McLeod Center (7,018) – Cedar Falls, Iowa

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: A challenging test awaits the Valparaiso University men's basketball team, which will look for its second straight victory on Wednesday night at UNI. The Panthers are the highest regarded team in the conference by a variety of metrics and own an unblemished 9-0 record at home. After already eliminating one lengthy skid this season by winning at Evansville for the first time since 1969, Valpo will look to snap a 13-game skid at UNI and earn its first ever win when visiting Cedar Falls. UNI is receiving votes nationally in the AP Poll and USA Today Coaches' Poll.

Last Time Out: Valpo went 18-of-20 at the free-throw line and held Drake to 2-of-20 from beyond the 3-point arc en route to a 66-61 victory over the Bulldogs on Saturday night at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Drake held a late 61-60 lead, but Valpo scored the final six points of the game at the foul line. Valpo ran a "home-run play" to help secure the triumph as Javon Freeman-Liberty used a lightning-fast burst of speed to run down a ball that was chucked into the forecourt on a baseline inbound by John Kiser. Kiser also hit perhaps the biggest shot of the night, a go-ahead trey with 3:01 remaining, the team's first lead of the second half after trailing by as many as seven. Donovan Clay finished with team highs in both points (18) and rebounds (seven).

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (63-52) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Series Notes: The all-time series is tilted heavily in UNI's favor, though only four of the 28 meetings have come after 1991 so most of the history between the two foes is in the distant past. Valpo is just 3-25 all-time against the Panthers, but one of those victories came 75-66 last season at the ARC. UNI owns three of the four games since Valpo joined The Valley, including a 64-53 triumph last year at the McLeod Center to salvage a season-series split. With a 22-game losing streak that dated back to 1969 in games played at Evansville already snapped this season, this version of the Valpo men's basketball team could reverse the ghosts of the program's past in another house of horrors on Saturday. Valpo is 0-13 all-time in games played at UNI.

The Stripe a Key: The team's success in the win column has been tied closely with its success at the free-throw line this season. Valpo is 6-1 when shooting free throws at 70 percent or better, with the only defeat coming in overtime against Cincinnati. Conversely, the team is 2-7 against Division-I opponents when shooting below 70 percent at the foul line. Valpo went 18-of-20 at the charity line in the team's 66-61 victory over Drake on Jan. 11, marking the third time this season and second in the last three games the squad has shot free throws at a clip of 90 percent or better.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo held Drake to 2-of-20 from behind the 3-point arc (10 percent) on Jan. 11, the team's second-best performance this season in terms of 3-point defense behind a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan where the Chippewas went just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent). That Central Michigan team had previously made at least four 3s in every game this season, and that was Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015 (Milwaukee 1-of-17, 5.9 percent). Drake's two made 3s on Jan. 13 at the ARC was the team's lowest total since Feb. 17, 2015.

Finding a Way to Win: Valpo shot just 33.3 percent on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but did enough right to withstand a cold shooting performance in a 66-61 victory. The game marked Valpo's lowest shooting percentage in a victory since beating UIC 64-58 on Jan. 21, 2010 despite a 32.1 percent shooting clip. The 66 points were the fewest by Valpo in a victory this season. Valpo was previously 0-5 this year when scoring fewer than 70 points.

Freeman-Liberty Eyes the Record Book: Javon Freeman-Liberty has a chance to crack Valpo's all-time record book in a variety of areas by season's end. As only a sophomore, he has already reached the 100-steal milestone for his career, crossing that plateau in the Jan. 11 game vs. Drake. He has 41 steals with 17 games played and a minimum of 15 games remaining on the schedule, putting him well on pace to shatter Lubos Barton's school record of 63 established in 2001-02. Freeman-Liberty is also on pace to finish in the top five in program history in total points in a single season.

He has 349 with 17 games played and at least 15 games remaining, putting him on pace for 656 points if he sustains his current scoring average. The school record is Bruce Lindner in 1969-70 at 725, followed by Alec Peters in 2015-16 at 679 and Peters in 2016-17 at 666. Freeman-Liberty is also on pace for one of the Top-10 point totals by a sophomore in Missouri Valley Conference history. If he remains at his current pace, Freeman-Liberty has a chance to eclipse the 1,000-point milestone for his career by the end of his sophomore season. Entering Wednesday's game at UNI, he is 15 points away from already matching his season point total from his rookie campaign.

Scouting the Panthers

- Hold an unblemished 9-0 home record this season.
- Only two losses of the season came vs. West Virginia 60-55 in Cancun and 76-70 at Illinois State in the MVC opener.
- Coming off a dominant 80-57 road win at Missouri State, the preseason favorite to win the Missouri Valley Conference. AJ Green led the way with 28 points.
- Off to their best 16-game start since also holding a 14-2 mark in 2014-15.
- Led in scoring by AJ Green at 18.8 points per game and rebounding by Austin Phyfe at 7.4 boards per game.
- Under the direction of longtime head coach Ben Jacobson, who is a three-time MVC Coach of the Year and ranks in the Top 5 in MVC history in coaching victories.

Wrapping Up Jan. 11 vs. Drake

- After scoring a career-high 21 in Valpo's first MVC home game, freshman Donovan Clay followed with an 18-point effort in the second home conference contest of the campaign. He has led the team in scoring twice this season, the aforementioned MVC home games against Drake and Loyola.
- Clay went 7-of-7 at the free-throw line, becoming the second Valpo player to go perfect at the stripe with at least seven attempts this season, joining Nick Robinson's 8-for-8 on Nov. 12 at SIUE. Clay entered the game against Drake just 4-of-13 at the free-throw line this season.
- Clay also squeezed a team-high seven rebounds, his third straight game with seven boards or more.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty dished out a team-best five assists to go along with 15 points and five rebounds. It was his 17th straight double-figure scoring effort, and he also has nine games of 20 points or more.
- John Kiser and Mileek McMillan had three steals apiece. McMillan's figure marked a career high, while Kiser matched a personal best and turned in his second-straight three-steal effort.
- Valpo held Drake to just two made 3s, the program's fewest in a game in five years.

Close Calls: Four of Valpo's last five games have been decided by five points or fewer. Prior to the Jan. 7 game at Southern Illinois, Valpo played three games in a row decided by four points or fewer, with each game getting progressively closer – a 72-68 defeat at Arkansas, a 66-63 setback vs. Loyola and an 81-79 win at Evansville. Eight of Valpo's 17 games have been decided by six points or fewer this season. This season marks the first time Valpo has had a stretch of three straight games decided by four points or fewer since the 2011-12 season (Dec. 29-Jan. 6; L 57-55 vs. Milwaukee, W 90-87 vs. Green Bay, W 73-71 at Detroit Mercy).

The Clay Way: After finishing with five points or fewer in six of his first seven games, Donovan Clay has hit his stride over the last 10 contests. He has made his way into double figures in scoring in eight of those. Over the last 10 games, Clay is averaging 11.6 points per game and a team-best 4.8 rebounds per contest.

Swiping and Dishing: Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley Conference in both steals per game (8.6) and assists per game (16.2). The last time Valpo finished a season with over 8.6 steals per game was 2001-2002, when the team averaged 10.1 steals per contest. The 2005-2006 campaign was the last time Valpo averaged over 16 assists per game, completing the year at 17.7.

Increased Thievery: Valpo swiped 11 steals in the Jan. 7 game at Southern Illinois, already the seventh game this season with 10 steals or more and the 11th game with nine steals or more. By comparison, the team had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals. As a team, Valpo has 8.6 steals per game, up from 6.1 last season.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of Tuesday's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Battling on the Boards: Valpo pulled down 15 offensive rebounds on Jan. 7 at Southern Illinois, the team's highest total since also squeezing 15 on Nov. 17 vs. North Dakota. The offensive rebounding total for the game in Carbondale exceeded each of the squad's first two Missouri Valley Conference contests combined (12 total). John Kiser and Donovan Clay shared the team lead with nine rebounds apiece as Clay established a personal best and Kiser matched his career watermark. It was Clay's second straight game leading the team on the glass and the third time this season he has done so. Two of his three games with seven caroms or more have been the last two contests. The freshman's previous rebounding career high was eight on Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian. He had an eye-popping offensive rebound total of six in the game against the Salukis. Zion Morgan was also a factor on the boards in the game at SIU, finishing with six caroms, his second-highest total of the season.

Nine Times Nine: Senior John Kiser has yet to enjoy a double-figure scoring or rebounding output in his career, but he has totaled nine efforts of exactly nine points or nine rebounds. His nine-point, nine-rebound performance at Southern Illinois on Jan. 7 allowed him to match career bests in both areas. It was his sixth career nine-point effort (fifth this season) and his third career nine-rebound output (first this season). In addition, the former walk-on matched a career high in steals in the game against the Salukis, replicating his three-steal showing from Feb. 5, 2019 at Illinois State. He has led the team in rebounds six times this season, the most on the team.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before Saturday.

Working Overtime: The Jan. 4 game at Evansville was Valpo's second overtime affair of the season and first victory. The squad came out on the wrong end of an 81-77 decision vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands on Nov. 25. The win over the Aces snapped a three-game OT losing streak that also included home defeats to Indiana State and Missouri State last season and dated back to a 75-70 OT victory over SIUE at the ARC on Nov. 21, 2018. Jan. 4 at Evansville was Valpo's first OT affair in a true road game since Feb. 26, 2016, an 80-76 win at Milwaukee in the final year of Bryce Drew's head coaching tenure.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).
- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.
- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.
- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.
- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993. In addition, he is attempting to become the first play to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Clay Has a Day: The moment didn't appear too large for freshman Donovan Clay as he played in his first Missouri Valley Conference game on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola. He knocked down all eight of his field-goal attempts while also going 4-for-4 from 3-point distance. In addition to producing a career-high 21 points, Clay became the first Valpo player to go unblemished from 3-point distance with more than three attempts since Alec Peters also went 4-for-4 on Jan. 18, 2016 at Youngstown State. Clay became the first MVC player to have eight or more shot attempts without a miss this season and the fourth with four or more 3-point tries without a misfire. The last MVC player to go 8-for-8 or better from the field was Sean Lloyd on Feb. 27, 2019 at Evansville. Clay became the first Valpo player to go perfect from the field with eight or more attempts since Zoran Viskovic went 8-for-8 at Youngstown State on Feb. 19, 1998 and 11-for-11 at Chicago State on Jan. 31, 1998. Clay's 21 points were the most by a Valpo player in a conference opener since Tevonn Walker started Horizon League action with a 23-point effort on Dec. 30, 2016 at UIC.

Putting Up Points: Valpo finished the nonconference schedule with a scoring average of 76.3, the team's highest nonconference scoring average since entering the 2013-14 league slate at 77.1. The team currently sits at 75.4 points per game, up from 66.8 a year ago.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

Gordon Going Off: Redshirt junior Eron Gordon had the first 20-point output of his career on Dec. 18 at High Point, going 7-of-9 from the field and 6-of-8 from 3-point distance in the process. He became just the sixth Missouri Valley Conference player to net six treys in a single game this season and the first Valpo player with more than four in a contest in 2019-20. Ryan Fazekas was the most recent Valpo player to knock down six 3s in a game, as he did so on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State.

Sackey Set-ups: Daniel Sackey set up his teammates nicely on Dec. 18, giving out a career-high nine assists in the win over High Point. He also had 11 points, went 6-of-8 at the foul line and drew six fouls in the road victory. Perhaps most impressive of all, Sackey's nine assists came opposite zero turnovers. He became just the fifth different Missouri Valley Conference player with a nine-assist outing this season and in total it marked the seventh nine-assist game by a Valley player in 2019-20. Sackey now has three games with eight assists or more this year, joining Bradley's Darrell Brown as the only players in The Valley with three such outings. In the win over High Point, Sackey became the first Missouri Valley Conference player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game this season. This is the second straight season Valpo has had a player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game, as Deion Lavender had 10 assists and no turnovers on Nov. 24, 2018 at West Virginia.

Comeback Kids: Although Valpo would love to avoid facing double-figure first-half deficits altogether, the team has showed a knack for erasing large margins this year. Five times, the team has come from double digits down to tie or take the lead including two occasions where the Brown & Gold prevailed after chasing by double figures.

- Valpo faced an early 18-5 deficit at Arkansas (in North Little Rock, Ark.) on Dec. 21 and battled back to take an eight-point lead over the Razorbacks with 7:27 to play before falling 72-68.

- Valpo faced a 10-point halftime deficit on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan and chased by as many as 12 before coming back to take a 66-60 lead with 7:23 to go. The Eagles eventually prevailed 85-79.

- Valpo rallied from 12 down with 10:12 to play to force overtime in an eventual 81-77 defeat to Cincinnati on Nov. 25 in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam.

- On Nov. 12 at SIUE, Valpo was down by 10 with 13:00 minutes to play in the opening half before winning by 13. That marked the first time Valpo had come from down by double figures to win by double figures since Feb. 17, 2018, a 77-64 victory over Bradley.

- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.

- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 10 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

November Success: Valpo finished the month of November with a 5-3 record, continuing a tradition of strong starts to seasons. November has been Valpo's best month under head coach Matt Lottich, as the team owns a 24-7 (.774) November mark through the first four years of his tenure. This marked the 10th straight season Valpo has had a winning record in November, as the team has compiled a 56-19 (.747) November record over the last decade.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

63-52 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
