Game No. 13 – Sunday, Dec. 31 – 2 p.m. CT
McLeod Center (6,650) – Cedar Falls, Iowa

Next Up in Crusader Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will continue its first conference swing of the season on Sunday afternoon at UNI. Valpo will attempt to round out the 2017 calendar year on a high note against a UNI team that earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

Last Time Out: Playing without one starter due to injury and three other players due to illness, Valpo fell to defending Missouri Valley Conference champion and preseason favorite Drake 86-50 in the conference opener for both teams on Friday. Dani Franklin led the Crusaders in scoring for the seventh time in 12 games by turning in nine points, while Marlee Profit paced the squad in rebounds for the first time in her career by matching a personal best with six. Addison Stoller chipped in a season-high eight points off the bench for the Crusaders, who were held to a season-low 30.2 percent shooting.

Following the Crusaders: Sunday's game will air on The Valley on ESPN3 and the hometown radio call can be heard on 95.1 FM Valparaiso with Ben Ariano and Brandon Vickrey. Links to live video, audio and stats are posted on ValpoAthletics.com. In-game updates will also be available via Twitter by following @ValpoWBB. Also worth noting, UNI radio play-by-play broadcaster Chris Kleinhans-Schultz is a Valpo graduate and broadcasted Crusader women's basketball during his undergraduate days.

Head Coach Tracey Dorow: Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season is her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span. Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

Series Notes: The Crusaders and Panthers will face off for the first time as Missouri Valley Conference foes. The two schools haven't clashed since the 2006-07 season, when Valpo lost at UNI. The two teams have split the four all-time meetings, with Valpo's most recent "W" coming in the 2005-06 season opener. The teams competed in a home-and-home during the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons, with the 1991-92 matchup at UNI resulting in an overtime victory for the Crusaders.

NYE Basketball: This marks the fifth time Valpo has played a game on the final day of the calendar year and the second consecutive season they've done so. Valpo fell 104-63 at Oakland on the last day of 2016, dropped a home game to South Dakota 81-70 on the final day of 2013, rounded out 2011 with a 68-52 defeat at Detroit and suffered an overtime loss at Miami (OH) on New Year's Eve in 2000. Valpo is seeking its first New Year's Eve victory on Sunday.

Getting Everyone Involved: One bright spot of Friday's loss at Drake was the balance Valpo received with all 10 players who saw the court scoring at least three points and each of them making at least one field goal. Friday marked the first time every Valpo player who participated made at least one field goal since nearly two full years ago – Jan. 9, 2016, an 81-66 home win over Oakland that saw all nine Crusaders who played make a shot from the floor.

Turnover Tracker: Despite committing more than 15 turnovers for just the third time this season, the Crusaders won the turnover battle for the fourth consecutive game on Friday at Drake. The Crusaders committed 17 turnovers to Drake's 18. That marked the fifth straight game Valpo's opponent has committed more than 15 turnovers. Valpo won the turnover battle and lost the game for the first time this season on Friday. The last time that happened was Jan. 28 of last season at UIC, a 74-60 loss despite winning the turnover battle 22-19.

Home Sweet Home: This weekend's destination provides an experience that is simultaneously new and familiar for Valpo senior Dani Franklin. One of the most accomplished players in program history, Franklin has returned to a place where she's played plenty of basketball games in the past – her home state of Iowa – as Valpo matched up with Drake on Friday and visits UNI on Sunday. While she is in familiar territory, this marks the first time Franklin has played a college game in her home state. She'll be closest to home on Sunday against UNI, as Cedar Falls is located about 60 miles from Franklin's hometown of Cedar Rapids. Friday marked the first time Valpo played in the state of Iowa since 2001.

Opening an Era: Friday marked Valpo's first conference game as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference after the University gained full-fledged conference affiliation on July 1. Valpo was victorious the last time it debuted in a new conference, beating Butler 77-69 on Jan. 5, 2007 at the ARC in the program's first Horizon League game.

The Stripe's Significance: Free throw shooting has been indicative of the team's results so far this season, as the Crusaders have won all seven games they've had a better free throw percentage than their opponent and lost all five games they've had a worse free throw percentage than their opponent. Valpo matched a season-high with 26 made free throws last week against Fort Wayne and had shot 85 percent or better at the free-throw line in three consecutive games before shooting a season-low 61.5 percent at the line in Friday's loss at Drake. The struggles at the free-throw line that took place against the Bulldogs have been a rarity for Valpo, which hasn't had a free-throw shooting showing worse than that one since Jan. 22 of last season against Wright State, going 61.1 percent.

More Shooting Numbers: Valpo narrowly extended its streak of shooting better than 30 percent from the floor to 18 games on Friday night as the Crusaders shot a season-low 30.2 percent. Valpo hasn't shot below 30 percent since Feb. 11 of last season, a 41-32 win over Northern Kentucky.

Keeping Control: Valpo did a strong job of keeping turnovers to a minimum during the nonconference season. The Crusaders committed just eight turnovers last week against Fort Wayne, matching the previous week's win over IU Northwest for the fewest turnovers made by Valpo this season. This marked the fewest turnovers the team has made in a game against a Division I opponent since Dec. 12, 2015, when the Crusaders limited the turnover total to six against Miami (Ohio). Valpo has committed 15 turnovers or fewer in eight of its 11 games this season and more than 17 turnovers on just one occasion. Last season, Valpo committed 19 or more turnovers in eight of its 11 nonconference games. The 14.0 turnovers per game is the fewest Valpo has finished the nonconference season with since 2004-05. Here's a deeper look at Valpo's improvement in limiting turnovers during this year's nonconference season as compared to years past.

No other team was better than plus-two.
- The Crusaders have now captured league tournament wins in five of the last six seasons.
- Valpo went 4-4 over its final eight games of the regular season, its best eight-game finish to a season of the Tracey Dorow era.
- Dani Franklin was named to the all-league second-team, becoming the first Valpo player to make the Horizon League first or second team since Tabitha Gerardot in 2012-13.
- The Crusaders had an all-league representative and an all-defensive team member in the same season for the first time since joining the Horizon League.

- The Crusaders had twice as many wins in February (four) than they had in December and January combined (two).

Inside the 2017-18 Roster

- In addition to five true freshmen, two redshirt freshmen and three sophomores, the Crusaders feature three juniors and two seniors.

Tracey Dorow

Head Coach

6th Season

282-279 overall, 48-116 at Valpo
Western Michigan, 1996

Tracey Dorow was named head coach of the Valparaiso women's basketball program in April of 2012. The 2017-18 season will be her sixth in charge of Valpo's program. In her career as a head coach, Dorow has amassed 275 victories.

Dorow has led the Crusaders to a Horizon League tournament victory in four of her first five seasons at the helm. During the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, Valpo boasted three all-freshman team members, a Freshman of the Year, a Sixth Player of the Year, an all-league second-team honoree and an all-defensive team member. The Crusaders have enjoyed a significant uptick in all-league recognition under Dorow's watch, as they had three total league honors in the five seasons before that three-year span.

Dorow arrived at Valpo after spending 14 seasons as the head coach at Ferris State University, guiding the Bulldogs to four NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) North Division championships, and four 20-win seasons.

In her 14 seasons at Ferris State, Dorow compiled a 232-163 (.587) record, including a 23-7 mark in 2011-2012 while guiding the Bulldogs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The all-time winningest coach in FSU history, she led her squad to the Sweet Sixteen in 2007.

The GLIAC Coach of the Year in 2003-2004, Dorow had five players earn a total of seven All-American honors and had seven players tally 10 total All-Region Team accolades. Her student-athletes earned All-GLIAC honors 22 times and 10 times she had players represented on the GLIAC All-Defensive Team. Under Dorow's guidance, Ferris State produced the GLIAC Player of the Year in 2000-2001, and she twice coached the GLIAC Freshman of the Year.

Dorow's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom, as three times she has led a First Team Academic All-American and 14 times her players have earned Academic All-District honors. A total of 45 different players earned GLIAC All-Academic recognition during her time at Ferris State. Ferris State posted the No. 1 grade point average in the country in Division II for the 1999-2000 women's basketball season, and her team ranked second in the nation in 2002-2003.

Dorow began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Lake Michigan Community College in Benton Harbor, Mich., where she helped lead the Indians to a 69-22 record in three seasons, winning two Western Collegiate Conference titles. Lake Michigan finished fourth in the 1997 NJCAA national tournament and held a No. 1 national ranking in February of that same season. She also spent one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis.

A collegiate player at Illinois State from 1990-1993, she led the Redbirds in assists as a sophomore while finishing seventh in the Gateway Conference that same season. After transferring to Northern Michigan University for the 1993-1994 season, she earned Newcomer of the Year and Best Defensive Player honors for the Wildcats. Dorow had 131 assists and made 54 threes at NMU in her one season there. As a prep player, she finished third in the state of Michigan for Miss Basketball in 1990 and was named to the Detroit Free Press All-Decade Team.

Dorow earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Western Michigan University in 1996 and her Master of Arts degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2003 in curriculum and instruction. She has two children: Lainie and Baxter.
