Missouri State (15-10, 11-3 MVC) at Valparaiso (11-13, 4-9 MVC)

Game No. 25 – Sunday, Feb. 18 – 3 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will continue its home weekend on Sunday at the Athletics-Recreation Center as Missouri State comes to town for the first time in program history. Sunday is Valpo's teal game in support of sexual assault abuse victims.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders competed in a marathon affair on Friday night against Southern Illinois that took two overtimes to decide. The Salukis edged their way to an 88-86 victory despite a season-high 31 points from Valpo senior Dani Franklin. Maya Meredith nailed a shot from nearly half court at the end of regulation to send the game to overtime. Hamlet (17) and Meredith (14) joined Franklin in double figures.

Following the Crusaders: Sunday's game will air on the MSU TV Network and ESPN3 with Don West (play-by-play) and Carly Stubblefield (color commentator) describing the action. Danny Dalenberg (play-by-play) and Ben Ariano (color commentator) will have the radio call on 95.1 FM Valparaiso. In addition to video and audio, live stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: This is just the second meeting between the two teams, with the first coming earlier this season in Springfield. This marks Missouri State's first trip to Valparaiso. The first installment of this series occurred on Jan. 19, when the Crusaders fell 83-60 at JQH Arena. Dani Franklin (14), Grace Hales (12) and Nicole Konieczny (11) comprised a trio of Crusaders in double figures. Valpo trailed by just four at halftime, but the Bears pulled away in the third by outscoring the Crusaders 30-10. Valpo made just two turnovers in the first half, but committed 14 after halftime. Missouri State's Liza Fruendt poured in 33 points, the most points scored by an individual in an MVC game this year.

#SCTop10: Meredith's desperation heave to end regulation on Friday night received national attention over the weekend. It was featured as the No. 9 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 on the 9 a.m. Central Time SportsCenter on Saturday morning. Meredith banked it in from 40 feet after a long baseline inbound pass from Marlee Proffitt with 2.3 seconds left. Meredith finished the game with a career-high 14 points.

Franklin Does Franklin Things: Dani Franklin returned to form on Friday night, going 12-of-23 shooting for a season-high 31 points. This marked the third time in Franklin's career she's scored 30+ points in a contest, joining Nov. 12, 2016 at Stetson (34) and Dec. 3, 2016 vs. Eastern Illinois (33). It was the fourth time in Franklin's career she's knocked down 12 field goals in a game. Her 31 points marked the second-highest scoring output by any player in a Missouri Valley Conference game this season, behind only Liza Fruendt's 33-point outburst when Valpo visited Missouri State. Franklin outscored her previous three games combined on Friday. She has shot above 50 percent twice in conference play this season, both coming against Southern Illinois. Franklin's effort on Friday allowed her to climb back into second in scoring in The Valley at 15.8 points per game, so Sunday's showdown will feature the league's top two scorers, with Liza Fruendt leading the way at 16.1 points per game.

Overtime Special: Friday's affair with Southern Illinois needed an extra 10 minutes to be decided – marking Valpo's fifth double overtime game in program history and first since Feb. 18, 2006, a 75-67 victory over Chicago State. Double OT games have come in pairs in the past for the Crusaders, who played double overtime twice in both 1999-2000 and 2005-06. Friday's game was the first overtime contest for the Crusaders since a memorable 94-91 win over Detroit Mercy in the first round of the Horizon League Tournament on March 11, 2016 in Green Bay. Valpo hadn't played OT at the ARC since Feb. 28, 2012, an 83-78 loss to Wright State.

Hamlet Among Career Leaders: Junior guard Meredith Hamlet has begun cracking the program's career leaderboard. She has made 144 career 3-pointers, a mark that ranks 10th in program history. Megan Newcomer (1996-2000) is ninth at 145 and Betsy Adams (2008-2012) is eighth at 146. Hamlet has scored 884 career points and is in position to enter the Top 20 in that area by season's end. Heidi Diefenthaler ranks 20th with 896 career points.

Franklin Free Throw Watch: Senior forward Dani Franklin is currently shooting 86.6 percent at the foul line this season. Last year she finished at 85.8, which ranks second in program history for single-season free throw percentage. The Valpo record is 88.6 percent, set by Agnieszka Kulaga in 2008-2009.

Hales Hitting 3s: Valpo sophomore Grace Hales leads the Missouri Valley Conference in 3-point field goal percentage at 47.0 entering Sunday's contest. Hales has been a sharp-shooter off the bench throughout the season, as she's fulfilled the role of the Crusaders' "Sixth Player" well, serving as the team's third leading scorer. If the season ended today, Hales would finish third in program history in single-season 3-point field goal percentage.

Program's Progress: The Crusaders have already secured the program's highest win total since 2012-13 with six games still to go in the regular season. With their next victory, Valpo will have its highest win total since 2008-09, when the Crusaders finished 16-14. The Crusaders need two more conference wins to achieve their highest conference win total since 2009-10.

Comeback Crusaders: Valpo pulled off a 63-53 victory over Loyola last week at Gentile Arena despite trailing by 12 points in the second half. That marked the first time Valpo overcame a double-figure deficit since also coming from 12 down to win on Dec. 16, 2016 at Chicago State. The last time the Crusaders erased a double-figure hole and won by double figures was Dec. 19, 2015, a 69-56 win over SIU Edwardsville in a contest the Cougars led by 11. In last week's game at Loyola, the Crusaders trailed by 10 with 38 seconds left in the third quarter, the latest they've trailed by double figures in a victory since Feb. 17, 2011, coincidentally also against Loyola. The Crusaders beat the Ramblers 72-68 in the 2011 game despite trailing by 10 with six minutes remaining. Here's a deeper look at the eight times Valpo has erased a double-figure deficit to win over the last eight seasons.

Quite the Quarter: The fourth quarter of last week's game at Loyola was one to remember for the Crusaders, who outscored the Ramblers 30-12. That marked Valpo's highest point total in a single quarter since women's basketball transitioned from halves to quarters before the 2015-16 season. Junior guard Meredith Hamlet exploded for 19 points after being held scoreless through the first three quarters, the highest single-quarter individual point total by a Crusader since the move from halves to quarters.

Securing a Sweep: The regular season sweep of Loyola was Valpo's first over a conference foe since 2011-12, when the Crusaders won both games against then Horizon League rival Butler. Since that time, Butler has made two conference changes, going from the Horizon League to the Atlantic 10 to the Big East, while Valpo has made a conference climb of its own, going from the Horizon League to The Valley.

So You Want to Be a Coach: Dani Franklin has been named a participant in the 2018 "So You Want to be a Coach" program, hosted by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in partnership with the Alliance of Women Coaches. Franklin is an elementary education major and holds a 3.57 GPA while balancing basketball with her academic load. She is currently a student teacher in a second-grade classroom in Valparaiso. Franklin is second on Valpo's all-time scoring list with over 1,500 career points and is averaging a team-high 16.1 points and 6.1 rebounds per game this season.

Valpo in The Valley: Valparaiso University is competing in its first season as a member institution in the Missouri Valley Conference after a 10-year run in the Horizon League. The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

Inside the Bears

- Coming off a 69-58 win at Loyola on Friday. Much like Southern Illinois at Valpo, the Bears received a run for their money against the ninth-place Ramblers, needing a game-ending 18-5 run to snatch the victory. Aubrey Buckley and Alexa Willard scored 19 points apiece.
- Picked to finish second in the MVC Preseason Poll.
- Leading scorer is Liza Fruendt (16.1), the MVC Preseason Player of the Year and the leading scorer in the entire MVC. Buckley is the team's top rebounder at 6.0 per game, while Buckley (10.2) and Willard (11.0) join Fruendt in averaging double figures in scoring.
- Under the direction of Kellie Harper, one of only 11 coaches nationwide to have led three different schools to the NCAA Tournament. Harper is in her fifth season at Missouri State and has led the team to three straight postseason trips.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

286-287 overall, 52-123 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
