Valparaiso Coaching Staff

Head Coach Jordan Stevens

Coach Jordan Stevens enters his second season as head coach at Valparaiso University. In his first year, he guided the Crusaders to single-season records for most league wins, RBIs and home runs. The team was also second for overall wins all-time. This was after having a successful year as the head coach at Union College, guiding the team to the first Liberty League title since 2005. Coach Stevens and his staff at Union College were named the league's Coaching Staff of the Year. He also had successful stints as an assistant at Rhode Island and Niagara.

Assistant Coach Leslie Malerich

First year Assistant Coach Leslie Malerich works primarily with the pitchers and catchers. She joins the VU Crusaders after coaching at Quinnipiac University. She is a former Italian Olympian and was part of the Florida State pitching staff that led the nation in ERA for the 2001 season.

Assistant Coach KC Boldt

Coach KC Boldt returns to the Crusaders as the Graduate Assistant after a successful 4 year career wearing the Brown and Gold. Coach Boldt's career is highlighted after a senior season that included being a Second Team Horizon League honoree. She led the conference in runs scored. Her single season record in home runs and RBIs placed second in the league.
