Game No. 26 – Wednesday, Feb. 16, 7 p.m.

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: After playing back-to-back road games for just the second time this season and first time in the calendar year 2022, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team will be back in the confines of its home arena on Wednesday night as first-place Loyola comes to town for the final regular season Missouri Valley Conference matchup between the two nearby foes. Wednesday will be the Lakeshore PAWS Benefit Game as all fans who donate to Lakeshore PAWS – a nonprofit animal rescue organization in Northwest Indiana – will receive a free Valpo dog bandana. In addition, Wednesday's game will feature a Valpo "scrunchies" giveaway for students. As a reminder, masks are required for all spectators, event staff and media members for all home Valpo athletic events.

Last Time Out: Ben Krikke scored 16 of his 20 points prior to halftime, but Missouri State's high-powered offense was too much to handle as the Beacons succumbed to the host Bears 84-66 on Saturday afternoon at JQH Arena. Valpo had the Missouri State lead down to nine at 59-50 with 11:36 to play, but the Bears pulled away down the stretch. Missouri State superstar and Larry Bird MVC Player of the Year favorite Isiah Mosley poured in 22 points on 8-of-11 shooting and Gaige Prim scored 15 points, while Ja'Monta Black and Jaylen Minnett went off for five made 3s apiece. Both teams shot over 90 percent at the free-throw line, but a major difference in the game was the 3-point arc, where Valpo went 3-of-12 (25 percent) with all three makes coming in the second half and Missouri State went 12-of-23 (52.2 percent).

Following the Beacons: Television – MVC TV Network (NBC Sports Chicago Plus, Bally Sports Midwest, Bally Sports Kansas City, Bally Sports Indiana Plus) – Mitch Holthus (play-by-play) and David Kaplan (analyst) positive strides in each season as a Missouri Valley Conference member. The team earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time since joining the prestigious league. Valpo upset previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the ARC, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor. Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Jan. 11: Loyola 81, Valpo 74 (2OT): Valpo led by as many as a dozen, but Loyola stormed back to extend (at the time) the fifth-longest home court winning streak in the nation to 30 by besting the Beacons 81-74 in double overtime at Gentile Arena on Chicago's north side. Sheldon Edwards poured in 20 points and seven rebounds, while Kevion Taylor totaled 17 points and Kobe King contributed 16.

Ramblers on the Ropes – More Notes on the Jan. 11 Matchup

- After two-point losses in each of the team's last two trips to Rogers Park, Valpo once again had Loyola on the ropes on Jan. 11 as the Beacons led by as many as 12 points in an eventual 81-74 double overtime setback.
- Valpo nearly knocked off a Loyola team that at the time had just two losses this season, both to teams that then ranked in the Top 10 nationally (Michigan State and Auburn).
- The Beacons came oh so close to snapping Loyola's lengthy home court winning streak. Instead, the Ramblers pulled out their 30th straight home win, the fifth-longest active streak in the nation at that time.
- Five of Valpo's last six matchups with Loyola have either gone to overtime, been decided by three points or fewer, or both.
- Valpo owned a double-figure lead in the Jan. 11 game at Gentile Arena, the largest cushion the team has held against the Ramblers in any of the 11 matchups since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Valpo held a 30-22 advantage at halftime. The eight-point halftime deficit is still the largest halftime deficit Loyola has faced this year.
- Valpo limited the Ramblers to then a season-low 22 first-half points, still Loyola's second-lowest first-half total this season.
- In the second half, Valpo held Loyola to 0-of-10 from beyond the 3-point arc. The Ramblers were 3-for-20 from 3 in regulation before heating up to 5-of-6 in overtime.

- Valpo outrebounded Loyola 36-28. It was Valpo's best rebounding margin in a head-to-head matchup with the Ramblers since joining the MVC.
- The successful rebounding performance came against a Loyola team that is strong on the glass. Valpo snapped Loyola's stretch of outrebounding the opponent in seven straight outings. Valpo is still one of only two teams to outdo Loyola by eight or more on the glass this season, joining Auburn (+10).
- Valpo's valiant effort at Loyola came without the services of starting point guard Trevor Anderson (back), who is now out for the season. In addition, three starters had four or more fouls and starting center Thomas Kithier fouled out late in regulation.

Series Notes: Loyola leads the all-time series 44-16 including a 10-1 edge in matchups that have occurred since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference. The Beacons are 0-9 against the Ramblers in regular-season MVC matchups with Valpo's lone win coming 74-73 in overtime in a March 6, 2020 MVC quarterfinal in St. Louis. Eron Gordon beat the buzzer with a game-winning layup to close out OT as part of Valpo's improbable run to the MVC title game. Five out of the last six matchups between these two nearby foes have been decided by three points or fewer or gone to overtime. Three of the most heartbreaking games in recent Valpo memory have come at Gentile Arena, including the previously-described double OT setback from earlier this year. Last season, Goodnews Kpegeol appeared to tie the game and send it to overtime with a last-second put-back, but he was called for a foul and the nationally-ranked Ramblers escaped with a 54-52 victory. The year prior, Valpo came from 14 points down with 7:54 remaining to create an opportunity to tie or take the lead in the game's final possession. The visitors had the ball with 11 seconds remaining down 70-68, but Loyola's Marquise Kennedy came up with a steal on the final play of the night, and the ball rolled into the Valpo backcourt as time expired. Loyola boasts a five-game winning streak at the ARC as Valpo last defended its home court successfully against the Ramblers on Feb. 21, 2012, a 66-62 overtime win.

Century Mark in Sight: Valpo head coach Matt Lottich earned his 94th career win on Feb. 5 vs. Indiana State. He needs just six more to become the fourth head coach in program history to reach 100 career victories, joining Homer Drew, Bryce Drew and J.M. Christiansen. Lottich's victory over the Sycamores elevated him into sole possession of fourth place in program history, surpassing the legendary Gene Bartow (1964-1970). On a side note, Valpo assistant coach Matt Bowen worked under Bartow at UAB in 1995.

Notes Wrapping Up Feb. 12: Missouri State 84, Valpo 66

- A trio of Beacons finished in double figures as Ben Krikke led the way with 20, followed by Sheldon Edwards and Kobe King with 11 apiece. Edwards made a career-high six free throws.

- Kevion Taylor matched a season high with six rebounds.

- Krikke had his seventh 20-point performance this season, his team-high 16th double-figure output and led the team in scoring for the team-leading 10th time this year and 22nd time in his career.

- Thomas Kithier returned to the lineup after missing the previous four games with a back injury and turned in eight points and five rebounds.

- Valpo took good care of the basketball, tying a season-low with six turnovers, a mark previously reached on Nov. 24 vs. Tulane and Jan. 8 vs. Southern Illinois.

- Valpo held a 28-18 lead in terms of points in the paint including a 20-8 advantage in the first half.

- The Beacons also did an outstanding job getting to the free-throw line, making a season-high 25 free throws on 27 attempts. It was the team's most made free throws in a game since making 28 in a double overtime affair with Bradley on Jan. 28 of last season. It was Valpo's most in a regulation game since 26 vs. Purdue Northwest on Dec. 17, 2020. Furthermore, Valpo had its highest made free-throw total in a regulation game against a Division-I opponent since also making 25 on Feb. 17, 2018 vs. Bradley.

- The 12 made 3s by Missouri State were the most permitted by Valpo in a regulation game this season. The dozen triples tied for the most permitted by the Beacons in any contest this year with the Jan. 19 overtime victory vs. UNI.

- The 3-point arc was not kind to the Beacons on the other end of the floor, either. Valpo shot 3-of-12 from distance (including 0-for-4 in the first half), tying a season low for made 3s with the Jan. 30 game at Southern Illinois.

- The 3-point shooting disparity was a rare aberration as it was the first time Valpo was outscored by 27 points or more from beyond the arc since Nov. 13, 2006 vs. IPFW, a game Valpo won despite being outdone 11-2 in made 3s.

- However, part of the reason Valpo tied a season low for made 3s is that the team didn't attempt very many. The 12 3-point attempts were a season low and Valpo's fewest since taking just 10 3s on March 5, 2020, an opening-round victory over Evansville in the State Farm MVC Tournament.

Media Relations Information

Requests to cover home men's basketball games should be made through Brandon Vickrey, Assistant Director of Athletics for Media Relations, by contacting 219.464.5396 or Brandon.Vickrey@valpo.edu. Credentials and media seating are available at the ARC for working media only. Updated statistics and notes from both schools will be distributed via email.

During the week, all player and coach interview requests should be directed to Brandon Vickrey. Broadcasters planning to attend practice should email/text/call Brandon ahead to confirm practice time. Coach Lottich and requested players will be available following the game for a press conference.

- Valpo was outrebounded 40-27, losing the battle on the boards for the fifth straight game. However, the first four of those came without leading rebounder Thomas Kithier in the lineup and the rebounding disparity in Springfield came mostly due to shooting percentages as Valpo was outdone just 11-9 on the offensive glass.

Ben Coming Up Big

- Ben Krikke has scored in double figures in six straight games, including a stretch of three straight where he scored 18 points or more from Jan. 22 to Jan. 30 (at Indiana State, vs. Bradley, at SIU).
- In the Feb. 12 game at Missouri State, Krikke reached the 20-point threshold for the seventh time this season and the third time in his last six games.

- Krikke (55 percent FG / 83.8 percent free throw) is one of only two players in the Missouri Valley Conference (minimum 100 minutes played) shooting at least 50 percent from the field and at least 80 percent from the free-throw line, joining Missouri State's Isiah Mosley.

- Krikke has scored in double figures in 16 of his 22 games this season.

- In the Feb. 9 game at Illinois State, Krikke blocked a career-high four shots. He joined Sheldon Edwards (Nov. 13 vs. UIC) as the only Valpo players with four-rejection games this season. Krikke had reached three blocked shots in a contest just twice in his career and hadn't notched more than two in any game this season. However, he kept the blocks coming with his second straight multi-rejection performance by swatting two attempts by the Bears on Feb. 12 at Missouri State.

- Entering Feb. 16 vs. Loyola, the junior is 114 points away from 1,000 for his collegiate career and has an opportunity to get there by season's end.

- As of Feb. 13, Krikke ranks second in the conference and 37th nationally with a shooting percentage of 55.0.

- This marks the second consecutive year that Krikke closed the month of January with a string of three straight games with 18 points or more. Last year, that came at Illinois State, vs. Bradley and at Evansville.

- Krikke's rebounding totals have been on the rise as he's squeezed five boards or more in seven of his last nine games after doing so just once in his previous seven contests. His season peak in terms of rebounds came on Jan. 30 at Southern Illinois, when he pulled down nine.

- In addition, Krikke handed out a career-high five assists while committing no turnovers on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley. He became the first Valpo player with a 15-5-5 game (15+ points, 5+ rebounds, 5+ assists) since Zion Morgan on Feb. 27 of last season vs. Indiana State.

- In the Jan. 26 game against Bradley, Valpo held a two-point advantage in the 31 minutes that Krikke played but was outdone by 17 in the nine minutes that Krikke was not in the game.

- Krikke delivered the game-winning shot with six seconds remaining in the victory over Indiana State on Jan. 22, the latest Valpo game-winner since Eron Gordon's memorable buzzer-beater in the 2020 MVC quarterfinal vs. Loyola.

The Rookie Report

- With sixth-year senior point guard Trevor Anderson out for the season with a back injury, Valpo has relied upon a pair of freshmen in Preston Ruedinger and Darius DeAveiro at the point guard spot.
- Ruedinger owns an impressive ratio of 23 assists to five turnovers, while DeAveiro has handed out 47 assists against 20 giveaways.
- Ruedinger is one of two players in the nation with 20 or more assists and five or fewer turnovers this season, joining Ohio State's Jimmy Sotos.
- DeAveiro is one of two freshmen in the nation with 45 or more assists and 20 or fewer turnovers, joining Youngstown State's Luke Chicone.
- In a four-game stretch from Jan. 8 vs. SIU to Jan. 22 at Indiana State, DeAveiro had 11 assists against no turnovers.
- Ruedinger has not had more turnovers than assists in any of his 14 Valpo appearances. He made one turnover on Jan. 30 at Southern Illinois, snapping his streak of four straight games without a giveaway. He's made just three turnovers over his last eight games despite totaling 147 minutes of action during that stretch.

Down to the Wire & Working Overtime

- Fans prone to bite their fingernails in tense moments may have no nails left to bite as seven of Valpo's 12 games in the calendar year of 2022 have been decided by three points or fewer or required overtime.
- Overall this season, 11 of Valpo's 23 games against Division-I opponents have been decided by four points or fewer or needed OT.
- The Feb. 9 setback at Illinois State was Valpo's sixth game this season that went beyond the regulation 40 minutes and the fifth time in 12 conference contests that the Beacons have played overtime. Valpo is 3-3 in the six OT games this year.
- Valpo played back-to-back overtime games (Feb. 5 vs. Indiana State and Feb. 9 at Illinois State) for the first time since 1993 (Feb. 6 at UIC, Feb. 8 vs. Green Bay).
- This is the first time Valpo has played six overtime games in a single season since the program tied an NCAA Division-I record with eight overtime games in 1993. Valpo was the most recent NCAA D-I team with eight OT games in a single season as the program shares the record with Western Kentucky (1978) and Portland (1984). This year's version of the Beacons is two OT games away from tying that mark.
- When Valpo and Illinois State played beyond 40 minutes on Feb. 9, it was the sixth overtime game of the year for both teams. The two teams are tied for the national lead for number of OT games this season along with UT Arlington.
- Valpo has played eight overtime periods this season (including two double OT games) and is tied with UT Arlington for the national lead. Bradley owns the NCAA Division-I record for number of overtime periods in a season with 14 in 1982 (seven of those came in a single game).
- The Feb. 5 game vs. Indiana State was Valpo's second double overtime game of the season, joining Jan. 11 at Loyola. The last time the program played multiple double overtime games in the same season was 1992-1993, when the team played double overtime on three occasions.
- Both Valpo vs. Illinois State matchups this season went to overtime. The last time Valpo played multiple OT games against the same opponent in one season was 1992-1993 (UIC).

Mr. 2000?

- Kevion Taylor reached another milestone on Feb. 12 at Missouri State, when he secured six rebounds to push his career total over 700. Taylor became just the 14th active player nationally with over 1,900 points and over 700 rebounds.
- Taylor scored his 1,900th collegiate point in Valpo's Feb. 5 victory over Indiana State. He scored 1,635 points over four seasons at Division-II Winona State before joining the Beacons as a graduate transfer prior to the 2021-22 campaign. Entering Feb. 16 vs. Loyola, Taylor has 1,938 points, just 62 away from 2,000.

- Taylor is averaging 12.1 points per game this season, and if he continues that average he is on pace to reach 2,000 in Valpo's first MVC Tournament game.
- If Taylor reaches that hefty milestone, he would become just the third player in program history to score his 2,000th collegiate point while playing for Valpo, joining program legends Alec Peters and Bryce Drew.
- Taylor scored a season-high 26 points on Feb. 9 at Illinois State. He topped his previous season best of 22 that occurred on Jan. 22 vs. UNI.
- Taylor scored 20 points or more in back-to-back games and has a total of 46 points over two contests vs. Indiana State (Feb. 5) and at Illinois State (Feb. 9) before being held to six points on Feb. 12 at Missouri State, tying for his lowest scoring output in league play.
- After reaching 20 points just once in his first 22 Valpo games, he did it in back-to-back outings on Feb. 5 and Feb. 9. Including his four years at Division-II Winona State, Taylor has now reached the 20-point threshold 40 times in his collegiate career.
- In the game against the Redbirds (Feb. 9), Taylor tied a season high with seven made field goals, his fourth game this year with seven made shots. He also equaled his season best with five made 3s, his third such game. Taylor set a season high for makes at the free-throw line, where he was 7-for-7. He also swiped a career-high-tying three steals in the stellar individual effort.
- Taylor's third and final 3-pointer of the Feb. 5 victory over Indiana State was the 300th made triple of his collegiate career.
- In the game against the Sycamores, Valpo outscored Indiana State by 18 points when Taylor was on the floor. In regulation, Taylor owned a +11 in the plus-minus column while playing 37 of the 40 minutes, but Indiana State outscored Valpo 11-0 in the time he was not on the court.
- Entering Feb. 16 vs. Loyola, Taylor has reached double figures 14 times in 25 games this season including 10 performances featuring 15 points or more.

Turnover Talk

- On Feb. 12 at Missouri State, Valpo committed just six turnovers, tying a season low with Jan. 8 vs. Southern Illinois and Nov. 24 vs. Tulane. It was Valpo's lowest turnover total in a road game this year.
- That marked Valpo's second straight game with a single-figure turnover total after the team had committed just nine on Feb. 9 at Illinois State despite playing overtime. The visit to Springfield marked the third straight game where Valpo won the turnover battle.
- Feb. 12 at Missouri State was the 15th time in 25 games this year that Valpo has committed 10 turnovers or fewer.
- Valpo had an impressive assist-to-turnover ratio in the Feb. 9 game against the Redbirds, handing out 15 assists for the second straight contest. That marked the seventh time this season Valpo had 15 or more assists.

- The Beacons have turned it over just 11.0 times per game this season, a mark that ranks second in The Valley and 39th nationally. Plus, Valpo's per game number is inflated because the team has played a full game's worth of overtime (40 minutes) this season.

- Valpo won the turnover battle in eight straight games prior to Jan. 5 at UNI, the team's longest stretch of winning the turnover battle over the last 28 seasons.

- Valpo made just seven turnovers on Jan. 22 at Indiana State. All seven of the giveaways against the Sycamores came after halftime. In the opening 20 minutes, Valpo did not turn it over, the first time the team did not commit a first-half turnover since Nov. 15, 2007 at IPFW. The first half at Indiana State marked the first time Valpo played turnover-free basketball in any half since the second half on Feb. 13, 2010 at Youngstown State.

20-20 Vision

- Sheldon Edwards is one of just five Missouri Valley Conference players with 20 or more blocks and 20 or more steals this season. He is joined in that club by Drake's Tremell Murphy, Drake's Tucker DeVries, Illinois State's Kendall Lewis and Missouri State's Gaije Prim.

- Edwards leads the Beacons in both of those defensive categories with 28 steals and 22 rejections.

- Edwards has a chance to become the first Valpo player to finish a season as the team leader in both steals and blocked shots since Raitis Grafts had 45 steals and 38 blocks during the 1999-2000 season.

- On the offensive side of the ball, Edwards is four points away from reaching 500 for his career as only a sophomore, well on pace to reach 1,000 before his collegiate tenure reaches its conclusion.

- Edwards is one of just seven players in the nation with at least 20 blocks, 25 steals, 25 assists and 50 made 3s, as of Feb. 13. Drake's Tucker DeVries is also on the list along with Jamaree Bouyea (San Francisco), Tyron Flowers (Long Island), Desmond Cambridge (Nevada), Jabari Smith (Auburn) and Zach Austin (High Point).

- Edwards is just the third different Valpo player to notch 20 blocks, 25 steals, 25 assists and 50 made 3s in a season since 1992-1993, joining Ryan Broekhoff (three times) and Lubos Barton (twice).

Inside Kobe's Kingdom

- After missing the first nine games of the season in order to gain NCAA eligibility, Kobe King is averaging a team-high 14.9 points per game in 15 contests (14 starts).

- He has scored at least eight points in every outing, including 14 appearances in double figures. He has been in double figures in seven straight games and 12 of his last 13, entering Feb. 16 vs. Loyola.

- King has scored 15 points or more in seven of his first 16 games in a Valpo uniform.

- On Feb. 5 vs. Indiana State, King went for a double-double of 24 points and 11 rebounds, both career highs. King's previous scoring career high was 19 and his prior personal best on the boards was nine. He enjoyed a balanced stat line against the Sycamores, also dishing out three assists, rejecting a career-high three shots and swiping one steal.

- King's double-double against Indiana State was the fifth by a Valpo player (three Thomas Kithier, one Trevor Anderson) this season. King enjoyed the team's second 20&10 game of the season and first in conference play, joining Kithier's 28-point, 11-rebound output vs. UIC on Nov. 13.

Scouting the Ramblers

- Coming off an 85-58 win vs. UNI on Sunday to bounce back from a 68-61 loss at Bradley in their previous game.

- Went 26-5 overall and 16-2 in MVC play last season en route to a Sweet 16 appearance.

- Picked second behind Drake in this year's MVC preseason poll.

- Will try to clinch a 20-win season on Wednesday.

- Led in scoring and rebounding by Lucas Williamson at 13.5 points per game and 4.6 boards per contest. Braden Norris has dished out a team-high 86 assists, while Williamson is also the team leader in steals with 30.

- Holding opponents to just 62.0 points per game.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Feb. 9: Illinois State 78, Valpo 75 (OT)

- Eron Gordon squeezed a team-high six rebounds, his highest output since a season-high eight in Valpo's first matchup with Illinois State back on Jan. 2.

- Illinois State's Antonio Reeves finished with a career-high 34 points, surpassing Noah Carter's 33 on Jan. 19 for UNI as the most by a Beacon opponent this season. The 34 points was the most scored by an individual against Valpo since Southern Utah's Randy Onwuasor had 35 on Nov. 11, 2016. Reeves scored 20 of his 34 points in the second half.

- Valpo shot 44.4 percent (8-of-18) from 3-point distance, the team's highest 3-point shooting clip in a conference contest this year. This was Valpo's second-best 3-point shooting day overall this season behind a 12-of-22 (54.5 percent) performance on Dec. 22 vs. William & Mary.

- Valpo blocked five shots (four from Ben Krikke), tying the team's highest single-game total in MVC play this year. On the flip side, Valpo allowed five blocked shots for just the second time this season, both against Illinois State.

- Valpo was outrebounded 42-31, just the third time this season the team has been outrebounded by 11 or more, with two of them coming against Illinois State. The Redbirds held a 13-rebound advantage in the Jan. 2. matchup. The Beacons were outdone on the glass in all four games without leading rebounder Thomas Kithier.

Sweeping the Sycamores

- Both contests came down to the wire, but Valpo came away with the season sweep of in-state foe Indiana State thanks to a 75-73 win on Jan. 22 in Terre Haute and a 79-72 double overtime victory on Feb. 5 at the ARC.
- The two teams had split the regular season series in three of Valpo's first four Valley seasons. This represented the first time Valpo swept two regular-season meetings with Indiana State in the same season since 1957-58 when Kenneth Susens' team swept a pair of Indiana Collegiate Conference showdowns.
- Indiana State is the first team this season that Valpo has completed a two-game sweep against.
- Valpo had dropped its first three Missouri Valley Conference games at Indiana State prior to notching the 75-73 victory on Jan. 22. Valpo's previous win in Sycamore territory came 69-63 in a nonconference matchup on Dec. 9, 2015. The team's first three MVC trips to the house that Larry Bird built resulted in losses by an average margin of 13 points per game.

Down But Not Out: When Valpo transformed a 34-33 halftime deficit into a 79-72 overtime victory on Feb. 5 vs. Indiana State, it represented the sixth time this season the Beacons have trailed at the game's midway mark before rallying to prevail. Over half (six out of 11) of Valpo's wins this season have come when trailing at the break. Valpo faced a five-point halftime deficit in back-to-back games on Jan. 19 vs. UNI and Jan. 22 at Indiana State, both eventual victories. In addition, the Beacons also came from down at half to beat Eastern Michigan (Dec. 20), Tulane (Nov. 24) and Jacksonville State (Nov. 22). This marks the team's most wins when chasing at the break since rallying from seven halftime disparities during the 2011-2012 campaign.

Starter Shuffle

- Valpo has used a dozen different starting lineup combinations this season.
- The Beacons have used nine different starting lineups in conference play.
- No Valpo player has started every game this season.
- The only three players who have played in all 25 contests are Kevion Taylor, Sheldon Edwards and Eron Gordon.
- Gordon has played in all 88 Valpo games since the beginning of the 2019-20 season.
- Freshman Preston Ruedinger made his first collegiate start on Jan. 8 vs. SIU. Ruedinger became the second nonscholarship player to start a game for Valpo during the Matt Lottich Era as John Kiser started on March 4, 2017 vs. Milwaukee at the Horizon League Tournament in Detroit as a freshman walk-on before earning a scholarship prior to his sophomore campaign.

All Good Things Must End

- Kevion Taylor saw his impressive streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer end at 84 when he was held without a triple on Jan. 30, 2022 at Southern Illinois. In the previous game, Taylor extended the streak by the skin of his teeth with a 3 as time expired on Jan. 26 vs. Bradley.
- Taylor was held without a made 3 for the first time since Dec. 15, 2018 while playing for Winona State in a game at Concordia St. Paul. His streak, one of the longest in the history of NCAA college basketball, started on Dec.

19, 2018 at Michigan Tech.

- The highest of the NCAA records (Division I, Division II or Division III) for consecutive games with a made 3 is 93 and belongs to Daniel Park of D-II Rollins from Jan. 26, 1994 to Feb. 28, 1997.
- If Taylor's streak came in all D-I games, it would rank third in Division-I history. The D-I record is held by Mack Smith (91), who Valpo played against on Dec. 5 at Western Michigan. Smith set the record while at Eastern Illinois. Second is Corey Bradford of Illinois (88).
- He hit at least one triple in each of the first 21 contests this season.
- Taylor became the first Valpo player since at least the start of the 1989-90 season (nearly all the way back to the addition of the 3-point line) to make a 3 in each of his first 21 games of a season. He surpassed the program's previous longest season-opening streak of 14 by Lance Barker in 1994-95. Three other Valpo players made a 3 in each of the first 13 games of a season – Bryce Drew (1995-96), Casey Schmidt (1992-93) and Mike Jones (1989-90).

#SCTop10 Again: Kobe King nailed a three-quarters court shot to beat the buzzer on Dec. 11 vs. Charlotte. Although the desperation heave was not enough as Valpo fell 68-67, the play checked in at No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays that evening. It was highlighted again two days later on ESPN's popular "SportsCenter with Scott Van Pelt" show. This marks the fourth time in a three-year span that Valpo basketball has produced an #SCTop10 play. The previous appearance came courtesy of a Sheldon Edwards dunk in a victory over No. 25 Drake on Feb. 7 of last season. Since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, Valpo Athletics has been featured on the iconic daily countdown on 10 occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (four times), softball (twice), volleyball (twice), women's basketball and soccer.

#ChampionsInCommunity

- The Valpo basketball program received recognition from the Valparaiso University Student Philanthropy program on Sunday, Nov. 14.
- The team was recognized as part of the University's annual Generosity Awards Celebration. Head coach Matt Lottich's group was selected as the 2021 Athletic Team Awardee for the program's community service and engagement.
- The team's community engagement activities include participating in the Popcorn Fest, Valparaiso Downtown Trick or Treat, Valpo Day of Caring and beach cleanup at the Indiana Dunes National Park.

- In addition, the team hosts youth camps in the summer, working with children ages 6-14 to provide a fun and positive basketball experience.
- The program makes it a priority to attend as many Valpo Athletics events as possible to support other teams. The Beacons also make an effort to actively participate in the University community and support student organizations while also having an active presence as members of the broader City of Valparaiso and Northwest Indiana communities.
- Of the six core values that make up the foundation of the Valpo men's basketball program, servanthood and appreciation are among the most prominent.

Forward Trajectory

- Valpo has improved its conference tournament seeding in each of its four Missouri Valley Conference seasons.
- The team entered Arch Madness as a No. 10 seed in 2017-18, a No. 9 seed in 2018-19, a No. 7 in 2019-20 and a No. 6 in 2020-21.
- With Year 4 in The Valley now in the books, Valpo has surpassed Loyola's conference win total over its first four seasons in the league. Valpo garnered its 29th MVC victory in the 2020-21 regular-season finale vs. Indiana State.
- The Ramblers went 27-45 over their first four seasons before going 57-16 over the following four seasons.
- Valpo has improved its conference finish in each season during the four-year transitional period after elevating to the prestigious and competitive conference.

More on 2020-21

- The 2020-21 season was highlighted by an upset victory over previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the Athletics-Recreation Center, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor.
- Valpo came close to two other victories over ranked foes, falling 80-77 vs. No. 25 Drake on Feb. 6 and 54-52 at No. 22 Loyola on Feb. 17.
- Valpo closed the regular season with a stretch of 16 Missouri Valley Conference games in a 39-day span. By comparison, Valpo had played three games over the previous 31 days before beginning the stretch of seemingly nonstop competition. Six of Valpo's first eight MVC games were postponed due to COVID-19, causing the backlog of makeup games during the busy stretch.

2021-22 Preseason Picks

- Ben Krikke was named to the Preseason All-MVC Second Team.
- Valpo was picked seventh in the 10-team league based on a preseason survey of the conference's head coaches, media members and sports information directors.

- Drake was tabbed the preseason favorite to win the league, while UNI's AJ Green earned Preseason Player of the Year accolades.

Sustained Home Success

- The Athletics-Recreation Center has provided a distinct homecourt advantage over the years as Valpo has not finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92.
- Thanks to a victory in the 2020-21 home finale vs. Indiana State, the program finished with a record of .500 or better at home for the 29th consecutive season.
- Valpo enjoyed double-figure home win totals in nine of 10 seasons prior to the unusual, pandemic-altered 2020-21 season. Due to health and safety regulations, fans were unable to pack the ARC as they have in years past.
- The ARC is back open to spectators without any capacity restrictions during the 2021-22 season, restoring the home court advantage Valpo has come to expect over the years.

Big Ten U

- Prior to this season, Valpo had just a pair of Big Ten transfers join the program over the last two decades (Bakari Evelyn and Bobby Capobiano).
- This year, the program has been bolstered by four additions from the Big Ten Conference. Trevor Anderson, Joe Hedstrom and Kobe King have all come in from Wisconsin, while Thomas Kithier joins the fold after beginning his career with three seasons at Michigan State.
- Four of the five transfers that have come in join the team from the Big Ten, while a fifth impact transfer began his career with four seasons at Division-II Winona State. Kevion Taylor was a three-time all-conference performer and was his conference's preseason player of the year in 2020-21.
- King started all 19 games he played at Wisconsin in 2019-20, Anderson appeared in 60 of Wisconsin's 62 games over the last two seasons and Kithier appeared in 86 games and made 19 starts for Tom Izzo's team over his three seasons in East Lansing.

Who's Back

- Although the team features five freshmen and the five aforementioned transfers, five scholarship players do return from last season.
- The squad brings back 47.9 percent of its scoring and 42.4 percent of its rebounding.
- Four of the team's top six scorers are back.
- A pair of MVC postseason award winners remain in the fold for the Beacons as Sheldon Edwards was a member of the 2020-21 MVC All-Freshman Team, while Ben Krikke earned All-MVC Third Team, MVC Most-Improved Team and MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team, the lone player in the league to receive all three honors.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 20th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to eight postseason berths in the last 11 years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He serves as the team's defensive coordinator in addition to leading Valpo's scheduling and scouting efforts.
- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018. Bowen coordinates the team's offense.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his fourth season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Director of Basketball Operations Peter Funk is in his first season in that role after spending the previous two years as a graduate assistant and the three years prior to that as a student manager.

Tradition of Excellence

- Valpo has 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and four NIT berths in the program's proud history, with the team's postseason success highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen run in 1998.
- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.
- Nine of the team's NCAA appearances have come since 1996.
- Valpo has qualified for the postseason eight times in the last 11 years, including 2019-20 where Valpo accepted a postseason berth but the tournament was not played due to COVID-19.
- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last four years. Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey. Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns. Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas – a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA. He has gone on to a successful career overseas with CSKA Moscow (2018-2019), Anadolu Efes (2019-2020) and Kirolbet Baskonia (2020-present).
- Valpo has produced over 50 professional players in the last 25 years.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

6th Season * Stanford, 2004

94-92 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich is in his ninth season overall at Valparaiso University and sixth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2021-2022.

The 2020-2021 season saw Valpo improve its Arch Madness seeding for the fourth straight year as the program continued to make positive strides in each season as a Missouri Valley Conference member. The team earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time since joining the prestigious league.

Valpo upset previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the ARC, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor. Valpo came close to two other victories over ranked foes, falling 80-77 vs. No. 25 Drake on Feb. 6 and 54-52 at No. 22 Loyola on Feb. 17. In addition, Valpo extended its streak to 29 straight seasons without a sub-.500 home record.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19 concerns.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude. The Loyola comeback marked the sixth time in 2019-2020 that Valpo came from double figures down to win. On 11 occasions, Valpo trailed by at least 10 points and eventually tied the game or took the lead. Valpo also became just the second team in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference to come from 17 or more down to win twice in one season, joining Creighton from 2007-2008.

Working with a young team that featured just five returning players from the previous season, Lottich mentored a 2019-2020 First Team All-MVC selection, MVC All-Defensive Team choice, MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, MVC All-Bench pick, MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team selection and a pair of MVC All-Tournament Team performers. Perhaps most noteworthy of all, the program's emphasis on player development paid dividends as Valpo accounted for 40 percent of the MVC Most-Improved Team. Two of the program's five returning players found themselves honored on the five-player most-improved squad.

Lottich's team committed just 12.7 turnovers per game in 2019-2020 while ranking second in the league with 72.3 points per game, second with 7.7 steals per game and first with 15.2 assists per contest, leading a league in that category for the first time since 2011-12.

Other noteworthy feats for Lottich's squad in 2019-2020 included making 18 3-pointers in a game against Bradley to set the league-only MVC record, holding Southern Illinois to 38 points to set the program record for the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since the advent of the shot clock, snapping a 22-game losing streak in games at Evansville that had dated back to 1969, breaking through with its first win over Loyola since joining The Valley after previously going 0-7 against the program's Chicagoland rival and twice turning a double-figure defeat from the first half of the MVC double-round robin into a double-figure victory in the second meeting with that opponent.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.

Guard * 6-4 * Sophomore * Sports Management

West Palm Beach, Fla. * Palm Beach Lakes (TLAP Sports Academy)

2021-22: Had a career-high four blocks on Feb. 13 vs. UIC... Named to the Nassau Championship All-Tournament Team after lifting Valpo to a third-place finish... Was one of five players in a talented, eight-team field named to the all-tournament squad... Stuffed the stat sheet with a career-high 23 points, a career-high five made 3s, five rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals in the third-place game of the Nassau Championship on Nov. 24 vs. Tulane... Coming off the bench for the first time this season, he averaged 16.0 points per game over three contests in the Bahamas... Dished out a career-high five assists while notching his eighth consecutive double-figure scoring game on Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian... Reached double figures for the eighth time in nine games this year, posting 15 points to go along with four rebounds, a block, a steal and two assists on Dec. 5 at Western Michigan... Drained four 3s on Dec. 11 vs. Charlotte, his second most of the season and fifth time with three or more. His 16 points represented his ninth time in double figures this year in 11 outings. His six made field goals were also his second most of the year, behind the Nov. 24 game vs. Tulane... Shot a season-best 70 percent from the field - the second-best clip of his collegiate career - while draining three 3s on his way to 17 points on Dec. 22 vs. William & Mary. The seven made field goals tied a career high... Had his fourth career game with 20+ points by scoring 20 on Jan. 11 at Loyola. Also grabbed a season-high seven rebounds. That outing also featured a career-high eight made field goals... Made a career-high six free throws on Feb. 12 at Missouri State.

2020-21: Named to the MVC All-Freshman Team after appearing in 27 games and making 12 starts during his rookie campaign... Scored 8.1 points per game while averaging 2.9 rebounds and knocking down a team-most 36 3-pointers... Ranked second on the squad with 24 steals... Scored in double figures on nine occasions and had seven games with multiple steals... Led the team in scoring four times... Averaged 8.4 ppg and shared the team lead with 19 steals in conference-only games while knocking down a team-high 28 3s in league play... Helped Valpo extend its streak to three straight seasons with a member of the All-Freshman Team and four straight years with either an All-Freshman or All-Newcomer Team honoree... Became the seventh Valpo freshman in the last 20 years to start the season opener on Nov. 27 at Vanderbilt... Reached double figures for the first time in his Valpo career with a 10-point showing on Dec. 6 vs. Judson... Poured in a personal-best 20 points on an efficient 7-of-9 shooting with eight rebounds on Dec. 9 vs. SIUE... Scored 19 points over the two games vs. Missouri State on Jan. 9-10... Led the team with 18 points, including 11 in the two overtime periods, to lift Valpo to a 91-85 victory over Bradley on Jan. 28... Matched a season high with 20 points on Feb. 6 vs. No. 25 Drake before adding 11 on Feb. 7 in an upset victory over the Bulldogs. In the Feb. 7 triumph, he slammed home a thunderous dunk that ranked No. 7 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening. For his efforts, Edwards was named the MVC Newcomer of the Week on Feb. 8 while also earning College Sports Madness MVC Player of the Week honors... Had his third straight game in double figures and his fourth straight multi-steal game with 10 points and three swipes on Feb. 10 vs. Bradley... Tied a season high with four made triples in the final game of the campaign on March 5 vs. Missouri State, also equaling a personal best with eight rebounds to go along with his 17 points in the MVC Tournament opener against the Bears.

Before Valpo: Averaged 21.2 points and 7.6 rebounds as a senior at Palm Beach Lakes High School in 2018-19... Spent a postgraduate year at TLAP Sports Academy in Port St. Lucie, Fla. during the 2019-20 season, averaging 32 points per game and five rebounds per contest while turning in two games of 40+ points... 2018-19 first-team all-state honoree and All-State Game MVP in the state of Florida... Watched about 75 percent of Valpo's games on TV or via internet while in prep school during the 2019-20 season... TLAP Sports Academy coach Louis Graham says stopping for him is a "tough task" and said "You want to watch him; he's a guy who sells tickets." Graham, also Edwards' uncle, put a basketball in his crib as a young child. "He loves the game."

Personal: Majoring in sports management... Hobbies include listening to music... Favorite artists are Drake and J. Cole... Son of Sheldon Edwards Sr. and Leticia Graham... Has six siblings – sisters Kham, Kiarra, Aaniyah, Jayden and brothers Joshua (14) and Elijah (10)... Favorite NBA player is Steph Curry, but he models his game after the likes of Devin Booker, Jayson Tatum and Bradley Beal. When he's not playing basketball, the Valpo freshman spends much of his free time watching it.

Posted 16 points and seven rebounds on 8-of-11 shooting in the Dec. 19 game at Toledo. The eight field goals marked a career high and the 16-point game was two shy of a personal best at that time... Shattered his previous season high by halftime with 17 first-half points on Jan. 9 vs. Missouri State on his way to a career-high 21. He joined Javon Freeman-Liberty, Tevonn Walker and Alec Peters as the only four Valpo players with 17+ points in a first half during Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fifth season)... Became just the third Valpo player in the last 25 years with a 25-point, 15-rebound game on Jan. 24 at Illinois State... Was named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 26, the first weekly conference honor of his collegiate career... Enjoyed his third straight game of 18+ points by scoring 18 on 7-of-9 shooting to lead the team on Jan. 31 at Evansville, then equaled a career high with four assists on Feb. 1 in the second game of the back-to-back against the Purple Aces... Scored in double figures for the 20th time this season in the Feb. 27 regular-season finale, scoring 14 points in the win over Indiana State... Rounded out his season with a 12-point performance in the MVC Tournament opener on March 5 vs. Missouri State... Received Valparaiso University Presidential Academic Honors and member of MVC Academic Honor Roll.

2019-20: Appeared in 33 games and made one start during his freshman season... Averaged 6.7 points per game and 2.9 rebounds per contest while blocking 15 shots, coming away with 15 steals, shooting 79.2 percent at the foul line, draining 14 3s and handing out 22 assists... Shot 55.0 percent from the field, finishing fifth in the conference and second among freshmen in field-goal percentage... Scored in double figures nine times including three games with 15+ points... Had eight instances of five or more rebounds... Led the team in scoring in three games, rebounds in two and assists in one... Made his collegiate debut in the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo... Didn't make a field goal over the first three games of his career, but he knocked down five on 11 attempts against North Dakota on Nov. 17. He finished with 11 points, one of four Valpo players in double figures... Drained three 3s on Jan. 15 at UNI to finish with 13 points, his highest total against a Division-I opponent. That equaled his previous season total for made 3s, as he entered the evening 3-of-14 for the season... Became the first Valpo freshman since at least the start of the 1989-90 season to lead the team outright in points, rebounds and assists in a single game on Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State. He set Division-I season highs in all three areas and surpassed his overall season high in rebounds with his line of 17 points, eight boards and four assists... Had a team-high 15 points and tied for the team lead with seven rebounds on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, his third time this season and second in a four-game span leading the team in scoring... Had two double-figure outputs in the MVC Tournament including an 11-point effort that featured seven made free throws in the March 7 MVC semifinal vs. Missouri State.

Prep: Led Jasper Place H.S. to the Alberta Schools' Athletic Association provincial championship... Earned a spot on the BioSteel All-Canadian game roster... Was the MVP of the Alberta Basketball All-Star Showcase, scoring 37 points... Competed internationally for Team Canada at the 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup in Argentina, averaging 9.9 points per game and 4.4 rebounds per game while helping Canada to a fourth-place finish. He was the only player from outside of Quebec or Ontario to make the roster.

Personal: Credits his father's Michael Jordan DVD set for helping hone his skills. DVDs include Jordan's greatest games, plays and Top 10 dunks... Father Kent is a physical education teacher and former college basketball player. He has run a basketball camp in Alberta for over 20 years... Hobbies include fishing with his dad and cheering on the Toronto Raptors, his favorite pro team... Majoring in finance... Hails from Edmonton, a very devout hockey city, but says basketball there is on the upswing...
