Valparaiso (11-14, 4-10 MVC) at Indiana State (9-16, 7-7 MVC)

Game No. 26 – Friday, Feb. 23 – 6 p.m. CT
Hulman Center (10,200) – Terre Haute, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will begin an in-state road swing on Friday night at Indiana State as the Crusaders visit the Sycamores in the regular season's penultimate road date. After pushing a pair of the conference's top teams to the brink of defeat a week ago, the Crusaders will look to get over the hump and avenge a setback to Indiana State from earlier this season.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders narrowly came up short against one of the Missouri Valley Conference's top teams on Sunday afternoon at the Athletics-Recreation Center, falling 66-60 to second-place Missouri State. Meredith Hamlet scored a team-high 20 points, while Dani Franklin posted a double-double of 17 points and 13 boards. Ella Ellenson needed only 11 minutes to rack up 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting. Franklin also dished out a career-high six assists.

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game will air on The Valley on ESPN3 with Beth Mauder and Chase Eyrich describing the action. The hometown radio call will be available courtesy of 95.1 FM WVUR with Ben Ariano (play-by-play) and Brandon Vickrey (color commentary). Links to live video, audio and stats are available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: The Crusaders fell 67-54 to Indiana State on Jan. 28 at the Athletics-Recreation Center in the first meeting between the two teams. Both teams shot under 30 percent and the Crusaders knocked down only four of their 27 3-point attempts. Dani Franklin's rebounding was a bright spot, as the Valpo senior turned in a double-double with 16 points and a career-high 16 boards. Valpo's strongest quarter was the fourth, as the Crusaders regained their shooting touch, posting 25 points and finishing the game on an 11-0 run. Before that matchup, this in-state showdown had been on hold since 2006-07. The two teams started facing off in 1972-73, when Valpo's program was in its upstart phases. The Sycamores have won six of the eight meetings between the two teams. Valpo's most recent win was 69-65 as part of the Hoosier Classic in Muncie during the 2001-02 season. This is Valpo's first visit to Indiana State since Feb. 16, 1995.

#SCTop10: Sophomore point guard Maya Meredith's desperation heave to end regulation on Friday night against Southern Illinois received national attention over the weekend. It was featured as the No. 9 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 on Saturday morning. Meredith banked it in from 40 feet after a long baseline inbound pass from Marlee Profitt with 2.3 seconds left. Meredith finished the game with a career-high 14 points.

Working Overtime: Friday's affair with Southern Illinois needed an extra 10 minutes to be decided – marking Valpo's fifth double overtime game in program history and first since Feb. 18, 2006, a 75-67 victory over Chicago State. Double OT games have come in pairs in the past for the Crusaders, who played double overtime twice in both 1999-2000 and 2005-06. Friday's game was the first overtime contest for the Crusaders since a memorable 94-91 win over Detroit Mercy in the first round of the Horizon League Tournament on March 11, 2016 in Green Bay. Valpo hadn't played OT at the ARC since Feb. 28, 2012, an 83-78 loss to Wright State.

Franklin Does Franklin Things: Dani Franklin returned to form last week against Southern Illinois, going 12-of-23 shooting for a season-high 31 points. That marked the third time in Franklin's career she scored 30+ points in a contest, joining Nov. 12, 2016 at Stetson (34) and Dec. 3, 2016 vs. Eastern Illinois (33). It was the fourth time in Franklin's career she knocked down 12 field goals in a game. Her 31 points marked the second-highest scoring output by any player in a Missouri Valley Conference game this season. Franklin continued her success with her fourth double-double of the season on Sunday against Missouri State, turning in a double-double of 17 points and 13 rebounds.

Franklin Honored by MVC: For her aforementioned efforts this past weekend combined with her performance in the classroom, Dani

Franklin was named the MVC Female Scholar Athlete of the Week, presented by Enterprise Bank and Trust Company. Her classroom portion is unique, as she is currently student teaching second graders at Heavilin Elementary School in Valpo. Franklin is pulling off the rare balance of student teaching and playing college basketball.

Champions in Classroom: Franklin becomes the second Crusader to win the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week award this season, joining Meredith Hamlet (Dec. 20). The following majors are represented on Valpo's roster: engineering, healthcare leadership, public relations, education, business marketing, exercise physiology, biomechanical engineering, biology, pre-law, physician assistant program and finance. The Crusaders feature 11 players with GPAs better than 3.0.

Hamlet Enters Top 20: Junior guard Meredith Hamlet entered the Top 20 in program history in career scoring and cracked the 900-point mark for her career on Sunday against Missouri State. Hamlet bumped Heidi Difenthaler (1992-1996), who finished with 896 career points, out of the Top 20. Hamlet currently has 904 career points, 16 behind Sarah Schomoyer (920), who is 19th. In addition, Hamlet has made 146 career 3-pointers, a mark that is tied with Betsy Adams (2008-2012) for seventh in program history. Jamie Gutowski is sixth at 151.

Single-Season Record Book Watch, 2018 Edition

- Franklin has 397 points this season – she needs to get to 437 to crack the Top 10 for points in a single season.

- Valpo is on the verge of cracking the Top 10 for blocked shots in a season. The Crusaders have blocked 82 shots this year. The 1993-1994 season is currently 10th at 85.

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

286-288 overall, 52-124 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
