Looking Back at 2010: Valparaiso enjoyed another successful season in 2010, finishing the year 27-8 overall and 10-6 in Horizon League play. The Crusaders' 27 victories matched the second-most in a single season in program history. Valpo advanced to the Horizon League championship match as well, its second appearance in the league title match in its four seasons as a Horizon League member and their sixth title match appearance overall in the last eight years.

Nine Straight 20-Win Seasons: The Crusaders' 27 victories last year helped the program continue a tremendous streak of success. Valparaiso has won 20 or more matches every year since 2002, Avery's first at the helm of the Crusader program. Valpo is one of just 12 programs nationwide to have won at least 20 matches in each of the last nine years.

Crusaders Picked Third in Preseason Poll: The head coaches selected Valparaiso to finish in a tie for third place in the Horizon League this season according to the preseason poll. The Crusaders, who received one first-place vote, were deadlocked with Butler, both just one point behind Cleveland State. Milwaukee was tabbed as the league's preseason favorite.

Repeat Title?: Valparaiso hopes this weekend for a repeat of the last time the Crusaders made the trip over to Notre Dame. The opening weekend of the 2008 season saw Valpo participate in the Irish's Shamrock Invitational, where it defeated Nevada and IPFW to set up a championship match on Sunday against Notre Dame. The Crusaders took the title showdown, the second win for Valpo under Avery against the Irish.

Defeating the Big East: Valpo will also be looking for its second victory of the season against a Big East squad as well when it takes on Notre Dame, as the Crusaders earned a big five-set road win against West Virginia in the opening weekend. The win over the Mountaineers means that Valpo has now defeated nine current Big East teams in program history, including all five squads the Crusaders have faced at least three times.

Spreading Out the Wealth: It has been a total team effort to help Valpo start off with a 6-2 record this season, something seen just by taking a look at the match-by-match highs. Five different Crusaders have already led the way in kills, with just Katie Britton (3x) and Mary Dent (2x) pacing Valpo on multiple occasions. Six different athletes have already paced the Crusaders in blocks as well. Even in the digs column, there's already been two matches where Taylor Root has not had to lead the Crusaders.

All-Tournament Accolades: Senior Amy Groesbeck and junior Taylor Root represented Valparaiso on the All-Tournament Team at the Marriott Volley Brawl. Groesbeck picked up her second career All-Tournament honor, while Root has now earned All-Tournament accolades back-to-back weekends. Root was joined by senior Jenny Pokorny on the All-Tournament Team at the WVU Mountaineer Invitational in the season's first week.

Player of the Week: Root also earned Horizon League Defensive Player of the Week honors the first week of the season. The weekly award was Root's sixth of her career, tying her for second-most in league history with still nearly two full seasons to play.

Digging Deep: Root was her normal consistent self on the back line at the Marriott Volley Brawl, pacing the tournament field with 5.50 digs/set, highlighted by a 26-dig effort in the win over Evansville. The junior, who also leads the Horizon League in digs, also made an impact from the service line, tying for tournament-high honors with five aces as well.

Swinging Away: When Groesbeck took a swing for an attack last weekend, odds were good it was hitting the ground for the kill. The senior picked up 28 kills on just 59 swings while committing just three attack errors, good for a tournament-best .424 hitting percentage. Groesbeck also contributed on the block, picking up 10 blocks in her 10 sets of action.

Beil on the Block: Freshman Morgan Beil paced the tournament field last weekend at the net, registering 15 blocks over the Crusaders' four matches. The highlight was a nine-block effort against Texas A&M-CC, a match in which she also registered nine kills and six digs. Through her first two weekends of action, Beil is averaging 1.04 blocks/set, second among Horizon League athletes.

Dooms Does It All: Sophomore Sarah Dooms set or matched a number of her career highs in Valpo's two matches on Saturday. Dooms set a new best with six assists in the win over Evansville, and tied career bests with 21 digs and three blocks in the victory against Texas A&M-CC. Along the way, she also registered a pair of double-doubles, tallying 11 kills to go with the 21 digs in the opener before recording 12 kills and 14 digs in the nightcap.

More Career Highs: Dooms wasn't the only one setting career highs on Saturday. Sophomore Ellen Vanden Berg picked up a career-best 12 kills (on .550 hitting) in the win over the Islanders prior to 11 kills on .435 hitting that night against Evansville. Meanwhile, junior Mary Dent also tied her career best for kills in the Crusaders' tournament finale, leading Valpo with 15 kills.

Record Book Watch: A couple of Crusaders are looking to move up Valpo's career charts in the 2011 season. Root now has 1,486 digs following last weekend, moving into fifth all-time in Valpo history. The junior sits just 51 digs shy of the third spot and just 401 out of second. Meanwhile, Pokorny now owns 1,996 career assists, eighth all-time. The senior needs 1,049 assists this season to crack the Crusaders' top-five in the category.
