Hammons Field | Springfield, Mo.

Tuesday, May 24, 5:30 p.m. CT vs. Indiana State – RHP Colin Fields

Wednesday, May 25, 11 a.m. CT vs. Southern Illinois

May 26-28, TBD

Next Up in Valpo Baseball: The Valparaiso University baseball team will open up the 2022 Missouri Valley Conference Tournament on Tuesday with an elimination-round game against Indiana State. The winner of the game will advance to the double-elimination portion of the event. Head coach Brian Schmack will give the ball to right-handed pitcher Colin Fields with the season on the line on Tuesday. If Valpo wins, the team's next game would be on Wednesday morning against MVC regular-season champion Southern Illinois. The winner of the tournament, which is hosted by Missouri State, will receive an automatic NCAA Regional berth.

Recently in Valpo Baseball: After dropping the series opener 9-2 on Thursday night, Valpo bounced back with an 8-4 victory on Friday in the second game of a regular-season-closing set at Evansville. The Beacons used a 16-hit attack to help lefty Jake Miller earn his sixth win of the season after allowing one run on three hits over three innings. The Beacons had four runs on six hits in the first inning alone. Another big first inning helped Valpo to a 3-0 lead in Saturday's series finale, but play was halted in the top of the second due to lightning and inclement weather and was eventually called a no contest.

Following the Beacons: Every game of the MVC Tournament will air on ESPN+ with broadcasters Scott Warmann, Shane Dennis, Art Hains and Connor Onion on the call. Hains and Onion will be on the broadcast for Tuesday's game against Indiana State. Links to live video and stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com. For in-game updates, follow @ValpoBaseball on Twitter.

Head Coach Brian Schmack: Brian Schmack (168-266), the 17th head baseball coach in Valparaiso University history, is in his ninth season in charge of the program. This year, he moves into sole possession of third in program history for number of seasons coached with nine, surpassing Donald Warnke (1946-1953). Entering the season, Schmack's win total ranks fourth in program history after he surpassed Rick Ferchen (1982-1987, 147) during the 2021 campaign. Also in 2021, Schmack joined Paul Twenge (1988-2006), Emory G. Bauer (1954-1981) and Tracy Woodson (2007-2013) as the only head coaches to reach the 150-win threshold. The former big-league pitcher led Valpo to 25 wins in his inaugural campaign in 2014, a school record for victories by a first-year skipper. Schmack, a member of the 2003 Detroit Tigers, served as pitching coach/associate head coach at Valpo for seven seasons prior to his promotion.

Series Notes: Valpo holds a 30-53-1 all-time record against Indiana State, Tuesday's first-round opponent. Now would be a good time for the team's first win over the Sycamores since joining the Missouri Valley Conference as Valpo is 0-13 against Indiana State since joining The Valley. The Beacons are attempting to end an 18-game head-to-head losing streak that dates all the way back to March 31, 2007, an 11-2 win in Terre Haute. Tuesday's game will mark the first MVC Tournament matchup between these two teams.

Valpo in The Valley Tournament: This will represent Valpo's fourth MVC Tournament appearance as the team attempts to build on its best conference tournament showing since joining the league. The Brown & Gold survived a pair of elimination games with wins over Missouri State and Illinois State to finish as one of the final four teams standing in the event, joining a pair of NCAA Regional qualifiers in Indiana State and DBU and a 40-win Southern Illinois club. Valpo made a strong entrance in its first MVC Tournament back in 2018, beating a DBU team that went on to earn an NCAA at-large berth by a score of 13-10 in the tournament opener before incurring tight setbacks to Bradley (11-9) and DBU (7-5). The only season where Valpo did not win at least one MVC Tournament contest was 2019, when the team bowed out after an opening-round setback to Missouri State.

Tucker Continues Tear: Nolan Tucker notched his third four-hit game of the season in Valpo's 8-4 victory over Evansville on May 20. He also had four-hit showings against Southern Illinois and St. Bonaventure. Tucker accounts for three of the team's five four-hit games this season. The day helped Tucker finish the week with a slash line of .625/.667/.875 as he posted five hits in eight at-bats over two games. Tucker finished with a .384 batting in MVC play this season after entering the season with a .188 career batting average over two injury-riddled seasons. Furthermore, Tucker is hitting .374 overall and is in position to finish with Valpo's best batting average since Ryan O'Gara hit .388 in 2010.

Sophomore Jump: Valpo shortstop Alex Thurston enjoyed a sophomore jump rather than a sophomore slump this season. After hitting .158 last season, Thurston finished the regular season with a .306 batting average, the second-best on the team and one of two Beacons to finish the regular year above the .300 line. Thurston missed the final game of the regular season at Evansville with an injury.

Renfro's Rise: After finishing with a .231 batting average last year both overall and in MVC play, Brady Renfro has hit for Valpo's second-highest batting average in league play this year. He ranks fifth on the team with a .252 nonconference batting average, but has done his best offensive work in league play, where he ranks second on the squad with a .319 average.

Lockwood Locked In: Over his final three appearances of the regular season, freshman RHP Connor Lockwood has hit his stride. The rookie righty allowed two runs on nine hits while striking out eight and walking five during that stretch, posting a 1.80 earned run average. That marked a significant step forward for Lockwood, who entered that stretch with an 0-5 record and 8.90 ERA.

16-Hit Effort: Valpo matched a season high with 16 hits in the final game of the regular season, an 8-4 victory at Evansville on Friday night. Six of those hits came as part of a four-run first. The 16-hit output equaled the team's season high (March 25 vs. St. Bonaventure) and represented the team's highest total in MVC play this year. The Beacons posted double-figure hit totals in three of their final five regular-season games and also did so in all three games of a road series at Southern Illinois in late April and early May.

Beacon Bits: Valpo has played 15 games this season decided by two runs or fewer and holds a 6-9 record in those contests. The Beacons are 3-4 in games decided by the slimmest of margins. Despite the number of close games, very few have flipped in the late innings. The team leading the game through six innings is 42-2 in Valpo games this year. The team leading after seven innings is a perfect 35-0 in Beacon games in 2022. Valpo is 2-21 when scoring three runs or fewer, but when scoring four runs or more, the team is 14-10.

A Look at the Leaderboards: Valpo ranks second in the Missouri Valley Conference in strikeouts per nine innings at 9.6 and leads the league in strikeout-to-walk ratio at 2.56. Bobby Nowak ranks 44th nationally and tied for first in The Valley with eight saves. Colin Fields leads the MVC and ranks 10th in the nation with 109 strikeouts. He leads the MVC and ranks third nationally with 14.08 strikeouts per nine innings. Jake Miller ranks seventh in the MVC in strikeouts with 75 and fourth in strikeouts per nine innings at 11.42. Nolan Tucker ranks seventh in the league in hitting at .374 and ninth in on-base percentage at .440. Alex Ryan is tied for second in the league with four triples.

Fields on the Single-Season Strikeout List: Colin Fields struck out nine on May 13 vs. Bradley, his 12th time in 13 starts with seven strikeouts or more this season before he had a season-low one strikeout in a one-inning start on May 19 at Evansville. Entering the MVC Tournament, Fields has 109 career strikeouts. In the game against Bradley, he became the first Valpo hurler to rack up 100 strikeouts in a single season since Bryce Shafer in 2010. In addition, he climbed into the top 5 in program history in single-season strikeouts by surpassing Richard Scheub's 103 in 1949. Fields is just the second player since 1972 to crack the program record book in single-season strikeouts. He is 18 strikeouts away from tying the program's single-season strikeout record. Furthermore, if Fields logs at least five innings in his first-round MVC Tournament start, he will reach 200 career innings pitched.

Bryce Shafer	2010	121
Tim Juran	1972	118
Jon Robisch	1962	113
Colin Fields	2022	109

Fields on the Career Strikeout List: After becoming the 12th player in program history to reach 200 career strikeouts on March 25 at St. Bonaventure, Fields unlocked another achievement on April 1 at UIC, cracking the program's career top 10. He did so in resounding fashion, fanning a career-high 13 to usurp Chuck Donley (212, 1991-1995) for 10th in program history. Furthermore, the 13 strikeouts marked the most by a Valpo pitcher in a single game since April 12, 2011, when Jon Gulbransen reached that same number in a game against Chicago State. He now has 259 career strikeouts, a number that ranks fifth in program history. During Valpo's May 7 game vs. DBU, Fields passed his former teammate Jon Tieman on the career strikeout list. He surpassed Bryce Schafer (2008-2010, 250) and Shawn Barker (1987-1990, 253), who was Valpo teammates with Fields' father Timm, in the May 13 start vs. Bradley. Fields needs 16 more strikeouts this season to surpass Dalton Lundeen for third in program history and finish with the program's highest career strikeout total since 1972.

Maka Earns National Player of the Week: Valpo freshman Ryan Maka was named a National Player of the Week by Collegiate Baseball newspaper on Monday, May 16 after a breakout series against Bradley that featured four home runs. He enjoyed the first three-homer game by a Missouri Valley Conference player in league play in the May 13 series opener against the Braves. In addition, Maka became the first Valpo player since 2018 (Blake Billinger) and just the second since 2008 to achieve that feat. That came as a part of a four-hit game to begin a three-game set that saw him record five extra-base knocks. Maka went 7-for-13 (.538) over the three games with six RBIs, six runs scored, 20 total bases and a 1.538 slugging percentage. The rookie outfielder followed his career-high four hits in the series opener with three hits in Valpo's 8-2 victory on May 14. Maka was second on D1Baseball.com's list of the top 30 hitting performances in the nation on Friday, May 13. He became just the 50th player nationally with a three-homer game this season. Maka became the first Valpo player to earn national Player of the Week honors since Colin Fields did so on March 15, 2021 following his no-hitter against Middle Tennessee State.

Miller Tabbed MVC Pitcher of the Week: Valpo starting pitcher Jake Miller earned the Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Week nod on May 16 after his strong start on May 14 vs. Bradley. The left-hander earned his team-leading fifth victory of 2022 by turning in seven shutout innings of dazzling three-hit, one-walk ball while recording nine strikeouts in an 8-2 triumph over the Braves. He racked up nine or more strikeouts in a game for the fourth time this season. Over his last two starts, the Valpo southpaw has combined for 16 strikeouts and just one walk. Miller became the second Valpo player to earn an MVC weekly award this season, joining Nolan Tucker, and the first Beacon to receive MVC Pitcher of the Week laurels this year. He joins Colin Fields (twice) and Easton Rhodehouse as the only Valpo players to earn MVC Pitcher of the Week honors since the program joined the Missouri Valley Conference.

Nowak Nailing It Down: Bobby Nowak nailed down his eighth save of the season in the 11-10 victory at Southern Illinois on May 1, moving to within one save of cracking the single-season Top 5 in the program record book. Nowak now owns Valpo's highest single-season save total since 2014, when Karch Kowalczyk had 11. In addition, Nowak now ranks tied for ninth in program history in career saves despite being in his first season at Valpo.

A Look Back at 2021

- For the first time since joining the prestigious Missouri Valley Conference prior to the 2018 season, Valpo won two games in the league tournament last year.
- The two victories helped the Beacons finish as one of the final four teams standing in the event, joining a pair of NCAA Regional qualifiers in Indiana State and DBU plus a Southern Illinois team that enjoyed a 40-win season.
- Valpo finished the 2021 season with its highest league winning percentage since joining The Valley.
- The team enjoyed a quality stretch of baseball from April 23 to May 8, going 8-4 in MVC play and incurring a one-run loss to No. 8 Notre Dame.
- Valpo started the league slate with an 0-8 record after playing the top two teams in the league on the road, but played nearly .500 ball the rest of the way.
- Compared to the most recently-completed season of 2019, the team improved its batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and fielding percentage in addition to increasing its number of home runs, doubles, hits and runs scored.
- The team stole 33 bases, its highest total since 2017.
- Pitchers racked up 410 strikeouts, the team's highest total since 2010 (421). The staff also issued fewer walks and permitted fewer home runs than the 2019 campaign.
- Valpo posted a .969 fielding percentage, the third-best in program history. The team's top three fielding percentages have all come since 2017.
- The team played in 15 one-run games including 10 in MVC action. The 15 one-run games were the team's most in a single season since 2018 and the 10 in league play marked the program's most since playing 16 one-run games in Horizon League action in 2012.
- On May 1 vs. Illinois State, Valpo had seven doubles in a single game, the most by any MVC team all season. The squad totaled 42 bases in that game, also the most by an MVC team all season. The May 1 game against the Redbirds saw the two teams combine for the most runs scored (30), hits (35), doubles (9), home runs (9) and strikeouts (25) for any MVC game all season. The 17 runs marked the team's highest run total since 2018, the 18 hits were the program's highest total since 2018, the 42 total bases were the team's highest since 2006 and the five home runs were the most by Valpo in a single game since 2006.
- Valpo accomplished the rare feat of two walk-off wins in the same day during the April 23 doubleheader sweep of SIU. Jonathan Temple hit a walk-off homer in the opener and Riley Dent had a walk-off single in Game 2 for Valpo's 10th walk-off victory of the Brian Schmack Era. Temple's walk-off home run, which came in the first game on the program's new field turf, was Valpo's first since Zack Leone on March 30, 2018 vs. Bradley.

Emory G. Bauer Field Upgrades

- Valpo debuted its new infield during the 2021 season as the program now has synthetic turf on the infield and down the foul lines.
- The field renovation project was made possible by lead gifts from Valpo alumni Lynn Scheutzwow '74 Young and Carl Young '73 and the Deetjen family. The Young and Deetjen families both had sons who played baseball at Valpo.
- Upgrades have continued in 2022 as the team will debut a new press box, a new scoreboard and have ESPN3+/ broadcast streaming capabilities for the first time.
- Thoughts from Head Coach Brian Schmack on the New Turf: "In the time that we've been able to use the turf, it has given our players an opportunity to take ground balls and work to hone their skills whenever they choose. We've had fewer disruptions to our game and practice schedules due to rain and field conditions. As soon as the rain stops, we're out there playing or practicing. Another tremendous benefit is freeing up our players to not have to stay after to do field work or arrive early in the morning to pull the tarp. Instead, they are able to focus on the game. The turf creates a cleaner game with fewer bad hops, and that's been awesome to see. Our players can't get enough of it."

Who's Back, Who's Gone, Who's New?

- Valpo features 11 returning position players and 22 total returners who saw action during the 2021 season. A total of 25 players are back counting three who sat out all of last year.
- Three of the top four ERAs on the team have departed, including longtime pitching staff mainstays Jon Tieman and Easton Rhodehouse. Rhodehouse (11, fifth) and Tieman (10, t-sixth) both finished in the top 10 on the program's all-time saves list, while Tieman also ranked among the program's career strikeout leaders (244, seventh).
- However, 38 of the 51 games started by Valpo pitchers last season were by hurlers who return this season, while six of the nine position players who started the 2021 finale are back in 2022. The outfield was hit the hardest by graduation with the departure of veterans Steven Fitzsimmons and Riley Dent.
- The 2022 Valpo roster includes seven true freshmen and three transfers for a total of 10 newcomers.
- In an era where transferring has become commonplace in intercollegiate athletics, no players left the program to transfer to other college baseball programs following the 2021 season, attesting the program's tight-knit culture.

Pitching Profiles – Projected Starters

Who's Next?

- It's never too early to glance ahead to 2023, as the program has announced five signees for next season.

- Infielder Kyle Tyler (Alsip, Ill. / Andean), third baseman Thomas Cooper (Brentwood, Tenn. / Ravenwood), RHP Adam Guazzo (Algonquin, Ill. / Huntley), RHP Kaleb Krier (Altoona, Iowa / Southeast Polk [Des Moines Area CC]) and catcher Will Radich (Lake Oswego, Ore. / IMC Academy) have signed to join the program for the 2022-2023 academic and athletic year.

- Thoughts from Head Coach Brian Schmack on the Incoming Class: "We identified five players who fill needs for our program. They all fit the profile of what we're looking for to keep the team rolling. We're excited about this class as a whole. They are pumped to compete in the MVC and continue to take us to the next level. I would like to thank our assistant coaches who have played a vital role in finding these players. I appreciate the hard work and dedication that goes into the process."

Inside the Assistants: Top assistant Kory Winter returns to head coach Brian Schmack's staff this season, while assistant coach Mitchell Boe has joined the fold.

- After spending three seasons as a volunteer assistant, Kory Winter was hired as Schmack's top assistant and hitting coach beginning with the 2019 campaign. Winter played collegiately at Wittenberg and has completed coaching stints at Muskingum University and Shippensburg University. He is also Valpo's hitting instructor.

- Mitchell Boe is in his first year on the Valpo coaching staff, serving as the team's infield and baserunning instructor in addition to coaching third base. A Naperville, Ill. native and product of Joliet Catholic High School, Boe played collegiately at the University of Iowa from 2016-2019. Boe appeared in 193 games for the Hawkeyes, tied for the ninth most in program history.
