Valparaiso (16-15, 9-9 MVC)

vs. Evansville (9-22, 0-18 MVC)

Game No. 32 – Thursday, March 5 – 8:30 p.m. CT

Enterprise Center (16,502) – St. Louis, Mo.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: After finishing tied for sixth in the regular-season standings and posting its first Missouri Valley Conference record of .500 or better since joining the league, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team will open Arch Madness by battling Evansville on Thursday night in St. Louis. Valpo was edged by Missouri State for the final first-round bye by virtue of the NET tiebreaker. Head coach Matt Lottich's young team (nine of 14 players made their Valpo debuts this season) played its best basketball of the season down the stretch, winning four of five before dropping the regular-season finale at Indiana State with leading scorer Javon Freeman-Liberty sidelined by an illness.

Last Time Out: Going on the road to knock off an Indiana State team that had dropped one home game all season without star sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty was too tall of a task in a 71-58 defeat in the Feb. 29 regular-season finale. Valpo received double-figure efforts from Donovan Clay (11), Daniel Sackey (11) and Ryan Fazekas (10), but the guests never led and trailed by as many as 18 in the contest.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (70-59) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004

Series Notes: Valpo improved to 19-70 all-time against the Purple Aces by sweeping the regular-season series with a pair of tight victories. Valpo snapped a skid of 22 consecutive defeats in games played at Evansville by edging UE 81-79 in overtime on Jan. 4 at the Ford Center. In addition to becoming the first Valpo team to win in Evansville since 1969, Valpo secured its first win over the Aces since joining The Valley and ended a five-game head-to-head losing streak. Valpo has defeated Evansville in back-to-back matchups for the first time since 1952 despite the fact that the two teams have matched up 77 times since. Thursday's game will mark the second neutral-site meeting between the two teams and first since Nov. 28, 1999 at the Hoop and Quill Classic in St. Charles, Mo., a 71-66 Evansville victory.

Jan. 4: Valpo 81, Evansville 79 (OT): Javon Freeman-Liberty scored 19 of his team-high 25 points after halftime, leading four Valpo players in double figures at the Ford Center. The Brown & Gold trailed by eight points with under four minutes to play, but rallied to tie the game at 70 and force the extra session. Eron Gordon (11) and Ben Krikke (10) both reached double figures off the bench, while Donovan Clay (10) made it four Valpo players with 10 points or more in the thrilling victory. Valpo was 11-of-11 at the free-throw line until Nick Robinson intentionally missed with 0.2 seconds on the clock in overtime to secure the victory. Valpo had just 10 turnovers against Evansville and made a dozen 3s in the game. Mileek McMillan buried three 3s in just 12 minutes of action before fouling out, and Donovan Clay squeezed a team-high seven rebounds while Nick Robinson dished out seven assists.

Jan. 26: Valpo 67, Evansville 65: A career night from Mileek McMillan that featured 16 points and three blocked shots helped Valpo fend off Evansville 67-65 in the regular-season meeting at the Athletics-Recreation Center. Daniel Sackey and Javon Freeman-Liberty joined McMillan in double figures with 12 points apiece on a night where Valpo led by as many as 18 late in the first half before holding on for the wire-to-wire victory despite being outscored 42-31 after halftime. McMillan had a critical lead-preserving block in the final minute, while Freeman-Liberty nailed a quartet of late free throws to help ice the triumph.

Stopping the Streak: With Valpo's 81-79 overtime victory over Evansville on Jan. 4, the team stopped a five-game head-to-head losing streak against the Aces and garnered its first win against Evansville since joining the Missouri Valley Conference (previously 0-4). But most noteworthy of all was the 22-game losing skid in games played at Evansville that came to an end. Matt Lottich became the first Valpo coach to win at Evansville since the legendary Gene Bartow led his team to a 101-95 victory on Feb. 1, 1969. During the years (or more accurately, decades) between those victories, five Valpo coaches went winless in the River City: Bill Purden (0-6), Ken Rochlitz (0-3), Tom Smith (0-5), Homer Drew (0-4) and Bryce Drew (0-1). No member of the Valpo team or coaching staff was alive the last time the program won in Evansville before this year's trip.

Going for the Season Sweep

- This marks the 15th time over the last 16 years that Valpo has played a team in a conference tournament after winning both regular-season meetings.
- The Brown & Gold are 8-6 in the third game in those instances.
- The last time Valpo had a conference tournament matchup with a team it swept during the regular season was the school's final year in the Horizon League. After winning both regular-season showdowns, Valpo fell 43-41 to Milwaukee on March 4, 2017 in Detroit.
- The same thing happened in the 2016 Horizon League Tournament, when Valpo was on the wrong end of a 99-92 overtime score vs. Green Bay in a league semifinal matchup after beating the Phoenix in both regular-season collisions.
- A win on Thursday would allow Valpo to secure a three-game sweep over a conference opponent for the first time since March 7, 2015, a 60-55 Horizon League semifinal win over Cleveland State at the ARC.
- On the flip side, Valpo beat Indiana State 77-55 to open Arch Madness last year after going 0-2 in the regular season against the Sycamores.

Valpo in Arch Madness

- In just its third year as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference, Valpo is 1-2 all-time in the MVC Tournament.
- The program was the No. 10 seed in 2018 and dropped an opening-round matchup 83-79 to Missouri State in its first Arch Madness appearance.
- Valpo progressed to a No. 9 seed in Year 2 in the Valley and earned its first Arch Madness victory, beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round. The team fell 67-54 vs. Loyola in the quarterfinal round a year ago.
- This year, Valpo is the No. 7 seed after finishing tied for sixth in the conference standings, its best finish since joining The Valley.

Valpo in St. Louis

- Although Valpo is the new kid on the block when it comes to Arch Madness, the program's history at the building now known as the Enterprise Center goes beyond the team's three MVC tournament games over the last two years.
- Valpo's Sweet Sixteen game against Rhode Island in 1998 was played at the building, which was then known as the Kiel Center.
- Valpo also appeared in the 2002 NCAA Tournament in St. Louis, but the first-round date with Kentucky was played at the Edward Jones Dome.

- Head coach Matt Lottich played at Stanford from 2000-04 and was part of the Cardinal team that participated in the first and second round of the NCAA Tournament at the Edward Jones Dome in 2002. His squad joined Valpo as two of the eight teams competing in St. Louis in the opening round of the tournament that year. Stanford beat Western Kentucky 84-68 in the first round before falling 86-63 to Kansas. Lottich saw action in both contests.

Clay Leading the Way

- During leading scorer Javon Freeman-Liberty's two-game absence due to mononucleosis over the final week of the regular season, freshman Donovan Clay averaged team bests in both points per game (16.5) and rebounds per game (6.0) over two contests.

- Clay's efforts helped him receive Missouri Valley Conference recognition, as he nabbed the league's final Newcomer of the Week award for the 2019-20 season, which was announced on Sunday evening.

- In the first game of Freeman-Liberty's absence on Tuesday, Feb. 25 vs. Missouri State, Clay turned in a career-high 22 points to lift Valpo to an 89-74 victory. He led the team in both points and rebounds (seven). The rookie followed that up by sharing the team lead in scoring in the Feb. 29 road loss at Indiana State, turning in 11 points and five boards.

- Clay joins Eron Gordon as the only two Valpo players to appear in all 31 regular-season games. The Valpo rookie came off the bench in each of his first two collegiate contests on Nov. 5 vs. Toledo and Nov. 9 at Saint Louis, but has started 29 consecutive games since.

- Clay has been in double figures in 16 of his 31 games. He finished in double figures just once over the first seven games of his career, but has done so in 15 of 24 games since.

- His hometown of Alton, Ill. is just over 20 miles from St. Louis.

3-Point Specialist

- Valpo senior Ryan Fazekas is shooting 51.4 percent from 3-point range at 38-of-74 this season. He would currently rank third in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference for single-season 3-point percentage behind Brian Jackson (Evansville, 55.8 percent, 1994-95) and Cam Johnson (UNI, 54.7 percent, 1992-93).

- With one more attempt, Fazekas will reach the minimum of 75 attempts needed to qualify for the Valpo record book for single-season 3-point percentage. The record of 52.1 percent was set by Lance Barker in 1991-92. Mike Jones (1988-89) currently ranks second at 49.2 percent, a spot Fazekas would take over if he remains at his current clip.

- Fazekas is up to a career 3-point percentage of 46.5. He has met the minimum 150 career attempts and is in position to shatter the previous program record for career 3-point percentage set by Samuel Haanpaa (2006-2008) at 44.5 percent.

- Fazekas suffered a broken wrist in the second game of the season on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis and did not return to action until Jan. 23 at Missouri State after being sidelined for 17 games. Fazekas also missed 13 games due to two separate injuries last season, and has missed 30 games while playing in 34 over his two seasons in a Valpo uniform.

- With his 20 points on Feb. 25 vs. Missouri State, Fazekas became just the third Valpo player in the last 17 seasons to score 20 points or more on his senior night, joining good company. Both of the other Valpo players who had a 20-point output on senior night during that time frame went on to play in the NBA, Alec Peters (21, 2017 vs. Milwaukee) and Ryan Broekhoff (23, 2013 vs. Youngstown State).

- Fazekas has been in double figures in four straight games and is 16-of-26 (.615) from beyond the 3-point arc during that stretch.

Next Man Up

- After starting at point guard for his first 23 games of the season and averaging 28.2 minutes per game, sophomore Daniel Sackey accepted a different role for a five-game stretch from Feb. 9 to Feb. 22.

- During that stretch, Sackey took a reserve role in stride, coming off the bench and playing just 12.0 minutes per game.

- Due to an injury to Nick Robinson (back) and Javon Freeman-Liberty's illness that caused him to miss the final two games of the regular season, Sackey's had his number called as he returned to the starting lineup for the Feb. 25 game against Missouri State.

- In his return to the first five, Sackey had 14 points, the second-highest total of his career. He followed that by sharing the team lead with 11 points in the Feb. 29 regular-season finale at Indiana State. He also handed out a team-high five assists against the Sycamores.

- Sackey has hit double figures in back-to-back games after eight straight in single figures. He had scored six points total over the previous six games before coming through with 25 points over the final two regular-season contests.

Glue Guy

- When senior John Kiser suffered an ankle injury on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, it briefly appeared that the former walk-on turned key player had played his last game in a Valpo uniform.

- However, Kiser quickly returned to the court after missing just two games, and did so as a starter for the Feb. 22 game vs. Bradley.

He's started three straight and 21 total over his four years while appearing in 109 Valpo games.

- Kiser is third on the team behind Clay and Freeman-Liberty in season plus/minus at +48 (+2.76/40 minutes).

- Kiser is the only four-year member of the program and the first four-year player of Matt Lottich's career as a head coach.

From Sophomore Slump to Junior Jump

- After averaging just 2.8 points per game a year ago, junior Mileek McMillan is third on the team in scoring at 9.2 points per contest. He has also over doubled his rebounding average from 1.5 to 3.2.

- The Merrillville, Ind. native played just 8.1 minutes per game and made one start as a sophomore. This year, he's started all 30 games he's played and is averaging 18.2 minutes per contest.

- McMillan started 18 of his 32 games as a freshman in 2017-18, posting 3.2 rebounds per game.

- He went just 6-of-26 (.231) from beyond the 3-point arc during the nonconference slate this year, but is hitting at a .423 (30-of-71) clip in Valley action.

- McMillan scored a career-high 20 points on Feb. 19 at Drake, shattering his previous mark of 16 set on Nov. 17 of this season against North Dakota. He tied Eron Gordon (Dec. 18 at High Point) for the most 3-pointers made by a Valpo player in a game this season by draining six in the overtime defeat to the Bulldogs. McMillan became the first Valpo player to convert a half a dozen 3s in a conference game since Ryan Fazekas on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State. McMillan became (at the time) just the fourth Missouri Valley Conference player to hit six or more 3s in a league game this season, joining UNI's A.J. Green (three times), Illinois State's Zach Copeland and Bradley's Nate Kennell. McMillan had previously made no more than four 3s in any of his first 88 career games.

Thievery Feats

- Valpo is currently tied with Loyola for the league lead in steals at 7.8 per game. Both squads have exactly 243 steals in 31 contests.

- Valpo has 243 steals this season, already the team's most in the last seven years. Valpo finished with 272 in 2011-12. The program has hit 250 steals in a season just four times over the last 30 years.

- Valpo has nine games this season with 10 steals or more and 16 with nine steals or more. By comparison, Valpo had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals.

- Valpo's steals average of 7.8 per game is up from 6.1 per game last season.

Reaching New Valley Heights

- Valpo finished with its highest league win total since joining the Missouri Valley Conference after finishing 6-12 in Year 1 and 7-11 in Year 2.

- Valpo completed the league slate with a Valley mark of .500 or better for the first time and has a chance to secure an overall winning record with a victory on Thursday vs. Evansville.

- The Feb. 25 win over Missouri State allowed Valpo to knock off the MVC preseason favorite for the first time since joining the league. The Brown & Gold were previously 0-7 against the team projected first in The Valley Preseason Poll.
- Valpo exceeded expectations this year, tying for sixth in the league standings after being picked ninth in the preseason poll.

Making History Like I Do

Valpo sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty...

- Has 65 steals this season, shattering the previous single-season program record set by Lubos Barton (63, 2001-02) that had stood for nearly two decades.
- Has 125 career steals, 20 away from entering the career Top 10.
- Is in position to become the first player to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Is up to 561 points for the season, putting him on the brink of breaking Alec Peters' sophomore scoring record of 570 points in 2014-15. That is also the threshold for entrance into Valpo's all-time Top 10 for points in a single season.
- Has 926 career points, putting him 74 points away from becoming the second player in program history to reach 1,000 points by the end of his sophomore season.
- Is also approaching the Top 10 in program history for made field goals in a single season. He is currently at 203, with Vern Curtis (1966-67) 10th in program history at 214.

while shattering the mark for the most in a Missouri Valley Conference contest.

- The record for 3s by a Valley team in any game is 20, but the previous record in conference play was 17, reached on five occasions.
- It was the most triples Valpo has knocked down in a game since the record-setting night against Butler on Feb. 6, 1989 at the ARC.
- Valpo's 64.3 percent clip from 3-point range came against a Bradley team that entered the evening allowing opponents to shoot just 29.7 percent from 3 for the season. The Braves were in position to shatter the school mark for 3-point field goal percentage defense and entered the evening with a single-season 3-point field goal percentage defense that ranked fourth in Missouri Valley Conference history.
- The 18 3s tied for the 24th-most nationally in a single game this season.
- Seven of the eight Valpo players who logged at least one minute hit at least one 3-pointer in the game.
- The 18 3s were the most Bradley has permitted in program history.
- Valpo had just set its previous season high for made 3s in a game with 14 on Feb. 19 at Drake.
- Valpo's previous season high for 3-point field goal percentage was 47.1 percent on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis. The 64.3 percent vs. Bradley marked Valpo's first game above 50 percent from distance since Dec. 8, 2018 at George Washington. Valpo's last time above 60 percent was 10-of-16 (62.5 percent) on Jan. 20, 2015 at Youngstown State.
- The performance against the Braves was Valpo's best 3-point shooting percentage since going 12-of-18 (66.6) on Nov. 10, 2013 vs. North Park. It was the best against a Division-I team since Jan. 18, 2007 at Western Illinois, when Valpo went 12-of-16 for 75 percent from 3.

Putting Up Points

- Valpo's 90-point output on Feb. 22 vs. Bradley marked the team's highest point total against a Division-I opponent this season, surpassing 89 on Nov. 12 at SIUE.
- In fact, it was Valpo's highest single-game point total against a D1 team since scoring 94 on Nov. 15, 2017, also at SIUE.
- It was Valpo's highest point total in an MVC game since joining the conference and highest in any league game since Jan. 22, 2017, 96 in a Horizon League matchup with UIC.
- The 90 points came against a Bradley team that entered the evening ranked 65th nationally in scoring defense at 65.0 points per game and 19th in field-goal percentage defense at 38.8.
- Valpo improved to 7-0 this season and 29-2 under Lottich when scoring 80 points or more.

Turnaround Talk: Valpo turned a 13-point loss from the Jan. 7 date at Southern Illinois into a 17-point win over the Salukis on Feb. 12. That marked the first time Valpo turned a double-figure defeat from the first meeting into a double-figure win in the second meeting since joining The Valley. The program didn't have to wait long for the second such instance, as Valpo turned an 80-69 defeat from Jan. 29 at Bradley to a 90-78 victory over the Braves on Feb. 22 at the ARC. Before this season, Valpo hadn't lost the first game of a conference double-round robin by double figures and turned it around to win the second matchup by double figures since 2008-09 in Horizon League play against Loyola.

Comeback Kids

- Valpo has come from double figures down to either win or force overtime in three consecutive games.
- This a season-long trend of the team erasing deficits. Five times this year including three in conference play, Valpo has come from double figures down to win.
- Valpo has come back to tie or take the lead after trailing by double figures 10 times this year.
- During Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (only his fourth season), Valpo has trailed by double figures and won on 14 occasions. Valpo has led by double figures and lost just once in that span, this season at UNI.
- The 90-78 victory over Bradley on Feb. 22 marked the sixth time under Lottich and second time this season Valpo has trailed by double figures and gone on to win by double figures. This was the second time in the last three years that Bradley has led by double figures at the ARC and lost the game by double figures. In 2017-18, the Braves led by as many as 10 in an eventual 77-64 Valpo win.

*largest comeback since Jan. 17, 2012 vs. Detroit Mercy

Tight Battles: Valpo dropped to 6-5 in games decided by five points or fewer with the two-point loss at Drake on Feb. 19. It was Valpo's seventh game of the season decided by three points or fewer, with the team 4-3 in such contests and five decided by two points or fewer. This season marks Valpo's largest number of games decided by three points or fewer since also having seven such contests in 2014-15.

Working Overtime: Valpo played its third overtime game of the season with the 77-75 loss at Drake on Feb. 19 and the team's first extra session since an 81-79 win at Evansville on Jan. 4. Valpo also played OT on Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the U.S. Virgin Islands, losing 81-77.

Another Valley Honor: For his efforts in the Valpo victories over Southern Illinois and Illinois State, Freeman-Liberty was awarded the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week on Feb. 17. He averaged 19.5 points and 7.0 rebounds per game over the two contests leading up to the honor. That marked the third time this season Freeman-Liberty has received MVC Player of the Week honors.

JFL Doing JFL Things: Javon Freeman-Liberty worked his magic on Feb. 15 at Illinois State, propelling the team to the 65-62 victory from 17 points down. He scored 19 of his game-high 25 points after halftime, going 8-of-9 from the field after the break. He finished with a career-high five steals including two in the final 15 seconds while also totaling seven rebounds and three assists. It was Freeman-Liberty's seventh game this season with 25 points or more, his 13th game with 20+ points and at the time his 27th straight game with 10 points or more.

Defense Dominates: The accomplishments of the Valpo defense were numerous in the 55-38 victory over Southern Illinois on Feb. 12 at the Athletics-Recreation Center.

- The 37 points were the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 21, 1984, when Valpo edged Green Bay 35-33. Wednesday set the record for the fewest points allowed by a Valpo team since the advent of the shot clock in 1985-86.
- Valpo's performance tied for 16th in Missouri Valley Conference history since the advent of the shot clock for the fewest points allowed in a conference game.
- The 38 points were the second-fewest scored by the Salukis (15-11, 9-4) in school history since 1950 and the fewest since 36 at Bradley in 1981.

- The 38 points were the fewest scored by any Missouri Valley Conference team this season. The previous low was Loyola's 39 on Feb. 5 at Indiana State. Wednesday marked the lowest point total by a Valley team since Loyola had 35 on Jan. 23, 2019 vs. Missouri State.
- The 38 points also marked the fewest allowed by a Valley team in any game this year and the fewest since the aforementioned outing by Missouri State last season.
- The 13 made baskets by Southern Illinois were the fewest by any MVC team in conference play this season and the second-fewest by any MVC team in any game. The Salukis had just 10 baskets on Dec. 15 at Missouri.
- Valpo became the first MVC team to allow 13 made field goals or fewer in a game this season. Bradley previously topped that chart with just 14 field goals allowed vs. North Carolina A&T on Dec. 7.
- The 23.6 percent shooting was the best defensive performance in terms of field-goal percentage by an MVC team this season. The last Missouri Valley Conference team to hold an opponent to that low of a single-game field goal percentage was Drake on Nov. 8, 2018 vs. Division-III Buena Vista.
- That performance marked the best field-goal percentage defense by any Valley team in a game against a Division-I foe since Wichita State held Cal Poly to 20.7 percent on March 21, 2014. Valpo held SIU to 23.6 percent, the lowest single-game field goal percentage by an MVC team in a conference game since March 2, 2007, when Creighton limited Indiana State to 23.3 percent.

Cruising to Victory: Blowout victories in league play have been hard to come by since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference given the quality of the competition. But the Feb. 12 triumph over Southern Illinois was a rare exception with Valpo rolling to the 55-38 win. The 17-point margin of victory equaled Valpo's largest since joining the conference. The team previously topped Drake 77-60 on Jan. 10, 2018. It was also Valpo's second-largest margin of victory against a Division-I team this year behind a 22-point win over Central Michigan.

Enough to Win: Valpo didn't put on a scoring clinic in the Feb. 12 game against Southern Illinois, but the 55 points were more than enough to emerge victorious. Valpo improved to 1-4 this season and 3-25 under Matt Lottich when scoring fewer than 60 points. Two of the three victories under Lottich when scoring under 60 have come against Southern Illinois at the Athletics-Recreation Center as Valpo beat the Salukis 55-52 last season. The other such win was 58-56 over Illinois State to start conference play last year. Over the last five seasons, Valpo has just two victories when scoring 55 points or fewer, both against Southern Illinois. The last time Valpo prevailed with a lower point total was 54-44 over Green Bay in the 2015 Horizon League Championship to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Setting the Tone: Valpo set the tone for the memorable defensive evening in the first half on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, holding the Salukis to 16 points. Previously, Valpo's best defensive half in conference play this season was allowing 23 points against Evansville and the season low was 22 permitted against Central Michigan. The 16 points were the low for a Valpo opponent in a half since the team held Milwaukee to 16 in the 2017 Horizon League Tournament. (We'll whisper this part: The Panthers led 16-12 at halftime of that game.) The 16 points tied for the fewest allowed by Valpo in a half since March 22, 2016, when the team limited St. Mary's to 13 points after halftime in an NIT game at the ARC.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of this season's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.
- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.

- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.
- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.
- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.
- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University of Quebec (81-68).
- Valpo battled from 90-80 down with 4:56 to play to top Concordia 94-90 in Montreal on Aug. 11 thanks to a game-closing 14-0 run.
- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.
- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

70-59 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
