Game No. 26 - Wednesday, Feb. 12 - 7 p.m. CT

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) - Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team will close out a home-heavy stretch by welcoming the surprise team of the year in the Missouri Valley Conference to the Athletics-Recreation Center on Wednesday night. A Southern Illinois squad that was picked to finish last in the preseason poll but is instead competing for the league title under first-year head coach Bryan Mullins will be in town for Wednesday's contest. This will mark Valpo's third home fixture in a four-game span and fourth straight game without a hotel stay.

Last Time Out: Valpo incurred a heart-breaking 70-68 setback on Sunday afternoon at Loyola, coming from down by 14 points with under eight minutes remaining to pull to within two. Four of the team's five starters scored 13 points or more, led by Mileek McMillan's 14 points in only 16 minutes. Nick Robinson handed out a career-high nine assists. Loyola's Cameron Krutwig scored 20 points, helping the Ramblers to 58.7 percent shooting.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (66-57) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Series Notes: Valpo is 5-4 all-time against the Salukis in a series that began in 1929. Valpo has won three of five over SIU since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, including a pair of tight triumphs a year ago. The Brown & Gold prevailed 65-61 in Carbondale and 55-52 at the ARC in 2018-19. However, Southern Illinois took this year's first meeting between the two teams 63-50 on Jan. 7 in Carbondale. Prior to Valpo's addition to The Valley, the two teams had not faced off since 1980.

Southern Illinois 63, Valpo 50 (Jan. 7): Valpo dropped a road matchup with Southern Illinois 63-50 earlier this season in Carbondale. John Kiser equaled (at the time) career bests in points (nine), rebounds (nine) and steals (three) to account for the team's top individual performance of the evening. The team had 15 offensive rebounds, led by Donovan Clay's six. Clay had nine total boards, establishing a personal watermark. Valpo used a late 10-0 run to cut a 13-point lead to three at 46-43 with 6:44 remaining, but the Salukis pulled away. Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half that checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening. SIU freshman Marcus Domask scored 21 points on 8-of-8 shooting in the first half alone and finished with 23 points.

Scouting the Salukis

- Enter Wednesday's game in second place in the Missouri Valley Conference, one game behind league-leader UNI.
- Coming off an electrifying 68-66 win over Missouri State on Saturday in Carbondale that saw Marcus Domask hit a highly-contested 18-footer at the buzzer to send the team to victory. Barret Benson scored a career-high 24 points as SIU extended its winning streak to seven and came from double figures down to win for the third time in the seven-game span.
- Led in scoring by Marcus Domask, who is averaging 14.8 points per game and 5.3 rebounds per contest. Barret Benson is the team's top rebounder at 5.8 per game.
- Picked to finish 10th in the MVC Preseason Poll, making this a matchup of the teams projected as the bottom two in The Valley. However, both Valpo and SIU are well positioned to exceed preseason expectations.
- First-year head coach Bryan Mullins is a member of the school's Hall of Fame as a player and had been on Porter Moser's Loyola staff since 2013 before taking charge of the Salukis this season.

Stealing a Record Book Spot: Valpo sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty swiped his way into Valpo's all-time Top 10 in steals on Feb. 9 at Loyola. He finished with four steals, one shy of a career high, to up his season total to 56. His performance against the Ramblers allowed him to crack Valpo's all-time Top 10 and climb all the way into a tie for seventh with Stalin Ortiz's 2002-03 season. In the process, Freeman-Liberty bumped Bryce Drew's 1997-98 season (53) from the program's Top 10. Drew was the only player in Valpo's single-season Top 10 in both steals and points. Freeman-Liberty is just seven steals away from tying the program's single-season record, which was set by Lubos Barton (63) in 2001-02.

Freeman-Liberty Eyes 500: Currently at 485 points, Javon Freeman-Liberty has an opportunity to finish the year among Valpo's all-time scoring leaders, needing to get to 570 to join the program's single-season Top 10. He is already in the single-season Top 10 for steals again this season, becoming one of two players in program history with two seasons in the single-season Top 10 for steals. He joins Stalin Ortiz, who had 57 steals in 2001-02 and 56 in 2002-03. He needs 15 points to become the first Valpo player since Alec Peters (2016-17) to surpass 500 points in a season.

Handing Out Helpers: Valpo junior Nick Robinson made his first start since Jan. 15 on Feb. 9 by cracking the starting five for the game at Loyola. He responded by setting up his teammates nicely with a career-high nine assists, matching Daniel Sackey (Dec. 18 at High Point) for the most by a Valpo player in a game this season. Valpo joins UNI as the only two teams in the Missouri Valley Conference with multiple players who own nine-assist efforts in 2019-20. Robinson's nine helpers were the most by a Valpo player in a league game since Micah Bradford had nine on Jan. 13, 2018 at UNI.

Connecting from Distance: Valpo bounced back from a season-low 13 percent shooting night from 3-point range on Feb. 5 against UNI by connecting on 45.8 percent of its shots from distance on Feb. 9 at Loyola. That was the highest 3-point shooting percentage by the Brown & Gold since an overtime win at Evansville on Jan. 4. Sunday also marked Valpo's most made 3s in a game (11) since the aforementioned contest at the Ford Center (12). Valpo made more than 10 3s in a regulation Valley game for the first time since Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State (12). Prior to the game at Loyola, Valpo had won five straight games when making more than 10 3-pointers dating back to Jan. 24, 2018 vs. Evansville.

McMillan Has Range: Mileek McMillan nailed a career-high four 3s on Sunday at Loyola on his way to a team-high 14 points despite playing only 16 minutes. He knocked in multiple 3s in a game for the sixth time this year, all in conference play. The Valpo forward has hit multiple triples in six of his last 11 games after not doing so at all in his first 13 games of the season.

Home Cooking: Valpo incurred just its second home setback of the season on Feb. 5 vs. UNI, dropping to 8-2. Valpo is 308-73 (.808) at the ARC for the last 24 years. The team's 63-51 loss to the Panthers marked its largest margin of defeat on its home floor since Dec. 17, 2018, a 77-61 loss to Ball State. Valpo had last lost a home conference game by 12 or more on Jan. 21, 2018 vs. Loyola.

Tight Battles: Valpo fell to 5-4 in games decided by five points or fewer with the two-point setback at Loyola on Feb. 9. It was Valpo's fifth game of the season decided by three points or fewer and fourth decided by two points or fewer. Valpo is 3-2 this year in games decided by three points or fewer, with both losses coming against the Ramblers.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Loyola (Feb. 9)

- Donovan Clay dunked for the second straight game, lifting his season total to 10. He joins Javon Freeman-Liberty (12) as Valpo players with a double-figure dunk total this year.
- Nick Robinson returned to the starting lineup for the first time since Jan. 15, and Daniel Sackey came off the bench for the first time this season.
- Mileek McMillan finished with a team-high 14 points, leading the team in scoring for the third time in the last six games. Before this six-game stretch, McMillan hadn't led the team in scoring in his collegiate career.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty finished with 13 points, his 25th straight game scoring in double figures.
- Loyola extended its head-to-head winning streak against Valpo to seven, but this was the closest matchup between the two teams since Valpo joined The Valley. The Ramblers won 71-54 in last year's Gentile Arena meeting. This year, both regular season matchups were dictated by three points or fewer.
- After entering the game averaging a league-low 11.2 turnovers per game in conference play, Valpo gave it away 17 times, the team's most in Valley play this year.
- Valpo has incurred back-to-back losses for the first time in conference play. The team had traded off wins and losses through the first 11 MVC games, the first time since at least 1982 when Valpo joined the Associated of Mid-Continent Universities that Valpo did not have consecutive wins or consecutive losses in the first 11 league contests.

Unpack the Suitcase: By hosting Illinois State on Feb. 1 and UNI on Feb. 5, Valpo played back-to-back home games for the first time all season. This was the first time in the history of Valpo basketball, going all the way back to the first season on record in 1917, where the team has not played back-to-back home games until after the calendar flipped to February. The Feb. 12 game against Southern Illinois will mark Valpo's fourth straight game without a hotel stay.

A Burst Off the Bench: Valpo outscored Illinois State 36-13 in bench points on Feb. 1, a 23-point surplus in that area that marked Valpo's largest of the season against a Division-I opponent. The 36 points off the bench were also the most this year for the Brown & Gold in a DI game. Valpo has been outscored in bench points just twice through the first 12 Missouri Valley Conference contests, both games against Loyola. The 36 bench points against the Redbirds were Valpo's most in a Division-I game since Jan. 13, 2018 when the team had 37 in an 81-76 loss to UNI.

Lock Down D: Easily lost on a night that featured a disappointing outcome, Valpo played well enough to win on the defensive end in the 63-51 setback vs. UNI on Feb. 5. The 63 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo in the last seven games and tied with the Jan. 7 game at Southern Illinois for the fewest allowed in a defeat this season. Valpo held UNI to just 37.7 percent shooting, the fourth time this season and the second straight game Valpo has limited the opponent under 40 percent from the field. Coincidentally, Valpo has held each of its last two opponents (Illinois State and UNI) to exactly 23-of-61 (37.7 percent) shooting. The shooting percentage of 37.7 was UNI's lowest in the last nine games and the team's third-lowest clip of the season. The 63 points was the lowest total for the Panthers since a 60-55 loss to West Virginia on Nov. 26. Only West Virginia, Old Dominion and Valpo have held UNI to 63 points or fewer in a game this season. The squad entered Wednesday averaging 77.4 points per game. This is the first time Valpo has held the opponent under 40 percent shooting in back-to-back games since Jan. 8, 2019 (vs. Bradley) and Jan. 12, 2019 (at Southern Illinois).

Over 80, Sub 60: Valpo reached the 80-point threshold for the sixth time this season in the 80-70 win over Illinois State on Feb. 1. Valpo improved to 6-0 this year and 28-2 under Matt Lottich when scoring 80+ points. Conversely, Valpo dropped to 0-4 this season and 2-25 under Lottich when scoring fewer than 60 points with the 63-51 setback vs. UNI on Feb. 5.

Other Notes Wrapping Up UNI (Feb. 5)

- Daniel Sackey had five rebounds and a team-high five assists. It was his highest assist total since handing out nine on Dec. 18 at High Point.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty finished in double figures for the 24th consecutive game, scoring all 14 of his points after halftime. UNI held the league's leading scorer scoreless before the break.
- Valpo limited UNI star AJ Green below his average as he went 7-of-20 shooting and finished with 19 points, 14 of which came after halftime.
- Ryan Fazekas finished in double figures for the second time in the last three games and the third time this season. He missed 17 games with a wrist injury. Fazekas accounted for two of the team's three makes from beyond the 3-point arc.

- The 12-point margin of defeat was Valpo's largest on its home floor since Dec. 17, 2018, a 77-61 loss to Ball State. Valpo last lost a home conference game by 12 or more on Jan. 21, 2018 vs. Loyola.
- Valpo went just 3-of-23 from beyond the arc for a season-low 3-point shooting clip of 13 percent. The team's previous season low was 15.8 percent (3-of-19) vs. Nevada on Nov. 24 in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The game against the Panthers marked Valpo's lowest 3-point percentage since going 2-of-16 (12.5 percent) on Jan. 26, 2019 vs. Drake.

Leading the Way: In back-to-back games on Jan. 29 at Bradley and Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State, Valpo has had the same player hold outright team leadership in points, rebounds and assists. Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to accomplish that feat all season on Jan. 29 at Bradley, turning in a 21-point, seven-rebound, four-assist effort. Freshman Ben Krikke followed that up with a dominant night of his own on Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State, leading the team in points (17), rebounds (eight) and assists (four). Before Freeman-Liberty accomplished the feat against the Braves, the last Valpo player to own the outright team lead in all three categories in a game was Deion Lavender on Nov. 16, 2018 vs. Monmouth, when he had 15, eight and five. Krikke became the first Valpo freshman to solely lead the team in points, rebounds and assists in a game since at least the start of the 1989-90 season.

Increased Thievery: Valpo swiped 10 steals in the Jan. 29 game at Bradley, already the team's eighth game this season with 10 steals or more. The Brown & Gold followed with nine steals on Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State, the team's 15th game this year with nine steals or more. By comparison, Valpo had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals. As a team, Valpo has 8.4 steals per game, up from 6.1 last season. Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley Conference in steals.

Close Calls: Valpo secured the season sweep of Evansville on Jan. 26, notching its second straight two-point victory over the Purple Aces. This marks the first time the Brown & Gold have played two games in one season against the same opponent both decided by two points or fewer since 2010-11, when the team lost by one point and two points to Green Bay. This marks the first time Valpo has won three or more regular season games by two points or fewer in the same year since 2012-13, though the team had three such victories in 2015-16 counting a postseason win over BYU. Three straight meetings between Valpo and Evansville have been decided by exactly two points. Before last year's regular season finale that saw Evansville prevail 65-63, the two teams had not played a game decided by two points or fewer since 1974 despite the fact that 32 meetings had taken place since.

Heating Up: Mileek McMillan scored in double figures in four straight games after doing so just three times over the first 16 games of the year. His 16-point effort to tie a career high on Jan. 26 vs. Evansville capped his double-figure streak. He averaged 12.5 points per game over those four outings. McMillan had scored in double figures just four times over the first 68 games of his career before doing so in four straight games. The junior led Valpo in scoring in back-to-back games after not doing so in any of his first 70 career games.

Lofting Up Treys: Valpo had 39 3-point attempts in the Jan. 23 game at Missouri State, tying for the fifth most in a single game in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. It was the most 3-point attempts by a Valpo team since at least the 1989-90 season and the most by any Valley team since Drake tossed up 42 3-point attempts against Western Kentucky on March 21, 2008. Before that, no Valley squad had jacked up 39 or more treys since Jan. 27, 1999 when Drake did so against Missouri State. In addition, the 39 attempts tied for the most by a Valley team in a league-only game.

The JQH Arena Arc: The last two times Valpo teams have played in JQH Arena, there has been no shortage of attempts from 3-point distance. The Valpo women set the arena record for 3-point tries with 40 on Jan. 27 of last season before the Valpo men set a men's arena record with 39 attempts on Jan. 23 of this season in Springfield.

Ryan Returns: Valpo senior Ryan Fazekas returned from his wrist injury on Jan. 23 at Missouri State, coming back after being sidelined for 17 games. In his first game back, he scored six points by knocking down a pair of 3s before fouling out. Prior to the return against the Bears, Fazekas had played in just 22 of 52 games over the last two seasons while battling various ailments.

Strong Second Halves: Valpo outscored Missouri State by 13 in the second half on Jan. 23, statistically the team's best half in conference play this season. That was the second straight second half that has gone well for Valpo, which outscored Indiana State 54-42 after the break on Jan. 18. Over those two games, the Brown and Gold outscored the opponent by a combined count of 98-73 in the second half.

Comeback Kids: Valpo continued its trend of erasing significant deficits in the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18 at the ARC. The hosts trailed by 11 with 6:12 to go in the first half, but pulled off the team's third victory when behind by 10 points or more this season. It was already the 11th time in Matt Lottich's four-year tenure as the head coach that Valpo has chased by double digits and came away victorious. Valpo has come from double figures down to tie or take the lead seven times this year.

Points Galore: Valpo improved to 5-0 this season and 27-2 under Matt Lottich when scoring 80 points or more thanks to the 86-77 victory over Indiana State on Jan. 18. The 86 points marked the most Valpo has scored in a Missouri Valley Conference game since joining the league. The field-goal percentage of 50.8 against the Sycamores was Valpo's highest in a Valley game this season. It was Valpo's highest single-game scoring output in conference play since blitzing UIC 96-65 in a Horizon League encounter on Jan. 22, 2017, the same game that saw Alec Peters shatter Bryce Drew's all-time scoring record.

Balanced Attack: Five Valpo players finished in double figures in the Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State, the first time that has occurred against a Division-I opponent since Dec. 2, 2018 vs. UC Riverside. Valpo has had four or more players finish in double figures in each of the last two games.

Sophomore Showdown: In a battle of two of the Missouri Valley Conference's brightest stars, Javon Freeman-Liberty finished with 28 points to defending conference Freshman of the Year A.J. Green's 29 in UNI's 88-78 victory over Valpo on Jan. 15. However, Freeman-Liberty had the better all-around stat line, pulling down eight rebounds and four steals. It was the sophomore sensation's 18th consecutive double-figure scoring output, his 10th game with 20 points or more and his fourth contest with 28 points or more. He also led the team in rebounds for the first time since Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the game at UNI, as his eight boards marked his highest total since accruing nine in the game against the Bearcats. In addition, he enjoyed his fifth game this season with four steals or more in the battle with the Panthers.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo held Drake to 2-of-20 from behind the 3-point arc (10 percent) on Jan. 11, the team's second-best performance this season in terms of 3-point defense behind a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan where the Chippewas went just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent). That Central Michigan team had previously made at least four 3s in every game this season, and that was Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015 (Milwaukee 1-of-17, 5.9 percent). Drake's two made 3s on Jan. 13 at the ARC was the team's lowest total since Feb. 17, 2015.

Finding a Way to Win: Valpo shot just 33.3 percent on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but did enough right to withstand a cold shooting performance in a 66-61 victory. The game marked Valpo's lowest shooting percentage in a victory since beating UIC 64-58 on Jan. 21, 2010 despite a 32.1 percent shooting clip. The 66 points were the fewest by Valpo in a victory this season. Valpo was previously 0-5 this year when scoring fewer than 70 points.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of Tuesday's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before Saturday.

Working Overtime: The Jan. 4 game at Evansville was Valpo's second overtime affair of the season and first victory. The squad came out on the wrong end of an 81-77 decision vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands on Nov. 25. The win over the Aces snapped a three-game OT losing streak that also included home defeats to Indiana State and Missouri State last season and dated back to a 75-70 OT victory over SIUE at the ARC on Nov. 21, 2018. Jan. 4 at Evansville was Valpo's first OT affair in a true road game since Feb. 26, 2016, an 80-76 win at Milwaukee in the final year of Bryce Drew's head coaching tenure.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).
- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.
- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.
- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.
- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993. In addition, he is attempting to become the first player to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Putting Up Points: Valpo finished the nonconference schedule with a scoring average of 76.3, the team's highest nonconference scoring average since entering the 2013-14 league slate at 77.1. The team currently sits at 75.4 points per game, up from 66.8 a year ago.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

Comebacks, Revisited: Seven times this season Valpo has trailed by double figures and come back to tie or take the lead. On three of those occasions, the Brown & Gold sealed the deal and won the game.

- Valpo trailed by 11 in the first half on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State before coming back to win 86-77.
- Valpo faced an early 18-5 deficit at Arkansas (in North Little Rock, Ark.) on Dec. 21 and battled back to take an eight-point lead over the Razorbacks with 7:27 to play before falling 72-68.
- Valpo faced a 10-point halftime deficit on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan and chased by as many as 12 before coming back to take a 66-60 lead with 7:23 to go. The Eagles eventually prevailed 85-79.
- Valpo rallied from 12 down with 10:12 to play to force overtime in an eventual 81-77 defeat to Cincinnati on Nov. 25 in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam.
- On Nov. 12 at SIUE, Valpo was down by 10 with 13:00 minutes to play in the opening half before winning by 13. That marked the first time Valpo had come from down by double figures to win by double figures since Feb. 17, 2018, a 77-64 victory over Bradley.
- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.
- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 11 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

November Success: Valpo finished the month of November with a 5-3 record, continuing a tradition of strong starts to seasons. November has been Valpo's best month under head coach Matt

Working Overtime: The Paradise Jam third-place game on Nov. 25 marked Valpo's first overtime affair since an 87-82 setback to Indiana State on Feb. 13 at the ARC last season. Valpo has lost each of its last three overtime games.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.
- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.
- Grand Canyon (Nov. 22) went 20-14 overall and 10-6 in the WAC last season, qualifying for the postseason with a CBI berth. The Lopes have reached the WAC title game and qualified for the postseason in each of their first two years as a Division-I postseason eligible team.
- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.
- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.
- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University of Quebec (81-68).
- Valpo battled from 90-80 down with 4:56 to play to top Concordia 94-90 in Montreal on Aug. 11 thanks to a game-closing 14-0 run.
- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.
- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.
- The Sackey buzzer-beater was No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty scored a team-high 18.8 points per game during the Canada journey, while Donovan Clay and Mileek McMillan shared the team lead by averaging 5.3 boards apiece. Sackey averaged 15.0 points per game during the trip.

Preseason Picks

- Javon Freeman-Liberty and Ryan Fazekas both earned All-MVC Second Team honors.
- They joined Tevonn Walker (2017) as the only Valpo players to be tabbed preseason all-MVC since joining the conference.
- The last time Valpo had multiple players on the preseason all-league first or second teams in the same season was 2016, when Alec Peters and Shane Hammink were first and second team Horizon League preseason picks, respectively.
- Valpo was picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll, based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and media. Missouri State was named the preseason favorite.

Wrapping Up 2018-2019

- Valpo moved up two spots in the standings from Year 1 to Year 2 in the Missouri Valley Conference while also earning its first Arch Madness victory by beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round of the MVC Tournament.

- Valpo allowed 66.3 points per game, ranking 48th of 351 nationally in scoring defense.
- The team finished with 15 victories for the second straight season including nonconference triumphs over UNLV and George Washington. Valpo started 4-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play, but finished the year 15-18 overall and 7-11 in league action.

New Year, New Look

- Valpo has five returning letter winners after seven letter winners departed following the 2018-19 campaign.
- Valpo has 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding back from last season.
- The five returning letter winners are Valpo's fewest since the 2013-14 campaign, when Jordan Coleman, LaVonte Dority, Bobby Capobianco and Vashil Fernandez were the only players back from the previous season.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 18th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to seven postseason berths in the last nine years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He oversees the team's post players.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his second season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018.
- Director of Basketball Operations Jason Karys is in his first season in that capacity, but has been around the program in a variety of roles, spending two years as a graduate assistant, one as a walk-on player and three as a manager.
- Strength & Conditioning Coach Derek Bol is in his eighth season. He is a 2010 graduate of Iowa State.
- Graduate Assistant Peter Funk has taken that role after three years as an undergraduate manager.
- Athletic trainer Ken DeAngelis is in his first season full-time at Valpo after previously earning his master's degree from the University in 2012 while spending two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Tradition of Excellence

- Valpo has 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and four NIT berths in the program's proud history, with the team's postseason success highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen run in 1998.
- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.

- Nine of the team's NCAA appearances have come since 1996.
- Valpo has qualified for the postseason seven times in the last nine years, but enters 2019-20 seeking its first postseason tournament berth since playing in the NIT to conclude the 2016-17 season.

Producing Pros

- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last three years.
- Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey.
- Broekhoff tallied a season-high 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the floor (3-5 3PT) in 22 minutes of action Jan. 5 in a 106-100 loss against Philadelphia. Broekhoff played in 42 games during the 2018-19 season.
- Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.
- Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas - a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA.
- Peters won a championship with CSKA Moscow in Russia in 2018-19. He signed a one-year contract with Anadolu Efes in Turkish BSL on July 9, 2019.
- 2018 Valpo graduate Tevonn Walker plays for Hamburg in German BBL. Walker's classmate Max Joseph signed a contract with Nassjo Basket in Sweden following his time at Valpo.
- 2017 product Jubril Adekoya plays for Carramimbre CBC Valladolid in Spanish LEB Gold.
- Cory Johnson (2011) signed with Penarol in Argentina.
- Keith Carter, who rounded out his Valpo career in 2016, played in the 2019 NBA Summer League with the Oklahoma City Thunder.
- Valpo has now produced 50 pro basketball players over the last 25 years.

#0 Javon Freeman-Liberty, So. (Chicago, Ill.)

- Made a career-high eight free throws in a victory over Evansville on Jan. 26.
- Had the highest home scoring output of his career with a 25-point, eight-rebound night in a Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State. In the process, he became the 11th player in the nation to surpass the 400-point mark this season. He made a career-high seven free throws in that game.
- Already surpassed his season point total from his freshman campaign on Jan. 15 at UNI, turning in a 28-point, eight-rebound, four-steal outing to lead the team in all three categories.

- Named to the Lou Henson Award (mid-major player of the year) Watch List on Jan. 9.

- Made an appearance on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on Jan. 7, checking in at No. 5 thanks to a poster dunk in a game at Southern Illinois.

- Enjoyed his fourth game this season with 25 points or more in an overtime win at Evansville on Jan. 5.

- Had his 14th straight game in double figures with 10 points and a career-high seven assists on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.

- Led Valpo in scoring for the 10th consecutive game against D-I opponents with 21 to go along with seven rebounds, six assists and four steals on Dec. 21 at Arkansas in Little Rock. Tied a career high in assists in that contest.

- Led the team with 22 points despite being limited to 27 minutes due to early foul trouble in a Dec. 18 win at High Point. Put an exclamation point on the victory with a highlight-reel dunk late in the game.

- Poured in a team-high 28 points while equaling a career high with five steals on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan.

- Was named the MVC Player of the Week for the second time in a three-week span on Dec. 2.

- Started the season with seven straight games of 19 points or more, joining Alec Peters (2016-17) as the only Valpo players to accomplish that feat in that last 30 years. Saw that streak snapped when he scored 12 points in just 18 minutes on Nov. 27 vs. NAIA Trinity Christian.

- Averaged 25.0 points and 5.7 rebounds per game during three contests at the Paradise Jam event (Nov. 22-25), earning all-tournament team honors. His success came against three quality teams in Grand Canyon, Nevada and Cincinnati, including a career-high 32 points in an overtime defeat to the Bearcats on Nov. 25.

- Stuffed the stat sheet with 21 points, nine rebounds, four steals and a career-high five assists on Nov. 17 vs. North Dakota.

- Had a career-high 30 points while also pulling down 13 rebounds in a Nov. 12 win at SIUE. He became the second Valpo player in the last 20 seasons with a 30&10 game, joining Alec Peters (six times).

- Scored 14 points in a span of 4 minutes, 23 seconds on Nov. 9 at SLU and finished the game with 19, marking the first sequence of back-to-back games with 19 points or more in his career.

- Started the year with a 19-point, five-rebound effort in a 79-77 victory over Toledo on Nov. 5. That culminated with an off-balance 15 footer with 3.7 seconds left that gave Valpo the lead and the win.

- Member of the 2018-19 MVC All-Freshman Team, 2018-19 MVC All-Defensive Team and 2019-20 MVC Preseason Second Team.

- Finished the 2018-19 season with 60 steals, the third most in single-season program history behind only Lubos Barton in 2001-02 and Scott Anselm in 1988-89.

- Accumulated 364 points in 2018-19, surpassing Bryce Drew's freshman campaign for the fourth-most by a freshman in program history.

- Pulled down 142 rebounds in 2018-19, the fifth-most by a freshman in the history of the program.

- Joined Lubos Barton as one of just two rookies in program history with top five freshman marks in scoring, rebounding and steals.

- Became the first Valpo freshman to lead a conference in one of the five major statistical categories and the first Valpo player since at least 1982 to pace a conference in steals.

- Collects shoes and has over 150 pairs.

#1 Sigurd Lorange, Fr. (Trondheim, Norway)

- Has been out since Jan. 18 with a hip injury.

- Set career highs in points (11) and assists (four) while knocking down four of his six shots and canning three 3s on Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian.

- Made his collegiate debut on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis, then scored his first collegiate basket on Nov. 12 at SIUE, a 3-pointer at the buzzer to end the first half.

- Before coming to Valpo, played for Gimle Basketball in the BLNO, Norway's top professional basketball league.

- Helped lead Gimle to a league runner-up finish, averaging nearly 20 points and better than four assists.

- Averaged 17.8 points, 4.9 rebounds and 3.9 assists per game for Norway at the U18s in 2018.

#2 Zion Morgan, R-Jr. (Chicago, Ill.)

- Scored seven points and pulled down five rebounds in 12 minutes of action in a Feb. 1 win over Illinois State. The point total was his D1 best and matched his overall career high set against Trinity Christian.

- Made his first career start on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State, pulling down six rebounds in just 18 minutes.

- After a healthy DNP in the previous game, responded with five points, two steals and a team-high five assists on Jan. 15 at UNI. That equaled his season high in helpers.

- Pulled down six rebounds on Jan. 7 at Southern Illinois, his second-highest total of the season.

- Grabbed a career-high nine rebounds in only 13 minutes on Dec. 21 at Arkansas, also tossing in four points.

- Pulled down a season-high four rebounds in just 10 minutes in a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan.

- Had season highs in points (seven), assists (five) and steals (four) on Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian.

- Previously played at UNLV (2016-17) and Wabash Valley College (2017-18 & 2018-19), leading the Warriors to a 25-8 record last season.

- Was teammates with Valpo's Nick Robinson at Kenwood Academy in Chicago.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

66-57 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
