Fort Wayne (3-9, 0-0 Summit) at Valparaiso (6-4, 0-0 MVC)

Game No. 11 – Thursday, Dec. 21 – 7 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will look to extend its longest winning streak since December 2015 to four on Thursday night as Fort Wayne visits the Athletics-Recreation Center. The Crusaders will have an opportunity to garner their seventh straight home win and improve to 5-0 at the ARC this season.

Last Time Out: Senior Dani Franklin filled the stat sheet in Monday's 76-67 win at Eastern Illinois, pacing the team with a season-high 28 points to go along with a team-high eight rebounds and career highs in both steals (five) and assists (five). Grace Hales (13) and Maya Meredith (11) also finished in double figures, while Meredith Hamlet led the way in assists with a career-best six. The two teams went back and forth in the first quarter, but the Crusaders held the lead for the game's duration.

Following the Crusaders: Thursday's game will air on The Valley on ESPN3 with Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Renee' Turpa (color commentary) on the call. Ben Ariano will handle the radio description on 95.1 FM Valparaiso. Links to live video, audio and stats are available on ValpoAthletics.com.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: The Crusaders and Mastodons will renew an instate matchup that hasn't been played since the 2012-13 season. Valpo has won 10 of the first 15 all-time meetings between the two teams. The Crusaders went to Fort Wayne and prevailed 82-73 on Dec. 4, 2012, the most recent matchup and the lone of the Dorow era thus far. Fort Wayne will come to the ARC for the first time since Dec. 6, 2011, a 64-43 Valpo win. The Crusaders have won six of the last seven games against the Mastodons. The two teams also met in a closed scrimmage prior to the 2016-17 season.

Defending the ARC: The Crusaders upped their home record to 4-0 and extended their home winning streak that dates back to last season to six with Friday's win over IU Northwest. Valpo is off to its first 4-0 home start since 2007-08 and has its longest home winning streak since 2007. A win on Thursday against Fort Wayne would allow Valpo to finish the nonconference portion of the season undefeated at home, a feat the team also achieved in 2007-08.

Starting Strong: Valpo has secured a winning record through 10 games for the first time since 2001-02, a Valpo team that finished 26-7 overall and 13-1 in conference play, winning the Mid-Continent Conference regular season title and reaching the quarterfinals of the WNIT. The victory on Monday at Eastern Illinois also gave the Crusaders their sixth nonconference victory this season, a total they hadn't reached since 2008-09. In addition, the Crusaders have won two true road games during the nonconference slate for the first time since 2006-07. A win on Thursday would give Valpo its highest nonconference win total since 2006-07.

Winning Month: With three games remaining in December, the Crusaders need only one more win to nail down a winning record this month. This would mark the first time Valpo has had a winning month during the regular season since going 5-3 in December 2015.

Franklin on Fire: If the question is "who's hot?", the answer is Dani Franklin. For the first time in her college career, Franklin has made 10 or more field goals in consecutive games, reaching that exact number on Friday against IU Northwest and Monday at Eastern Illinois. She has scored 20+ points in three straight games, also a first in her illustrious career. After going 10-of-30 shooting (33 percent), 3-of-12 from 3 (25 percent) and scoring 10.0 points per game during a three-game stretch against Liberty, Longwood and Purdue, Franklin has averaged 24.7 points per game over her last three contests and is shooting 51.9 percent.

Hitting from Distance: Valpo has shot above 30 percent from 3-point range in all 10 games this season and above 35 percent in eight straight. This is the first time Valpo has shot better than 30 percent from 3 in each of its first 10 games since the turn of the century. In addition, the Crusaders are the only team in The Valley that has shot better than 30 percent from 3 every game this season.

Wrapping Up IU Northwest: Valpo shot 59 percent on Friday night against IU Northwest, the team's best single-game field goal percentage since Feb. 6, 2006 against Centenary. Friday's shooting clip ranks seventh in program history. The Crusaders accumulated 24 assists on Friday, the team's highest total since Feb. 6, 2006, a 91-44 win over Centenary, a game that also featured 24 assists. No Valpo player committed more than one turnover in Friday's win.

Wrapping Up Eastern Illinois: Valpo's 11 steals on Monday at Eastern Illinois marked the third time this season the Crusaders have reached double figures in that area. It also marked the team's highest steal total since Feb. 2, 2017 when they had 11 against Youngstown State. The Crusaders won the game despite being outrebounded by the Panthers, the first time Valpo has done that since Nov. 25, 2016 against Liberty, when the Crusaders won 70-68 while losing the battle on the boards 45-43.

Success at the Stripe: The Crusaders went 18-of-20 at the free-throw line on Friday against IU Northwest, the team's first time shooting 90 percent or better at the stripe since Jan. 28 of last season (93.8 percent at UIC). Valpo followed by going 86.4 percent (19-22) at the charity stripe on Monday. Free throw shooting has been indicative of the team's results so far this season, as the Crusaders have won all six games they've had a better free throw percentage than their opponent and lost all four games they've had a worse free throw percentage than their opponent. The Crusaders have shot 85 percent or better at the free-throw line back-to-back games for the first time since early January last season against Green Bay and Milwaukee.

Dropping Dimes, Breaking Records: Maya Meredith set the bar high with her first start in a Valpo uniform on Friday night against IU Northwest. The sophomore point guard's 16 assists not only shattered Shari Toelke's program record that had stood since she dished out 14 on Jan. 15, 1992 against Marquette, but that number also ranks tied for sixth in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. Meredith became just the 10th player in conference history to register 16 assists or more in a single game. Her 16 assists rank second in the nation this season behind only Syracuse's Tiana Mangakahia, who had 17 against Vanderbilt on Nov. 24. Meredith's previous career high was five and her season best was three. In addition, Meredith played a turnover-free game, the first time Valpo's starting point guard has not committed any turnovers in a game since the season opener against IU Kokomo.

Hamlet Hits Everything Against RedHawks: When she's playing at her highest level, there's little anyone can do to stop Valpo junior guard Meredith Hamlet. She has had one 29-point performance in each of her three seasons in a Valpo uniform, again hitting that number on Friday night against IU Northwest. Hamlet had 23 before halftime and finished the night 8-of-10 shooting, 5-of-6 from beyond the arc and 8-of-8 at the free-throw line. Since the start of the 2015-16 season, there have been 11 occasions where a Valpo player has hit 5 or more 3-pointers in a game. Hamlet has accounted for seven of those, with Dani Franklin and Hannah Schaub also having a pair of five 3-pointer games apiece.

Valpo in The Valley: Valparaiso University is competing in its first season as a member institution in the Missouri Valley Conference after a 10-year run in the Horizon League. The Valley is celebrating 25 years of women's athletics in the conference over the course of the 2017-18 academic and athletic year. Valpo head coach Tracey Dorow played at Illinois State during the first season of women's athletics in The Valley and is back for Year 25 and her first season as a head coach in the conference.

Inside the Mastodons

- Have played one Missouri Valley Conference team – a 79-70 win over Loyola on Nov. 12.
- Picked to finish eighth of eight in the Summit League preseason poll.
- First Summit League team Valpo has played since Dec. 31, 2013, an 81-70 loss to South Dakota.
- For the third straight game, Valpo will face an opponent whose roster features at least one Northwest Indiana local. After playing against a slew of former Region prep standouts against IU Northwest, the Crusaders took on former Highland Trojan Taylor Steele on Monday at Eastern Illinois. Now, it's Crown Point graduate Hannah Albrecht featured on Fort Wayne's roster.

- Albrecht, a sophomore guard, played her freshman year at St. Joseph's College before it closed down at the end of last year. Her brother Spike played at Michigan and Purdue.
- Senior forward KeShyra McCarver played at Whitmer High School, also the alma mater of Valpo's Bryce Blood.
- Head coach Niecee Nelson is in her second season after serving as an assistant at San Diego for 11 years. She previously was an assistant at Fort Wayne in 2004-05. The last time Nelson played Valpo was as an assistant at San Diego, a 76-60 win for the Toreros on Nov. 27, 2015 in California.
- Led in scoring by De'Jour Young, who is the only Mastodon in double figures at 12.0 points per game.

A Look Back at 2016-17

- Valpo had the biggest jump from the first half of league play to the second of any Horizon League squad. In first matchups against Horizon League opponents, Valpo went 0-9 before going 4-5 in second meetings. The plus-four win turnaround was the best in the Horizon League. No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.
- Franklin finished the season with 559 points, which ranks second in program history for points in a single year. Debbie Bolen's 1991-92 season (638) is the program record.
- Franklin finished the season at 18.0 points per game, ranking fifth in program history for single-season scoring average. She also shot 85.8 percent at the free-throw line, the second-best single-season free throw percentage in program history.
- Hannah Schaub completed the season with 134 assists, ranking seventh in program history for assists in a single season.
- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- Valpo has nine players on the roster listed at 6-foot or taller. This is the most players listed at 6-foot or taller on the roster in program history. Previously, the most was eight in 1990-91 and 1995-96.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

281-278 overall, 47-115 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
