IU Northwest (7-7, 1-0 A.I.I.) at Valparaiso (4-4, 0-0 MVC)

Game No. 9 – Friday, Dec. 15 – 7 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will return to the court on Friday night as the Crusaders clash with the IU Northwest RedHawks, a local NAIA opponent from nearby Gary. The Crusaders will look for their third win in the last four games and attempt to up their home record to 4-0 on the season.

Last Time Out: The Crusaders pulled away late for a 71-60 victory over Chicago State on Sunday afternoon at the ARC. Senior Dani Franklin led all scorers and rebounders with a double-double of 23 and 11, while sophomore Maya Meredith had her best day in a Valpo uniform, scoring 10 of her career-high 12 points in the fourth quarter. Freshman Nicole Konieczny dished out six assists, while Meredith Hamlet also reached double figures with 10 points.

Following the Crusaders: Friday's game can be seen on The Valley on ESPN3 with Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) on the call. The game can also be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso featuring Ben Ariano's play-by-play. Links to live video, audio and stats can be found on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Indiana University Northwest. The Crusaders have won both prior meetings, most recently prevailing 79-57 in December 2015. Meredith Hamlet was Valpo's top performer in that game, as the then-freshman poured in 19 points on 7-of-10 shooting and knocked down all five of her 3-point attempts. Dani Franklin went 7-for-9 off the bench to finish as Valpo's second-leading scorer with 15 points. The only meeting before that was Nov. 30, 2011, an 80-47 Valpo victory.

Valpo in The Valley: Valparaiso University is competing in its first season as a member institution in the Missouri Valley Conference after a 10-year run in the Horizon League. The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

Worth Noting

- Valpo has a chance to run its home record to 4-0 on Friday. If the Crusaders can beat the RedHawks, they'll start 4-0 at home for the first time since 2007-08, when Valpo won its first five home games. Valpo currently owns a five-game home winning streak that dates back to the final two games at the ARC last season, Valpo's longest home winning streak since winning 10 straight – a streak that spanned the end of the 2006-07 season and the start of the 2007-08 season.
- Dani Franklin has now reached the following milestones – 1,000 career points, 500 career rebounds and 500 career made field goals. She's joined in that elite group by Debbie Bolen, Jeanette Gray and Sarrah Stricklett as the only players in Valpo history to achieve all three of those feats.
- A win on Friday would give the Crusaders a winning record through nine games for the second consecutive season. Last year's 5-4 mark was the latest into the season Valpo had a winning record since 2008-09, when the Crusaders were 9-7 through 16 games.
- A victory would also allow Valpo to reach five nonconference wins for the second straight year, the first time the Crusaders have won five nonconference games in consecutive seasons since 2007-08 and 2008-09.
- Free throw shooting has been indicative of the team's results so far this season, as the Crusaders have won all four games they've had a better free throw percentage than their opponent and lost all four games they've had a worse free throw percentage than their opponent.
- Freshman point guard Nicole Konieczny has turned in five or more assists in six of her last seven games.
- Sophomore Caitlin Morrison has had four blocks or more in each of her last two home games.

- Valpo has shot above 30 percent from 3-point range in all eight games this season and above 35 percent in seven straight. This is the first time Valpo has shot better than 30 percent from 3 in each of its first eight games since the turn of the century. In addition, the Crusaders are the only team in The Valley that has shot better than 30 percent from 3 every game this season.

- Valpo has used the same starting lineup in six straight games – and four players (Dani Franklin, Bryce Blood, Caitlin Morrison and Meredith Hamlet) have started every game this season. Franklin has the team's longest streak of consecutive starts with 35.

Milestone/Record Book Watch

- Dani Franklin enters this game with 1,364 career points, which ranks fourth in Valpo history. She needs 97 more points to pass Jeanette Gray and move into third.
- Franklin holds a career scoring average of 13.9 points per game, which ranks second in program history. The program record is 18.4 points per game, set by Debbie Bolen (1989-93).
- Franklin now ranks third in Valpo history with 505 career made field goals. She moved past Sarrah Stricklett (1996-2000, 502) on Sunday against Chicago State. She is 91 makes away from passing Jeanette Gray for second in program history.
- Franklin has amassed 149 3-pointers in her illustrious career, a total that ranks seventh in program history. She needs three more to pass current Valpo ESPN3 color commentator Jamie Gutowski (Stangel) for sixth in program history. Gutowski made 151 3s during her Valpo career, which spanned 2002-2006.
- Franklin owns a career 3-point field goal percentage of .387, which currently sits third all-time.
- Franklin overtook Jill Otto (1985-89) and moved into the Top 15 in program history in career rebounds on Sunday against Chicago State. She has 543 career rebounds, 15th in program history.

Inside the RedHawks

- Graduates of the following local high schools are represented on their roster – Griffith, Chesterton, Lake Central, Hobart, Bishop Noll, River Forest, Hanover Central, Kouts and LaPorte.
- Under the direction of 11th-year head coach Ryan Shelton, who has led the team to eight winning seasons in the last nine years and has averaged more than 20 wins per season.
- Have won four A.I.I. conference championships during Shelton's tenure.
- Led in scoring by Grayce Roach, who is averaging 24.3 points per game. Chloe Salman (16.2) and Weslee Wilson (14.1) are also in double figures, while Alexis Blake is the team's leading rebounder with 8.7 per game.
- Coming off a 75-71 home win over Trinity Christian College on Wednesday night.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.
- Valpo has had five freshmen on the roster each of the last two seasons. Prior to 2016-17, the Crusaders hadn't featured five true freshmen since 2010-11. This year's team has 10 freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores, the most since the 2003-04 season.
- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.
- This year's version of the Crusaders includes four Indiana natives. This marks the most Hoosiers on the team since the 2013-2014 season.
- Three others are from Illinois, three from Ohio, two from Minnesota, one from Michigan, one from Iowa and one from Wisconsin. Seven states are represented on the Valpo roster.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

279-278 overall, 47-115 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
