Game No. 29 - Saturday, Feb. 22 - 7 p.m. CT

Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) - Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: Another pivotal game in the Missouri Valley Conference standings is on tap for Saturday night at the Athletics-Recreation Center. It's Hall of Fame Night, the penultimate home game of the season and the final weekend home contest of the year. The 2020 Valpo Athletics Hall of Fame Class will be honored at halftime. It's also a crucial game in the Missouri Valley Conference standings as Valpo continues to battle for a first-round bye at Arch Madness.

Last Time Out: Valpo trailed by as many as 19 points before making a furious late rally on Wednesday night at the Knapp Center, forcing overtime in an eventual 77-75 defeat to host Drake. Mileek McMillan poured in a career-high 20 points including six 3s and Javon Freeman-Liberty scored 19, but both fouled out either late in the fourth or in overtime. Drake's Liam Robbins went off for a double-double of 21 points and 12 rebounds. The Bulldogs closed the first half on a 16-0 run and 21-2 spurt, but Valpo had several second-half bursts of its own including an 11-0 run that cut the lead to two.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (68-58) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Series Notes: Valpo will look to extend a trend of home dominance in the all-time series between the two teams. The hosts have won all eight matchups, leading the Braves to a 5-3 all-time edge. The two teams have split the four meetings over Valpo's first two seasons in The Valley before Bradley won the first matchup this year. Valpo had a double-figure victory (61-50) in last year's ARC meeting, led by Javon Freeman-Liberty's 17-point output.

Bradley 80, Valpo 69 (Jan. 29): In the first meeting between the two teams, Valpo incurred an 80-69 defeat in Peoria. The defending MVC Tournament champion Braves shot 52.9 percent from the field on their way to improving their home record to 12-1. Valpo fought from 17 down with 12:21 to play to pull to within two with 3:38 to go, but the Braves scored 10 straight points after the final media timeout to up the lead back to 12. Javon Freeman-Liberty led the way with 21 points, Ryan Fazekas nailed four 3s and scored 14 points and Donovan Clay poured in 13 of his 15 points after halftime.

Home Cooking: Valpo is 309-73 (.809) at the ARC over the last two and a half decades. Valpo hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending the streak to 28 seasons this year. With a win on Saturday over Bradley, Valpo would improve to 10-2 at home, securing a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

Steals Champ: With his first steal of the game with 13:35 remaining in the second half on Feb. 19 at Drake, Valpo sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty became the program's single-season steals king. He snapped a deadlock with Lubos Barton, who finished the 2001-02 season with 63 steals. Freeman-Liberty is now up to 65 steals this year and 125 for his career, 20 away from entering the career Top 10. Freeman-Liberty has a chance to finish among The Valley's all-time leaders for steals in a single season as the threshold for cracking the Top 20 is 76. Freeman-Liberty is in position to become the first player to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.

Sophomore Scoring Record: Javon Freeman-Liberty is up to 543 points for the season, putting him in position to break the Valpo record for points by a sophomore. That mark is currently held by Alec Peters, who scored 570 points in 2014-15. That is also the threshold for entrance into the Top 10 in program history for points in a single season. Freeman-Liberty is at 907 career points, the second most among active Missouri Valley Conference sophomores behind UNI's AJ Green (1,034). If Valpo only plays one game in the MVC Tournament, Freeman-Liberty would need to average 23.3 points per game over the next four games to get to the 1,000-point mark this season, but if Valpo plays at least two games in St. Louis, he could get to 1,000 by hitting his current scoring average for the remainder of the season. Alec Peters is the only player in program history to reach 1,000 points by the end of his sophomore season, doing so in the 2015 NCAA Tournament game against Maryland.

McMillan From Distance: Valpo junior Mileek McMillan scored a career-high 20 points on Feb. 19 at Drake, shattering his previous mark of 16 set on Nov. 17 of this season against North Dakota. He tied Eron Gordon (Dec. 18 at High Point) for the most 3-pointers made by a Valpo player in a game this season by draining six in the overtime defeat to the Bulldogs. McMillan became the first Valpo player to convert a half a dozen 3s in a conference game since Ryan Fazekas on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State. McMillan became just the fourth Missouri Valley Conference player to hit six or more 3s in a league game this season, joining UNI's A.J. Green (three times), Illinois State's Zach Copeland and Bradley's Nate Kennell. McMillan had previously made no more than four 3s in any of his first 88 career games. McMillan entered the season with 32 career made 3s over 101 contests, and now has made 25 3s in 15 games in MVC play. He went 6-of-26 from 3 during the conference slate and is 25-of-57 in league play. He has the most made 3s on the team in Valley action. McMillan has been in double figures in six of the last 11 games.

Tight Battles: Valpo dropped to 6-5 in games decided by five points or fewer with the two-point loss at Drake on Feb. 19. It was Valpo's seventh game of the season decided by three points or fewer, with the team 4-3 in such contests and five decided by two points or fewer. This season marks Valpo's largest number of games decided by three points or fewer since also having seven such contests in 2014-15.

Working Overtime: Valpo played its third overtime game of the season with the 77-75 loss at Drake on Feb. 19 and the team's first extra session since an 81-79 win at Evansville on Jan. 4. Valpo also played OT on Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands, losing 81-77.

In the National Rankings: Freeman-Liberty is ranked in the Top 50 nationally in the following categories: points per game (19.4, 41st), steals per game (2.32, 14th), field goal attempts (447, seventh), field goals made (197, 13th) and total steals (65, seventh). He's seventh among sophomores in points per game and third among sophomores in steals per game.

Sharp Shooter: Ryan Fazekas owns a career 3-point percentage of 44.0, which is the best of any active player in the Missouri Valley Conference (minimum 30 attempts). He has now reached the minimum for career attempts to qualify for the Valpo program record book (150) and is poised to threaten the school record. Samuel Haanpaa (2006-08) owns that mark after finishing his career at 44.5 percent. Fazekas' current percentage would rank second in program history for career 3-point percentage if the season ended today. Bryce Drew (1994-98) and Shawn Huff (2004-08) are currently tied for second at 43.5.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Drake (Feb. 19)

- Ryan Fazekas knocked down four 3s and finished with 14 points, tying his high since returning from injury on Jan. 23 at Missouri State. It was the third time this season he's drained a quartet of treys in a game. He's been in double figures in four of his last seven.
- Mileek McMillan led the team in scoring for the fourth time in the last nine games. Before leading the way on Jan. 23 at Missouri State, he hadn't been the team's leading scorer in any of his 79 career games.
- McMillan became the first Valpo player other than Javon Freeman-Liberty with a 20-point game since Donovan Clay finished with 21 on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.
- Clay scored 15 points to finish in double figures for the fourth time in the last seven games.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty's 19 points allowed him to finish in double figures for the 28th straight game. Alec Peters scored in double figures in the first 29 games of the season during his senior year (2016-17) before having it cut short by an injury, the largest number of consecutive games in double figures by a Valpo player in recent memory.
- Freeman-Liberty led Valpo in assists with six and pulled down seven rebounds, his seventh time in the last eight games with seven boards or more. He also had two steals and tied a career high with two blocked shots, his first multi-block game of the season.
- Drake had 34 free-throw attempts, the most by a Valpo opponent all season, surpassing 31 by Arkansas on Dec. 21. The 34 attempts by the Bulldogs were the second-most in a Valley game this season behind Drake's 42 on Feb. 16 vs. Evansville. It was the most free-throw attempts by a Valpo opponent since UNI had 38 on Jan. 13, 2018.
- Drake outscored Valpo 16-0 on second-chance points.
- Valpo went just 1-of-6 from the field in overtime, shooting 16.7 percent.
- Eron Gordon had five rebounds, tying a season high.

Scouting the Braves

- Coming off an 83-79 overtime win against Missouri State on Wednesday night.
- Carry a four-game winning streak into Saturday's game.

Kennell (12.3) are also averaging in double figures.

- Hold a 15-1 home mark and just a 3-7 road record.
- Won three games all decided by three points or fewer to win Arch Madness last year before dropping an NCAA Tournament matchup with Michigan State 76-65.
- Fifth-year Bradley head coach Brian Wardle is 8-9 all-time against Valpo, including a dozen meetings during his five-year run as the head coach at Green Bay. The most noteworthy of those contests was the Ryan Broekhoff Game on March 9, 2013, a 70-69 Valpo victory in a Horizon League semifinal at the ARC.

Hall of Fame Game

- The 23rd Hall of Fame Class in Valpo history is comprised of Jean Gelner '61 Blievernicht, Chuck Kriston '63 and Sara Strickland '12 Musache.
- A standout on the tennis courts, Blievernicht represented Valpo prior to the formation of women's intercollegiate athletics programs. She represented Valpo at the National Women's Intercollegiate Tennis Championships in St. Louis in 1959, 1960 and 1961, reaching the semifinals of the doubles championship all three years and the semifinals of the singles draw as a senior in 1961.
- Kriston was a tremendous scorer on the hardwood in the early 1960s, closing his time at Valpo as the program's all-time leading scorer with 1,287 career points, a mark that still ranks 18th in program history.
- Musache was a standout on the softball diamond, where she was part of 136 wins over her four years and led the team to a school-record 42 wins in 2012, culminating with the program's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Comeback Kids: Nine times this season Valpo has trailed by double figures and come back to tie or take the lead. On four of those occasions, the Brown & Gold sealed the deal and won the game.

- Valpo was down by as many as 19 and came back to force overtime in an eventual 77-75 defeat at Drake on Feb. 19.
- Valpo trailed by 17 at halftime and came back to beat Illinois State 65-62 on Feb. 15 at Redbird Arena. It was Valpo's largest comeback since coming from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88 on Jan. 17, 2013. It was only the 33rd time in the long history of the Missouri Valley Conference that a Valley team came from down 17 points or more to win. It was the fourth-largest road comeback in conference history.
- Valpo trailed by 11 in the first half on Jan. 18 vs. Indiana State before coming back to win 86-77.
- Valpo faced an early 18-5 deficit at Arkansas (in North Little Rock, Ark.) on Dec. 21 and battled back to take an eight-point lead over the Razorbacks with 7:27 to play before falling 72-68.
- Valpo faced a 10-point halftime deficit on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan and chased by as many as 12 before coming back to take a 66-60 lead with 7:23 to go. The Eagles eventually prevailed 85-79.

- Valpo rallied from 12 down with 10:12 to play to force overtime in an eventual 81-77 defeat to Cincinnati on Nov. 25 in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam.
- On Nov. 12 at SIUE, Valpo was down by 10 with 13:00 minutes to play in the opening half before winning by 13. That marked the first time Valpo had come from down by double figures to win by double figures since Feb. 17, 2018, a 77-64 victory over Bradley.
- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.
- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 12 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Heating Up: After beating Southern Illinois and Illinois State over the past week, Valpo has won back-to-back conference games for the first time this season. This marks Valpo's first set of consecutive wins since rapping off three straight from Nov. 12-22 against SIUE, North Dakota and Grand Canyon. The victory over Illinois State on Saturday allowed Valpo to match its conference win total from last season with four games to spare. One more win will give Valpo its highest conference victory total since joining The Valley.

Another Valley Honor: For his efforts in the Valpo victories over Southern Illinois and Illinois State, Freeman-Liberty was awarded the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week on Feb. 17. He averaged 19.5 points and 7.0 rebounds per game over the two contests leading up to the honor. That marked the third time this season Freeman-Liberty has received MVC Player of the Week honors. The only other player in the league with three or more is UNI's A.J. Green (four). Freeman-Liberty and Green, both sophomores, have combined for seven of the 14 MVC Player of the Week awards this season.

JFL Doing JFL Things: Javon Freeman-Liberty worked his magic on Feb. 15 at Illinois State, propelling the team to the 65-62 victory from 17 points down. He scored 19 of his game-high 25 points after halftime, going 8-of-9 from the field after the break. He finished with a career-high five steals including two in the final 15 seconds while also totaling seven rebounds and three assists. It was Freeman-Liberty's seventh game this season with 25 points or more, his 13th game with 20+ points and his 27th straight game with 10 points or more.

Increased Thievery: Valpo swiped 11 steals in the Feb. 15 game at Illinois State, already the team's ninth game this season with 10 steals or more and 16th with nine steals or more. By comparison, Valpo had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals. As a team, Valpo has 8.3 steals per game, up from 6.1 last season. Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley Conference in steals.

Defense Dominates: The accomplishments of the Valpo defense were numerous in the 55-38 victory over Southern Illinois on Feb. 12 at the Athletics-Recreation Center.

- The 37 points were the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 21, 1984, when Valpo edged Green Bay 35-33. Wednesday set the record for the fewest points allowed by a Valpo team since the advent of the shot clock in 1985-86.

- Valpo's performance tied for 16th in Missouri Valley Conference history since the advent of the shot clock for the fewest points allowed in a conference game.

- The 38 points were the second-fewest scored by the Salukis (15-11, 9-4) in school history since 1950 and the fewest since 36 at Bradley in 1981.

- The 38 points were the fewest scored by any Missouri Valley Conference team this season. The previous low was Loyola's 39 on Feb. 5 at Indiana State. Wednesday marked the lowest point total by a Valley team since Loyola had 35 on Jan. 23, 2019 vs. Missouri State.

- The 38 points also marked the fewest allowed by a Valley team in any game this year and the fewest since the aforementioned outing by Missouri State last season.

- The 13 made baskets by Southern Illinois were the fewest by any MVC team in conference play this season and the second-fewest by any MVC team in any game. The Salukis had just 10 baskets on Dec. 15 at Missouri.

- Valpo became the first MVC team to allow 13 made field goals or fewer in a game this season. Bradley previously topped that chart with just 14 field goals allowed vs. North Carolina A&T on Dec. 7.
- The 23.6 percent shooting was the best defensive performance in terms of field-goal percentage by an MVC team this season. The last Missouri Valley Conference team to hold an opponent to that low of a single-game field goal percentage was Drake on Nov. 8, 2018 vs. Division-III Buena Vista.

- Wednesday's Valpo performance marked the best field-goal percentage defense by any Valley team in a game against a Division-I foe since Wichita State held Cal Poly to 20.7 percent on March 21, 2014. Valpo held SIU to 23.6 percent, the lowest single-game field goal percentage by an MVC team in a conference game since March 2, 2007, when Creighton limited Indiana State to 23.3 percent.

Cruising to Victory: Blowout victories in league play have been hard to come by since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference given the quality of the competition. But the Feb. 12 triumph over Southern Illinois was a rare exception with Valpo rolling to the 55-38 win. The 17-point margin of victory equaled Valpo's largest since joining the conference. The team previously topped Drake 77-60 on Jan. 10, 2018. It was also Valpo's second-largest margin of victory against a Division-I team this year behind a 22-point win over Central Michigan.

Enough to Win: Valpo didn't put on a scoring clinic in the Feb. 12 game against Southern Illinois, but the 55 points were more than enough to emerge victorious. Valpo improved to 1-4 this season and 3-25 under Matt Lottich when scoring fewer than 60 points. Two of the three victories under Lottich when scoring under 60 have come against Southern Illinois at the Athletics-Recreation Center as Valpo beat the Salukis 55-52 last season. The other such win was 58-56 over Illinois State to start conference play last year. Over the last five seasons, Valpo has just two victories when scoring 55 points or fewer, both against Southern Illinois. The last time Valpo prevailed with a lower point total was 54-44 over Green Bay in the 2015 Horizon League Championship to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Setting the Tone: Valpo set the tone for the memorable defensive evening in the first half on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, holding the Salukis to 16 points. Previously, Valpo's best defensive half in conference play this season was allowing 23 points against Evansville and the season low was 22 permitted against Central Michigan. The 16 points were the low for a Valpo opponent in a half since the team held Milwaukee to 16 in the 2017 Horizon League Tournament. (We'll whisper this part: The Panthers led 16-12 at halftime of that game.) The 16 points tied for the fewest allowed by Valpo in a half since March 22, 2016, when the team limited St.

Mary's to 13 points after halftime in an NIT game at the ARC.

Turnaround Talk: Valpo turned a 13-point loss from the Jan. 7 date at Southern Illinois into a 17-point win over the Salukis on Feb. 12. That marked the first time Valpo turned a double-figure defeat from the first meeting into a double-figure win in the second meeting since joining The Valley. The opposite did occur once last season, with Valpo falling by double figures in the second meeting with Bradley and cruising to victory in the first matchup. This marks the first time since the season series with Loyola in 2008-09 where Valpo lost the first game of a conference double-round robin by double figures and turned it around to win the second matchup by double figures.

Handing Out Helpers: Valpo junior Nick Robinson made his first start since Jan. 15 on Feb. 9 by cracking the starting five for the game at Loyola. He responded by setting up his teammates nicely with a career-high nine assists, matching Daniel Sackey (Dec. 18 at High Point) for the most by a Valpo player in a game this season. Valpo joins UNI as the only two teams in the Missouri Valley Conference with multiple players who own nine-assist efforts in 2019-20. Robinson's nine helpers were the most by a Valpo player in a league game since Micah Bradford had nine on Jan. 13, 2018 at UNI.

Connecting from Distance: Valpo bounced back from a season-low 13 percent shooting night from 3-point range on Feb. 5 against UNI by connecting on 45.8 percent of its shots from distance on Feb. 9 at Loyola. That was the highest 3-point shooting percentage by the Brown & Gold since an overtime win at Evansville on Jan. 4. Sunday also marked Valpo's most made 3s in a game (11) since the aforementioned contest at the Ford Center (12). Valpo made more than 10 3s in a regulation Valley game for the first time since Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State (12). Prior to the game at Loyola, Valpo had won five straight games when making more than 10 3-pointers dating back to Jan. 24, 2018 vs. Evansville.

Lock Down D: Easily lost on a night that featured a disappointing outcome, Valpo played well enough to win on the defensive end in the 63-51 setback vs. UNI on Feb. 5. The 63 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo in the last seven games and tied with the Jan. 7 game at Southern Illinois for the fewest allowed in a defeat this season. Valpo held UNI to just 37.7 percent shooting, the fourth time this season and the second straight game Valpo has limited the opponent under 40 percent from the field. Coincidentally, Valpo has held each of its last two opponents (Illinois State and UNI) to exactly 23-of-61 (37.7 percent) shooting. The shooting percentage of 37.7 was UNI's lowest in the last nine games and the team's third-lowest clip of the season. The 63 points was the lowest total for the Panthers since a 60-55 loss to West Virginia on Nov. 26. Only West Virginia, Old Dominion and Valpo have held UNI to 63 points or fewer in a game this season. The squad entered Wednesday averaging 77.4 points per game. This is the first time Valpo has held the opponent under 40 percent shooting in back-to-back games since Jan. 8, 2019 (vs. Bradley) and Jan. 12, 2019 (at Southern Illinois).

Leading the Way: In back-to-back games on Jan. 29 at Bradley and Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State, Valpo has had the same player hold outright team leadership in points, rebounds and assists. Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to accomplish that feat all season on Jan. 29 at Bradley, turning in a 21-point, seven-rebound, four-assist effort. Freshman Ben Krikke followed that up with a dominant night of his own on Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State, leading the team in points (17), rebounds (eight) and assists (four). Before Freeman-Liberty accomplished the feat against the Braves, the last Valpo player to own the outright team lead in all three categories in a game was Deion Lavender on Nov. 16, 2018 vs. Monmouth, when he had 15, eight and five. Krikke became the first Valpo freshman to solely lead the team in points, rebounds and assists in a game since at least the start of the 1989-90 season.

Close Calls: Valpo secured the season sweep of Evansville on Jan.

26, notching its second straight two-point victory over the Purple Aces. This marks the first time the Brown & Gold have played two games in one season against the same opponent both decided by two points or fewer since 2010-11, when the team lost by one point and two points to Green Bay. This marks the first time Valpo has won three or more regular season games by two points or fewer in the same year since 2012-13, though the team had three such victories in 2015-16 counting a postseason win over BYU. Three straight meetings between Valpo and Evansville have been decided by exactly two points. Before last year's regular season finale that saw Evansville prevail 65-63, the two teams had not played a game decided by two points or fewer since 1974 despite the fact that 32 meetings had taken place since.

Lofting Up Treys: Valpo had 39 3-point attempts in the Jan. 23 game at Missouri State, tying for the fifth most in a single game in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. It was the most 3-point attempts by a Valpo team since at least the 1989-90 season and the most by any Valley team since Drake tossed up 42 3-point attempts against Western Kentucky on March 21, 2008. Before that, no Valley squad had jacked up 39 or more treys since Jan. 27, 1999 when Drake did so against Missouri State. In addition, the 39 attempts tied for the most by a Valley team in a league-only game.

The JQH Arena Arc: The last two times Valpo teams have played in JQH Arena, there has been no shortage of attempts from 3-point distance. The Valpo women set the arena record for 3-point tries with 40 on Jan. 27 of last season before the Valpo men set a men's arena record with 39 attempts on Jan. 23 of this season in Springfield.

Ryan Returns: Valpo senior Ryan Fazekas returned from his wrist injury on Jan. 23 at Missouri State, coming back after being sidelined for 17 games. In his first game back, he scored six points by knocking down a pair of 3s before fouling out. Prior to the return against the Bears, Fazekas had played in just 22 of 52 games over the last two seasons while battling various ailments.

Balanced Attack: Five Valpo players finished in double figures in the Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State, the first time that has occurred against a Division-I opponent since Dec. 2, 2018 vs. UC Riverside. Valpo has had four or more players finish in double figures in each of the last two games.

Kiser Cracks Double Figures: Senior John Kiser has accomplished a lot along his journey from walk-on to key player, but one threshold he hadn't cracked before the Jan. 18 matchup with Indiana State was scoring double figures in a game. He had previously reached nine on six occasions, but made it into double figures with a career-high 12 points while sharing the team lead with eight rebounds in the home victory over the Sycamores.

Sophomore Showdown: In a battle of two of the Missouri Valley Conference's brightest stars, Javon Freeman-Liberty finished with 28 points to defending conference Freshman of the Year A.J. Green's 29 in UNI's 88-78 victory over Valpo on Jan. 15. However, Freeman-Liberty had the better all-around stat line, pulling down eight rebounds and four steals. It was the sophomore sensation's 18th consecutive double-figure scoring output, his 10th game with 20 points or more and his fourth contest with 28 points or more. He also led the team in rebounds for the first time since Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the game at UNI, as his eight boards marked his highest total since accruing nine in the game against the Bearcats. In addition, he enjoyed his fifth game this season with four steals or more in the battle with the Panthers.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo held Drake to 2-of-20 from behind the 3-point arc (10 percent) on Jan. 11, the team's second-best performance this season in terms of 3-point defense behind a Dec. 8 victory over Central Michigan where the Chippewas went just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent). That Central Michigan team had previously made at least four 3s in every game this season, and that was Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015 (Milwaukee 1-of-17, 5.9 percent). Drake's two made 3s on Jan. 13 at the ARC was the team's lowest total since Feb. 17, 2015.

Finding a Way to Win: Valpo shot just 33.3 percent on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, but did enough right to withstand a cold shooting performance in a 66-61 victory. The game marked Valpo's lowest shooting percentage in a victory since beating UIC 64-58 on Jan. 21, 2010 despite a 32.1 percent shooting clip. The 66 points were the fewest by Valpo in a victory this season. Valpo was previously 0-5 this year when scoring fewer than 70 points.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of Tuesday's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before Saturday.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).
- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.
- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.
- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.
- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993. In addition, he is attempting to become the first play to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Putting Up Points: Valpo finished the nonconference schedule with a scoring average of 76.3, the team's highest nonconference scoring average since entering the 2013-14 league slate at 77.1. The team currently sits at 75.4 points per game, up from 66.8 a year ago.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.
- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.
- Grand Canyon (Nov. 22) went 20-14 overall and 10-6 in the WAC last season, qualifying for the postseason with a CBI berth. The Lopes have reached the WAC title game and qualified for the postseason in each of their first two years as a Division-I postseason eligible team.
- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.
- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.
- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.
- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University of Quebec (81-68).

- Valpo battled from 90-80 down with 4:56 to play to top Concordia 94-90 in Montreal on Aug. 11 thanks to a game-closing 14-0 run.
- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.
- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.
- The Sackey buzzer-beater was No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty scored a team-high 18.8 points per game during the Canada journey, while Donovan Clay and Mileek McMillan shared the team lead by averaging 5.3 boards apiece. Sackey averaged 15.0 points per game during the trip.

Preseason Picks

- Javon Freeman-Liberty and Ryan Fazekas both earned All-MVC Second Team honors.
- They joined Tevonn Walker (2017) as the only Valpo players to be tabbed preseason all-MVC since joining the conference.
- The last time Valpo had multiple players on the preseason all-league first or second teams in the same season was 2016, when Alec Peters and Shane Hammink were first and second team Horizon League preseason picks, respectively.
- Valpo was picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll, based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and media. Missouri State was named the preseason favorite.

Wrapping Up 2018-2019

- Valpo moved up two spots in the standings from Year 1 to Year 2 in the Missouri Valley Conference while also earning its first Arch Madness victory by beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round of the MVC Tournament.
- Valpo allowed 66.3 points per game, ranking 48th of 351 nationally in scoring defense.
- The team finished with 15 victories for the second straight season including nonconference triumphs over UNLV and George Washington. Valpo started 4-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play, but finished the year 15-18 overall and 7-11 in league action.

New Year, New Look

winners departed following the 2018-19 campaign.

- Valpo has 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding back from last season.
- The five returning letter winners are Valpo's fewest since the 2013-14 campaign, when Jordan Coleman, LaVonte Dority, Bobby Capobianco and Vashil Fernandez were the only players back from the previous season.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 18th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to seven postseason berths in the last nine years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He oversees the team's post players.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his second season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018.
- Director of Basketball Operations Jason Karys is in his first season in that capacity, but has been around the program in a variety of roles, spending two years as a graduate assistant, one as a walk-on player and three as a manager.
- Strength & Conditioning Coach Derek Bol is in his eighth season. He is a 2010 graduate of Iowa State.
- Graduate Assistant Peter Funk has taken that role after three years as an undergraduate manager.
- Athletic trainer Ken DeAngelis is in his first season full-time at Valpo after previously earning his master's degree from the University in 2012 while spending two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.

- Valpo has qualified for the postseason seven times in the last nine years, but enters 2019-20 seeking its first postseason tournament berth since playing in the NIT to conclude the 2016-17 season.

Producing Pros

- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last three years.
- Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey.
- Broekhoff tallied a season-high 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the floor (3-5 3PT) in 22 minutes of action Jan. 5 in a 106-100 loss against Philadelphia. Broekhoff played in 42 games during the 2018-19 season.
- Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.

- Valpo has now produced 50 pro basketball players over the last 25 years.

#0 Javon Freeman-Liberty, So. (Chicago, Ill.)

- Shattered the Valpo record for steals in a single season on Feb. 19 at Drake, grabbing his 64th of the year to shatter the mark set by Lubos Barton in 2001-02. Finished the game with 19 points, a team-high six assists, seven rebounds, two steals and a season-high two blocks before fouling out late in regulation of an overtime defeat.
- Was named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week for the third time this season on Feb. 17.
- Scored 19 points in the second half alone as part of a game-high 25 points in a Feb. 15 victory at Illinois State to help Valpo come from 17 down to win 65-62. He also had seven rebounds, three assists and tied a career high with five steals.
- Made a career-high eight free throws in a victory over Evansville on Jan. 26.
- Had the highest home scoring output of his career with a 25-point, eight-rebound night in a Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State. In the process, he became the 11th player in the nation to surpass the 400-point mark this season. He made a career-high seven free throws in that game.
- Already surpassed his season point total from his freshman

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

68-58 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
