Valparaiso (13-17, 5-13 MVC) vs. Drake (23-7, 18-0 MVC)

Game No. 31 – Friday, March 9 – noon CT
TaxSlayer Center (9,200) – Moline, Ill.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will once again put its season on the line on Friday afternoon at the TaxSlayer Center. In order to extend the season and the careers of Valpo's seniors, the Crusaders need to pull off an upset of the Missouri Valley Conference regular season champion Drake Bulldogs in Friday's Hoops in the Heartland quarterfinal.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders turned in a full team effort and led from start to finish, downing Loyola 63-46 on Thursday. Dani Franklin poured in a game-high 24 points, while Meredith Hamlet contributed 12 and Caitlin Morrison grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. Maya Meredith led the way in assists with five. The Crusaders were able to shut down Loyola leading scorer Abby O'Connor for the second consecutive meeting, holding her to 1-of-13 shooting.

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game and every contest in the conference tournament will be available on The Valley on ESPN3. The game against the Bulldogs will feature the broadcast team of Scott Warman (play-by-play) and Laura Leonard (color commentary). The hometown radio call can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso and via the TuneIn Radio App with Ben Ariano (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) describing the action. Links to live video, audio and stats can be found on ValpoAthletics.com.

Acting Head Coach Justin Rees: With head coach Tracey Dorow on a medical leave, assistant coach Justin Rees has been elevated to acting head coach for the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament. He guided Valpo to the win over Loyola in the opening round on Thursday night. Rees is in his fourth season on Valpo's staff and his 19th in women's college basketball. He previously filled in for Dorow for six games during the 2016-17 season as she underwent neck surgery. During his career, the veteran coach has instructed and developed three All-Americans and 33 all-conference award winners. He specializes in instructing forwards, and has helped 14 post players earn individual accolades. Rees has also served as Valpo's recruiting coordinator throughout his time on staff.

March 3 - Drake 85, Valpo 53: The Crusaders dropped the regular season finale last week as these two teams matched up on Senior Day at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Valpo actually won two of the four quarters against the Bulldogs, outscoring them 19-16 in the second and 15-14 in the fourth. However, Drake led 35-13 after one and put the game out of reach by outscoring Valpo 20-6 in the third. The Crusaders were led in scoring and rebounding by senior Dani Franklin, who enjoyed a double-double of 15 points and 10 boards in the final home game of her collegiate career. Franklin matched a career high and established a season best with three blocks.

Dec. 29 - Drake 86, Valpo 50: Playing without one starter due to injury and three other players due to illness, Valpo fell in the conference opener for both teams. Dani Franklin led the Crusaders in scoring for the seventh time in 12 games by turning in nine points, while Marlee Profitt paced the squad in rebounds for the first time in her career by matching a personal best with six. Addison Stoller chipped in a season-high eight points off the bench for the Crusaders, who were held to 30.2 percent shooting, at the time a season low.

Series Notes: Drake owns a 4-0 record in the all-time series with two of the games coming this season. One of the games prior to this year was a noteworthy clash as the Crusaders initially prevailed 80-79 on Nov. 24, 1995, but the game was later ruled a forfeit in Drake's favor due to Valpo's use of an ineligible player.

WWW: Valpo picked up its third W over Loyola this season on Thursday night. This marks the first time Valpo has notched three wins against the same team in a single season since beating IUPUI three times in 2003-2004. The Crusaders edged the Jaguars 53-52 in the opening round of the 2004 Mid-Continent Conference Tournament. That third win over IUPUI marked the first step toward an eventual Mid-Con crown and trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Crusaders in Tournament Play: After Thursday's win, the Crusaders have won at least one game in their league tournament in six of the last seven years. The first six years of that span occurred when Valpo played in the Horizon League, with this marking the first Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the Crusaders. With the win on Thursday, Valpo women's basketball became the first Valpo team in any sport to win a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament game. The Valpo women have won their first-round tournament matchup by exactly 17 points each of the last two seasons.

Defense Wins Tournament Games: Valpo flexed its muscles defensively on Thursday, limiting the Ramblers to 46 points, the lowest point total by a Valpo opponent all season. The last time Valpo held its opponent under 46 was Feb. 11 of last season, a 41-32 win over Northern Kentucky. The last time the Crusaders did so in a conference tournament game was March 5, 2012, a 47-39 win over Milwaukee.

What's at Stake on Friday: If the Crusaders capture a second conference tournament win, they'll accomplish something they did not achieve in 10 years in the Horizon League in their first season in The Valley. The last time Valpo won multiple conference tournament games in the same season was in the Mid-Continent Conference in 2003-04, also the last time Valpo reached the NCAA Tournament.

All-Conference Accolades: Senior forward Dani Franklin was named to the All-MVC First Team on Wednesday, becoming the first Crusader to garner first-team all-conference accolades since Launa Hochstetler in 2008-2009. The honor added to a long list of conference awards that Franklin has racked up over the course of her career that also includes all-Horizon League second team as a junior, Horizon League Freshman of the Year, Horizon League Sixth Player of the Year as a freshman and MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team this season.

Recapturing the Magic: Taking the court at the TaxSlayer Center in Moline, the Valpo women are attempting to recreate some of the magic that occurred in that arena for the Valpo men's basketball team in the late 1990s. The men's Mid-Continent Conference Tournament was held in this arena for four years, including 1998, when Valpo beat Youngstown State 67-48 in Moline in the Mid-Con Championship. The next game was the famous Bryce Drew shot to upset Ole Miss as the Valpo men eventually reached the Sweet 16. That wasn't the only year Valpo had success in this building, as the Crusader men went a combined 11-0 over four years, winning all four Mid-Con Tournaments held in Moline and punching their ticket to the NCAA Tournament in each of those seasons. The Valpo women's basketball team has also played in this arena before as it served as the site of the 1998 and 1999 Mid-Continent Conference women's tournaments. Including Thursday's win, the Valpo women own a 4-2 record in the building, most recently falling to Oral Roberts in the 1999 Mid-Con title game. At the time, the TaxSlayer Center was known as The MARK of the Quad Cities. It became the iWireless Center in 2007 and then became the TaxSlayer Center this past fall.

Rewriting the Record Book: As Dani Franklin participates in her final conference tournament in a Valpo uniform this weekend, it's fitting to recognize how many places her name will appear in the Crusader program record book when her prolific four-year career is said and done. Franklin will finish in the Top 10 in program history in at least 11 different categories – games played, total points, points per game, field goals made, field goals attempted, free throws made, 3-point field goals made, 3-point field goals attempted, rebounds, free-throw percentage and 3-point percentage. She has a strong chance to reach the Top 10 in two others – free throws attempted and rebounds per game. Here's a look at where Franklin ranks in program history in various statistical categories entering Friday.

Category	Value	Rank	Next Player to Pass (Value)
Games Played	120	T-3rd	Jeanette Gray (122)
Points	1,713	2nd	Debbie Bolen (2,008)
Field Goals Made	636	2nd	Debbie Bolen (718)
FG Attempted	1,471	2nd	Debbie Bolen (1,590)
FT Made	259	6th	Paige Freeman (272)
3-Point FG Made	182	4th	Carrie Myers (215)
3-Point FG Attempted	496	4th	Carrie Myers (538)
Rebounds	709	5h	TabithaGerardot(723)
Rebounds Per Game	5.9	T-8th	---
FT Percentage	.869	1st	Current record – Launa Hochstetler, .838
3-Point FG%	.367	6th	Katie Boone (.373)

It doesn't end there for Franklin, who also has a chance to finish in the Top 10 in several single-season categories for the 2017-18 campaign. Note that Franklin needs five points on Friday for her 2017-18 season to jump into fifth in program history for points in a single season. Her junior year already ranks second at 559.

Category	Value	Rank	Next Player(s) to Pass (Value)
Points	477	6th	Tabitha Gerardot, 2012-13 (581)
Points Per Game	15.6	T-9th	Sarrah Stricklett, 1997-98 (15.8)
Field Goals Made	174	6th	Tabitha Gerardot, 2012-13 (182)
FG Attempted	454	3rd	Michelle Russell, 1993-94 (466)
FT%	.866	2nd	Agnieszka Kulaga, 2008-09 (.886)

Hamlet Enters Top 20: Junior Meredith Hamlet has made her way onto the program's all-time scoring list. She currently ranks 18th with 949 career points. She needs to get to 971 to tie Agnieszka Kulaga for 17th. In addition, Hamlet has made 153 career 3-pointers, a mark that ranks seventh in program history. Sarah Lenschow and Aimee Litka are tied for fourth at 171.

Valpo's Iron Player: Dani Franklin hasn't missed a game since Feb. 21, 2015, a loss to Youngstown State at the ARC her freshman season. The next contest started a streak of consecutive games played that will reach 98 on Friday against Drake. She's missed only two games in her collegiate career, both during her freshman season due to injury. Franklin is the only player in the Missouri Valley Conference who ranks in the top five in the league in both scoring and rebounding. She became the first player in Valpo history with both 1,500 career points and 700 rebounds when she pulled down her 700th board last week against Drake.

Champions in Classroom: Two Valpo players received recognition for their work in the classroom and on the court on Tuesday as the MVC announced its Scholar-Athlete teams. Dani Franklin was a member of the Scholar-Athlete First Team, while Meredith Hamlet received Scholar-Athlete honorable mention. Those two lead the way on a team that is filled with players who excel in the classroom. The following majors are represented on Valpo's roster: engineering, healthcare leadership, public relations, education, business marketing, exercise physiology, biomechanical engineering, biology, pre-law, physician assistant program and finance. The Crusaders feature 11 players with GPAs better than 3.0. Franklin became the first member of a conference's all-academic team from Valpo women's basketball since Tabitha Gerardot earned Horizon League All-Academic Team honors in both 2011-2012 and 2012-2013.

We Are Young: Although Valpo's top two scorers are senior Dani Franklin and junior Meredith Hamlet, this is still largely a youthful Crusader squad. Eight of Valpo's top 10 scorers are freshmen or sophomores and nine of the team's top 10 scorers are expected to be back next season. Nicole Konieczny and Bryce Blood are fourth and fifth on the team in scoring, respectively. Freshmen contributing right away has been a theme for the Crusaders, who have two freshmen in their top five in scoring for the fourth straight season.

Single-Season Record Book Watch, 2018 Edition: In addition to Dani Franklin's aforementioned milestones, there are several team categories that could gain a new member in the program record book this season.

- As a team, the Crusaders hold a free-throw percentage of .757. This year's team is in position to finish second in program history for free-throw percentage behind 2013-2014 at .776. Currently second is 2007-2008 at .753.
- Valpo has cracked the program's Top 10 for blocked shots in a season. The Crusaders have blocked 102 shots, which is now tied with the 2001-2002 season for seventh in program history. The 1990-91 campaign sits in sixth at 103.

Reaching New Heights

- The Crusaders have secured the program's highest win total since 2008-09, when they finished at 16-14.
- The Crusaders equaled their highest conference win total since 2009-10.
- Valpo swept Loyola and Evansville this season, marking the first time they've swept a conference foe since Butler in 2011-2012.
- Valpo has its most road wins in a single season since the 2011-2012 campaign.

Crusaders Can Score: Valpo has taken a significant offensive leap this season as compared to recent years. Entering Friday's game, the Crusaders are averaging 66.0 points per game, over four points per game better than a year ago. If Valpo can keep its scoring average above 64.9, this will mark the team's highest scoring output since 2009. Here's a year-by-year look at how this year's scoring average compares to recent seasons.

Inside the Bulldogs

- Have won 40 straight MVC regular season games, the longest conference winning streak in the history of The Valley.
- Last Valley regular season loss was Feb. 19, 2016 at UNI.
- Had a first-round bye in the tournament, so haven't played since the regular season finale at Valpo.
- Becca Hittner leads Drake in scoring at 15.7 points per game, while Sara Rhine is averaging 15.6 points and a team-high 6.0 rebounds per contest. Samme Bachrodt (10.5) and Maddy Dean (10.1) are also scoring in double figures.
- Have won 20 or more games each of the last four seasons.
- Just won back-to-back MVC regular season titles for the first time since 1996-97 and 1997-98.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 season.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.
- Freshman Ella Ellenson (Rice Lake, Wis.) is the first Valpo player from Wisconsin since Sarah Ott (Chippewa Falls, Wis.) in 2007-08.

Meredith Hamlet

- Was the lone Crusader in double figures on Feb. 2 at Bradley,

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

288-291 overall, 54-127 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
