Bowling Green, 2004

In his third season at the helm of the Valparaiso softball program, Jordan Stevens has led the Crusaders back to the NCAA Tournament for a second consecutive season.

Entering 2013 having to replace all but 1.2 innings in the circle from the 2012 team, as well as three of the most prolific hitters in Crusader program history, Stevens has reloaded with this year's Valpo team. Valpo won 29 games in the regular season, including a third-place finish within Horizon League play. Then, for the second consecutive year, the Crusaders went on a sterling run through the Horizon League Championship, winning five straight elimination games after losing their opener to claim the tournament crown.

Stevens coached five All-League honorees in 2013, as the Crusaders placed one player on the First Team, four players on the Second Team and a pair of freshmen on the All-Newcomer Team. This year's squad led the Horizon League in four offensive and two pitching categories, while also boasting players who have broken a pair of program single-season records.

Stevens guided the Crusaders to 42 victories in his second season in charge in 2012, surpassing by seven wins the program's previous single-season wins record. Along the way, he led Valpo to an 11-game winning streak as part of a 16-1 stretch, as well as a 13-0 start to Horizon League play, the second-best start to a season in league history. The Crusaders finished 19-5 in Horizon League play, claiming the first league regular season championship in program history by 3.5 games.

Stevens then led the Crusaders in a dramatic run to the Horizon League Championship. After falling in the first game of the tournament, Valpo won five consecutive knockout games, the last three of which came in walk-off fashion, to claim the Horizon League Championship and the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA Tournament, Stevens led Valpo to within one out of a massive upset at #9/7 Louisville in the tournament opener before a walk-off homer, while the Crusaders also had the tying run on base in the seventh inning of their elimination game against Kentucky.

The 2012 Crusaders re-wrote the program's record books, setting 14 new team single-season records and 14 new individual records. The squad had five players earn postseason honors from the Horizon League, including the league's Newcomer of the Year and four First Team All-League honorees. Three players also earned NFCA All-Region honors as well.

Stevens guided Valpo to 34 victories in his debut campaign, just one win shy of the program's then single-season record. Along the way, the Crusaders enjoyed a 13-game winning streak, setting a new program record in that regard. Valpo finished Horizon League play with a 15-7 record, finishing just one-half game out of the regular season championship, and was within one run of advancing to the league tournament championship.

The impetus for the Crusaders' success in 2011 was in large part due to their record-setting offensive output. Valpo paced the league in nine separate offensive categories, setting then team single-season records for runs batted in (245) and home runs (49). Individually, Stevens coached seven league leaders, while two Crusaders broke Valpo's single-season RBIs record and three topped the previous single-season home runs mark. Seven players in all earned All-League recognition, as well as one All-Region honoree.

The Crusaders' success under Stevens hasn't been limited to just on-field action, however. Valpo has also excelled in the classroom, earning the NFCA Team Academic Award and ranking among the top-35 teams in the nation in GPA in each of Stevens' first two seasons. Eight Crusaders have been named NFCA All-America Scholar Athletes each year as well.

Stevens came to Valpo after spending the 2010 season as head coach at Division III Union (N.Y.) College, leading the Dutchwomen to the most successful season in program history. He guided Union to a school-record tying 32 victories last year en route to its first Liberty League regular season title since 2005. The Dutchwomen went on to win their first-ever Liberty League Tournament championship, qualified for the ECAC Division III Upstate Championship as the top overall seed and won that title as well.

Under Stevens' guidance, Union rose as high as #5 in the NFCA regional rankings in 2010. He coached the Liberty League Co-Pitcher of the Year, as well as six total All-League recipients. Stevens and his staff were also named the league's Coaching Staff of the Year as they guided the Dutchwomen to the top spot in the league in both team batting average (.333) and team ERA (2.15).

Prior to arriving at Union, Stevens spent a year as assistant coach at the University of Rhode Island, and before that, two seasons as an assistant coach at Niagara University. From 2004 to 2006, Stevens was the head varsity softball coach at Notre Dame Academy in Toledo, Ohio.

Stevens graduated from Bowling Green State University in 2004 with his bachelor's degree as a sports management major. He is currently a member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Lauren Ebstein

Assistant Coach

First Season

Tufts, 2007

Lauren Ebstein is in her first season as an assistant coach with the Valparaiso softball program in 2013, working directly with the Crusader pitchers and catchers. Ebstein came to Valpo after spending two seasons as an assistant at Colgate.

Leading a pitching staff which had amassed just 29 innings of experience at the Division I level prior to the 2013 campaign, Ebstein has helped guide the quartet of pitchers to the Horizon League Championship. Under her tutelage, the Crusader pitching staff has already set a new single-season record with 322 strikeouts from the circle, led by the efforts of Second Team All-League and All-Newcomer Team honoree Taylor Weissenhofer, who set a new Valpo single-season mark and leads the Horizon League with 220 strikeouts.

In her two seasons at Colgate, Ebstein helped guide the Raiders to a 28-11 mark in Patriot League play, including the league regular season title in 2011. She coached the PL Pitcher of the Year in 2011 and three All-League selections at pitchers over her two seasons, as well as 10 total All-League choices. Raider pitchers earned league Pitcher of the Week accolades seven times as well.

Prior to arriving at Colgate, Ebstein served as an assistant coach for two seasons at Tufts, helping guide the squad to a fourth-place finish at the Division III College World Series in 2009. Part of the NFCA Division III New England Region Coaching Staff of the Year in 2009, Ebstein helped coach a pair of conference championship squads and 14 All-Conference honorees over her two seasons, including the NESCAC Pitcher of the Year. A pair of players also earned NFCA All-American honors during her tenure as well.

Ebstein was a four-year letterwinner for the Tufts softball team, during which time the team won a NESCAC championship in 2007 and appeared in three NCAA Regionals. She also was selected as a team captain for her senior year. Ebstein graduated from Tufts in May of 2007 with a bachelor's degree in English and psychology, and received her master's degree in journalism from Boston University in January of 2009.

KC Boldt

Assistant Coach

Second Season

Valparaiso, 2011

KC Boldt is in her second season as an assistant coach for the Valparaiso softball program in 2013.

Over her first two seasons as a member of the Crusader coaching staff, Boldt has helped guide Valpo to 76 victories on the diamond. The Crusaders have captured one Horizon League regular season title, as well as the Horizon League Championship in both of Boldt's seasons as a coach.

Prior to joining the Crusader coaching staff, Boldt was a four-year letterwinner for Valpo. She set a then-new Valpo single-season record as a senior in 2011 with 11 home runs and closed her career sixth on the Crusaders' career home runs chart.

Boldt also matched the Crusader then-single season RBIs record (42) and also moved into Valpo's single-season top-fives in slugging percentage (.597, 2nd), total bases (95, 3rd) and runs scored (38, 4th) as well. A Second Team All-Horizon League honoree, Boldt also ranked among the league's top-five as well in all five aforementioned categories, including tying for the league crown in runs scored.

Throughout her time as a player and coach with the Crusaders, Boldt assisted with Valpo's various camps and clinics that it hosted. She has also assisted with clinics in her home region of the Twin Cities.

A member of the Horizon League's Academic Honor Roll during her playing career, Boldt graduated from Valparaiso in the spring of 2011 with a bachelor's degree in business management. She is currently working towards her master's degree in sports administration.
