Valparaiso Crusaders NCAA Columbus Regional Championship Thursday, May 16, 8 a.m. CT Friday, May 17, 8 a.m. CT Saturday, May 18, 8 a.m. CST The Ohio State University GC (Scarlet Course) - Columbus, Ohio

This Week in Crusader Golf: For the first time in school history, the Valparaiso men's golf team will compete in the NCAA Tournament. The Crusaders, who earned a spot in the field by winning the Horizon League Championship, begin play at the NCAA Columbus Regional on Thursday, May 16 at The Ohio State University Golf Club (Scarlet Course). Valparaiso is one of 13 teams competing in Columbus. The top five scoring teams after 54 holes plus lowest individual not on the top five teams will advance to the NCAA Championship in Atlanta May 28-June 2.

On the Web: Live stats will be available through www.valpoathletics.com for each round of play.

Head Coach David Gring: David Gring is in his second season as head coach of the Crusaders. Gring was named 2012-13 Horizon League Coach of Year as Valparaiso won three events during the season, including a four-stroke victory at the Horizon League Championship. The Crusaders placed in the top half of the field in every event but one this season. Gring played at Valparaiso from 1985-1988. He twice earned all-conference honors during his playing time for the Crusaders.

Taking the Title: Valparaiso entered the final round of the Horizon League Championship with a two shot lead over Cleveland State. After 15 holes on the final day, the two teams were tied. The Crusaders hung tough down the stretch and pulled away for a four-shot victory. Their 54-hole team score of 884 was Valparaiso's second-lowest team score this season. Before this season, the Crusaders had never finished better than seventh at the HL Championship.

Individual Victory: Junior Thomas Wettstein finished up his strong play over the final month of the season with his first collegiate victory at the Horizon League Championship. After even-par rounds of 72 in the tournament's first two days, Wettstein trailed Cleveland State's Andrew Bailey by two shots entering the final round. Wettstein fired a final-round 70 (tied for the second-lowest round of the tournament) to finish at 2-under and win by four strokes. He was the only golfer to finish the tournament under par.

All-Tournament Honors: Valparaiso had two players earn all-tournament honors for their performances at the Horizon League Championship. Wettstein earned those honors for finishing as medalist, and junior Kyle Henning was also named to the all-tournament team after tying for fifth (223). The win was Wettstein's second top-10 finish of the season, while Henning placed in the top-five of an event for the fifth time.

Showing off Depth: The Crusaders showed great depth in winning the HL Championship. Valparaiso placed four golfers in the top-14 (Wettstein, Henning, Austin Gaugert and Brad Winters), and the Crusaders also got a key contribution from Andy Webb, who shot a round of 1-over 73 in the tournament's final round.

All-League Honors: In addition to David Gring being named Horizon League Coach of the Year in just his second season at the helm of Valparaiso, two other Crusaders took home all-league honors for the season. Senior Austin Gaugert and junior Kyle Henning were both selected to the all-Horizon League team for their performances over the course of the season. Both players made the all-HL team for the first time in their Valpo careers.

Finishing on a High Note: For seniors Austin Gaugert, Josh Kalita, Andy Webb and fifth-year senior Brad Winters, the victory at the Horizon League Championship and trip to the NCAA Tournament marks the high point of careers that began with the restarting of the program at Valparaiso. The seniors were freshmen when the team was revived for the 2009-2010 season.

A Quick Rise to the Top: In 2009, the Valparaiso men's golf team opened its first season in 17 years. The program was brought back after being stopped in 1992, and in four years, Valparaiso went from brand new program to Horizon League champions and NCAA Tournament participants. The Crusaders won three tournaments in 2012-2013, the first such victories for the program since it was resumed.

Leading the Way: Senior Austin Gaugert, who earned all-Horizon League honors, had paced the Crusaders with 74.7 scoring average, which is the lowest scoring average for a season since the program resumed in 2009. Gaugert started strong by finishing second at the season-opening Battle in the Tetons with a 3-under score of 213. He followed that up with a second-place finish at the Purdue Midwest Shootout (1-over 145). Gaugert also placed third at the Bradley Invitational (222), and he was fourth at both the John Piper Intercollegiate and CSU Cougar Classic. Gaugert is one of two Crusaders to play every round this season.

A Strong Junior Campaign: Junior Kyle Henning tied the second-best single season mark in program history with a 75.2 scoring average in 2012-2013. He took medalist honors at the John Dallio Memorial (5-over 221). Henning placed third at the Beu Mussatto Invitational, and he tied for fourth at the CSU Cougar Classic. He also tied for fifth at the Horizon League Championship.

A Pair of Victories: In addition to taking the team title at the Horizon League Championship, Valparaiso claimed two other tournament titles during the season. The Crusaders won the Purdue Midwest Shootout with a 36-hole score of 598. It was the first multi-team event win for the Crusaders since the resumption of the golf program. Valparaiso also won the Bradley Invitational, leading that event from wire-to-wire and posting a 54-hole team score of 894.
