IU Kokomo (3-2, 0-0 River States) at Valparaiso (0-0, 0-0 MVC)

Game No. 1 – Thursday, Nov. 16 – 7 p.m. CT

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will begin the 2017-18 season on Thursday by hosting in-state foe IU Kokomo. The Crusaders have 10 players returning including six of last season's top seven scorers. In addition, five true freshmen have joined the fold and will suit up for a regular season college game for the first time on Thursday.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders defeated St. Francis (Ill.) 49-40 last week in exhibition action. Sophomore Grace Hales posted a double-double of 11 points and 10 rebounds, while fellow sophomore Caitlin Morrison also reached double figures with 10 points. A key 3-pointer by Morrison down the stretch sealed the victory, while the Crusaders limited the Saints to 27.5 percent shooting for the game and just 2-of-16 in the fourth quarter.

Following the Crusaders: Live video of Thursday's game will be available as the Crusaders compete on The Valley on ESPN3. In addition, the game can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso, WVUR, the radio home of the Crusaders. Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and former Valpo women's basketball standout Jamie (Gutowski) Stangel (color commentary) will handle the ESPN3 call, while Ben Ariano (play-by-play) and Kevin Huang (color commentary) have radio duties. Links to live video, audio and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball team in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: The Crusaders and Cougars are set to lock horns for the third consecutive year after Valpo won last season 102-47 and the first ever meeting 88-22 in 2015. The 2015 game saw the Crusaders set the program record for the fewest points allowed in a single game. A year ago, Dani Franklin led the way with 24 points and seven rebounds as the Crusaders reached the 100-point mark for just the second time in the last 20 years. The only other time Valpo hit 100 points in a game since the start of the 1997-98 season was a 109-81 win over Purdue Calumet in 2014.

Crusaders in Openers: Valpo is 3-2 in its first home game of the season during the first five years under Tracey Dorow. Two of the most memorable games of the Dorow era have come in home openers – a 64-52 win over Big Ten foe Indiana in 2012 and a 91-57 victory over another in-state rival in Butler to begin the 2014-15 campaign. This marks the second straight year Valpo has started the home slate against IU Kokomo. Valpo is 2-3 in season openers during Dorow's tenure.

Home Court Advantage: Valpo carries a two-game home winning streak with it into Thursday's game. The Crusaders won their final two home games in 2016, accomplishing that feat for the first time since 2006-07. A victory would give Valpo three straight home wins for the first time since beating IU Northwest, SIU Edwardsville and IU Kokomo in December 2015.

Late Start: The Nov. 16 opener will mark the latest Valpo has lifted the lid on the season since beginning the 2008-09 campaign on Nov. 19.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against league opponents, Valpo went 0-9, before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the league and no other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the league's first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.

- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 campaign.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.
- Freshman Ella Ellenson (Rice Lake, Wis.) is the first Valpo player from Wisconsin since Sarah Ott (Chippewa Falls, Wis.) in 2007-08.

Milestone/Record Book Watch

- Hannah Schaub enters her junior season already 17th in program history in career assists with 235. She needs four assists to pass Jeanette Gray (1999-2003) for 16th on the career list and 12 to surpass her former teammate Lexi Miller (2012-2016) for 15th.

- Franklin holds a career scoring average of 13.4 points per game, which ranks second in program history. The program record is 18.4, set by Debbie Bolen (1989-93).

- Franklin owns a career 3-point field goal percentage of .394, which currently sits third all-time.
- Franklin is 17th in program history in rebounding with 502. She's

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

275-274 overall, 43-111 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
