Drake (22-7, 17-0 MVC) at Valparaiso (12-16, 5-12 MVC)

Game No. 29 – Saturday, March 3 – 3 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: What have Georgi Donchetz and Dani Franklin meant to Valparaiso women's basketball over the last four years? In a word – everything. Two seniors who will, each in their own way, leave behind lasting legacies will take the Athletics-Recreation Center floor for the final time on Saturday afternoon as Valpo hosts MVC regular season champion Drake. Donchetz and Franklin will be honored in a pregame ceremony that will begin at 2:43 p.m. and will address the audience along with head coach Tracey Dorow following the game.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders couldn't overcome a 24-9 hole after one quarter and eventually fell 76-53 to UNI on Thursday night at the ARC. Valpo was led in both scoring and rebounding by Bryce Blood as the freshman racked up 11 points and pulled down eight boards. Grace Hales hit double figures for the second straight game, finishing with 10 points. UNI shot 40 percent for the game, while the Crusaders were held to 31 percent shooting.

Following the Crusaders: Saturday's game will air on The Valley on ESPN3 with Brian Jennings (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) on the call. Ben Ariano will provide the radio description on WVUR, 95.1 FM. Live stats will also be available.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: Playing without one starter due to injury and three other players due to illness, Valpo fell 86-50 in the conference opener for both teams on Dec. 29 in Des Moines. Dani Franklin led the Crusaders in scoring by turning in nine points, while Marlee Proffitt paced the squad in rebounds with six. Addison Stoller chipped in a season-high eight points off the bench for the Crusaders, who were held to 30.2 percent shooting. The last time Valpo hosted Drake was a noteworthy clash, as the Crusaders initially prevailed 80-79 on Nov. 24, 1995, but the game was later ruled a forfeit in Drake's favor due to Valpo's use of an ineligible player. Drake holds a 3-0 record in the all-time series.

Senior Day Success: Last year, Valpo sent out its seniors with a 72-63 win over UIC in the regular season finale. Valpo is 3-2 on Senior Day in Tracey Dorow's time as head coach.

The Georgi Donchetz File: The numbers don't do justice to what this two-year captain and four-year letter winner has meant to her team. So instead of stats, we'll use words – those of head coach Tracey Dorow – to attempt to provide insight on Donchetz's lasting impact.

Nov. 14, 2017: "Georgi is the heart and soul of our Valpo women's basketball program. She cares so deeply about her teammates and what they can accomplish. Our young players feed off her enthusiasm. Georgi is always willing to step into whatever role necessary. She knows all of the positions because her basketball IQ is super high. She knows why we're doing what we're doing. She bleeds Brown and Gold. She's all about Valpo; she's social with a purpose. Every time she faces an obstacle, she rises to the top."

Dec. 19, 2016: "She's grown in so many areas of her life. She wants to set an example for the rest of the players. She's never hoped to be a superstar, but she's always hoped to help us get to the top."

Nov. 18, 2015: "I will always admire the passion that Georgi has for people more than anything. She has the same passion for the game, but she also sees that the game is a means to an end. She uses the game to do things that she otherwise might not have the platform to do, like the Crusaders Fight Cancer initiative."

Franklin's Farewell: After Saturday, the next time Valpo plays a home game it will do so without Dani Franklin on the court. That will mark first the time since Feb. 21, 2015 that Franklin hasn't been active for a Valpo game at the ARC. She's played in every home game in her career except that one, a loss to Youngstown State. In fact, that was the last time Franklin missed any game, home or road, as the next contest started a streak of 95 consecutive games played that remains intact today.

Blood's Big Day: Bryce Blood became the first Valpo player other than Dani Franklin to lead the Crusaders in both scoring and rebouncing when she racked up 11 points and pulled down eight boards on Thursday against UNI. Blood led the team in scoring for the first time in her collegiate career and paced the squad in rebounding for the fourth time this season and the first time since Jan. 12, when she pulled down 10 boards against Loyola.

Tournament Talk: Drake has nailed down the 2017-18 Missouri Valley Conference regular season title and will be the No. 1 seed and favorite for next week's conference tournament in Moline, Ill. The Crusaders hope to meet the Bulldogs again next week, as the winner of a first-round game between Valpo and either Loyola or Bradley will play Drake in the second round of the tournament. The Crusaders open Hoops in the Heartland on Thursday, March 8 at 4 p.m. CT with Drake awaiting the winner of Valpo's first-round game on Friday, March 9 at noon. Valpo can nail down the No. 8 seed for the conference tournament with either a win or a Loyola loss to UNI on Saturday. The Crusaders will only slip to ninth if they lose and Loyola beats UNI. The Ramblers could move up to seventh, but it would take a Loyola win over UNI, a Bradley loss to Illinois State and Loyola to take the MVC strength of victory tiebreaker. That specific scenario is the only way Valpo would face Bradley instead of Loyola in the opening round.

Tiebreaker Procedures: In the event of a tie in the conference standings, head-to-head will serve as the first tiebreaker. If there is still a tie, power rating using MVC games will be implemented, using the point system outlined below.

| Road Win | Home Win | |
|----------------|----------|---------|
| 1st place team | 20 pts. | 19 pts. |
| 2nd | 18 | 17 |
| 3rd | 16 | 15 |
| 4th | 14 | 13 |
| 5th | 12 | 11 |
| 6th | 10 | 9 |
| 7th | 8 | 7 |
| 8th | 6 | 5 |
| 9th | 4 | 3 |
| 10th | 2 | 1 |

Crusaders Can Score: Valpo has taken a significant offensive leap this season as compared to recent years. With one game to go in the regular season, the Crusaders are averaging 66.5 points per game, over five points per game better than a year ago. If Valpo can keep its scoring average above 66.3, this will mark the team's highest scoring average since the 1999-2000 campaign, when Valpo finished at 68.7. Here's a year-by-year look at how this year's scoring average compares to recent seasons.

Rewriting the Record Book: As Dani Franklin gets set to play in her final home game in a Valpo uniform on Saturday, it's fitting to recognize how many places her name will appear in the Crusader program record book when her prolific four-year career is said and done. Franklin will finish in the Top 10 in program history in at least 11 different categories – games played, total points, points per game, field goals made, field goals attempted, free throws made, 3-point field goals made, 3-point field goals attempted, rebounds, free-throw percentage and 3-point percentage. She has a strong chance to reach the Top 10 in two others – free throws attempted and rebounds per game. Here's a look at where Franklin ranks in program history in various statistical categories entering Saturday.

| Category | Value | Rank | Next Player to Pass (Value) |
|----------------------|-------|-------|--|

| FT Percentage | .873 | 1st | Current record – Launa Hochstetler, .838 |
| 3-Point FG% | .368 | 6th | Katie Boone (.373) |

It doesn't end there for Franklin, who also has a chance to finish in the Top 10 in several single-season categories for the 2017-18 campaign.

More Milestones: Franklin is five rebounds away from becoming the first player in program history to eclipse both 1,500 career points and 700 career rebounds.

Hamlet Enters Top 20: Junior Meredith Hamlet has made her way onto the program's all-time scoring list. She currently ranks 19th in program history with 932 career points. Aimee Litka (2005-09) is 18th at 944. In addition, Hamlet has made 149 career 3-pointers, and moved ahead of Betsy Adams (2008-2012) for eighth in program history last week at Indiana State. Jamie Gutowski (Stangel) is seventh at 151. Gutowski (Stangel), the color commentator for Thursday's game on ESPN3, started the season in sixth but will likely finish the season in eighth after being passed by both Franklin and Hamlet.

Hamlet Heats Up: Junior guard Meredith Hamlet has led the team in scoring seven times in the last 11 games and she's reached double figures in eight of those 11 contests. Hamlet is averaging a team-best 14.5 points per game in the last 11 games. In the first 17 games of the year, Hamlet's scoring average was 10.7.

Reaching New Heights

- With last week's win over Evansville, the Crusaders have secured the program's highest win total since 2008-09, when they finished at 16-14.
- A win this weekend on Saturday would allow the Crusaders to achieve their highest conference win total since 2009-10.
- Valpo swept Loyola and Evansville this season, marking the first time they've swept a conference foe since Butler in 2011-2012.
- Valpo has its most road wins in a single season since the 2011-2012 campaign.

We Are Young: Although Valpo's top two scorers are senior Dani Franklin and junior Meredith Hamlet, this is still largely a youthful Crusader squad. Eight of Valpo's top 10 scorers are freshmen or sophomores and nine of the team's top 10 scorers are expected to be back next season. Nicole Konieczny, who ranks 16th nationally in free-throw percentage among true freshmen at 78.8, and Bryce Blood are fourth and fifth on the team in scoring, respectively. Freshmen contributing right away has been a theme for the Crusaders, who have two freshmen in their top five in scoring for the fourth straight season.

Eye on the Future: A team that is returning nine of its top 10 scorers will also add two talented freshmen to the mix next year. Ilysse Pitts drained three 3s in the second half on Monday night, helping Montini to a 43-35 win over Bolingbrook in the IHSA

Class 4A Lewis Supersectional. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow was in attendance. Pitts is expected to be a force on the defensive end when she joins the Crusaders. Shay Frederick, a three-star recruit according to ESPN, started her state tournament in Wisconsin this week. Frederick shattered the Hortonville career scoring record among both boys and girls earlier this season.

Maya Makes Progress: In addition to accounting for two of the most noteworthy achievements by any Crusader this season – making SportsCenter’s Top 10 with a buzzer-beater to tie a game against Southern Illinois on Feb. 16 and shattering a program record with 16 assists against IU Northwest on Dec. 15, Maya Meredith has made many other key contributions for the Crusaders this season. Her statistical progress from her freshman year to sophomore year is impressive.

Single-Season Record Book Watch, 2018 Edition: In addition to Dani Franklin’s aforementioned milestones, there are several other individual and team categories that could gain a new member in the program record book this season.

- Hales holds a 3-point percent of .410, a mark that would rank ninth in single-season program history if the season ended today. She currently ranks second in the MVC.
- As a team, the Crusaders hold a free-throw percentage of .765. This year’s team is in position to finish second in program history for free-throw percentage behind 2013-2014 at .776. Currently second is 2007-2008 at .753.
- Valpo has cracked the program’s Top 10 for blocked shots in a season. The Crusaders have blocked 92 shots, which is now 10th in program history. The 2004-2005 team is ninth with 95.

Champions in Classroom: On Feb. 21, Dani Franklin became the second Crusader to win the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week award this season, joining Meredith Hamlet (Dec. 20). The following majors are represented on Valpo’s roster: engineering, healthcare leadership, public relations, education, business marketing, exercise physiology, biomechanical engineering, biology, pre-law, physician assistant program and finance. The Crusaders feature 11 players with GPAs better than 3.0.

Inside the Bulldogs

- Have won 39 straight MVC regular season games, the longest conference winning streak in the history of The Valley.

- Last Valley regular season loss was Feb. 19, 2016 at UNI.
- Coming off a 97-53 win over Loyola on Thursday night, a game that saw the Bulldogs score 20+ points in all three quarters, including 31 in the second. Loyola actually led 23-20 after one quarter. Becca Hittner led five Bulldogs in double figures with 25 points.
- Hittner leads Drake in scoring at 15.8 points per game, while Sara Rhine is averaging 15.3 points and a team-high 6.1 rebounds per contest. Samme Bachrodt (10.5) and Maddy Dean (10.1) are also scoring in double figures.
- Have won 20 or more games each of the last four seasons.
- Clinched back-to-back MVC regular season titles for the first time since 1996-97 and 1997-98.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen’s 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two

- Handed out a career-high six assists on Dec. 18 at Eastern Illinois.

- Only player on Valpo's roster who has scored more than 25 points in a single game in each of the last three seasons.
- Since the start of the 2015-16 season, there have been 11 occasions where a Valpo player has hit 5 or more 3-pointers in a game. Hamlet has accounted for seven of those occasions, while Dani Franklin and Hannah Schaub have a pair of five 3-pointer games apiece.
- Has six career games scoring 20 points or more, and the first five came away from the ARC. Had her first home game with 20+ points on Dec. 15 against IU Northwest.
- Had five made 3s on Dec. 8 at Purdue, all in the first half. Scored 19 points in the game, all coming before halftime. Became the first Crusader with a 19-point half this season and the first Valpo player to hit five 3s in one half since she did so at Northern Kentucky on Dec. 3, 2016.
- Poured in 25 points on Dec. 3 at Longwood, making a career-high nine free throws.
- Posted a team-high 14 points, the 25th double-figure scoring game of her Valpo career, on Nov. 21 at Miami (Ohio). Followed by scoring 14 more in Valpo's win over Grand Canyon on Nov. 25.
- Started in Valpo's season opener for the third consecutive year.
- Reached the 500-point plateau for her collegiate career as only a sophomore on Jan. 14, 2016 at Youngstown State.
- Posted her first career double-double on Jan. 14, 2016 at Youngstown State, matching a career high with 29 points while shattering personal bests in rebounds (10) and made field goals (12). That game marked the 23rd time in program history a player has made 12 field goals or more in a single game.
- Dished out a career-best seven assists on Jan. 22, 2017 at Wright State.
- Began her collegiate career with a streak of 52 consecutive starts without missing a game, which was snapped on Feb. 2, 2017 against Youngstown State.
- Exploded for 29 points at Northern Kentucky on Dec. 30, 2015. Went 10-of-11 shooting, the third-highest single-game field goal percentage in program history.
- Made a game-winning layup at the buzzer to beat Chicago State on Nov. 16, 2016.
- Made 69 3-pointers as a freshman, tying for the fifth most in a single season in school history. In addition, she set the record for the most 3-pointers by a freshman.
- Was Valpo's leading returning scorer in 2016-17 after scoring 10.6 points per game in 2015-16. During her sophomore campaign, averaged 9.0 ppg.
- Named to Horizon League all-freshman team in 2015-16.
- Reached double figures in scoring 16 times as a freshman and nine times during her sophomore season.
- Third Hamlet to play under Dorow as sisters Elizabeth (2013-14) and Annemarie (2014-15 & 2015-16) both concluded their careers with the Crusaders.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

287-290 overall, 53-126 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
