Haack, who pulls down 5.7 boards per game.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.

- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 season.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.
- Freshman Ella Ellenson (Rice Lake, Wis.) is the first Valpo player from Wisconsin since Sarah Ott (Chippewa Falls, Wis.) in 2007-08.

Meredith Hamlet

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

283-280 overall, 49-117 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
