Game No. 34 – Saturday, March 6 – 5 p.m. CT

Enterprise Center (16,502) – St. Louis, Mo.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: After upsetting second-seeded Loyola on Friday night at Arch Madness, the Valparaiso University men's basketball team will play for a spot in the Missouri Valley Conference title game on Saturday evening at the Enterprise Center. Valpo will look to become the first team since the conference went to the current 10-team format in 1997 to play in the opening round of the tournament and reach the title game. Valpo and Missouri State tied for sixth in the regular-season standings with the Bears taking the No. 6 seed at Arch Madness by virtue of the NET tiebreaker.

Last Time Out: A season that features the motto "One Team, One Boat" to exemplify the program's unity had its most defining team win to date on Friday night as the seventh-seeded Valpo shocked second-seeded Loyola 74-73 in overtime in the quarterfinal round of the Missouri Valley Conference Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Another theme of the season is a no-quit attitude, one that was on full display as Valpo trailed the Ramblers by as many as 18 before pulling off the improbable victory.

The two indelible plays of the team's biggest win since joining The Valley came courtesy of senior Ryan Fazekas and redshirt junior Eron Gordon. It was Fazekas' game-tying 3-pointer with 11 seconds left that helped the game reach overtime, then it was Gordon's layup on a pass from John Kiser in the final seconds of OT that added to the list of March moments etched into the program's proud past.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (72-59) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

A Victory on Saturday Would...

- Be Valpo's 19th of the season, moving the team within one victory of the 21st 20-win season in program history.
- Move Valpo to within one triumph of the program's 15th NCAA appearance and first trip to the Big Dance since 2015.
- Mark the first time since Arch Madness went to its current 10-team format in 1997 that a team that played on Thursday went on to play in the league title game.
- Mark the first time Valpo has ever played in four conference tournament games in a season.
- Mark Valpo's first MVC Tournament championship appearance since joining the league and the team's first league title game in any conference since March 10, 2015, a 54-44 victory over Green Bay for the Horizon League crown.
- Be Valpo's first league semifinal win since topping Cleveland State 60-55 on March 7 at the ARC in a Horizon League semifinal.

Friday's Feats

- Valpo advanced to the semifinals of Arch Madness for the first time since joining the league.
- Entering Friday, only one team had advanced to the semifinal round after playing in the opening round of the MVC Tournament since the event went to its current format in 1997. The only time it occurred was Bradley in 1998. On Friday, it happened twice with eighth-seeded Drake knocking off top-seeded UNI in addition to Valpo's victory over Loyola.
- This is the first time in Arch Madness history the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds both lost in the quarterfinal round. It also snaps a streak of 21 straight years that the No. 7 seed lost in the quarterfinal round.
- Valpo will play in three or more conference tournament games in the same season for the first time since 2010-11. (The team needed to win just twice to garner Horizon League titles in 2013 and 2015.)
- Valpo defeated Loyola for the first time since joining the Valley, snapping a seven-game head-to-head skid to the Ramblers. Loyola won this year's regular season meetings by a total of five points over two games and the three matchups this season were decided by a grand total of six points. This was Valpo's first win over Loyola since the final meeting when the two schools shared Horizon League affiliation, an 85-76 Valpo win in Chicago.

Inside the Upset: Valpo 74, Loyola 73 (OT)

- The comeback kids made their greatest comeback yet as Valpo erased a double-figure deficit to win for the 15th time in Matt Lottich's four-year tenure as Valpo head coach and the sixth time this season. Valpo has only been on the other end (losing a 10-point lead in a defeat) once during Lottich's tenure.

- Friday's 18-point comeback edged a 17-point rally earlier this year at Illinois State as the largest deficit Valpo has erased this season. It marked the team's largest comeback since Jan. 17, 2012 vs. Detroit Mercy. Valpo also came from 18 down to force overtime at Drake earlier this season, but lost in the extra session.
- Valpo played in its fourth overtime game of the season and improved to 2-2 in such contests. This was Valpo's first overtime conference tournament game since March 7, 2016, a 99-92 upset loss vs. Green Bay in a Horizon League semifinal in the season that ended with Valpo playing in the NIT Championship game.
- This was the first time this season Valpo played in a game decided by a single point. Valpo last had a game dictated by the slimmest of margins in a 55-54 OT loss on Jan. 29, 2019 vs. Missouri State.
- Four Valpo players finished in double figures, led by Ryan Fazekas with 15 including five 3s. He has knocked down five 3s in three of his last five games. The senior is shooting 63 percent (17-of-27) from 3 during that five-game stretch.
- Sophomore Daniel Sackey finished with 13 points, reaching double figures for the third time in the last four games after eight straight in single figures. He scored six points total in the six games leading into Feb. 25 at Missouri State, and has averaged 11.0 points per game over four games since.
- Sackey tied a career high with six rebounds against the Ramblers, his first game with six boards since doing so in back-to-back contests in the U.S. Virgin Islands in November against Grand Canyon and Nevada.
- Senior John Kiser did everything in his power to will his team to victory on Friday. He went 5-of-9 shooting on his way to a 12-point, eight-rebound effort. His point total equaled a career high that was set on Jan. 18 of this season vs. Indiana State.
- Freshman Donovan Clay threatened a triple-double with 10 points, eight rebounds and seven assists while also grabbing a steal and swatting three shots. The seven assists represented a career high, shattering his previous mark of six on Feb. 22 vs. Bradley. The three blocks also equaled a personal watermark (Feb. 15 at Illinois State) and the eight rebounds were one shy of his career best, nine on Jan. 7 vs. Southern Illinois.
- After scoring in double figures in all 29 regular-season games, Freeman-Liberty was limited to single figures for the second consecutive contest at Arch Madness. The star sophomore missed the final two games of the regular season while battling mononucleosis. He scored six points before fouling out on Friday.
- Freeman-Liberty boosted his career total to 575 points, in the process shattering Alec Peters' single-season record for points by a sophomore (569, 2014-15). Freeman-Liberty also cracked the Top 10 in program history for points in a season, currently ranking eighth. He climbed over both Peters' 2014-15 season and Dan Oppland's 2005-06 season on Friday.

MVC Championship, 1 p.m.

- Valpo is two wins away from recording the 21st 20-win season in program history. Friday's victory also allowed Valpo to clinch an overall winning record in 2019-20.

Series Notes: Valpo is 2-5 against Missouri State since joining the Missouri Valley Conference including a season-ending 83-79 setback on March 1, 2018 at the MVC Tournament in St. Louis. The Brown & Gold hold a 9-19 record in an all-time set with Missouri State (previously known as Southwest Missouri State) that dates all the way back to the 1966-67 campaign. The two teams split the regular-season series with both teams defending their home courts.

Valpo 89, Missouri State 74 (Feb. 25): With star player Javon Freeman-Liberty sidelined by an illness, Valpo exemplified the "next man up" mentality in the 89-74 victory over Missouri State at the ARC. Ryan Fazekas had 20 points including a 5-of-6 effort from 3-point distance and John Kiser had a career-high eight assists as the senior duo helped make sure their senior night was a winning one. Freshmen Ben Krikke and Donovan Clay combined for 36 points, and sophomore point guard Daniel Sackey had the second-highest point total of his career with 14. Valpo shot a season-best 58.6 percent from the field.

Missouri State 67, Valpo 60 (Jan. 23): An improved second half was not enough in a 67-60 defeat to MVC preseason favorite Missouri State at JQH Arena earlier this season. Valpo attempted 39 3-point tries – the program's most since at least the start of the 1989-90 campaign – but hit just 20.5 percent and went 2-of-20 from distance in the first half. Valpo held Missouri State to 6-of-25 (24 percent) shooting after halftime while hitting at a 44.1 percent clip from the field. The guests outscored the Bears 44-31 in the second half, but the 20-point hole through 20 minutes was too much to overcome. Mileek McMillan scored 12 points to lead the team in scoring for the first time in his career, while Javon Freeman-Liberty and Daniel Sackey joined him in double figures with 11 points apiece.

Scouting the Bears

- Under the direction of second-year head coach Dana Ford, who led his team to a third-place finish in his first year in Springfield.

Conference, collecting 29 first-place votes.

- Keandre Cook earned Second Team All-MVC status, Gaige Prim was named to the Third Team and All-Newcomer Squad.
- Led in scoring by Cook at 14.6 points per game, while Da Silva leads the team at 7.0 rebounds per contest.
- Knocked off fourth-seeded Indiana State 78-51 in Friday's final Arch Madness quarterfinal.

Valpo in Arch Madness

- In just its third year as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference, Valpo is 3-2 all-time in the MVC Tournament with two of those victories coming this season.
- The program was the No. 10 seed in 2018 and dropped an opening-round matchup 83-79 to Missouri State in its first Arch Madness appearance.
- Valpo progressed to a No. 9 seed in Year 2 in the Valley and earned its first Arch Madness victory, beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round. The team fell 67-54 vs. Loyola in the quarterfinal round a year ago.
- This year, Valpo is the No. 7 seed after finishing tied for sixth in the conference standings, its best finish since joining The Valley.
- Valpo won zero Arch Madness games its first year in the league, one its second year in the league and now two during its third season.

Making History Like I Do

Valpo sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty...

- Has 69 steals this season, shattering the previous single-season program record set by Lubos Barton (63, 2001-02) that had stood for nearly two decades.
- Has 129 career steals, 16 away from entering Valpo's career Top 10.
- Is in position to become the first player to lead the MVC in steals in consecutive seasons since Hersey Hawkins of Bradley did so in 1986, 1987 and 1988.
- Is up to 575 points for the season, which is the new program record for points in a single season by a sophomore. Alec Peters' 2014-15 point total of 569 was the previous mark.
- His 575 points rank ninth in program history for points in a single season.
- Has 940 career points, putting him 60 points away from becoming the second player in program history to reach 1,000 points by the end of his sophomore season. He would need an extended postseason run to have a chance to reach that feat.
- Is also approaching the Top 10 in program history for made field goals in a single season. He is currently at 209, with Vern Curtis (1966-67) 10th in program history at 214.
- Needs to get to 609 points to move into a tie with John S. Williams (Indiana State, 1983-84) for the 10th-most points by a sophomore in Missouri Valley Conference history.
- Scored in double figures in all 29 regular-season games he played before seeing his streak snapped in the MVC Tournament opener as he finished with eight points against Evansville. He followed that with a season-low six points in the MVC Quarterfinal win over Loyola.

Comeback Kids

- Valpo has a season-long trend of the team erasing deficits. Six times this year including four against Valley teams, Valpo has come from double figures down to win. Most notably, the team erased an 18-point deficit to win Friday's MVC quarterfinal.
- Valpo has come back to tie or take the lead after trailing by double figures 11 times this year.
- During Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (only his fourth season), Valpo has trailed by double figures and won on 15 occasions. Valpo has led by double figures and lost just once in that span, this season at UNI.
- The 90-78 victory over Bradley on Feb. 22 marked the sixth time under Lottich and second time this season Valpo has trailed by double figures and gone on to win by double figures. This was the second time in the last three years that Bradley has led by double figures at the ARC and lost the game by double figures. In 2017-18, the Braves led by as many as 10 in an eventual 77-64 Valpo win.

Wrapping Up Game 1: Valpo 58, Evansville 55 (March 5)

- Less than two weeks removed from setting the Missouri Valley Conference record for 3-pointers in a game with 18 on Feb. 22 vs. Bradley, Valpo didn't hit a trey in the victory. The team snapped a 298-game streak of made 3s, failing to connect from distance for the first time since Nov. 18, 2011. Valpo went 0-for-14 in that game, a 62-59 win over Akron. Valpo went 0-for-10 in Thursday's contest. Strangely enough, over its last 300 games, Valpo is 2-0 when failing to hit a 3-pointer.

- Valpo became the first team in the 30-year history of Arch Madness to fail to hit a 3-pointer in a game.

- Clay led the team with 16 points while sharing the rebounding team lead with Freeman-Liberty with seven apiece. Krikke's 10 points came on 4-of-5 shooting while squeezing five rebounds.

- Clay has held or shared the team lead in scoring in three consecutive games after he did so just twice in the first 29 games of the season.

- Freeman-Liberty returned after missing the previous two games with an illness and contributed eight points, seven rebounds, six assists and four steals, holding the outright team lead in both assists and steals.

- Freeman-Liberty scored in double figures in all 29 regular-season games, but his impressive streak came to an end in Thursday's tournament opener.

- Valpo beat Evansville for the third time this season, recording a three-game sweep of a conference foe for the first time since March 7, 2015, a 60-55 Horizon League semifinal win over Cleveland State at the ARC. All three of Valpo's victories over Evansville came by three points or fewer.

- Valpo won its first-round MVC Tournament Game for the second consecutive season and extended its season win total to 17. The three-point game was Valpo's closest Arch Madness contest in the three years in the league.

- This was Valpo's eighth game of the year decided by three points or fewer as Valpo bolstered its record to 5-3 in such contests.

- Valpo improved to just 4-26 under Matt Lottich when scoring fewer than 60 points. Two of the victories have come this season as Valpo beat Southern Illinois 55-38 on Feb. 12.

Inside the Honors

- Valpo received a nice haul of postseason Missouri Valley Conference honors, with Javon Freeman-Liberty earning First Team All-MVC, All-Defensive Team and Most-Improved Team, Donovan Clay nabbing All-Freshman Team recognition, Mileek McMillan receiving Most-Improved Team recognition and John Kiser being named to the All-Bench Team and MVC Scholar-Athlete Second team.

- Freeman-Liberty finished second in the MVC Defensive Player of the Year voting and third in the Larry Bird Player of the Year voting. He was one point behind UNI's Isaiah Brown for Defensive Player of the Year, the first time in the history of the award a single point separated first from second.

- This marks the second straight season Valpo has boasted a member of the All-Freshman Team after Freeman-Liberty earned a spot a year ago. Valpo has had a player on either the All-Newcomer Team or the All-Freshman team in every season since joining The Valley.

- Valpo has boasted a member of the MVC All-Defensive Team in each season since joining The Valley. Tevonn Walker earned a place on the 2017-18 All-Defensive squad before Freeman-Liberty grabbed a spot a year ago. Freeman-Liberty and UNI's Isaiah Brown are the only players to earn MVC All-Defensive Team status in each of the last two seasons.

- This marks the sixth consecutive season Valpo has placed a player on the all-defensive squad. Vashil Fernandez (2014-2015, 2015-2016) and Walker (2016-17) earned Horizon League all-defensive recognition over the school's last three years in the league before Walker and Freeman-Liberty have continued the string of defensive standouts over the first three years in The Valley.

- Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player since joining The Valley to achieve first-team status. He became just the fifth Valpo player over the last 30 years to earn first-team all-conference as a freshman or sophomore, joining Alec Peters (2014-15), Raitis Grafts (2000-01), Lubos Barton (1998-99) and Bryce Drew (1995-96).

- Valpo had at least one first-team all-conference performer in each of the program's last seven seasons in the Horizon League, but Freeman-Liberty's honor ended a two-year drought that coincided with the move to The Valley.

- Freeman-Liberty earned his way on to the MVC Most-Improved team by finishing the regular season second in the league in scoring, seventh in rebounding, sixth in assists and first in steals after not earning first or second team all-conference last season. He upped his scoring average from 11.0 points per game to 19.3 points per game.

- McMillan's Most-Improved status came after he went from 2.8 points per game to 9.2 points per game while over doubling his rebounding average from 1.5 to 3.2. He finished the regular season third on the team in scoring after finishing ninth on the squad a year ago.

Thoughts of Thievery

- Valpo currently ranks second in the league with 7.8 steals per game, behind Loyola 7.9.

- Valpo has 257 steals this season, already the team's most in the last seven years. Valpo finished with 272 in 2011-12. This is just the fifth time in the last 30 years Valpo had accrued 250+ steals in a season.

- Valpo has nine games this season with 10 steals or more and 17 with nine steals or more. By comparison, Valpo had just four games a year ago with nine steals or more and two with double-figure steal totals.

- Valpo's steals average of 7.8 per game is up from 6.1 per game last season.

Clay Leading the Way

- During leading scorer Javon Freeman-Liberty's two-game absence due to mononucleosis over the final week of the regular season, freshman Donovan Clay averaged team bests in both points per game (16.5) and rebounds per game (6.0) over two contests.

- Clay's efforts helped him receive Missouri Valley Conference recognition, as he nabbed the league's final Newcomer of the Week award for the 2019-20 season, which was announced on Sunday evening.

- In the first game of Freeman-Liberty's absence on Tuesday, Feb. 25 vs. Missouri State, Clay turned in a career-high 22 points to lift Valpo to an 89-74 victory. He led the team in both points and rebounds (seven). The rookie followed that up by sharing the team lead in scoring in the Feb. 29 road loss at Indiana State, turning in 11 points and five boards.

- Clay joins Eron Gordon as the only two Valpo players to appear in all 31 regular-season games. The Valpo rookie came off the bench in each of his first two collegiate contests on Nov. 5 vs. Toledo and Nov. 9 at Saint Louis, but has started 29 consecutive games since.

- Clay has been in double figures in 18 of his 33 games, including Thursday's MVC Tournament opener vs. Evansville and Friday's upset win over Loyola. He finished in double figures just once over the first seven games of his career, but has done so in 17 of 24 games since.

- His hometown of Alton, Ill. is just over 20 miles from St. Louis.

- Prior to Friday's MVC Quarterfinal vs. Loyola, Clay had led or shared the team lead in scoring in three straight games after doing so twice prior to that in the first 29 games of the year.

3-Point Specialist

- Valpo senior Ryan Fazekas is shooting 51.2 percent from 3-point range at 43-of-84 this season. He would currently rank third in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference for single-season 3-point percentage.
- Fazekas has reached the minimum of 75 attempts needed to qualify for the Valpo record book for single-season 3-point percentage. The record of 52.1 percent was set by Lance Barker in 1991-92. Mike Jones (1988-89) currently ranks second at 49.2 percent, a spot Fazekas would take over if he remains at his current clip.
- Fazekas is up to a career 3-point percentage of 46.7 (91-195). He has met the minimum 150 career attempts and is in position to shatter the previous program record for career 3-point percentage set by Samuel Haanpaa (2006-2008) at 44.5 percent.
- Fazekas suffered a broken wrist in the second game of the season on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis and did not return to action until Jan. 23 at Missouri State after being sidelined for 17 games. Fazekas also missed 13 games due to two separate injuries last season, and has missed 30 games while playing in 34 over his two seasons in a Valpo uniform.
- With his 20 points on Feb. 25 vs. Missouri State, Fazekas became just the third Valpo player in the last 17 seasons to score 20 points or more on his senior night, joining good company. Both of the other Valpo players who had a 20-point output on senior night during that time frame went on to play in the NBA, Alec Peters (21, 2017 vs. Milwaukee) and Ryan Broekhoff (23, 2013 vs. Youngstown State).
- Fazekas scored in double figures in four straight games to close out the regular season and was 16-of-26 (.615) from beyond the 3-point arc during that stretch.

Next Man Up

- After starting at point guard for his first 23 games of the season and averaging 28.2 minutes per game, sophomore Daniel Sackey accepted a different role for a five-game stretch from Feb. 9 to Feb 22.
- During that stretch, Sackey took a reserve role in stride, coming off the bench and playing just 12.0 minutes per game.
- Due to an injury to Nick Robinson (back) and Javon Freeman-Liberty's illness that caused him to miss the final two games of the regular season, Sackey's had his number called as he returned to the starting lineup for the Feb. 25 game against Missouri State.
- In his return to the first five, Sackey had 14 points, the second-highest total of his career. He followed that by sharing the team lead with 11 points in the Feb. 29 regular-season finale at Indiana State. He also handed out a team-high five assists against the Sycamores.
- Sackey hit double figures in back-to-back games to close out the regular season after eight straight in single figures. He had scored six points total over the previous six games before coming through with 25 points over the final two regular-season contests.

Glue Guy

- When senior John Kiser suffered an ankle injury on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, it briefly appeared that the former walk-on turned key player had played his last game in a Valpo uniform.
- However, Kiser quickly returned to the court after missing just two games, and did so as a starter for the Feb. 22 game vs. Bradley. He's started five straight and 23 total over his four years while appearing in 111 Valpo games.
- Kiser is third on the team behind Clay and Freeman-Liberty in season plus/minus.
- Kiser is the only four-year member of the program and the first four-year player of Matt Lottich's career as a head coach.

From Sophomore Slump to Junior Jump

- After averaging just 2.8 points per game a year ago, junior Mileek McMillan finished the regular season third on the team in scoring at 9.2 points per contest. He has also over doubled his rebounding average from 1.5 to 3.2.
- The Merrillville, Ind. native played just 8.1 minutes per game and made one start as a sophomore. This year, he's started all 30 games he played in the regular season and averaged 18.2 minutes per contest.
- McMillan started 18 of his 32 games as a freshman in 2017-18, posting 3.2 rebounds per game.
- He went just 6-of-26 (.231) from beyond the 3-point arc during the nonconference slate this year, but hit at a .423 (30-of-71) clip in Valley action.
- McMillan scored a career-high 20 points on Feb. 19 at Drake, shattering his previous mark of 16 set on Nov. 17 of this season against North Dakota. He tied Eron Gordon (Dec. 18 at High Point) for the most 3-pointers made by a Valpo player in a game this season by draining six in the overtime defeat to the Bulldogs. McMillan became the first Valpo player to convert a half a dozen 3s in a conference game since Ryan Fazekas on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State. McMillan became (at the time) just the fourth Missouri Valley Conference player to hit six or more 3s in a league game this season, joining UNI's A.J. Green (three times), Illinois State's Zach Copeland and Bradley's Nate Kennell. McMillan had previously made no more than four 3s in any of his first 88 career games.

Valpo in St. Louis

- Although Valpo is the new kid on the block when it comes to Arch Madness, the program's history at the building now known as the Enterprise Center goes beyond the team's three MVC tournament games over the last two years.
- Valpo's Sweet Sixteen game against Rhode Island in 1998 was played at the building, which was then known as the Kiel Center.

- Valpo also appeared in the 2002 NCAA Tournament in St. Louis, but the first-round date with Kentucky was played at the Edward Jones Dome.

- Head coach Matt Lottich played at Stanford from 2000-04 and was part of the Cardinal team that participated in the first and second round of the NCAA Tournament at the Edward Jones Dome in 2002. His squad joined Valpo as two of the eight teams competing in St. Louis in the opening round of the tournament that year. Stanford beat Western Kentucky 84-68 in the first round before falling 86-63 to Kansas. Lottich saw action in both contests

Reaching New Valley Heights

- Valpo finished with its highest league win total since joining the Missouri Valley Conference after finishing 6-12 in Year 1 and 7-11 in Year 2.
- Valpo completed the league slate with a Valley mark of .500 or better for the first time and has secured an overall winning record.
- The Feb. 25 win over Missouri State allowed Valpo to knock off the MVC preseason favorite for the first time since joining the league. The Brown & Gold were previously 0-7 against the team projected first in The Valley Preseason Poll.
- Valpo exceeded expectations this year, tying for sixth in the league standings after being picked ninth in the preseason poll.

Sharp Shooting

- Valpo shot a season-best 58.6 percent (34-58) from the field in the 89-74 win over Missouri State on Feb. 25 at the ARC. That marked the team's best field-goal percentage of the season, eclipsing the high of 55.6 percent set in the team's previous game, Feb. 22 vs. Bradley.
- Valpo scored 89 points or more in back-to-back games (90 vs. Bradley, 89 vs. Missouri State) for the first time since November 2013 games against Mercer (L 117-108) and Cincinnati Christian (W 94-58). That marked the first time Valpo has scored 89 points or more in consecutive games against Division-I teams since January 2006 against Longwood (W 105-73) and Oakland (W 95-64).
- The field-goal percentage of 58.6 against Missouri State was Valpo's highest since Dec. 2, 2018, 60 percent (33-55) in an 82-73 win over UC Riverside.
- The field goal percentage was Valpo's highest in a Missouri Valley Conference game since joining the league and the highest in any league game since shooting 60.4 percent (32-53) on Jan. 8, 2015 vs. UIC.
- Valpo shot 55 percent or better from the field for the second straight game and 50 percent or better from long range in consecutive contests. The last time Valpo shot 50 percent or better from 3 in consecutive games was January 2018 against Southern Illinois and Drake. The last time Valpo shot 55 percent or better from the floor in back-to-back outings was February 2015 against Detroit Mercy and Oakland.

- Valpo is averaging 72.4 points per game and has a chance to finish with its second-highest single-season scoring average over the last eight years. The team's top mark in that span was 74.7 percent in 2016-17.

Other Notes Wrapping Up Missouri State (Feb. 25)

- Missouri State led for just 1:53, while Valpo held the lead for 35:56.
- Donovan Clay finished with 22 points, eclipsing his previous career high of 21 set in the Dec. 30 conference opener against Loyola. He bookended the home portion of his first MVC voyage with outputs of over 20 points. He also held the team lead with seven rebounds while going 11-of-17 from the field in Tuesday's triumph.
- This marked Clay's third time this season leading the team in scoring and first since posting 18 on Jan. 11 vs. Drake.
- Ryan Fazekas accrued 20 points on 7-of-9 shooting including 5-of-6 from 3-point range during his ARC farewell. The fifth-year senior started the home portion of his final campaign with a career-high 23 on Nov. 5 vs. Toledo and had his second 20-point output of the year during the home finale. He canned a season-high five triples for the second straight outing. The seven made field goals replicated a career high.
- John Kiser's eight assists shattered his previous personal best of five. It was the first time in his collegiate career that he held the outright team lead in assists. He committed just one turnover while notching three steals and registering seven points in his final collegiate home game.
- Daniel Sackey returned to the starting lineup after coming off the bench in each of the last five contests. He responded by turning in 14 points, the second-highest total of his career behind 22 earlier this season on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis.
- Ben Krikke had 14 points to finish in double figures for the seventh time this year. The freshman got there on 5-of-6 shooting while grabbing four rebounds.
- This was Matt Lottich's 70th win as the head coach at Valpo.

It's Raining 3s

- Valpo converted 18 3-pointers in a 90-78 win over Bradley on Feb. 22 at the Athletics-Recreation Center, coming one shy of establishing a school record for 3s in a single game while shattering the mark for the most in a Missouri Valley Conference contest.
- The record for 3s by a Valley team in any game is 20, but the previous record in conference play was 17, reached on five occasions.
- It was the most triples Valpo has knocked down in a game since the record-setting night against Butler on Feb. 6, 1989 at the ARC.
- Valpo's 64.3 percent clip from 3-point range came against a Bradley team that entered the evening allowing opponents to shoot just 29.7 percent from 3 for the season. The Braves were in position to shatter the school mark for 3-point field goal percentage defense and entered the evening with a single-season 3-point field goal percentage defense that ranked fourth in Missouri Valley Conference history.

- The 18 3s tied for the 24th-most nationally in a single game this season.
- Seven of the eight Valpo players who logged at least one minute hit at least one 3-pointer in the game.

- The 18 3s were the most Bradley has permitted in program history.

- Valpo had just set its previous season high for made 3s in a game with 14 on Feb. 19 at Drake.

- Valpo's previous season high for 3-point field goal percentage was 47.1 percent on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis. The 64.3 percent vs. Bradley marked Valpo's first game above 50 percent from distance since Dec. 8, 2018 at George Washington. Valpo's last time above 60 percent was 10-of-16 (62.5 percent) on Jan. 20, 2015 at Youngstown State.

- The performance against the Braves was Valpo's best 3-point shooting percentage since going 12-of-18 (66.6) on Nov. 10, 2013 vs. North Park. It was the best against a Division-I team since Jan. 18, 2007 at Western Illinois, when Valpo went 12-of-16 for 75 percent from 3.

Putting Up Points

- Valpo's 90-point output on Feb. 22 vs. Bradley marked the team's highest point total against a Division-I opponent this season, surpassing 89 on Nov. 12 at SIUE.

- In fact, it was Valpo's highest single-game point total against a D1 team since scoring 94 on Nov. 15, 2017, also at SIUE.

- It was Valpo's highest point total in an MVC game since joining the conference and highest in any league game since Jan. 22, 2017, 96 in a Horizon League matchup with UIC.

- The 90 points came against a Bradley team that entered the evening ranked 65th nationally in scoring defense at 65.0 points per game and 19th in field-goal percentage defense at 38.8.

- Valpo improved to 7-0 this season and 29-2 under Lottich when scoring 80 points or more.

Turnaround Talk: Valpo turned a 13-point loss from the Jan. 7 date at Southern Illinois into a 17-point win over the Salukis on Feb. 12. That marked the first time Valpo turned a double-figure defeat from the first meeting into a double-figure win in the second meeting since joining The Valley. The program didn't have to wait long for the second such instance, as Valpo turned an 80-69 defeat from Jan. 29 at Bradley to a 90-78 victory over the Braves on Feb. 22 at the ARC. Before this season, Valpo hadn't lost the first game of a conference double-round robin by double figures and turned it around to win the second matchup by double figures since 2008-09 in Horizon League play against Loyola.

Another Valley Honor: For his efforts in the Valpo victories over Southern Illinois and Illinois State, Freeman-Liberty was awarded the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week on Feb. 17. He averaged 19.5 points and 7.0 rebounds per game over the two contests leading up to the honor. That marked the third time this season Freeman-Liberty has received MVC Player of the Week honors.

JFL Doing JFL Things: Javon Freeman-Liberty worked his magic on Feb. 15 at Illinois State, propelling the team to the 65-62 victory from 17 points down. He scored 19 of his game-high 25 points after halftime, going 8-of-9 from the field after the break. He finished with a career-high five steals including two in the final 15 seconds while also totaling seven rebounds and three assists. It was Freeman-Liberty's seventh game this season with 25 points or more, his 13th game with 20+ points and at the time his 27th straight game with 10 points or more.

Defense Dominates: The accomplishments of the Valpo defense were numerous in the 55-38 victory over Southern Illinois on Feb. 12 at the Athletics-Recreation Center.

- The 37 points were the fewest allowed against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 21, 1984, when Valpo edged Green Bay 35-33. Wednesday set the record for the fewest points allowed by a Valpo team since the advent of the shot clock in 1985-86.

- Valpo's performance tied for 16th in Missouri Valley Conference history since the advent of the shot clock for the fewest points allowed in a conference game.

- The 38 points were the second-fewest scored by the Salukis (15-11, 9-4) in school history since 1950 and the fewest since 36 at Bradley in 1981.

- The 38 points were the fewest scored by any Missouri Valley Conference team this season. The previous low was Loyola's 39 on Feb. 5 at Indiana State. Wednesday marked the lowest point total by a Valley team since Loyola had 35 on Jan. 23, 2019 vs. Missouri State.

- The 38 points also marked the fewest allowed by a Valley team in any game this year and the fewest since the aforementioned outing by Missouri State last season.

- The 13 made baskets by Southern Illinois were the fewest by any MVC team in conference play this season and the second-fewest by any MVC team in any game. The Salukis had just 10 baskets on Dec. 15 at Missouri.

- Valpo became the first MVC team to allow 13 made field goals or fewer in a game this season. Bradley previously topped that chart with just 14 field goals allowed vs. North Carolina A&T on Dec. 7.

- The 23.6 percent shooting was the best defensive performance in terms of field-goal percentage by an MVC team this season. The last Missouri Valley Conference team to hold an opponent to that low of a single-game field goal percentage was Drake on Nov. 8, 2018 vs. Division-III Buena Vista.

- That performance marked the best field-goal percentage defense by any Valley team in a game against a Division-I foe since Wichita State held Cal Poly to 20.7 percent on March 21, 2014. Valpo held SIU to 23.6 percent, the lowest single-game field goal percentage by an MVC team in a conference game since March 2, 2007, when Creighton limited Indiana State to 23.3 percent.

Cruising to Victory: Blowout victories in league play have been hard to come by since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference given the quality of the competition. But the Feb. 12 triumph over Southern Illinois was a rare exception with Valpo rolling to the 55-38 win. The 17-point margin of victory equaled Valpo's largest since joining the conference. The team previously topped Drake 77-60 on Jan. 10, 2018. It was also Valpo's second-largest margin of victory against a Division-I team this year behind a 22-point win over Central Michigan.

Enough to Win: Valpo didn't put on a scoring clinic in the Feb. 12 game against Southern Illinois, but the 55 points were more than enough to emerge victorious. Valpo improved to 1-4 this season and 3-25 under Matt Lottich when scoring fewer than 60 points. Two of the three victories under Lottich when scoring under 60 have come against Southern Illinois at the Athletics-Recreation Center as Valpo beat the Salukis 55-52 last season. The other such win was 58-56 over Illinois State to start conference play last year. Over the last five seasons, Valpo has just two victories when scoring 55 points or fewer, both against Southern Illinois. The last time Valpo prevailed with a lower point total was 54-44 over Green Bay in the 2015 Horizon League Championship to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Setting the Tone: Valpo set the tone for the memorable defensive evening in the first half on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois, holding the Salukis to 16 points. Previously, Valpo's best defensive half in conference play this season was allowing 23 points against Evansville and the season low was 22 permitted against Central Michigan. The 16 points were the low for a Valpo opponent in a half since the team held Milwaukee to 16 in the 2017 Horizon League Tournament. (We'll whisper this part: The Panthers led 16-12 at halftime of that game.) The 16 points tied for the fewest allowed by Valpo in a half since March 22, 2016, when the team limited St. Mary's to 13 points after halftime in an NIT game at the ARC.

#SCTop10 Again: Javon Freeman-Liberty slammed home a poster dunk in the first half of this season's game at Southern Illinois, gaining national attention as the play appeared on ESPN throughout the evening. The play checked in at No. 5 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays, marking the second time this season that the program has been featured on the daily countdown, as Daniel Sackey had the No. 9 play for an August buzzer-beater to top Carleton as part of the program's foreign tour. Since Valpo joined the Missouri Valley Conference, the University has been featured on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on seven occasions spanning five sports – men's basketball (three times), women's basketball, softball, men's soccer and volleyball.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule was highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlighted the 13-game docket that led into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.
- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.
- Grand Canyon (Nov. 22) went 20-14 overall and 10-6 in the WAC last season, qualifying for the postseason with a CBI berth. The Lopes have reached the WAC title game and qualified for the postseason in each of their first two years as a Division-I postseason eligible team.
- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.
- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.
- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University of Quebec (81-68).
- Valpo battled from 90-80 down with 4:56 to play to top Concordia 94-90 in Montreal on Aug. 11 thanks to a game-closing 14-0 run.
- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.
- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.
- The Sackey buzzer-beater was No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty scored a team-high 18.8 points per game during the Canada journey, while Donovan Clay and Mileek McMillan shared the team lead by averaging 5.3 boards apiece. Sackey averaged 15.0 points per game during the trip.

Preseason Picks

- Javon Freeman-Liberty and Ryan Fazekas both earned All-MVC Second Team honors.
- They joined Tevonn Walker (2017) as the only Valpo players to be tabbed preseason all-MVC since joining the conference.
- The last time Valpo had multiple players on the preseason all-league first or second teams in the same season was 2016, when Alec Peters and Shane Hammink were first and second team Horizon League preseason picks, respectively.
- Valpo was picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll, based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and media. Missouri State was named the preseason favorite.

Wrapping Up 2018-2019

- Valpo moved up two spots in the standings from Year 1 to Year 2 in the Missouri Valley Conference while also earning its first Arch Madness victory by beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round of the MVC Tournament.
- Valpo allowed 66.3 points per game, ranking 48th of 351 nationally in scoring defense.
- The team finished with 15 victories for the second straight season including nonconference triumphs over UNLV and George Washington. Valpo started 4-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play, but finished the year 15-18 overall and 7-11 in league action.

New Year, New Look

- Valpo has five returning letter winners after seven letter winners departed following the 2018-19 campaign.
- Valpo has 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding back from last season.
- The five returning letter winners are Valpo's fewest since the 2013-14 campaign, when Jordan Coleman, LaVonte Dority, Bobby Capobianco and Vashil Fernandez were the only players back from the previous season.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 18th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to seven postseason berths in the last nine years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He oversees the team's post players.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his second season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018.
- Director of Basketball Operations Jason Karys is in his first season in that capacity, but has been around the program in a variety of roles, spending two years as a graduate assistant, one as a walk-on player and three as a manager.
- Strength & Conditioning Coach Derek Bol is in his eighth season. He is a 2010 graduate of Iowa State.
- Graduate Assistant Peter Funk has taken that role after three years as an undergraduate manager.
- Athletic trainer Ken DeAngelis is in his first season full-time at Valpo after previously earning his master's degree from the University in 2012 while spending two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Tradition of Excellence

- Valpo has 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and four NIT berths in the program's proud history, with the team's postseason success highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen run in 1998.

- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.
- Nine of the team's NCAA appearances have come since 1996.
- Valpo has qualified for the postseason seven times in the last nine years, but enters 2019-20 seeking its first postseason tournament berth since playing in the NIT to conclude the 2016-17 season.

Producing Pros

- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last three years.
- Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey.
- Broekhoff tallied a season-high 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the floor (3-5 3PT) in 22 minutes of action Jan. 5 in a 106-100 loss against Philadelphia. Broekhoff played in 42 games during the 2018-19 season.
- Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.
- Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas - a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA.
- Peters won a championship with CSKA Moscow in Russia in 2018-19. He signed a one-year contract with Anadolu Efes in Turkish BSL on July 9, 2019.
- 2018 Valpo graduate Tevonn Walker plays for Hamburg in German BBL. Walker's classmate Max Joseph signed a contract with Nassjo Basket in Sweden following his time at Valpo.
- 2017 product Jubril Adekoya plays for Carramimbre CBC Valladolid in Spanish LEB Gold.
- Cory Johnson (2011) signed with Penarol in Argentina.
- Keith Carter, who rounded out his Valpo career in 2016, played in the 2019 NBA Summer League with the Oklahoma City Thunder.
- Valpo has now produced 50 pro basketball players over the last 25 years.

#0 Javon Freeman-Liberty, So. (Chicago, Ill.)

- Named to the 2019-20 All-MVC First Team, All-Defensive Team and Most-Improved Team while finishing second in the MVC Defensive Player of the Year voting and third in the Larry Bird MVC Player of the Year voting. - Missed the final two games of the regular seasons due to mononucleosis.
- Shattered the Valpo record for steals in a single season on Feb. 19 at Drake, grabbing his 64th of the year to shatter the mark set by Lubos Barton in 2001-02. Finished the game with 19 points, a team-high six assists, seven rebounds, two steals and a season-high two blocks before fouling out late in regulation of an overtime defeat.

- Was named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week for the third time this season on Feb. 17.
- Scored 19 points in the second half alone as part of a game-high 25 points in a Feb. 15 victory at Illinois State to help Valpo come from 17 down to win 65-62. He also had seven rebounds, three assists and tied a career high with five steals.
- Made a career-high eight free throws in a victory over Evansville on Jan. 26.
- Had the highest home scoring output of his career with a 25-point, eight-rebound night in a Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State. In the process, he became the 11th player in the nation to surpass the 400-point mark this season. He made a career-high seven free throws in that game.
- Already surpassed his season point total from his freshman campaign on Jan. 15 at UNI, turning in a 28-point, eight-rebound, four-steal outing to lead the team in all three categories.
- Named to the Lou Henson Award (mid-major player of the year) Watch List on Jan. 9.
- Made an appearance on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays on Jan. 7, checking in at No. 5 thanks to a poster dunk in a game at Southern Illinois.
- Enjoyed his fourth game this season with 25 points or more in an overtime win at Evansville on Jan. 5.
- Had his 14th straight game in double figures with 10 points and a career-high seven assists on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.
- Led Valpo in scoring for the 10th consecutive game against D-I opponents with 21 to go along with seven rebounds, six assists and four steals on Dec. 21 at Arkansas in Little Rock. Tied a career high in assists in that contest.
- Led the team with 22 points despite being limited to 27 minutes due to early foul trouble in a Dec. 18 win at High Point. Put an exclamation point on the victory with a highlight-reel dunk late in the game.
- Poured in a team-high 28 points while equaling a career high with five steals on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan.
- Was named the MVC Player of the Week for the second time in a three-week span on Dec. 2.
- Started the season with seven straight games of 19 points or more, joining Alec Peters (2016-17) as the only Valpo players to accomplish that feat in that last 30 years. Saw that streak snapped when he scored 12 points in just 18 minutes on Nov. 27 vs. NAIA Trinity Christian.
- Averaged 25.0 points and 5.7 rebounds per game during three contests at the Paradise Jam event (Nov. 22-25), earning all-tournament team honors. His success came against three quality teams in Grand Canyon, Nevada and Cincinnati, including a career-high 32 points in an overtime defeat to the

- Became the first Valpo freshman since at least the start of the 1989-90 season to lead the team outright in points, rebounds and assists in a single game on Feb. 1 vs. Illinois State. He set Division-I career highs in all three areas and surpassed his overall career high in rebounds with his line of 17 points, eight boards and four assists.
- Drained three 3s on Jan. 15 at UNI to finish with 13 points, his highest total against a Division-I opponent. That equaled his previous season total for made 3s, as he entered the evening 3-of-14 for the season.
- Reached double figures for the first time since Nov. 27 vs. Trinity Christian, scoring 10 points on 4-of-8 shooting in a Jan. 4 win at Evansville.
- Had a personal-best six rebounds on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.
- Collected five rebounds on Dec. 18 at High Point, tying a season high. It marked his second five-rebound effort in a three-game span.
- Scored a team-high 18 points to establish a career watermark in the Nov. 27 win over Trinity Christian. Also had four boards and four assists while snatching two steals against the Trolls.
- Didn't make a field goal over the first three games of his career, but he knocked down five on 11 attempts against North Dakota on Nov. 17. He finished with 11 points, one of four Valpo players in double figures.
- Made his collegiate debut in the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo.
- Competed for Team Canada at the 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup in Argentina, averaging 9.9 points per game and 4.4 rebounds per game while helping Canada to a fourth-place finish.

- Credits his father's Michael Jordan DVD set for helping him hone his skills. DVDs included Jordan's greatest games, plays and Top 10 dunks.
- Was the MVP of the Alberta Basketball All-Star Showcase, scoring 37 points.

#25 Nick Robinson, R-Jr. (Chicago, Ill)

- Will miss Arch Madness due to a back injury that sidelined him for six games during the regular season, including the last three contests.
- Dished out seven assists for the second consecutive game on Jan. 4 at Evansville, equaling his career high.
- Had 15 points while setting season highs in made field goals (six), made 3-pointers (three) and assists (seven) on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.
- Boasted season highs in rebounds (nine) and assists (six) while scoring 13 points to help Valpo top Central Michigan on Dec. 8.
- Topped the team with seven rebounds, four of which occurred on the offensive glass, on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan.
- Had a personal-best 19 points to go along with eight rebounds and went 8-for-8 at the free-throw line on Nov. 12 at SIUE.
- Had nine points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals in his Valpo debut, a victory over Toledo in the Nov. 5 season opener.
- Joined the program as a transfer in 2018-19 and sat out due to transfer rules after playing two seasons at Saint Joseph's and appearing in 62 games, starting 30 times.
- High school teammate of Valpo's Zion Morgan at Kenwood.
- Enjoys taking photos of nature in his spare time.

#33 John Kiser, Sr. (Noblesville, Ind.)

- Named to the 2019-20 MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team and All-Bench Team.
- Dished out a career-high eight assists on his senior night, helping Valpo to a Feb. 25 victory over Missouri State.
- Led the team with a plus/minus of +20 on Feb. 12 vs. Southern Illinois.
- Had a career-high four steals on Jan. 29 at Bradley.
- After previously scoring exactly nine points on six occasions, he cracked double figures with a career-high 12 points while sharing the team lead with eight rebounds in a Jan. 18 win over Indiana State.
- Made a huge 3-pointer with 3:01 remaining on Jan. 11 vs. Drake, giving Valpo its first lead of the second half in a 66-61 victory. He grabbed three steals, equaling his career high and marking his second straight three-steal outing.

- Had a career day on Jan. 7 at Southern Illinois, equaling personal bests in points (nine), rebounds (nine), steals (three) and made field goals (four).

- Led Valpo in rebounds for the fifth time this season by matching his season high with eight boards on Dec. 18 at High Point.

- Had his fifth career nine-point effort and fourth of the season, matching a career high in scoring while leading the team in rebounds for the third time in 2019-20 with seven boards on Dec. 16 at Charlotte.

- Matched a career high with nine points on Nov. 24 vs. Nevada, his fourth career nine-point effort and third this season.

- Equaled a career high with nine points for the second time this season on Nov. 17 vs. North Dakota. He has three nine-point efforts in his Valpo career.

- Had eight points, seven rebounds and a career-high five assists on Nov. 12 in a win at SIUE. That marked his third straight game with seven or more rebounds.

- Was a non-scholarship walk-on in 2016-17 as a freshman, but earned a scholarship following that season.

- Is the program's longest-tenured player as the only member of the 2016-17 team still active at Valpo.

- The mechanical engineering major earned 2017-18 MVC Scholar-Athlete honorable mention.

#35 Ryan Fazekas, R-Sr. (Chesterton, Ind.)

- Accrued 20 points on 7-of-9 shooting including 5-of-6 from 3-point range during his ARC farewell on Feb. 25 vs. Missouri State. He replicated a career high with seven made field goals and knocked down five triples for the second game in a row. He became the third Valpo player to score 20+ points on his senior night over the last 17 years, joining Alec Peters and Ryan Broekhoff.

- Made a season-high five 3s and scored 17 points on Feb. 22 vs. Bradley, his highest scoring output since his career high of 23 on Nov. 5 vs. Toledo, the first game of the season.

- Knocked down four 3s and finished with 14 points on Feb. 19 at Drake, tying his highest scoring output since returning from injury on Jan. 23 at Missouri State. It was the third time this season he's drained a quartet of treys in a game. That marked his fourth time in double figures in a nine-game span.

- Tied a season high by knocking down four 3s on his way to 14 points on Jan. 29 at Bradley, his first double-figure scoring effort since returning from his injury.

- Was injured on Nov. 9 at Saint Louis and missed 17 games with a wrist injury before returning on Jan. 23 at Missouri State.

- Started the season by leading the team with a career-high 23 points on Nov. 5 vs. Toledo.

- Graduated from nearby Marquette Catholic High School (Michigan

City, Ind.) before beginning his collegiate career with two seasons at Providence.

- Sat out the 2017-18 season at Valpo and is now in his second season playing for the team. Member of this year's Second Team Preseason All-MVC squad.

- Entered the season ranked second among active Valley players in career 3-point field goal percentage (minimum 30 attempts) at .432, behind only Loyola's Cooper Kaifes.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

72-59 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.

Named to the Lou Henson Award (mid-major player of the year) Watch List on Jan. 9... Already surpassed his season point total from his freshman campaign on Jan. 15 at UNI, turning in a 28-point, eight-rebound, four-steal outing to lead the team in all three categories... Had the highest home scoring output of his career with a 25-point, eight-rebound night in a Jan. 18 victory over Indiana State. In the process, he became the 11th player in the nation to surpass the 400-point mark this season. He made a career-high seven free throws in that game... Made a career-high eight free throws in a victory over Evansville on Jan. 26... Scored 19 points in the second half alone as part of a game-high 25 points in a Feb. 15 victory at Illinois State to help Valpo come from 17 down to win 65-62. He also had seven rebounds, three assists and tied a career high with five steals... Was named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week for the third time this season on Feb. 17... Shattered the Valpo record for steals in a single season on Feb. 19 at Drake, grabbing his 64th of the year to shatter the mark set by Lubos Barton in 2001-02. Finished the game with 19 points, a team-high six assists, seven rebounds, two steals and a season-high two blocks before fouling out late in regulation of an overtime defeat... Missed the final two games of the regular seasons due to mononucleosis... Named to the 2019-20 All-MVC First Team, All-Defensive Team and Most-Improved Team while finishing second in the MVC Defensive Player of the Year voting and third in the Larry Bird MVC Player of the Year voting.
