Game No. 15 - Saturday, Jan. 4, 2020 - 6 p.m. CT
Ford Center (8,930) - Evansville, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University men's basketball team will hit the road for the first time in Missouri Valley Conference play for a two-stop trip starting on Saturday night in Evansville. This will mark the team's fourth road trip of five days or longer this season as Valpo will head on to Southern Illinois following Saturday's tilt.

Last Time Out: Valpo incurred a narrow defeat on Monday night in the conference opener, falling 66-63 to Loyola at the Athletics-Recreation Center. A career night from Donovan Clay was the Valpo highlight, as the freshman knocked down all eight of his shot attempts including four 3-pointers to accrue 21 points. Nick Robinson returned after missing the previous game with an injury and didn't miss a beat, handing out a personal-best seven assists to go along with 15 points. Valpo outscored the Ramblers 35-31 in the second half after trailing 35-28 at the break.

Head Coach Matt Lottich: Matt Lottich (61-51) is in his seventh season overall at Valpo and fourth as head coach in 2019-20. Lottich led the team to 15 victories in his third season in charge in 2018-19, the program's second campaign in the Missouri Valley Conference. In his first year as head coach (2016-17), Lottich guided Valpo to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led the team to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich, hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016, graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and New Trier High School (Illinois) in 2000.

Series Notes: Valpo is 17-70 all-time against Evansville including an 0-4 mark since joining the Missouri Valley Conference. The Purple Aces have won five straight over Valpo dating back to Dec. 11, 2007, a 75-67 victory at the ARC. The Brown & Gold will look to snap a 22-game losing streak in games played at Evansville that dates back to a 101-95 win on Feb. 1, 1969 under head coach

Gene Bartow. The two in-state foes have faced off frequently, as Evansville is the third most common opponent in program history. The most recent meeting was last year's regular season finale, a 65-63 Aces victory in Northwest Indiana.

Clay Has a Day: The moment didn't appear too large for freshman Donovan Clay as he played in his first Missouri Valley Conference game on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola. He knocked down all eight of his field-goal attempts while also going 4-for-4 from 3-point distance. In addition to producing a career-high 21 points, Clay became the first Valpo player to go unblemished from 3-point distance with more than three attempts since Alec Peters also went 4-for-4 on Jan. 18, 2016 at Youngstown State. Clay became the first MVC player to have eight or more shot attempts without a miss this season and the fourth with four or more 3-point tries without a misfire. The last MVC player to go 8-for-8 or better from the field was Sean Lloyd on Feb. 27, 2019 at Evansville. Clay became the first Valpo player to go perfect from the field with eight or more attempts since Zoran Viskovic went 8-for-8 at Youngstown State on Feb. 19, 1998 and 11-for-11 at Chicago State on Jan. 31, 1998. Clay's 21 points were the most by a Valpo player in a conference opener since Tevonn Walker started Horizon League action with a 23-point effort on Dec. 30, 2016 at UIC.

Establishing the Clay Way: After finishing with five points or fewer in six of his first seven games, Donovan Clay has hit his stride over the last seven contests. He has made his way into double figures in scoring in six of those. Over the last four games, Clay is 10-of-15 from 3-point range (66.6 percent), and he's averaging 11.7 points per game over the team's last seven contests, second behind only Javon Freeman-Liberty during that span. That came after Clay averaged just 3.9 points per game over his first seven collegiate contests including a 23.5 percent clip (4-of-17) from 3-point distance.

Close Calls: Four of Valpo's seven losses this season have come by six points or fewer, including the team's last two games – a 72-68 defeat at Arkansas and a 66-63 setback vs. Loyola. This is the first time Valpo has lost back-to-back games by fewer than five points since a four-point loss to Northern Kentucky and a two-point defeat to Milwaukee late in the 2016-17 campaign. Valpo has already played in six games decided by six points or fewer this season.

An Eye on the Record Book: Valpo sophomore Javon Freeman-Liberty finished his freshman season with 60 steals, the third most in program history and the most by a rookie. This year, he has 35 steals with 14 games played and a minimum of 18 games remaining on the schedule, putting him well on pace to shatter Lubos Barton's school record of 63 established in 2001-02.

Swiping and Dishing: Valpo currently leads the Missouri Valley

Conference in both steals per game (8.7) and assists per game (17.0). The last time Valpo finished a season with over 8.7 steals per game was 2001-2002, when the team averaged 10.1 steals per contest. The 2005-2006 campaign was the last time Valpo averaged over 16 assists per game, completing the year at 17.7.

Putting Up Points: Valpo finished the nonconference schedule with a scoring average of 76.3, the team's highest nonconference scoring average since entering the 2013-14 league slate at 77.1. The team currently sits at 75.4 points per game, up from 66.8 a year ago.

Wrapping Up Loyola (Dec. 30)

- Donovan Clay drained all eight of his shots including four makes from beyond the arc to compose his career night of 21 points.
- Mileek McMillan had his second straight game with eight rebounds or more, grabbing eight to go along with eight points. He also had a career-high three blocked shots.
- Freshman Ben Krikke collected a season-high six boards.
- Nick Robinson and Javon Freeman-Liberty had seven assists apiece, both career bests.
- Loyola went 19-of-30 at the free-throw line, while Valpo had four makes in six attempts.
- Javon Freeman-Liberty was held to 10 points, but still reached double figures for the 14th straight game.
- The Valpo defense had a significant turnaround in the second half, holding Loyola to 33.3 percent shooting (16.7 percent from 3) after permitting the Ramblers to shoot 54.4 percent (50 percent from 3) prior to the break.

Leading the League

- This marked the second time in the last three years Valpo entered Valley play as the conference leader in steals per game (8.7) after also doing so in 2017-18 (7.8 spg).
- Javon Freeman-Liberty became the first Valpo player to enter conference action as the league's leading scorer since 2016-17, when Alec Peters started Horizon League play at 25.5 points per game.
- Freeman-Liberty was also the first Valpo player to enter conference play leading the way in steals since 2016-17, when Lexus Williams topped the Horizon League at 1.8 per game.
- This was the first time Valpo started conference action atop the statistical leaderboard in assists (16.7 apg) since 2011-12, when Valpo started Horizon League action averaging 14.7 assists per game.
- Freeman-Liberty is trying to become the first player to lead The Valley in both scoring and steals since Drake's Curt Smith in 1993.
- Valpo is trying to become the first Valley team to lead the league in both assists and steals since Bradley in 2008.

Scouting the Aces

- Under the direction of interim head coach Bennie Seltzer, who previously served as the head coach at Samford.
- Received national attention for knocking off the No. 1 team in the nation on Nov. 12, winning 67-64 at Kentucky.
- Led by DeAndre Williams in both scoring (16.4 ppg) and rebounding (7.7 rpg).
- Started conference play on Tuesday at Missouri State with a 65-52 defeat.

Freeman-Liberty Fast Facts

- Joins Loyola's Cameron Krutwig as the only players in the Missouri Valley Conference in the Top 10 in the league in each of the following categories: scoring, rebounding, assists and steals.
- Ranks among the nation leaders in scoring average, made field goals, total points and steals.
- Had scored 17 points or more in all 12 games Valpo has played against Division-I competition this season before being held to 10 on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.
- Had led Valpo in scoring in 10 of the team's last 12 games and 10 straight games against D-I competition before the Dec. 30 game vs. Loyola.
- His scoring average of 20.9 points per game through 14 games is Valpo's second-best during the first 14 games of a season over the last 30 years, behind Alec Peters' 25.0 in 2016-17.
- Named the MVC Player of the Week for the second time in a three-week span on Dec. 2. Before this season, no Valpo player had earned MVC Player of the Week honors since the program joined the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Equaled a career-high five steals while pouring in 28 points on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan, reaching the 20-point mark for the sixth time in seven games, with the only exception a game against an NAIA opponent where he was limited to 18 minutes and scored 12 points.
- Scored 19 points or more in each of the first seven games of the season and 20 points or more in five straight prior to playing just 18 minutes and scoring 12 points in a lopsided win over Trinity Christian on Nov. 27.
- Joined Alec Peters (12 straight, 2016-17) as the only two Valpo players over the last 30 seasons to start a year with seven straight efforts of 19 points or more.
- Reached the 30-point mark for the second time this season with a career-high 32 on Nov. 25 vs. Cincinnati in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam. At that point in the season, only 45 players nationally had single-game outputs of 32 points or more.

- Became the first player in the Missouri Valley Conference with two 30-point games this season and accounted for two of the conference's first five 30-point efforts in 2019-20.

- His 32 points against Cincinnati were the most by a Valpo player in a single game since Peters had 35 against Santa Clara on Dec. 22, 2016.

- Had 13 rebounds against SIUE to go along with his 30 points, becoming the second Valpo player in the last 20 seasons with a 30&10 game, joining Alec Peters (six times).

Wrapping Up Arkansas (Dec. 21)

- With only eight scholarship players available, Valpo turned an early 13-point hole into an eight-point lead with 7:27 to go, but fell 72-68 at Arkansas in a game hosted at Simmons Bank Arena in North Little Rock.

- The Hogs improved to 9-0 in home games this season, and the game against Valpo marked their slimmest margin of victory among those nine contests.

- Mileek McMillan came one rebound shy of a double-double with 14 points and nine boards. He obliterated his previous season high of four rebounds and upped his career best of seven that was set on Nov. 10, 2017 vs. North Park. He came two points shy of matching his scoring high – established on Nov. 17, 2019 vs. North Dakota – despite being limited to 24 minutes due to foul trouble. McMillan (85 points) has already surpassed his point total from all of last season (83).

- Zion Morgan doubled his rebounding season high, needing only 13 minutes to rack up nine boards. He also scored four points in his best game in a Valpo uniform.

- Javon Freeman-Liberty led Valpo in scoring for the ninth straight game against Division-I competition, filling the stat sheet with 21 points, seven rebounds, six assists and four steals. He equaled his career best in assists, which was set on Dec. 8 vs. Central Michigan.

Winning Ways: Thanks to the Dec. 18 win at High Point, Valpo locked up a winning record during the nonconference portion of the schedule for the 10th consecutive season. The last time Valpo entered the conference slate with a sub-.500 mark was 2009-10, when Valpo went 5-7 prior to the start of Horizon League action.

Gordon Going Off: Redshirt junior Eron Gordon had the first 20-point output of his career on Dec. 18 at High Point, going 7-of-9 from the field and 6-of-8 from 3-point distance in the process. He became just the sixth Missouri Valley Conference player to net six treys in a single game this season and the first Valpo player with more than four in a contest in 2019-20. Ryan Fazekas was the most recent Valpo player to knock down six 3s in a game, as he did so on Jan. 5, 2019 at Missouri State. Gordon added to that with 10 points on Dec. 21 at Arkansas. He has scored seven points or more in six of his last seven after scoring five or fewer in each of the first six games of the season. He has been in double figures in four of his last six games, averaging 10.2 points per game during that stretch, second on the team behind Freeman-Liberty. Over the last seven games, Gordon is 14-of-23 (.609) from 3-point distance.

Sackey Set-ups: Daniel Sackey set up his teammates nicely on Dec. 18, giving out a career-high nine assists in the win over High Point. He also had 11 points, went 6-of-8 at the foul line and drew six fouls in the road victory. Perhaps most impressive of all, Sackey's nine assists came opposite zero turnovers. He became just the fifth different Missouri Valley Conference player with a nine-assist outing this season and in total it marked the seventh nine-assist game by a Valley player in 2019-20. Sackey now has three games with eight assists or more this year, joining Bradley's Darrell Brown as the only players in The Valley with three such outings. In the win over High Point, Sackey became the first Missouri Valley Conference player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game this season. This is the second straight season Valpo has had a player with nine or more assists and no turnovers in a game, as Deion Lavender had 10 assists and no turnovers on Nov. 24, 2018 at West Virginia.

Comeback Kids: Although Valpo would love to avoid facing double-figure first-half deficits altogether, the team has showed a knack for erasing large margins this year. Five times, the team has come from double digits down to tie or take the lead including two occasions where the Brown & Gold prevailed after chasing by double figures.

- Valpo faced an early 18-5 deficit at Arkansas (in North Little Rock, Ark.) on Dec. 21 and battled back to take an eight-point lead over the Razorbacks with 7:27 to play before falling 72-68.

- Valpo faced a 10-point halftime deficit on Dec. 3 at Eastern Michigan and chased by as many as 12 before coming back to take a 66-60 lead with 7:23 to go. The Eagles eventually prevailed 85-79.

- Valpo rallied from 12 down with 10:12 to play to force overtime in an eventual 81-77 defeat to Cincinnati on Nov. 25 in the third-place game of the Paradise Jam.

- On Nov. 12 at SIUE, Valpo was down by 10 with 13:00 minutes to play in the opening half before winning by 13. That marked the first time Valpo had come from down by double figures to win by double figures since Feb. 17, 2018, a 77-64 victory over Bradley.

- The most noteworthy comeback of all came on opening night, when Valpo erased a 14-point deficit to beat Toledo 79-77. It was the team's largest comeback against a Division-I opponent since Jan. 17, 2013, rallying from 22 down to beat Detroit Mercy 89-88. It was Valpo's biggest comeback in any game since coming from 16 down to beat Trinity Christian on Nov. 12, 2016.

- In Matt Lottich's head coaching tenure (fourth season), there have already been 10 times Valpo has trailed by double figures and come away victorious. The team overcame four double-figure deficits in 2016-17 (Wright State, Cleveland State, BYU and Trinity Christian), two in 2017-18 (Bradley and UNCW) and two in 2018-19 (George Washington and Illinois State).

Lock-Down D: Central Michigan entered its Sunday, Dec. 8 game at the Athletics-Recreation Center as the top scoring offense in the nation at 93.9 points per game. Valpo held the Chippewas to a season-low 55 points, just the second time all season they've been held below 75 with the other instance coming at Minnesota. Valpo contained Central Michigan to just 33.9 percent shooting for the game, the team's second-lowest shooting percentage of the season. The 55 points were the fewest allowed by Valpo all season and the opponent's field goal percentage of 33.9 was the team's best since holding Missouri State to 30.9 percent on Jan. 29 of last season.

Guarding the Arc: Valpo limited Central Michigan to just 1-of-17 (5.9 percent) from beyond the 3-point arc in the Dec. 8 victory. Central Michigan had previously made at least four 3s in every game this year, and Valpo had previously allowed at least four 3s in every game this year. That was the first time Valpo held an opponent to just one made 3 in a game since Nov. 19, 2017 vs. Southeastern Louisiana. CMU's 5.9 percent marked Valpo's lowest opponent 3-point percentage since Jan. 26, 2015, when Valpo held Milwaukee to 5.9 percent, one made triple in 17 tries.

November Success: Valpo finished the month of November with a 5-3 record, continuing a tradition of strong starts to seasons. November has been Valpo's best month under head coach Matt Lottich, as the team owns a 24-7 (.774) November Mark through the first four years of his tenure. This marked the 10th straight season Valpo has had a winning record in November, as the team has compiled a 56-19 (.747) November record over the last decade.

2018-19: 4-3

2017-18: 8-0

2016-17: 7-1

2015-16: 6-2

2014-15: 7-1

2013-14: 5-4

2012-13: 5-1

2011-12: 5-2

2010-11: 4-2

2009-10: 3-4

Working Overtime: The Paradise Jam third-place game on Nov. 25 marked Valpo's first overtime affair since an 87-82 setback to Indiana State on Feb. 13 at the ARC last season. Valpo has lost each of its last three overtime games.

A Flair for the Dramatic: Valpo added a new name to its long list of late-game heroes in the program's storied history during the Nov. 5 season opener vs. Toledo as Javon Freeman-Liberty knocked down an off-balance 15-footer from the left elbow with 3.7 seconds left in a 79-77 victory at the Athletics-Recreation Center. That marked the 24th time since the start of the 1992-93 season Valpo has prevailed on a game-winner in the final five seconds. Although it was the first game of the regular season, it was already the second time Valpo has won in dramatic fashion this year as Daniel Sackey's overtime buzzer-beater lifted the team past Canadian powerhouse Carleton 83-80 in overtime on its foreign tour in August.

Nonconference Highlights: Valpo's nonconference schedule is highlighted by seven opponents that qualified for the postseason last year. Here are a few of the opponents that highlight the 13-game docket that will lead into the start of Missouri Valley Conference action.

- Toledo (Nov. 5) went 25-8 last season including a 13-5 conference mark. The Rockets went to the NIT a year ago and have won back-to-back MAC West Division titles.

- Saint Louis (Nov. 9) has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last decade and went 23-13 in 2018-19 on its way to the Atlantic 10 Tournament title.

- Grand Canyon (Nov. 22) went 20-14 overall and 10-6 in the WAC last season, qualifying for the postseason with a CBI berth. The Lopes have reached the WAC title game and qualified for the postseason in each of their first two years as a Division-I postseason eligible team.

- Nevada (Nov. 24) went 29-5 and 15-3 in the Mountain West last season on the way to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

- Cincinnati (Nov. 25) posted a 28-7 (14-4 American) record last season, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.

- Central Michigan (Dec. 8) enjoyed a 23-12 overall record and 10-8 MAC mark last season, winning two games in the MAC Tournament and qualifying for the CBI. The 23 victories tied the program's highest total in 16 years.

- Arkansas (Dec. 21) closed out Valpo's nonleague schedule in North Little Rock. The Razorbacks, members of the SEC, reached the second round of the NIT last season and finished 18-16 overall. Against one of the top teams nationally in the NET rankings, Valpo led by eight with under eight minutes remaining, but fell 72-68.

Wrapping Up Canada

- Valpo finished its four-game Canadian Foreign Tour from Aug. 10-14 with an unblemished mark after notching wins over McGill (84-78), Concordia (94-90), Carleton (83-80, OT) and the University

- The highlight of the tour came on Aug. 13, when Winnipeg native Daniel Sackey drained a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to top Carleton 83-80 in overtime.

- Valpo stopped Canadian powerhouse Carleton's 15-game winning streak against NCAA Division-I teams that included triumphs over USF, Ole Miss, Providence, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt and Alabama.

- The Sackey buzzer-beater was No. 9 on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that evening.

- Javon Freeman-Liberty scored a team-high 18.8 points per game during the Canada journey, while Donovan Clay and Mileek McMillan shared the team lead by averaging 5.3 boards apiece. Sackey averaged 15.0 points per game during the trip.

Preseason Picks

- Javon Freeman-Liberty and Ryan Fazekas both earned All-MVC Second Team honors.

- They joined Tevonn Walker (2017) as the only Valpo players to be tabbed preseason all-MVC since joining the conference.

- The last time Valpo had multiple players on the preseason all-league first or second teams in the same season was 2016, when Alec Peters and Shane Hammink were first and second team Horizon League preseason picks, respectively.

- Valpo was picked to finish ninth in the preseason poll, based on a survey of the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and media. Missouri State was named the preseason favorite.

- Valpo moved up two spots in the standings from Year 1 to Year 2 in the Missouri Valley Conference while also earning its first Arch Madness victory by beating Indiana State 77-55 in the opening round of the MVC Tournament.
- Valpo allowed 66.3 points per game, ranking 48th of 351 nationally in scoring defense.
- The team finished with 15 victories for the second straight season including nonconference triumphs over UNLV and George Washington. Valpo started 4-0 in Missouri Valley Conference play, but finished the year 15-18 overall and 7-11 in league action.

New Year, New Look

- Valpo has five returning letter winners after seven letter winners departed following the 2018-19 campaign.
- Valpo has 40.1 percent of its scoring and 35.7 percent of its rebounding back from last season.
- The five returning letter winners are Valpo's fewest since the 2013-14 campaign, when Jordan Coleman, LaVonte Dority, Bobby Capobianco and Vashil Fernandez were the only players back from the previous season.

Staff Sidebars

- Associate head coach Luke Gore is in his 18th year on staff and has served under four different head coaches. The Valpo veteran has helped the team to seven postseason berths in the last nine years and was on staff for the three winningest seasons in program history. He oversees the team's post players.
- Assistant coach Rob Holloway is back for his second season after spending the previous two years on staff at Eastern Illinois, his alma mater.
- Assistant coach Matt Bowen returned to Valpo's staff in 2018-19 after previously spending four seasons with the Brown & Gold from 2002-2006. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2012-2018.
- Director of Basketball Operations Jason Karys is in his first season in that capacity, but has been around the program in a variety of roles, spending two years as a graduate assistant, one as a walk-on player and three as a manager.
- Strength & Conditioning Coach Derek Bol is in his eighth season. He is a 2010 graduate of Iowa State.
- Graduate Assistant Peter Funk has taken that role after four years as an undergraduate manager.
- Athletic trainer Ken DeAngelis is in his first season full-time at Valpo after previously earning his master's degree from the University in 2012 while spending two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Tradition of Excellence

- Valpo has 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and four NIT berths in the program's proud history, with the team's postseason success highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen run in 1998.

- The program has produced nine All-Americans, won 18 regular season conference championships and 10 conference tournament crowns.
- Valpo also boasts eight NBA players, 10 conference players of the year and 20 20-win seasons.
- Nine of the team's NCAA appearances have come since 1996.
- Valpo has qualified for the postseason seven times in the last nine years, but enters 2019-20 seeking its first postseason tournament berth since playing in the NIT to conclude the 2016-17 season.

Producing Pros

- Valpo has developed a myriad of professional basketball players over the last quarter century, most notably a pair of NBA players in the last three years.
- Ryan Broekhoff (class of 2013) signed a contract with the Dallas Mavericks in the summer of 2018 after spending five seasons playing internationally in Russia and Turkey.
- Broekhoff tallied a season-high 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the floor (3-5 3PT) in 22 minutes of action Jan. 5 in a 106-100 loss against Philadelphia. Broekhoff played in 42 games during the 2018-19 season.
- Alec Peters (class of 2017) was the 54th pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.
- Peters appeared in 20 games for the Suns in 2017-18, highlighted by a 36-point performance in the season finale against Dallas - a new single-game high by a Valpo alum in the NBA.
- Peters won a championship with CSKA Moscow in Russia in 2018-19. He signed a one-year contract with Anadolu Efes in Turkish BSL on July 9, 2019.
- 2018 Valpo graduate Tevonn Walker plays for Hamburg in German BBL. Walker's classmate Max Joseph signed a contract with Nassjo Basket in Sweden following his time at Valpo.
- 2017 product Jubril Adekoya plays for Carramimbre CBC Valladolid in Spanish LEB Gold.
- Cory Johnson (2011) signed with Penarol in Argentina.
- Keith Carter, who rounded out his Valpo career in 2016, played in the 2019 NBA Summer League with the Oklahoma City Thunder.
- Valpo has now produced 50 pro basketball players over the last 25 years.

#0 Javon Freeman-Liberty, So. (Chicago, Ill.)

- Had his 14th straight game in double figures with 10 points and a career-high seven assists on Dec. 30 vs. Loyola.

Matt Lottich

Head Coach

4th Season * Stanford, 2004

61-51 Overall and at Valpo

Matt Lottich enters his seventh season overall at Valparaiso University and fourth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2019-2020. He owns a 54-44 record in his first three seasons as head coach.

The 2018-2019 season saw Lottich lead Valpo to 15 wins. The season was headlined by road victories over UNLV and George Washington during the nonconference portion of the schedule, as well as a 4-0 start to Missouri Valley Conference play.

During 2018-2019, Lottich helped coach one of the top freshmen in program history, as Javon Freeman-Liberty was named to the MVC All-Defensive and All-Freshman Teams. Freeman-Liberty led the MVC in steals and moved into third on the program's single-season chart in the category, setting a new Valpo freshman record. Freeman-Liberty also scored the fourth-most points and grabbed the fifth-most rebounds by a freshman in program history.

Lottich led Valpo to 15 victories in his second season in charge in 2017-2018 and guided the team through the move to the MVC, which ended the campaign ranked eighth nationally in conference RPI.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT. Lottich's inaugural season as head coach was highlighted by a home win over a nationally-ranked Rhode Island squad as well as neutral-site triumphs over Alabama and BYU to capture the MGM Grand Main Event.

Lottich coached the Horizon League Player of the Year and an NABC Third Team All-American in Alec Peters, guiding the senior as he closed out one of the top careers in program history. Peters enjoyed his finest season as a senior, ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in both scoring and rebounding and breaking five of Valpo's career records.

Lottich was hired as the 22nd head coach of the Valpo men's basketball program in April 2016. After spending the previous three seasons on staff as an assistant coach, he became just the fifth Valpo head coach in a 36-year span.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

The team recorded the top two victory totals in program history over Lottich's final two years as an assistant. Valpo broke the previous school record for wins in a season during the 2014-2015 campaign, winning 28 games and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Then, the 2015-2016 season saw Valpo win a program-record 30 games and advance to the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Lottich brings nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times. He also played one season in Germany in the Bundesliga for the Dusseldorf Giants, played one season in New Zealand in the NBL for the Harbor Heat and was a member of the New Jersey Nets' summer league team in 2004.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior. Lottich was a member of the program's conference championship squad as a freshman in 2000-2001 and still ranks among Stanford's single-season and career leaders in 3-pointers made.

Off the court, Lottich came to Valpo from the National Collegiate Scouting Association, where he started in January 2013. Lottich ascended to the position of head scout during his time with the NCSA, which helps high school athletes navigate the world of college recruiting. Lottich also co-founded the TEAM Life Skills basketball camp in 2004 and spent nine years managing and developing the camp.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
