Game No. 20 - Thursday, Jan. 23, 2020 - 7:30 p.m. CT
 JQH Arena (11,000) - Springfield, Mo.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team will have four consecutive days without a game for the final time this season leading into Thursday's matchup with Missouri State. Valpo will head to Springfield, Mo. to battle the Bears in the program's first nationally-televised game of the 2019-20 campaign. The contest will be carried on CBS Sports Network, the first of back-to-back TV dates for the Brown & Gold.

Last Time Out: Valpo fought through bumps and bruises to a gutsy 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Saturday night at the Athletics-Recreation Center. A complete team effort that saw five players finish in double figures - Valpo's most double-figure scorers in a game against a Division-I opponent this season - helped the squad overcome the loss of two starters who were sidelined by injuries. Javon Freeman-Liberty poured in 25 points and eight rebounds to lead the way, while John Kiser had a career-high 12 points to go along with eight boards. That duo was joined in double figures by Donovan Clay (18), Eron Gordon (12) and Mileek McMillan (11).

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (64-53) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Series Notes: Valpo will look to repeat the success it had in its most recent trip to Springfield after going on the road and besting the Bears in a one-sided affair 82-66 on Jan. 5, 2019. Missouri State returned the favor by coming into the Athletics-Recreation Center and earning a 55-54 overtime victory in the second meeting of the year on Jan. 29. Valpo is 1-4 against Missouri State since joining the Missouri Valley Conference including a season-ending 83-79 setback on March 1, 2018 at the MVC Tournament in St. Louis. The Brown & Gold hold an 8-18 record in an all-time set with Missouri State (previously known as Southwest Missouri State) that dates all the way back to the 1966-67 campaign.

Comeback Kids: Valpo continued its trend of erasing significant deficits in the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18 at the ARC. The hosts trailed by 11 with 6:12 to go in the first half, but pulled off the team's third victory when behind by 10 points or more this season. It was already the 11th time in Matt Lottich's four-year tenure as the head coach that Valpo has chased by double digits and came away victorious. Valpo has come from double figures down to tie or take the lead seven times this year.

Valpo Versus Preseason Favorites: Valpo enters Thursday seeking its first win over the Missouri Valley Conference preseason favorite since joining the league. Including conference tournament games, Valpo is 0-6 over the last two seasons against the team projected to win The Valley, based on the annual preseason survey of the league's head coaches, media members and sports information directors. The last time Valpo knocked off the preseason favorite in its own conference was March 10, 2015, a 54-44 win over Green Bay in the Horizon League Championship to clinch an NCAA Tournament berth. However, Valpo didn't have an opportunity to upstage the preseason favorite during the program's final two seasons in the Horizon League because the Brown & Gold were picked to win the league in each of those years.

Among the Nation's Elite: Javon Freeman-Liberty is up to seventh nationally in total steals (47), 11th in total points (402), 13th in points per game (21.2) and 13th in steals per game (2.47). He stands alone as the one player in the nation who ranks in the Top 15 in both scoring and steals. Among sophomores, he's fourth in scoring average, third in steals per game, second in total steals and third in total points.

Freeman-Liberty Eyes the Record Book: Javon Freeman-Liberty has already surpassed his season point total from a year ago, when he finished with 364 points, tying for 17th for points by a Missouri Valley Conference freshman since 2000. He is already at 402 points this year after becoming the 11th player in the nation to hit the 400-point threshold for the season on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State. He has an opportunity to finish the year among Valpo's all-time scoring leaders, needing to get to 570 to join the program's single-season Top 10. The sophomore star has already surpassed the 100-steal milestone for his career and finished his freshman season with 60, the most by a rookie in program history and the third-most by any Valpo player. This year he is at 47, just six away from moving into a tie for 10th with Bryce Drew's 1997-98 season on Valpo's single-season steals list.

Points Galore: Valpo improved to 5-0 this season and 27-2 under Matt Lottich when scoring 80 points or more thanks to the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18. The 86 points marked the most Valpo has scored in a Missouri Valley Conference game since joining the league. The field-goal percentage of 50.8 against the Sycamores was Valpo's highest in a Valley game this season. It was Valpo's highest single-game scoring output in conference play since blitzing UIC 96-65 in a Horizon League encounter on Jan. 22, 2017, the same game that saw Alec Peters shatter Bryce Drew's all-time scoring record.

Balanced Attack: Five Valpo players finished in double figures in the Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State, the first time that has occurred against a Division-I opponent since Dec. 2, 2018 vs. UC Riverside. Valpo has had four or more players finish in double figures in each of the last two games.

Kiser Cracks Double Figures: Senior John Kiser has accomplished a lot along his journey from walk-on to key player, but one threshold he hadn't cracked before the Jan. 18 matchup with Indiana State was scoring double figures in a game. He had previously reached nine on six occasions, but made it into double figures with a career-high 12 points while sharing the team lead with eight rebounds in the home victory over the Sycamores.

The Stripe a Key: The team's success in the win column has been tied closely with its success at the free-throw line this season. Valpo is 7-1 when shooting free throws at 70 percent or better, with the only defeat coming in overtime against Cincinnati. Conversely, the team is 2-8 against Division-I opponents when shooting below 70 percent at the foul line. Valpo went 18-of-20 at the charity line in the team's 66-61 victory over Drake on Jan. 11, marking the third time this season and second in a three-game span that the squad has shot free throws at a clip of 90 percent or better.

Switching Starters: Due to the absence of Daniel Sackey and Nick Robinson, Valpo featured a new-look starting lineup on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State. Zion Morgan and Eron Gordon both made their first career starts in the victory over the Sycamores. Despite suffering a cut to the head and playing much of the game with a bandage, Gordon poured in 14 points, his sixth double-figure scoring output of the year. He wore the blood jersey of No. 20 after returning to the court following his cut. Morgan squeezed six rebounds in 18 minutes of work, also handing out a pair of assists and grabbing a steal. The junior college transfer went from a healthy DNP (CD) on Jan. 11 vs. Drake to earning a start a week later. Javon Freeman-Liberty is the only Valpo player who has started all 19 games this season.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Indiana State (Jan. 18)

- The 25 points marked Javon Freeman-Liberty's highest home scoring output of his career. It was the sixth time this year he scored 25 or more points in a game, but the previous five came away from the ARC. It was his 19th consecutive game in double figures and his 11th output of 20 points or more this season.
- Mileek McMillan scored 11 points for the second straight game, entering double figures for the sixth time this season.
- Donovan Clay bounced back from the first scoreless effort of his career on Jan. 15 at UNI by scoring 18 points. The freshman has scored 18 points or more in all three of his Missouri Valley Conference home games.

- Valpo went 12-for-12 from the free-throw line in the second half and 18-of-22 for the game.

- Valpo won the rebounding battle 38-28 but lost the turnover battle 11-7. The hosts scored 21 fastbreak points to Indiana State's five.

Scouting the Bears

- Coming off a 68-58 road win at Evansville on Saturday, Jan. 18 that came on the heels of back-to-back home setbacks against UNI (80-57) and Bradley (91-78).

- Under the direction of second-year head coach Dana Ford, who led his team to a third-place finish in his first year in Springfield.

- Tabbed as the preseason favorite to win the Missouri Valley Conference, collecting 29 first-place votes.

- Tulio Da Silva was named to the MVC Preseason First Team, Keandre Cook to the second team and Gaije Penn and Lamont West to the third team.

- Led in scoring by Cook at 15.0 points per game, while Da Silva leads the team at 7.3 rebounds per contest.

Matchup Keys: Valpo will hope to exploit an advantage in the turnover area, as Valpo ranks second in The Valley in turnover margin at +2.26 per game, while the Bears are last in the 10-team league at -2.21 per contest. Valpo ranks second in the league in scoring offense at 74.5 points per game, while Missouri State is eighth at 67.1. A faster tempo may favor Valpo, while a slow pace could work to the Bears' advantage.

The Clay Way: After finishing with five points or fewer in six of his first seven games, Donovan Clay hit his stride. Over the last 12 games, he has finished in double figures nine times, averaging 11.2 points and 4.4 rebounds per game during that stretch while shooting 50 percent (50-of-100).

Watch List: Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the 2019-20 Lou Henson Award midseason Watch List on Jan. 9. The award, named after the former Illinois and New Mexico State head coach, honors the nation's top Division-I mid-major player. Freeman-Liberty is one of 50 players on the midseason watch list.

Swiping and Dishing: Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley Conference in both steals per game (8.5) and assists per game (15.9). The 2005-2006 campaign was the last time Valpo averaged over 16 assists per game, completing the year at 17.7. Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Increased Thievery: Valpo swiped 11 steals in the Jan. 7 game at Southern Illinois, already the seventh game this season with 10 steals or more and the 11th game with nine steals or more. By comparison, the team had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals. As a team, Valpo has 8.5 steals per game, up from 6.1 last season.

Sophomore Showdown: In a battle of two of the Missouri Valley Conference's brightest stars, Javon Freeman-Liberty finished with 28 points to defending conference Freshman of the Year A.J. Green's 29 in UNI's 88-78 victory over Valpo on Jan. 15. However, Freeman-Liberty had the better all-around stat line, pulling down eight rebounds and four steals. It was the sophomore sensation's 18th consecutive double-figure scoring output, his 10th game with 20 points or more and his fourth contest with 28 points or more. He also led the team in rebounds for the first time since Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the game at UNI, as his eight boards marked his highest total since accruing nine in the game against the Bearcats. In addition, he enjoyed his fifth game this season with four steals or more in the battle with the Panthers.

Bench Mob: After Valpo fell behind 17-9 at the 12:47 mark of the first half on Jan. 15 against UNI, head coach Matt Lottich went to the bench, with the quartet of Zion Morgan, Ben Krikke, John Kiser and Eron Gordon replacing 80 percent of the starting lineup and joining Javon Freeman-Liberty on the floor for a key stretch. The new group scored eight straight points to tie the game, capping an 11-0 run. All four players made key contributions in the contest. Morgan dished out five assists to lead the team and match a season high. The JUCO transfer received a healthy DNP on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but responded well with five points, five assists and two steals in the game in Cedar Falls. Krikke had his highest point total against a Division-I opponent with 13. Kiser was second on the team with five rebounds while also hitting a 3, upping his season percentage to 39.4, second on the team. Gordon scored eight points on 4-of-6 shooting before fouling out, finishing the evening with a team-best +8 in the +/- department. Valpo had 29 bench points in the game, its highest total since also receiving 29 bench points in a win over Central Michigan on Dec. 8. Those two games tied for Valpo's highest bench-point total against a Division-I opponent this season.

Other Tidbits Wrapping Up UNI (Jan. 15)

- Valpo had just two turnovers in the first half and finished with 11 for the game, winning the turnover battle 14-11.

- Valpo attempted just six free throws, its third game this year with fewer than 10 attempts (all losses). UNI went 16-of-19 at the stripe, as the 84.2 percent marked the highest free-throw percentage by a Valpo opponent with more than five attempts this season.

- Valpo shot 49.2 percent from the field, its highest shooting percentage since a victory at High Point on Dec. 18. However, the Panthers shot 57.7 percent, the highest shooting percentage by a Valpo opponent since a loss at Eastern Michigan back on Dec. 3.

- Despite battling an illness leading into the game and missing morning shootaround, sophomore Daniel Sackey had 10 points, his first double-figure output since Dec. 18 at High Point and his fourth of the season.

- Ben Krikke's 13 points marked his fourth time in double figures during his freshman campaign. He went 3-of-5 from 3-point distance after entering the evening at 3-of-14 from 3-point range all season.
- Mileek McMillan had 11 points, hitting double figures for the fifth time this year.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty (28) led the team in scoring for the 13th time this season and set the pace in rebounding (8) for the fifth time.
- Valpo dropped to 0-14 all-time in games at UNI.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo held Drake to 2-of-20 from behind the 3-point arc (10 percent) on Jan. 11, the team's second-best performance this season in terms of 3-point defense behind a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan where the Chippewas went just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent). That Central Michigan team had previously made at least four 3s in every game this season, and that was Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015 (Milwaukee 1-of-17, 5.9 percent). Drake's two made 3s on Jan. 13 at the ARC was the team's lowest total since Feb. 17, 2015.

Finding a Way to Win: Valpo shot just 33.3 percent on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but did enough right to withstand a cold shooting performance in a 66-61 victory. The game marked Valpo's lowest shooting percentage in a victory since beating UIC 64-58 on Jan. 21, 2010 despite a 32.1 percent shooting clip. The 66 points were the fewest by Valpo in a victory this season. Valpo was previously 0-5 this year when scoring fewer than 70 points.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of Tuesday's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Wrapping Up Jan. 11 vs. Drake

- After scoring a career-high 21 in Valpo's first MVC home game, freshman Donovan Clay followed with an 18-point effort in the second home conference contest of the campaign. He has led the team in scoring twice this season, the aforementioned MVC home games against Drake and Loyola.

- Clay went 7-of-7 at the free-throw line, becoming the second Valpo player to go perfect at the stripe with at least seven attempts this season, joining Nick Robinson's 8-for-8 on Nov. 12 at SIUE. Clay entered the game against Drake just 4-of-13 at the free-throw line this season.

- Clay also squeezed a team-high seven rebounds, his third straight game with seven boards or more.

- Javon Freeman-Liberty dished out a team-best five assists to go along with 15 points and five rebounds. It was his 17th straight double-figure scoring effort, and he also has nine games of 20 points or more.

- John Kiser and Mileek McMillan had three steals apiece. McMillan's figure marked a career high, while Kiser matched a personal best and turned in his second-straight three-steal effort.

- Valpo held Drake to just two made 3s, the program's fewest in a game in five years.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before Saturday.

Working Overtime: The Jan. 4 game at Evansville was Valpo's second overtime affair of the season and first victory. The squad came out on the wrong end of an 81-77 decision vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands on Nov. 25. The win over the Aces snapped a three-game OT losing streak that also included home defeats to Indiana State and Missouri State last season and dated back to a 75-70 OT victory over SIUE at the ARC on Nov. 21, 2018. Jan. 4 at Evansville was Valpo's first OT affair in a true road game since Feb. 26, 2016, an 80-76 win at Milwaukee in the final year of Bryce Drew's head coaching tenure.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).

- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.

- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.

- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.

- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993. In addition, he is attempting to become the first play to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.

- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Clay Has a Day: The moment didn't appear too large for freshman Donovan Clay as he played in his first Missouri Valley Conference game on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola. He knocked down all eight of his field-goal attempts while also going 4-for-4 from 3-point distance. In addition to producing a career-high 21 points, Clay became the first Valpo player to go unblemished from 3-point distance with more than three attempts since Alec Peters also went 4-for-4 on Jan. 18, 2016 at Youngstown State. Clay became the first MVC player to have eight or more shot attempts without a miss this season and the fourth with four or more 3-point tries without a misfire. The last MVC player to go 8-for-8 or better from the field was Sean Lloyd on Feb. 27, 2019 at Evansville. Clay became the first Valpo player to go perfect from the field with eight or more attempts since Zoran Viskovic went 8-for-8 at Youngstown State on Feb. 19, 1998 and 11-for-11 at Chicago State on Jan. 31, 1998. Clay's 21 points were the most by a Valpo player in a conference opener since Tevonn Walker started Horizon League action with a 23-point effort on Dec. 30, 2016 at UIC.

Putting Up Points: Valpo finished the nonconference schedule with a scoring average of 76.3, the team's highest nonconference scoring average since entering the 2013-14 league slate at 77.1. The team currently sits at 75.4 points per game, up from 66.8 a year ago.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

Gordon Going Off: Redshirt junior Eron Gordon had the first 20-point output of his career on Dec. 18 at High Point, going 7-of-9 from the field and 6-of-8 from 3-point distance in the process. He became just the sixth Missouri Valley Conference player to net six treys in a single game this season and the first Valpo player with more than four in a contest in 2019-20. Ryan Fazekas was the most recent Valpo player to knock down six 3s in a game, as he did so on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State.

Sackey Set-ups: Daniel Sackey set up his teammates nicely on Dec. 18, giving out a career-high nine assists in the win over High Point. He also had 11 points, went 6-of-8 at the foul line and drew six fouls in the road victory. Perhaps most impressive of all, Sackey's nine assists came opposite zero turnovers. He became just the fifth different Missouri Valley Conference player with a nine-assist outing this season and in total it marked the seventh nine-assist game by a Valley player in 2019-20. Sackey now has three games with eight assists or more this year, joining Bradley's Darrell Brown as the only players in The Valley with three such outings. In the win over High Point, Sackey became the first Missouri Valley Conference player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game this season. This is the second straight season Valpo has had a player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game, as Deion Lavender had 10 assists and no turnovers on Nov. 24, 2018 at West Virginia.

Comebacks, Revisited: Seven times this season Valpo has trailed by double figures and come back to tie or take the lead. On three of those occasions, the Brown & Gold sealed the deal and won the game.

- Valpo trailed by 11 in the first half on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State before coming back to win 86-77.
- Valpo faced an early 18-5 deficit at Arkansas (in North Little Rock, Ark.) on Dec. 21 and battled back to take an eight-point lead over the Razorbacks with 7:27 to play before falling 72-68.
- Valpo faced a 10-point halftime deficit on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan and chased by as many as 12 before coming back to take a 66-60 lead with 7:23 to go. The Eagles eventually prevailed 85-79.
- Valpo rallied from 12 down with 10:12 to play to force overtime in an eventual 81-77 defeat to Cincinnati on Nov. 25 in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam.

- On Nov. 12 at SIUE, Valpo was down by 10 with 13:00 minutes to play in the opening half before winning by 13. That marked the first time Valpo had come from down by double figures to win by double figures since Feb. 17, 2018, a 77-64 victory over Bradley.

- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.

- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 11 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

November Success: Valpo finished the month of November with a 5-3 record, continuing a tradition of strong starts to seasons. November has been Valpo's best month under head coach Matt Lottich, as the team owns a 24-7 (.774) November mark through the first four years of his tenure. This marked the 10th straight season Valpo has had a winning record in November, as the team has compiled a 56-19 (.747) November record over the last decade.

Working Overtime: The Paradise Jam third-place game on Nov. 25 marked Valpo's first overtime affair since an 87-82 setback to Indiana State on Feb. 13 at the ARC last season. Valpo has lost each of its last three overtime games.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.

- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.

- Grand Canyon (Nov. 22) went 20-14 overall and 10-6 in the WAC last season, qualifying for the postseason with a CBI berth. The Lopes have reached the WAC title game and qualified for the postseason in each of their first two years as a Division-I postseason eligible team.

- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.

- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.

- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University of Quebec (81-68).

- Valpo battled from 90-80 down with 4:56 to play to top Concordia 94-90 in Montreal on Aug. 11 thanks to a game-closing 14-0 run.

- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.

- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.

- The Sackey buzzer-beater was No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening.

- Javon Freeman-Liberty scored a team-high 18.8 points per game during the Canada journey, while Donovan Clay and Mileek McMillan shared the team lead by averaging 5.3 boards apiece. Sackey averaged 15.0 points per game during the trip.

Preseason Picks

- Javon Freeman-Liberty and Ryan Fazekas both earned All-MVC Second Team honors.

- They joined Tevonn Walker (2017) as the only Valpo players to be tabbed preseason all-MVC since joining the conference.

- The last time Valpo had multiple players on the preseason all-league first or second teams in the same season was 2016, when Alec Peters and Shane Hammink were first and second team Horizon League preseason picks, respectively.

- Valpo was picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll, based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and media. Missouri State was named the preseason favorite.

Wrapping Up 2018-2019

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004
64-53 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
