Valparaiso (12-17, 5-13 MVC) vs. Loyola (7-22, 5-13 MVC)

Game No. 30 – Thursday, March 8 – 4 p.m. CT
TaxSlayer Center (9,200) – Moline, Ill.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: March is here and it's tournament time for the Valparaiso University women's basketball team as the Crusaders begin their first conference tournament as a member institution in The Valley with Thursday's first game of Hoops in the Heartland. Valpo will face off with Loyola, a team it defeated in both regular season meetings. The winner will advance to the second round of the conference tournament, where top-seeded Drake will be waiting for a game that begins at noon on Friday.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders dropped the regular season finale 85-53 to MVC regular season champion Drake on Saturday afternoon. Valpo actually won two of the four quarters against the Bulldogs, outscoring them 19-16 in the second and 15-14 in the fourth. However, Drake led 35-13 after one and put the game out of reach by outscoring Valpo 20-6 in the third. The Crusaders were led in scoring and rebounding by senior Dani Franklin, who enjoyed a double-double of 15 points and 10 boards in the final home game of her collegiate career. Franklin matched a career high and established a season best with three blocks.

Following the Crusaders: Thursday's game and every contest in the conference tournament will be available on The Valley on ESPN3. The game against the Ramblers will feature the broadcast team of Brad Wells (play-by-play) and Kelly Burke (color commentary). The hometown radio call can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso and via the TuneIn Radio App with Ben Ariano (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) describing the action. Links to live video, audio and stats can be found on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Jan. 12 – Valpo 76, Loyola 60: Valpo saw five players reach double figures for the first time this season in a 76-60 win over Loyola at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Grace Hales led the way with a career-high 15 points on an efficient 5-of-6 shooting off the Valpo bench. Four starters joined her in double figures – Dani Franklin (14), Bryce Blood (12), Nicole Konieczny (12) and Meredith Hamlet (10).

Feb. 11 – Valpo 63, Loyola 53: The Crusaders enjoyed the season's most memorable win at Loyola, coming from 12 points down in the second half to defeat the host Ramblers 63-53 at Gentile Arena. Meredith Hamlet exploded for 19 fourth-quarter points after being held scoreless through the first three quarters. Grace Hales pulled down a career-high nine rebounds while racking up 13 points, and Nicole Konieczny also reached double figures with 11 points. Valpo held Loyola leading scorer Abby O'Connor to two points on 0-of-9 shooting.

Series Notes: The Crusaders and Ramblers are conference foes once again after the two teams shared Horizon League affiliation from 2007-2013. The Crusaders own a commanding 20-5 lead in the all-time series, but four of the five Loyola wins have come in the last nine meetings. This marks the first neutral site showdown between the two schools. Valpo has played Loyola significantly more than any other Valley foe, but these two teams never met in the Horizon League Tournament, so this is their first conference tournament matchup.

Shooting for Three: Valpo will attempt to defeat Loyola for the third time this season on Thursday. If the Crusaders can come away with a victory, it would be the first time Valpo has notched three wins against the same team in a single season since beating IUPUI three times in 2003-2004. The Crusaders edged the Jaguars 53-52 in the opening round of the 2004 Mid-Continent Conference Tournament. That third win over IUPUI marked the first step toward an eventual Mid-Con crown and trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Crusaders in Tournament Play: This will mark Valpo's first appearance in the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament. The Crusaders have found success in the league tournament in recent years, winning at least one game in the Horizon League Tournament in five of the last six seasons.

Recapturing the Magic: When they take the court at the TaxSlayer

Center in Moline, the Valpo women will attempt to recreate some of the magic that occurred in that arena for the Valpo men's basketball team in the late 1990s. The men's Mid-Continent Conference Tournament was held in this arena for four years, including 1998, when Valpo beat Youngstown State 67-48 in Moline in the Mid-Con Championship. The next game was the famous Bryce Drew shot to upset Ole Miss as the Valpo men eventually reached the Sweet 16. That wasn't the only year Valpo had success in this building, as the Crusader men went a combined 11-0 over four years, winning all four Mid-Con Tournaments held in Moline and punching their ticket to the NCAA Tournament in each of those seasons. The Valpo women's basketball team has also played in this arena before as it served as the site of the 1998 and 1999 Mid-Continent Conference women's tournaments. The Valpo women own a 3-2 record in the building, most recently falling to Oral Roberts in the 1999 Mid-Con title game. At the time, the TaxSlayer Center was known as The MARK of the Quad Cities. It became the iWireless Center in 2007 and then became the TaxSlayer Center this past fall.

Rewriting the Record Book: As Dani Franklin gets set to play in her final conference tournament in a Valpo uniform this weekend, it's fitting to recognize how many places her name will appear in the Crusader program record book when her prolific four-year career is said and done. Franklin will finish in the Top 10 in program history in at least 11 different categories – games played, total points, points per game, field goals made, field goals attempted, free throws made, 3-point field goals made, 3-point field goals attempted, rebounds, free-throw percentage and 3-point percentage. She has a strong chance to reach the Top 10 in two others – free throws attempted and rebounds per game. Here's a look at where Franklin ranks in program history in various statistical categories entering Thursday.

Hamlet Enters Top 20: Junior Meredith Hamlet has made her way onto the program's all-time scoring list. She currently ranks 19th in program history with 937 career points. Aimee Litka (2005-09) is 18th at 944. In addition, Hamlet has made 150 career 3-pointers. Jamie Gutowski (Stangel) is seventh at 151.

Valpo's Iron Player: Dani Franklin hasn't missed a game since Feb. 21, 2015, a loss to Youngstown State at the ARC her freshman season. The next contest started a streak of consecutive games played that will reach 97 on Thursday against Loyola. She's missed only two games in her collegiate career, both during her freshman season due to injury. Franklin is the only player in the Missouri Valley Conference who ranks in the top five in the league in both scoring and rebounding. She became the first player in Valpo history with both 1,500 career points and 700 rebounds when she pulled down her 700th board last week against Drake.

Champions in Classroom: Two Valpo players received recognition for their work in the classroom and on the court on Tuesday as the MVC announced its Scholar-Athlete teams. Dani Franklin was a member of the Scholar-Athlete First Team, while Meredith Hamlet received Scholar-Athlete honorable mention. Those two lead the way on a team that is filled with players who excel in the classroom. The following majors are represented on Valpo's roster: engineering, healthcare leadership, public relations, education, business marketing, exercise physiology, biomechanical engineering, biology, pre-law, physician assistant program and finance. The Crusaders feature 11 players with GPAs better than 3.0. Franklin became the first member of a conference's all-academic team from Valpo women's basketball since Tabitha Gerardot earned Horizon League All-Academic Team honors in both 2011-2012 and 2012-2013.

We Are Young: Although Valpo's top two scorers are senior Dani Franklin and junior Meredith Hamlet, this is still largely a youthful Crusader squad. Eight of Valpo's top 10 scorers are freshmen or sophomores and nine of the team's top 10 scorers are expected to be back next season. Nicole Konieczny and Bryce Blood are fourth and fifth on the team in scoring, respectively. Freshmen contributing right away has been a theme for the Crusaders, who have two freshmen in their top five in scoring for the fourth straight season.

A Familiar Face: A year ago, Valpo freshman Nicole Konieczny and Loyola freshman Abby O'Connor were taking the floor as teammates with a state championship on the line. Now, the South Bend St. Joseph graduates will oppose one another, with only one of the two seeing her season extend beyond Thursday. Konieczny scored nine points and O'Connor had eight in a 57-49 victory over North Harrison in the Class 3A state final at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis when O'Connor and Konieczny closed out their prep career together in style on Feb. 25, 2017.

Single-Season Record Book Watch, 2018 Edition: In addition to Dani Franklin's aforementioned milestones, there are several team categories that could gain a new member in the program record book this season.

- As a team, the Crusaders hold a free-throw percentage of .763. This year's team is in position to finish second in program history for free-throw percentage behind 2013-2014 at .776. Currently second is 2007-2008 at .753.

- Valpo has cracked the program's Top 10 for blocked shots in a season. The Crusaders have blocked 98 shots, which is now tied with the 2001-2002 season for seventh in program history. The 1990-91 campaign sits in sixth at 103.

Reaching New Heights

- The Crusaders have secured the program's highest win total since 2008-09, when they finished at 16-14.

- The Crusaders equaled their highest conference win total since 2009-10.

- Valpo swept Loyola and Evansville this season, marking the first time they've swept a conference foe since Butler in 2011-2012.

- Valpo has its most road wins in a single season since the 2011-2012 campaign.

Crusaders Can Score: Valpo has taken a significant offensive leap this season as compared to recent years. Entering the conference tournament, the Crusaders are averaging 66.1 points per game, over four points per game better than a year ago. If Valpo can keep its scoring average above 66.3, this will mark the team's highest scoring output since 2009. Here's a year-by-year look at how this year's scoring average compares to recent seasons.

Maya Makes Progress: In addition to accounting for two of the most noteworthy achievements by any Crusader this season – making SportsCenter's Top 10 with a buzzer-beater to tie a game against Southern Illinois on Feb. 16 and shattering a program record with 16 assists against IU Northwest on Dec. 15, Maya Meredith has made many other key contributions for the Crusaders this season. Her statistical progress from her freshman year to sophomore year is impressive.

Inside the Ramblers

- Dropped their final three regular season games against Indiana State, Drake and UNI, but before that had picked up back-to-back wins, including an impressive 62-53 victory over Southern Illinois on Feb. 18.
- Finished tied for eighth with Valpo in the conference standings. The Crusaders took the No. 8 seed by virtue of the head-to-head tiebreaker, having won both regular season meetings.
- Led in scoring and rebounding by star freshman Abby O'Connor, who is averaging 10.6 points and 5.4 boards per game.
- Jessica Cerda hurt the Crusaders in the last meeting with her 3-point prowess. She's averaging 10 points per game and has attempted 188 3-pointers this year.
- Under the direction of head coach Kate Achter, who is in her second season.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 season.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.
- Freshman Ella Ellenson (Rice Lake, Wis.) is the first Valpo player from Wisconsin since Sarah Ott (Chippewa Falls, Wis.) in 2007-08.

Meredith Hamlet

- Led Valpo in scoring for the seventh time in the last nine games with 13 points on Feb. 23 at Indiana State.
- After being held scoreless for the first three quarters, became the first Valpo player to score 19 points in a single quarter in the fourth on Feb. 11 at Loyola, lifting the Crusaders to a come-from-behind victory.
- Led Valpo in scoring for the third time in four games on Feb. 4 at Illinois State, turning in 17 points off the bench.
- Was the lone Crusader in double figures on Feb. 2 at Bradley, finishing with 13 points.
- Made her way into double figures for the fourth consecutive game with a team-high 18 on Jan. 26 against Evansville.

Dani Franklin

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

287-291 overall, 53-127 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
