Illinois State (7-14, 2-7 MVC)

at Valparaiso (11-11, 4-5 MVC)

Game No. 23 - Saturday, Feb. 1 - 7 p.m. CT

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) - Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team will begin a home-heavy stretch on Saturday night as Illinois State comes to the Athletics-Recreation Center. This will mark the first meeting of the year between the two teams as Illinois State enters the weekend as the final Missouri Valley Conference squad that Valpo has not yet played. This will start a stretch where Valpo plays three of four at home for the first time all season.

Last Time Out: Valpo is coming off an 80-69 defeat at the hands of Bradley on Wednesday night in Peoria. The defending MVC Tournament champion Braves shot 52.9 percent from the field on their way to improving their home record to 12-1. Valpo fought from 17 down with 12:21 to play to pull to within two with 3:38 to go, but the Braves scored 10 straight points after the final media timeout to up the lead back to 12. Javon Freeman-Liberty led the way with 21 points, Ryan Fazekas nailed four 3s and scored 14 points and Donovan Clay poured in 13 of his 15 points after halftime.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (65-55) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Trading Ws and Ls: Although eventually hoping to buck this trend, Valpo enters Saturday shooting to continue its pattern of trading off wins and losses this season. The team has not lost back-to-back games or won back-to-back games in Valley play through the first nine contests, with the Brown & Gold consistently bouncing back and forth between a game under .500 and the .500 mark in league play. This is the first time since at least 1982, when Valpo joined the Association of Mid-Continent Universities, that the team has not had back-to-back wins or back-to-back losses in the first nine games of the conference slate.

Turnover Trends: Valpo won the turnover battle 18-10 on Jan. 29 at Bradley and has turned the ball over 10 times or fewer in consecutive games for the first time all season after a season-low eight turnovers on Jan. 26 vs. Evansville. The game against the Braves marked the team's best turnover margin since Nov. 17 and Nov. 22, when Valpo won the turnover battle against North Dakota by nine and Grand Canyon by eight. The eight-turnover advantage against Bradley tied with a game against Indiana State on Jan. 31, 2018 for Valpo's best turnover margin in league play since joining the MVC.

Increased Thievery: Valpo swiped 10 steals in the Jan. 29 game at Bradley, already the team's eighth game this season with 10 steals or more and the 15th game with nine steals or more. By comparison, the team had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals. As a team, Valpo has 8.4 steals per game, up from 6.1 last season.

Unpack the Suitcase: By hosting Illinois State on Saturday and UNI on Wednesday, Valpo will play back-to-back home games for the first time all season. This will be the first time in the history of Valpo basketball, going all the way back to the first season on record in 1917, where the team has not played back-to-back home games until after the calendar flipped to February.

Home Cooking: Valpo clinched a winning record at home by improving to 7-1 at the Athletics-Recreation Center with Sunday's victory over Evansville. Valpo hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending the streak to 28 seasons with Sunday's win. This is the fifth time in the last six seasons that Valpo has been 7-1 or better through the first eight home games. The home success this year includes two victories over Mid-American Conference teams that qualified for postseason tournaments a year ago in Toledo and Central Michigan. Valpo got off to a 4-0 home start for the fourth time in five years. Valpo is 307-72 (.810) at the ARC over the last 24 years.

Series Notes: Valpo and Illinois State have met just 15 times ever, with Illinois State holding an 8-7 edge. Prior to Valpo's arrival in the Missouri Valley Conference, the two teams hadn't squared off since 1981. Valpo has won three of four over the Redbirds since joining The Valley, including a season sweep a year ago. The last ARC meeting was the memorable 58-56 victory on Jan. 2, 2019 when Markus Golder hit a half-court buzzer beater to seal the comeback after Valpo faced a 10-point deficit with less than two minutes remaining. The Brown & Gold followed that up by going into Redbird Arena and recording a 69-53 win on Feb. 5.

Scouting the Redbirds

- Picked to finish seventh in the MVC preseason poll.
- Zach Copeland was a third-team preseason all-MVC selection. He leads the team in scoring at 15.5 points per game and is shooting 41.3 percent from 3-point range. He ranks fifth in the league in scoring and third with 2.7 made 3s per game.
- Started the Valley season with a surprising 76-70 upset vs. UNI, then dropped seven straight games.
- Losing streak ended with a 77-66 home victory over Evansville on Wednesday. Five Redbirds finished in double figures, including Jaycee Hillsman's season-high 20-point output.
- Under the direction of head coach Dan Muller, who has been in charge of the program since the 2012-2013 season. He was named the 2017 MVC Coach of the Year.

Among the Nation's Elite: Javon Freeman-Liberty ranks 20th nationally in points per game at 20.3, 23rd in steals per game at 2.23, 12th in field goals made (162), sixth in field goal attempts (376) and 11th in total steals (49). Among sophomores, he's fourth in the nation in scoring and third in steals. Freeman-Liberty and N.C. Central's Jibri Blount are the only two players in the Top 25 nationally in both scoring and steals.

Freeman-Liberty Eyes the Record Book: Currently at 446 points, Javon Freeman-Liberty has an opportunity to finish the year among Valpo's all-time scoring leaders, needing to get to 570 to join the program's single-season Top 10. He finished his freshman season with 60 steals, the most by a rookie in program history and the third-most by any Valpo player. This year he is at 49, just four away from moving into a tie for 10th with Bryce Drew's 1997-98 season on Valpo's single-season steals list.

Swiping and Dishing: Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley Conference in steals at 8.4 steals per game and ranks second in assists at 15.3 per contest. Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Notes Wrapping Up Bradley (Jan. 29)

- John Kiser had a career-high four steals after previously swiping three on three occasions.
- Valpo reached double-figure steals for the eighth time this season with 10.
- The home team has won all eight meetings in the all-time series between Valpo and Bradley.
- The 11-point defeat showed progress from last year's 25-point loss in Peoria.

Forever Valpo Professor of the Game - Nina Corazzo: Dr. Corazzo is a professor of art and is currently the Walter Bauer Professor of Art History. She has been a member of the Valpo faculty since 1987. In addition to teaching art history, Professor Corazzo also teaches in the gender studies program and serves on the administrative committee for Modern European Studies.

Close Calls: Valpo secured the season sweep of Evansville on Jan. 26, notching its second straight two-point victory over the Purple Aces. This marks the first time the Brown & Gold have played two games in one season against the same opponent both decided by two points or fewer since 2010-11, when the team lost by one point and two points to Green Bay. This marks the first time Valpo has won three or more regular season games by two points or fewer in the same year since 2012-13, though the team had three such victories in 2015-16 counting a postseason win over BYU. Three straight meetings between Valpo and Evansville have been decided by exactly two points. Before last year's regular season finale that saw Evansville prevail 65-63, the two teams had not played a game decided by two points or fewer since 1974 despite the fact that 32 meetings had taken place since.

Heating Up: Mileek McMillan scored in double figures in four straight games after doing so just three times over the first 16 games of the year. His 16-point effort to tie a career high on Jan. 26 vs. Evansville capped his double-figure streak. He averaged 12.5 points per game over those four outings. McMillan had scored in double figures just four times over the first 68 games of his career before doing so in four straight games. The junior led Valpo in scoring in back-to-back games after not doing so in any of his first 70 career games.

Wrapping Up Evansville (Jan. 26)

- McMillan reached 16 points for the second time in his career, matching his personal best set on Nov. 17 of this season vs. North Dakota. He equaled a career high with three blocks, a mark also reached on Dec. 30 of this season vs. Loyola.
- Freeman-Liberty finished in double figures for the 21st straight game, scoring 12 points. He did the bulk of his damage at the foul line, where he was 8-of-11. That set a career high for made free throws, besting his previous mark of seven established in Valpo's previous home game, Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State. He joined Nick Robinson (Nov. 12 at SIUE) as the only Valpo players with eight made free throws in a game this season.
- Sackey hit double figures for the third straight game with his 12-point performance. That marked his highest scoring output since also scoring a dozen back on Nov. 22 vs. Grand Canyon.
- Freeman-Liberty and Clay had seven rebounds apiece to lead the team, while Freeman-Liberty handed out a team-best four assists. It was the fifth time in conference play Clay has held or shared the team lead in rebounds after he did so just once during the nonconference season (Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian).
- It was Valpo's eighth game decided by five points or fewer, allowing the team to move to 5-3 in such contests.
- It marked the fifth time this season and third in MVC play Valpo has held the opponent to 65 points or fewer. The 67 points were the second fewest Valpo has scored in a victory this season, behind 66 vs. Drake.

Lofting Up Treys: Valpo had 39 3-point attempts in the Jan. 23 game at Missouri State, tying for the fifth most in a single game in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. It was the most 3-point attempts by a Valpo team since at least the 1989-90 season and the most by any Valley team since Drake tossed up 42 3-point attempts against Western Kentucky on March 21, 2008. Before that, no Valley squad had jacked up 39 or more treys since Jan. 27, 1999 when Drake did so against Missouri State. In addition, the 39 attempts tied for the most by a Valley team in a league-only game.

The JQH Arena Arc: The last two times Valpo teams have played in JQH Arena, there has been no shortage of attempts from 3-point distance. The Valpo women set the arena record for 3-point tries with 40 on Jan. 27 of last season before the Valpo men set a men's arena record with 39 attempts on Jan. 23 of this season in Springfield.

Ryan Returns: Valpo senior Ryan Fazekas returned from his wrist injury on Jan. 23 at Missouri State, coming back after being sidelined for 17 games. In his first game back, he scored six points by knocking down a pair of 3s before fouling out. Prior to the return against the Bears, Fazekas had played in just 22 of 52 games over the last two seasons while battling various ailments.

Strong Second Halves: Valpo outscored Missouri State by 13 in the second half on Jan. 23, statistically the team's best half in conference play this season. That was the second straight second half that has gone well for Valpo, which outscored Indiana State 54-42 after the break on Jan. 18. Over those two games, the Brown and Gold outscored the opponent by a combined count of 98-73 in the second half.

Comeback Kids: Valpo continued its trend of erasing significant deficits in the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18 at the ARC. The hosts trailed by 11 with 6:12 to go in the first half, but pulled off the team's third victory when behind by 10 points or more this season. It was already the 11th time in Matt Lottich's four-year tenure as the head coach that Valpo has chased by double digits and came away victorious. Valpo has come from double figures down to tie or take the lead seven times this year.

Points Galore: Valpo improved to 5-0 this season and 27-2 under Matt Lottich when scoring 80 points or more thanks to the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18. The 86 points marked the most Valpo has scored in a Missouri Valley Conference game since joining the league. The field-goal percentage of 50.8 against the Sycamores was Valpo's highest in a Valley game this season. It was Valpo's highest single-game scoring output in conference play since blitzing UIC 96-65 in a Horizon League encounter on Jan. 22, 2017, the same game that saw Alec Peters shatter Bryce Drew's all-time scoring record.

Balanced Attack: Five Valpo players finished in double figures in the Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State, the first time that has occurred against a Division-I opponent since Dec. 2, 2018 vs. UC Riverside. Valpo has had four or more players finish in double figures in each of the last two games.

Sophomore Showdown: In a battle of two of the Missouri Valley Conference's brightest stars, Javon Freeman-Liberty finished with 28 points to defending conference Freshman of the Year A.J. Green's 29 in UNI's 88-78 victory over Valpo on Jan. 15. However, Freeman-Liberty had the better all-around stat line, pulling down eight rebounds and four steals. It was the sophomore sensation's 18th consecutive double-figure scoring output, his 10th game with 20 points or more and his fourth contest with 28 points or more. He also led the team in rebounds for the first time since Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the game at UNI, as his eight boards marked his highest total since accruing nine in the game against the Bearcats. In addition, he enjoyed his fifth game this season with four steals or more in the battle with the Panthers.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo held Drake to 2-of-20 from behind the 3-point arc (10 percent) on Jan. 11, the team's second-best performance this season in terms of 3-point defense behind a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan where the Chippewas went just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent). That Central Michigan team had previously made at least four 3s in every game this season, and that was Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015 (Milwaukee 1-of-17, 5.9 percent). Drake's two made 3s on Jan. 13 at the ARC was the team's lowest total since Feb. 17, 2015.

Finding a Way to Win: Valpo shot just 33.3 percent on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but did enough right to withstand a cold shooting performance in a 66-61 victory. The game marked Valpo's lowest shooting percentage in a victory since beating UIC 64-58 on Jan. 21, 2010 despite a 32.1 percent shooting clip. The 66 points were the fewest by Valpo in a victory this season. Valpo was previously 0-5 this year when scoring fewer than 70 points.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of Tuesday's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before Saturday.

Working Overtime: The Jan. 4 game at Evansville was Valpo's second overtime affair of the season and first victory. The squad came out on the wrong end of an 81-77 decision vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands on Nov. 25. The win over the Aces snapped a three-game OT losing streak that also included home defeats to Indiana State and Missouri State last season and dated back to a 75-70 OT victory over SIUE at the ARC on Nov. 21, 2018. Jan. 4 at Evansville was Valpo's first OT affair in a true road game since Feb. 26, 2016, an 80-76 win at Milwaukee in the final year of Bryce Drew's head coaching tenure.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).
- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.
- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.
- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.
- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993. In addition, he is attempting to become the first play to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.

- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 11 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

November Success: Valpo finished the month of November with a 5-3 record, continuing a tradition of strong starts to seasons. November has been Valpo's best month under head coach Matt Lottich, as the team owns a 24-7 (.774) November mark through the first four years of his tenure. This marked the 10th straight season Valpo has had a winning record in November, as the team has compiled a 56-19 (.747) November record over the last decade.

2014-15: 7-1

2013-14: 5-4

2012-13: 5-1

2011-12: 5-2

2010-11: 4-2

2009-10: 3-4

Working Overtime: The Paradise Jam third-place game on Nov. 25 marked Valpo's first overtime affair since an 87-82 setback to Indiana State on Feb. 13 at the ARC last season. Valpo has lost each of its last three overtime games.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.

Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

65-55 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
