Valparaiso (9-7, 2-3 MVC) at Missouri State (9-8, 5-1 MVC)

Game No. 17 – Friday, Jan. 19 – 7 p.m. CT
JQH Arena (11,000) – Springfield, Mo.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will look to withstand a raucous environment on Friday night at Missouri State, a school that is known to provide a quality fan environment and is averaging nearly 2,500 fans per home game. The Crusaders come into the contest looking to make their home success carry over to opposing gyms, as they own a 7-1 home mark but a 2-6 record away from the ARC.

Last Time Out: Valpo saw five players reach double figures for the first time this season in last Friday's 76-60 win over Loyola at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Grace Hales led the way with a career-high 15 points on an efficient 5-of-6 shooting off the Valpo bench. Four starters joined her in double figures – Dani Franklin (14), Bryce Blood (12), Nicole Konieczny (12) and Meredith Hamlet (10).

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game and every game for the remainder of the season will air on The Valley on ESPN3. In addition, the hometown radio call of Friday's game can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso with Ben Ariano (play-by-play) and Brandon Vickrey (color commentary). Links to live video, audio and stats are available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: This will mark the first-ever meeting between the two teams.

1,500 Point Club: Dani Franklin reached her most noteworthy milestone yet last weekend against Loyola. The senior forward scored 14 points in that contest, adding to her ever-growing Valpo legacy by usurping Sarrah Stricklett (1,498) for second on the program's all-time scoring list. In the process, she hit the 1,500 career point milestone, joining only Valpo legend Debbie Bolen in that elite club. Franklin is the Missouri Valley Conference's active career leading scorer and one of three active players in the conference with over 1,000 career points, joining Missouri State's Liza Fruendt (1,392) and Southern Illinois' Kylie Giebelhausen (1,127).

Five in Double Figures: Perhaps the most impressive aspect of last week's 76-60 win over Loyola was that five Crusaders finished in double figures for the first time this season. In fact, you have to go all the way back to March 10, 2016, a memorable 94-91 overtime win over Detroit Mercy in the first round of the Horizon League Tournament, for the last time a Crusader team had five players finish in double figures in a single game. The last time it occurred in a regulation game was Dec. 21, 2015, an 88-22 win over IU Kokomo. The last time it happened in a regulation game against a Division I opponent was Feb. 25, 2015, a 77-70 loss to Cleveland State. None of the five who scored in double figures that game against the Vikings are still with the program.

Season Checkpoint: Valpo owns a winning record through 16 games for the first time since 2008-09, when the team also held a 9-7 mark at this point in the year. Coincidentally, the 16th game of that season was also against Loyola, with the Crusaders beating the Ramblers 69-52 to improve to 9-7, very similar to Valpo's 76-60 win over Loyola to go to 9-7 last week. A win on Friday at Missouri State would allow the Crusaders to reach a double-figure win total just 17 games into the season for the first time since 2005-06, when Valpo was 11-6 through 17 games. Valpo is already just one win away from matching its win total from last season.

Comeback Crusaders: Valpo's win over Loyola last Friday came after the Ramblers led 33-32 at halftime. This marked the first time all season the Crusaders prevailed after chasing at a game's midway mark, as they previously possessed an 0-6 record in those situations. Before the Loyola game, Valpo's last win when trailing at halftime was on Feb. 18 of last season, a 57-55 victory over Detroit Mercy that saw the Titans hold a 26-22 halftime edge at the ARC.

Individual Standouts: Two of the top performers in last week's win over Loyola were sophomore guard Grace Hales and freshman forward Bryce Blood. Blood enjoyed her second double-double of the year and the team's third of the season by scoring 12 points to go along with 10 rebounds. It was her first double-double since the Nov. 16 season opener against IU Kokomo and the team's first since Dani Franklin on Dec. 10 against Chicago State. Hales' 15 points marked a career watermark, as she led the team in scoring for the first time since Dec. 2 at Liberty. Coincidentally, the game against the Flames was also the last time before Loyola that Blood paced the squad in rebounding. The Crusaders also had a freshman reach a rebounding career high for the second consecutive contest last week against the Ramblers – this time Nicole Konieczny with five boards after Ella Ellenson had seven against Bradley.

Third Quarter Dominance: The third quarter swung last week's game against Loyola, as the Crusaders outscored the Ramblers 23-9. That was Valpo's most dominant quarter since Dec. 15, when Valpo outscored IU Northwest 24-10 in the fourth. It was the first time this season Valpo won a quarter by 14+ points against a Division I team. The last time that happened was the 2016-17 season finale, when Valpo led UIC 22-8 after one quarter on the way to a 72-63 win.

Odds & Ends: After three straight games with four made 3s or fewer, the Crusaders have made six 3s or more in each of their last three games... Valpo has had 10 or more offensive rebounds in five straight games, the first time this year the team has done so... The Crusaders averaged just 14.0 turnovers per game during the nonconference season, Valpo's best nonconference turnover per game average since 2004-05... The Crusaders finished the nonconference slate at 7-4, their highest nonconference win total since 2006... Valpo shot 41.5 percent against Loyola last week, its best shooting performance in the last six games. The 76 points also marked the team's highest scoring output during that six-game stretch.

Valpo in The Valley: Valparaiso University is competing in its first season as a member institution in the Missouri Valley Conference after a 10-year run in the Horizon League. The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

Missouri State made its first NCAA appearance in a decade under her direction in 2016. Harper also reached the NCAA Tournament as a head coach twice at Western Carolina and once at North Carolina State.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.

- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 season.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.
- Freshman Ella Ellenson (Rice Lake, Wis.) is the first Valpo player from Wisconsin since Sarah Ott (Chippewa Falls, Wis.) in 2007-08.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

284-281 overall, 50-117 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors.
