EIGHT WEEKLY FRONTIER LEAGUE AWARDS?

The Wild Things have garnered eight weekly honors as selected by the Frontier League... with three pitchers being named Pitcher of the Week: Andrew Herbert, Hector Garcia and Kobe Foster (awarded twice, back-to-back) and four position players being named Frontier League Player of the Week: Jeff Liquori, Cole Fowler, Anthony Brocato and Andrew Czech (most recent) have been chosen for that honor. A chart showing their weeks when they won is available later in the game information.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES ARE EVERYWHERE?

Washington was 33-18 at home at EQT Park and played in front of nine sellouts during the regular season in 51 games. The club played 20 in the month of June at home and only five on the road. On the road through all 50 games, Washington is 33-17, a record that jumped significantly with a 11-game road win streak that was snapped in Game 2 of the doubleheader, Thursday, July 30. Windy City, Quebec and Washington were the three teams to finish six games or better than .500 on the road this season.

NEXT LEVEL THINGS AND BIG LEAGUE THINGS:

Washington transferred two contracts (Alex Ungar, Trey Cooper) and sold one (Cole Fowler to Mets) in the offseason. Fowler was released and Ungar has since been released by White Sox. Trey Cooper is still active. Washington has sold five officially during the regular season with Graham Brown (MIN), LHP Tyler Davis (BOS), RHP Andrew Herbert (BAL), RHP Zach Kirby (LAA), who has since been released and returned) and RHP Maddox Long (DET) going to affiliated organizations. RHP Hector Garcia has his tagged for purchased but it did not finalize with the Blue Jays. On Friday, August 14, the San Francisco Giants called OF Turner Hill up to the big leagues by selecting his contract from Triple-A Sacramento, making Hill the 10th former Wild Thing to reach the big leagues. He added his first MLB RBI Saturday, August 15 and his first MLB hit Sunday, August 16. The Marietta College product was with Washington in 2023 during Spring Training and had his contract purchased by the Giants before the season started. Hill is the first former Wild Things' position player to reach MLB.

BASH BROTHERS TRACKER (LEAGUE HISTORY LEADERBOARD UPDATED WITH EACH HOMER)

Andrew Czech and Anthony Brocato are the bash bros. They're on the same team again this year after playing together in 2023 and becoming the first duo of Wild Things since 2009 to both hit 20+ homers in a season. Brocato hit 28, the 2nd most in team history in a season while Czech added 21, a total he topped last year for a new career-high with 25, the third most in a single-season in team history. 1. Charlie Lisk (WC 2006, GAT 2007-11, River City 2012) - 127 2. Anthony Brocato (Southern Illinois 2019, 2021, Florence 2022, 2025, Washington 2022-23, Present) - 125 3. Andrew Czech (WSH 2021-Present) - 114 4. Stephen Holdren (WC 2006, GAT 2007-09, S. Illinois 2009, River City 2010-11) - 100 5. Morgan Burkhart (Richmond 1995-98, MVP Namesake) - 86

TOM VAETH

#7, MANAGER

BORN: July 13, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland

RESIDES: Canonsburg, Pennsylvania

WITH WASHINGTON: 6th Season

MANAGERIAL EXPERIENCE: 6th Season

PRO COACHING EXPERIENCE: 25th Season

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: 2 seasons, JuCo (injury ended career)

> Tom Vaeth enters his sixth season as the field manager of the Washington Wild Things in 2026. It's Vaeth's first managerial job in pro baseball, but he has managed in the California Winter League and on an interim basis during his tenure with the American Association's Winnipeg Goldeyes. He was named the 10th manager in Wild Things' history January 6, 2021.

> Vaeth had his contract extended prior to the 2025 season, announced by the club on Thursday, April 17, 2025. The extension tacked on two years to his deal, tying him to the organization through the 2027 season. It was the first true extension for Vaeth, who managed his first season on a one-year contract before signing a deal that ran through this 2025 season before the extension.

> Previous managers are Jeff Isom (2002-03), John Massarelli (2004-07), Greg Jelks (2008), Mark Mason (2009), Darin Everson (2010-11), Chris Bando (2012), Bart Zeller (2013-14), Bob Bozzuto (2014-15) and Gregg Langbehn (2016-20).

> Vaeth, when he was honored as the Roger Hanners Award winner in 2022 for Frontier League Manager of the Year, became the third skipper of the club to receive the honor, joining Isom (2002) and Massarelli (2004, 2006) in that department.

> The Baltimore, Maryland, native spent 17 seasons as an assistant with the Goldeyes. He worked in player procurement and as base coach, hitting coach and bullpen coach. During his tenure with the club, Winnipeg made the playoffs 10 times and won three championships. He spent most of his time there as the hitting coach with his teams finishing top five in their leagues more than 10 times.

> Before getting the Wild Things' job, he narrowly missed out on the same job with the Cleburne Railroaders (American Association) prior to the 2019 season. A back-end, last-minute deal took that job from him and he was also considered for the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs (Atlantic League) job prior to that 2019 campaign.

> A catcher as a player, Vaeth played two seasons of JuCo ball before an injury derailed his playing career. He'd go on to spend four years in scouting between the Marlins and Padres. Vaeth worked for Orioles for five seasons, partly as an ambidextrous batting practice pitcher. He's also gained coaching experience at the JuCo and DI levels as well (Towson included).

> He replaced Gregg Langbehn, who was with the team from 2016-2020; Langbehn retired from pro ball and left as Washington's second most tenured manager, seventh in Frontier League managerial wins (he's been passed for that position since). Gregg guided Washington to two playoff appearances, an FLCS appearance and the 2018 East Division title (team's first division crown since 2007). He directed an MVP, Pitcher of the Year, Citizenship Award Winner, 21 All Stars and saw eight players' contract get purchased.

2021: Washington was 56-40 and won the Northeast Division, def. Équipe Québec 3-2 in the FLDS, lost to Schaumburg 3-2 in the FLCS, oversaw Pitcher and Rookie of the Year (Ryan Hennen), Citizenship Award winner (Nick Ward) and Coach of the Year (Alex Boskers)

2022: Washington was 62-34 and won the West Division, lost to Schaumburg 2-0 in the FLDS, oversaw Rookie of the Year (Kobe Foster) and Postseason All Star SS (Nick Ward), won Roger Hanners Award (Manager of the Year)

2023: Washington went 47-49 and missed the playoffs, oversaw postseason All Star outfielder (Anthony Brocato)

2024: Washington set a franchise record for single-season wins going 67-28 and won the West Division, def. Lake Erie 2-0 in the FLDS, lost to Québec 3-1 in the FLCS, oversaw Most Valuable Player (Caleb McNeely), Postseason All Star OF (Caleb McNeely), Postseason All Star DH (Tyrique Reed), Postseason All Star RP (Gyeongju Kim) and Coach of the Year (Alex Boskers)

2025: Washington finished 54-42 and won the Central Division, lost to Gateway 2-0 in the FLWC series
