Valparaiso (10-11, 3-6 MVC) at Southern Illinois (10-11, 3-6 MVC)

Game No. 22 – Sunday, Jan. 30, 4 p.m. CT
 Banterra Center (8,339) – Carbondale, Ill.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: After winning two of its last three games, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team will make its way to Carbondale to face off with Southern Illinois on Sunday late afternoon for a 4 p.m. tip time. The two teams will close out the season series as this marks the second time this year Valpo has faced an opponent for the second time. Note that this game was pushed back a day from the original schedule in order to accommodate a makeup game between SIU and Loyola.

Last Time Out: Valpo played Bradley even in the second half on Wednesday night at the Athletics-Recreation Center with each team scoring 34 points, but the Beacons couldn't take a bite out of a 15-point halftime hole as the Braves prevailed 71-56. Ben Krikke was a Valpo bright spot with a balanced stat line of 18 points, six rebounds, five assists and no turnovers. He was joined in double figures by Kobe King (11), who also equaled a career high with three steals. The Beacons were plagued by a tough shooting night as they converted a season-low 21.1 percent of their 3-point attempts (4-of-19). It was Valpo's roughest 3-point shooting showing since going 3-of-22 (13.6 percent) on Feb. 26 of last season vs. Indiana State. The Beacons committed a season-low eight fouls on Wednesday, the team's cleanest game as far as fewest fouls committed since Feb. 22, 2020, also against Bradley (8). The 56 points were a season low for the Beacons.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (93-89) is in his ninth season overall at Valparaiso University and sixth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2021-2022. The 2020-2021 season saw Valpo improve its Arch Madness seeding for the fourth straight year as the program continued to make positive strides in each season as a Missouri Valley Conference member. The team earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time since joining the prestigious league. Valpo upset previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the ARC, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Jan. 8 – Southern Illinois 63, Valpo 60: After trailing by 16 points with 8:08 remaining, Valpo battled back to get to within two with 1:22 to go in the first meeting of the season against Southern Illinois, but the Beacons went 0-for-5 from the field in the final 40 seconds, misfiring on five efforts to tie or take the lead in a 63-60 setback. That came after Valpo had scored on seven straight possessions starting at the six-minute mark. After missing the previous two games due to COVID-19 health and safety protocols, Thomas Kithier posted a double-double of 12 points and 10 rebounds, while Kobe King scored 13 of his 18 points after halftime including eight in the final four minutes. Ben Krikke used 10 first-half points en route to a 16-point performance on 7-of-12 shooting.

Series Notes: Despite dropping the first matchup this season, Valpo holds a 7-6 advantage over Southern Illinois in an all-time series that dates back to 1928. Each of the last three showdowns between these two teams have been decided by three points or fewer. The two squads split a pair of down-to-the-wire affairs last season in Carbondale with the Beacons picking up a 66-65 victory on Feb. 21 before SIU returned the favor with a 67-64 triumph the following day. Valpo is 5-4 against the Salukis since joining The Valley.

Ben's Big Days

- Ben Krikke has scored 39 points over the last two games by leading the team with 21 in the Jan. 22 win at Indiana State and 18 on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley. This marks the second time this season and first against both Division-I opponents that Krikke has scored 18 points or more in consecutive games (26 vs. Trinity Christian, 20 at Drake).
- Last season, Krikke closed the month of January with a string of three straight games with 18 points or more (at Illinois State, vs. Bradley, at Evansville). He'll attempt to do the same this year if he can reach that mark in the January finale at Southern Illinois.
- Krikke's rebounding totals have been on the rise as he's squeezed five boards or more in four of his last five games after doing so just once in his previous seven contests.
- In addition, Krikke handed out a career-high five assists while committing no turnovers on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley. He became the first Valpo player with a 15-5-5 game (15+ points, 5+ rebounds, 5+ assists) since Zion Morgan on Feb. 27 of last season vs. Indiana State.

- On Jan. 26 vs. Bradley, the Edmonton native scored in double figures for the 12th time in 18 games this season and shot 50 percent or better for the 12th straight game.
- In the game against the Braves, Valpo held a two-point advantage in the 31 minutes that Krikke played but was outdone by 17 in the nine minutes that Krikke was not in the game.
- Krikke delivered the game-winning shot with six seconds remaining in the victory over the Sycamores on Jan. 22, the latest Valpo game-winner since Eron Gordon's memorable buzzer-beater in the 2020 MVC quarterfinal vs. Loyola.
- Also on Jan. 22, Krikke stepped out for his third made 3 of the season and first since Dec. 7 after he had gone 0-for-8 from 3 over the previous nine games.
- The junior surpassed the 800-career point threshold in the game against Indiana State.

The Streak Lives

- It took a surprising sequence in the final minute, but Kevion Taylor extended his impressive 3-point streak by the skin of his teeth with a 3 as time expired in the Jan. 26 game vs. Bradley.
- Taylor has now made a triple in 84 consecutive contests dating all the way back to Dec. 15, 2018 while playing for Winona State in a game at Concordia St. Paul. The highest of the NCAA records (Division I, Division II or Division III) for consecutive games with a made 3 is 93 and belongs to Daniel Park of D-II Rollins from Jan. 26, 1994 to Feb. 28, 1997. However, Taylor's streak would not be recognized in the NCAA record book should it reach that point since it is split between Division I and Division II.
- If Taylor's streak came in all D-I games, it would rank third in Division-I history. The D-I record is held by Mack Smith (91), who Valpo played against on Dec. 5 at Western Michigan. Smith set the record while at Eastern Illinois. Second is Corey Bradford of Illinois (88).
- Taylor has made multiple 3-pointers in 15 out of 21 games this season. He's hit at least one triple in all 21 contests.
- Taylor is the first Valpo player since at least the start of the 1989-90 season (nearly all the way back to the addition of the 3-point line) to make a 3 in each of his first 21 games of a season. He surpassed the program's previous longest season-opening streak of 14 by Larry Barker in 1994-95. Three other Valpo players made a 3 in each of the first 13 games of a season – Bryce Drew (1995-96), Casey Schmidt (1992-93) and Mike Jones (1989-90).
- On Jan. 15 vs. Missouri State, Taylor snapped a streak of eight straight games with multiple made 3s after opening the season with a stretch of five in a row with multiple triples. The last time Valpo had a player make multiple 3s in eight straight was Javon Freeman-

Taylor Tidbits

- After scoring a season-high 22 points on Jan. 19 vs. UNI, Kevion Taylor followed with a 17-point effort on Jan. 22 at Indiana State. Despite a rare cold shooting night on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley, he has reached 15+ points eight times this season and scored in double figures on 11 occasions.
- Although the game vs. UNI was Taylor's first time with 20+ points in a Beacon uniform, that marked the 37th time Taylor has scored 20 points or more in a collegiate contest.
- During the Jan. 8 game vs. Southern Illinois, Taylor surpassed 1,800 points for his collegiate career (split between D-I and D-II). He became just the 32nd active player at all levels of NCAA college basketball to reach the 1,800-point threshold. Taylor became just the 16th active player in the NCAA (all three divisions) with 1,800 points and 600 rebounds.
- Entering Jan. 30 at SIU, Taylor is three made 3s away from 300 for his collegiate career. He also needs just 25 more points to reach 1,900 for his collegiate tenure. If he stays on his current scoring average, Taylor would surpass 2,000 collegiate points if Valpo plays at least two games at the State Farm MVC Tournament in St. Louis.
- Furthermore, Taylor has scored more collegiate points than Michael Jordan (1,788).

Starter Shuffle

- Valpo used its 10th different starting lineup combination of the season on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley. The latest combo featured Trevor Anderson, Kevion Taylor, Ben Krikke, Preston Ruedinger and Kobe King.
- Only one lineup combination has been utilized more than three times this season – Kithier/Gordon/Taylor/Krikke/Anderson (7 times, 5-2 record).
- In the first nine conference games, the Beacons have used seven different starting lineups. The only starting five that has been used multiple times in conference play is Kithier/Taylor/King/Krikke/Ruedinger (3 times, 2-1 record).
- No Valpo player has started every game this season.
- The only three players who have played in all 21 contests are Kevion Taylor, Sheldon Edwards and Eron Gordon.
- Gordon has played in all 84 Valpo games since the beginning of the 2019-20 season.

- The latest player to debut in the starting lineup is freshman Preston Ruedinger, who made his first collegiate start on Jan. 8 vs. SIU and started again on Jan. 11 at Loyola. Ruedinger became the second nonscholarship player to start a game for Valpo during the Matt Lottich Era as John Kiser started on March 4, 2017 vs. Milwaukee at the Horizon League Tournament in Detroit as a freshman walk-on before earning a scholarship prior to his sophomore campaign.

Injury Bug: The shuffling lineup has been caused in part by the injury bug. Valpo holds a 5-2 record in seven games this season where Trevor Anderson, Thomas Kithier and Kobe King were all available. King did not play the first nine games of the season before gaining NCAA eligibility, Kithier missed two games due to COVID-19 health and safety protocols (vs. Illinois State, at UNI) and one with a back injury (vs. Bradley), while Anderson missed two games with a back injury (vs. SIU, at Loyola) and has been limited in each of the last two contests. Furthermore, Ben Krikke missed the first three games of the season with an ankle injury (vs. Toledo, vs. UIC, at Stanford).

Inside Kobe's Kingdom

- After missing the first nine games of the season in order to gain NCAA eligibility, Kobe King is averaging 14.3 points per game in 12 contests (11 starts).

- He's scored at least eight points in every outing, including 10 appearances in double figures. He's been in double figures in eight of his last nine games, entering Jan. 30 at Southern Illinois.

- King has scored 15 points or more in six of his first 11 games in a Valpo uniform.

- King finished with 18 points on Jan. 8 vs. SIU, doing the bulk of his damage in the second half. He scored 13 second-half points including eight in the final four minutes of the game.

- Also on Jan. 8 vs. SIU, King tied a rebounding career high that was set in the previous game. He did not reach nine rebounds in any of his first 68 career games, but did so in consecutive contests (Jan. 5 at UNI, Jan. 8 vs. SIU).

- The Wisconsin native again turned in a big second half on Jan. 22 at Indiana State, when 13 of his 15 points came after the break. King and Kevion Taylor combined for over half of Valpo's second-half scoring against the Sycamores as they produced 23 of the team's 40 second-half points.

Down But Not Out: When Valpo transformed a 40-35 halftime deficit into a 75-73 victory on Jan. 22 vs. Indiana State, it represented the fifth time this season the Beacons have trailed at the game's midway mark before rallying to prevail. Half of Valpo's 10 wins this season have come when trailing at the break. Valpo faced a five-point halftime deficit in back-to-back games on Jan. 19 vs. UNI and Jan. 22 at Indiana State, both eventual victories. In addition, the Beacons also came from down at half to beat Eastern Michigan (Dec. 20), Tulane (Nov. 24) and Jacksonville State (Nov. 22). Valpo had five wins when trailing at halftime in 2019-20, but if the team notches a sixth win when chasing at the break, that would be the most since rallying from seven halftime disparities during the 2011-2012 campaign.

Down to the Wire: Overall this season and especially during the calendar year of 2022, Valpo has become no stranger to games decided in the final minute of regulation or in overtime. Since ringing in the new year, five of Valpo's eight games have been decided by three points or fewer or in overtime. Overall this season, nine of Valpo's 21 games have been dictated by four points or fewer or required OT. Since the start of the 2018-19 season, 37 Valpo games have been decided by five points or fewer and 22 have been one-possession games (three points or fewer).

Century Mark in Sight: Valpo head coach Matt Lottich earned his 93rd career win on Jan. 22 at Indiana State. He needs just seven more to become the fourth head coach in program history to reach 100 career victories, joining Homer Drew, Bryce Drew and J.M Christiansen. Lottich's victory over the Sycamores elevated him into a tie for fourth in program history with the legendary Gene Bartow (1964-1970). On a side note, Valpo assistant coach Matt Bowen worked under Bartow at UAB in 1995.

Ending Terre Haute Troubles: Valpo had dropped its first three Missouri Valley Conference games at Indiana State prior to notching the 75-73 victory on Jan. 22. Valpo's previous win in Sycamore territory came 69-63 in a nonconference matchup on Dec. 9, 2015. The team's first three MVC trips to the house that Larry Bird built resulted in losses by an average margin of 13 points per game.

Converting the Freebies

- Free-throw shooting played a vital role in Valpo's 75-73 victory at Indiana State on Jan. 22. The Beacons made 16 of their 17 free-throw attempts, shooting 94.1 percent at the charity stripe.
- That marked the eighth time this season that Valpo has shot better than 80 percent at the foul line, and the fourth time over 90 percent. Two of those games featured perfect free-throw performances as Valpo went 14-of-14 against Charlotte and 16-of-16 against Illinois State.
- In the team's three conference wins, Valpo is shooting 45-of-48 (93.4 percent) at the charity line.
- Valpo ranks third in the league and 47th nationally in free-throw percentage, as of Jan. 27.

Righting the Rebounding

- Valpo was outrebounded in 11 of its first 13 games against Division-I opponents this season, but the Beacons have now won the rebounding battle in four of the last six games.
- During that time, Valpo outrebounded Southern Illinois 33-29 on Jan. 8, Loyola 36-28 on Jan. 11, UNI 37-26 on Jan. 19 and Indiana State 38-36 on Jan. 22.
- In the Jan. 19 game against UNI, Valpo permitted just three UNI offensive rebounds, tying a season best (East West, SIU) despite playing an extra five minutes. Valpo continued its success in limiting second chances on Jan. 22 at Indiana State, allowing just three offensive caroms for a second straight game and the fourth time this season.
- Valpo pulled down 10 offensive rebounds on Jan. 22 at Indiana State, the team's third double-figure performance on the o-glass this season and first since Dec. 20. The 10 offensive caroms equaled the team's most against a D-I foe this year.
- The +11 rebounding margin against UNI was Valpo's largest against a D1 foe since outrebounding Indiana State by 17 in last year's regular season finale.
- The +11 against UNI was a key turnaround after Valpo was -10 on the glass in the Jan. 4 matchup between the two teams in Cedar Falls. Before winning the battle on the boards on Jan. 19, Valpo had been outrebounded by UNI in each of the previous six meetings between the two squads.
- The +8 rebounding margin against Loyola was Valpo's best in a head-to-head matchup with the Ramblers since joining the MVC.
- The successful rebounding performance came against a Loyola team that is strong on the glass. Valpo snapped Loyola's stretch of outrebounding the opponent in seven straight outings. Valpo became just the second team this season to outdo Loyola by eight or more on the glass, joining Auburn (+10).

Turnover Talk

- Valpo won the turnover battle in eight straight games prior to Jan. 5 at UNI, the team's longest stretch of winning the turnover battle over the last 28 seasons.
- However, Valpo has won the turnover battle just twice in the last seven games, though one of those was a standout effort where the Beacons held a 13-7 advantage in that area on Jan. 22 at Indiana State.
- All seven of the giveaways against the Sycamores came after halftime. In the opening 20 minutes, Valpo did not turn it over, the first time the team did not commit a first-half turnover since Nov. 15, 2007 at IPFW. The first half at Indiana State marked the first time Valpo played turnover-free basketball in any half since the second half on Feb. 13, 2010 at Youngstown State.
- The Beacons have turned it over just 11.2 times per game this season, a number that ranks second in The Valley and 38th nationally, as of Jan. 27.
- Matt Lottich's group has committed 10 turnovers or fewer in 13 of their 21 games this season.

Scouting the Salukis

- Will be playing their third game in six days on Sunday after playing Loyola on Tuesday in Chicago and again on Thursday in Carbondale.
- Picked fifth of 10 in the MVC preseason poll.
- Marcus Domask was a member of the MVC Preseason Second Team, while Lance Jones earned MVC Preseason Third Team status. Domask and Jones are first and second on the team in scoring, respectively.

Double-Double Details

- Thomas Kithier had his third double-double of the season and his second in a four-game span with a 15-point, 11-rebound showing on Jan. 19 vs. UNI.
- Both Kithier's point and rebound totals against the Panthers were his highest in conference play this year.
- Entering Jan. 30 at Southern Illinois, the Valpo center has squeezed six or more rebounds in 11 of his last 12.
- Kithier is the first Valpo player with three or more double-doubles in a season since Derrik Smits had four in 2018-19. Alec Peters (16 in 2016-17) and Tevonn Walker (three in 2016-17) are the only other players to achieve that feat during the Matt Lottich Era.
- Kithier has owned or shared the team lead in rebounding in 11 out of the 18 games he's played this season.
- One streak Kithier would like to reverse is that he's left early in each of his last four games – three times due to fouling out and once due to an injury.

Reversal of Fortunes: Just two weeks after a 92-65 loss in Cedar Falls, Valpo reversed the result in an 83-80 overtime victory over UNI on Jan. 19. The last time Valpo beat a team that it had lost to by 27 or more earlier in the season was 1953-1954, when head coach Kenneth Suesens' team beat Western Michigan 63-62 after having loss to WMU 103-70 earlier that year.

#SCTop10 Again: Kobe King nailed a three-quarters court shot to beat the buzzer on Dec. 11 vs. Charlotte. Although the desperation heave was not enough as Valpo fell 68-67, the play checked in at No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays that evening. It was highlighted again two days later on ESPN's popular "SportsCenter with Scott Van Pelt" show. This marks the fourth time in a three-year span that Valpo basketball has produced an #SCTop10 play. The previous appearance came courtesy of a Sheldon Edwards dunk in a victory over No. 25 Drake on Feb. 7 of last season. Since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, Valpo Athletics has been featured on the iconic daily countdown on 10 occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (four times), softball (twice), volleyball (twice), women's basketball and soccer.

#ChampionsInCommunity

- The Valpo basketball program received recognition from the Valparaiso University Student Philanthropy program on Sunday, Nov. 14.
- The team was recognized as part of the University's annual Generosity Awards Celebration. Head coach Matt Lottich's group was selected as the 2021 Athletic Team Awardee for the program's community service and engagement.
- The team's community engagement activities include participating in the Popcorn Fest, Valparaiso Downtown Trick or Treat, Valpo Day of Caring and beach cleanup at the Indiana Dunes National Park.
- In addition, the team hosts youth camps in the summer, working with children ages 6-14 to provide a fun and positive basketball experience.
- The program makes it a priority to attend as many Valpo Athletics events as possible to support other teams. The Beacons also make an effort to actively participate in the University community and support student organizations while also having an active presence as members of the broader City of Valparaiso and Northwest Indiana communities.
- Of the six core values that make up the foundation of the Valpo men's basketball program, servanthood and appreciation are among the most prominent.

- With Year 4 in The Valley now in the books, Valpo has surpassed Loyola's conference win total over its first four seasons in the league. Valpo garnered its 29th MVC victory in the 2020-21 regular-season finale vs. Indiana State.
- The Ramblers went 27-45 over their first four seasons before going 57-16 over the following four seasons.
- Valpo has improved its conference finish in each season during the four-year transitional period after elevating to the prestigious and competitive conference.

More on 2020-21

- The 2020-21 season was highlighted by an upset victory over previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the Athletics-Recreation Center, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor.
- Valpo came close to two other victories over ranked foes, falling 80-77 vs. No. 25 Drake on Feb. 6 and 54-52 at No. 22 Loyola on Feb. 17.
- Valpo closed the regular season with a stretch of 16 Missouri Valley Conference games in a 39-day span. By comparison, Valpo had played three games over the previous 31 days before beginning the stretch of seemingly nonstop competition. Six of Valpo's first eight MVC games were postponed due to COVID-19, causing the backlog of makeup games during the busy stretch.

2021-22 Preseason Picks

- Ben Krikke was named to the Preseason All-MVC Second Team.
- Valpo was picked seventh in the 10-team league based on a preseason survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.
- Drake was tabbed the preseason favorite to win the league, while UNI's AJ Green earned Preseason Player of the Year accolades.

Sustained Home Success

- The Athletics-Recreation Center has provided a distinct homecourt advantage over the years as Valpo has not finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92.
- Thanks to a victory in the 2020-21 home finale vs. Indiana State, the program finished with a record of .500 or better at home for the 29th consecutive season.
- Valpo enjoyed double-figure home win totals in nine of 10 seasons prior to the unusual, pandemic-altered 2020-21 season. Due to health and safety regulations, fans were unable to pack the ARC as they have in years past.
- The ARC is back open to spectators without any capacity restrictions during the 2021-22 season, restoring the home court advantage Valpo has come to expect over the years.

Home-Heavy Schedule

- The historic home success is good news for Valpo this season, as the team will play 17 home games.

- The nonconference slate will be comprised of eight home dates, two road games and three neutral-site contests.
- Valpo most recently played 17 home games during the 2016-17 season. This will mark the team's busiest home calendar since joining the Missouri Valley Conference.

Big Ten U

- Prior to this season, Valpo had just a pair of Big Ten transfers join the program over the last two decades (Bakari Evelyn and Bobby Capobiano).
- This year, the program has been bolstered by four additions from the Big Ten Conference. Trevor Anderson, Joe Hedstrom and Kobe King have all come in from Wisconsin, while Thomas Kithier joins the fold after beginning his career with three seasons at Michigan State.
- Four of the five transfers that have come in join the team from the Big Ten, while a fifth impact transfer began his career with four seasons at Division-II Winona State. Kevion Taylor was a three-time all-conference performer and was his conference's preseason player of the year in 2020-21.
- King started all 19 games he played at Wisconsin in 2019-20, Anderson appeared in 60 of Wisconsin's 62 games over the last two seasons and Kithier appeared in 86 games and made 19 starts for Tom Izzo's team over his three seasons in East Lansing.

Who's Back

- Although the team features five freshmen and the five aforementioned transfers, five scholarship players do return from last season.
- The squad brings back 47.9 percent of its scoring and 42.4 percent of its rebounding.
- Four of the team's top six scorers are back.
- A pair of MVC postseason award winners remain in the fold for the Beacons as Sheldon Edwards was a member of the 2020-21 MVC All-Freshman Team, while Ben Krikke earned All-MVC Third Team, MVC Most-Improved Team and MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team, the lone player in the league to receive all three honors.
- Seven letter winners are back from last year's team, while nine have departed. Three starters return and three left. (Note: Starters based on top five players in number of games started. Six players were considered starters due to a tie for fifth).

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 20th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to eight postseason berths in the last 11 years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He serves as the team's defensive coordinator in addition to leading Valpo's scheduling and scouting efforts.

- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018. Bowen coordinates the team's offense.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his fourth season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Director of Basketball Operations Peter Funk is in his first season in that role after spending the previous two years as a graduate assistant and the three years prior to that as a student manager.
- Bob Brooks is in his 18th year as Valpo Director of Strength & Conditioning at Valpo and returned to oversight of men's basketball strength & conditioning in 2020-21. He has worked with Valpo teams since 1994.

Tradition of Excellence

- Valpo has 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and four NIT berths in the program's proud history, with the team's postseason success highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen run in 1998.
- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.
- Nine of the team's NCAA appearances have come since 1996.
- Valpo has qualified for the postseason eight times in the last 11 years, including 2019-20 where Valpo accepted a postseason berth but the tournament was not played due to COVID-19.
- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last four years. Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey. Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns. Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas – a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA. He has gone on to a successful career overseas with CSKA Moscow (2018-2019), Anadolu Efes (2019-2020) and Kirolbet Baskonia (2020-present).
- Valpo has produced over 50 professional players in the last 25 years.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

6th Season * Stanford, 2004

93-89 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his ninth season overall at Valparaiso University and sixth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2021-2022.

The 2020-2021 season saw Valpo improve its Arch Madness seeding for the fourth straight year as the program continued to make positive strides in each season as a Missouri Valley Conference member. The team earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time since joining the prestigious league.

Valpo upset previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the ARC, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor. Valpo came close to two other victories over ranked foes, falling 80-77 vs. No. 25 Drake on Feb. 6 and 54-52 at No. 22 Loyola on Feb. 17. In addition, Valpo extended its streak to 29 straight seasons without a sub-.500 home record.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19 concerns.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
